Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service
The Season of Stewardship

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from Roman Catholic tradition. The beginning of the season is determined by the date of Easter, and its conclusion by the date of the first Sunday of Advent.

At Trinity Parish, we have traditionally observed a “season within a season” near the end of Ordinary Time to focus together, prayerfully and intentionally, on Stewardship—one of our core values and a deeply orthodox Christian discipline.

Humanity’s call to be good stewards of the resources entrusted to us by God has direct bearing on nearly every aspect of our modern lives: our relationships; our finances; our schedules; our ways of walking responsibly through God’s good earth; the causes we take up and the partnerships we forge.

In 2019, Trinity’s congregation undertook an initiative to apply their financial contributions—their tithes and offerings—directly to the needs of their New York City neighbors and those who serve them. In the coming weeks, you will hear more about this initiative during services and in activities accessible through our website.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People  Glory to God for ever and ever.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Edward Perronet (1726-1792), alt.; Music: Coronation, Oliver Holden (1765-1844), alt.
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Song of Praise

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, ‘This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Lord, you have | been our | refuge *

from one gene-ra-tion | to a-|nother.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the | earth were | born, *

from age to | âge | you are | God.

You turn us back to the | dust and | say, *

“Go | back, O | child of | earth.”

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday | when it is | past * and | like a | watch in the | night.

You sweep us away | like a | dream; *

we fade away | sudden-ly | like the | grass.

In the morning it is | green and | flourishes; *

in the evening it is | dried | up and | withered.

Return, O Lord; how | long will you | tarry? *

be | gracious | to your | servants.

Satisfy us by your lovin-|kindness in the | morning; *

so shall we rejoice and be | glad all the | days of our | life.

Make us glad by the measure of the days that | you af-flicted us * and the years in | which we | suffered ad-versity.

Show your | servants your | works *

Reader

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 680

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.; para. of Psalm 90:1-5
The Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:34-46

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet”? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

The Nicene Creed

Hymnal S 105

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God.
The Nicene Creed continues on the next page.
The Prayers of the People

Reader In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

People For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Reader For this community, the nation, and the world;

People For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Reader For the just and proper use of your creation;

People For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Reader For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

Reader For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

People For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

Reader For Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our diocesan Bishops; and for all bishops and other ministers;

People For all who serve God in his Church.

Reader For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

We pray especially that the Spirit might grant us wisdom and perseverance as we seek together to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Hear us, Lord;

People For your mercy is great.
Reader  We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

The People may add their own thanksgivings.

We will exalt you, O God our King;

People

And praise your Name for ever and ever.

Reader  We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

People

Who put their trust in you.

Celebrant  Almighty God, whose loving hand has given us all that we possess: Grant us grace that we may honor you with our substance, and, remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Celebrant  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All  Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Offertory

Shine on Me

Shine on me, shine on me,
I wonder if the lighthouse will shine on me.
Is a light shining above?
Is it shining above in the heavens for me?
Shine on me, shine on me,
I wonder if the lighthouse will shine on me.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
Censing of the Altar

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.
Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.
—Psalm 141:2

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

_The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread._
Fraction Anthem

All sing the antiphon. The Cantor alone sings the verse.

Antiphon (All)

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

Verse (Cantor)

The bread which we break, alleluia,

is the communion of the body of Christ. [Ant.]

Music: Mode 6 melody; adapt. Mason Martens (1933-1991)

Invitation

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145, adapted

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this

Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus,

with your faithful people

at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,

I offer my praise and thanksgiving.

Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,

I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you.

May I live in you, and you in me,

in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.
Communion Anthem

Ave Maria

Ave Maria, gratia plena,
Dominus tecum;
benedicta tu in mulieribus,
et benedictus fructus ventris tui.
Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee;
blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.
Amen.

—Marian prayer

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May God, who spoke the world into being, give you grace to be wise stewards of creation;
may the Son, who redeemed the world, inspire you to go out as laborers into the harvest;
and may the Holy Spirit, whose breath fills the whole of creation, help you to bear fruits of love, joy, and peace. And the blessing of God—creating, redeeming, and sustaining—be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Dismissal

Deacon       Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People       Thanks be to God.

Postlude
In today’s world—with today’s concerns and injustices—what does it mean for a faith community to hold fast to a practice, belief, and value of social justice? During this online retreat we will look at contemporary poems and stories, biblical texts, and examples of individuals who are trying—inspired by their faith, their pain, and their hope—to ensure systemic change and meaningful improvement in the lives of those affected by social injustice. Register by October 25 at trinitywallstreet.org/justiceretreat.

Discovery
Sunday, November 1, 10am, Online
Join Discovery online for two presentations from Trinity’s Pastoral Care department on “Self-Care for Voters.” Self-care is foundational to emotional and spiritual health and, even more so, in rough political times. Discuss how self-care can be an expression of faith and form of activism, pre- and post-election; reflect on how your self-care strategies align with your core values. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.
COMING SOON

When A Loved One Struggles
Mondays beginning November 2, 6:30pm, Online
Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Come be in shared company for a six-week support group to help dispel the isolation. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/supportgroup.

Election Day Community Gathering
Tuesday, November 3, 12pm and 7pm, Online
A free virtual convening space for people to connect on election day, these sessions will be facilitated by the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute's Julia Kristeller. Each session will provide an opportunity for participants to step out of the election fray and find some calm in the chaos by taking time to talk about their feelings and take care of themselves. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat
First Wednesdays beginning Nov. 4, 4:30pm, Online
One of the great opportunities of our time is to recognize the sacredness of everyone and everything—and to celebrate our interconnectedness! Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat is a 45-minute online opportunity for families with children in preschool to fifth grade to build a set of world rhythms and diverse spiritual practices to do right at home. Each session has three parts: a drumming lesson from an expert teacher, a spiritual practice to try together, and an introduction to family traditions from around the world. Register for this online gathering at trinitywallstreet.org/talkingdrum.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home
Sunday, November 8, 3pm, Online
We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to your home. Classical music scholar and musician David Belkovski performs J. S. Bach’s Toccata and W. F. Bach’s Polonaise in this live music recital. Widely recognized for his artistry on both historical and modern keyboards, David has performed concertos with Juilliard415, the American Classical Orchestra, and the Eastman School Symphony Orchestra, among others. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Trinity Youth: Dismantling Racism
Sundays, November 8–22, 1–3:30pm, Online
Trinity Youth have committed to showing up for one another and doing the work of antiracism. All Trinity Youth are invited to join us for Dismantling Racism: A Youth Curriculum. This three-week series will help middle and high schoolers converse about race, become allies, and build relationships to address systemic racism in our communities. The goal is to help youth connect their faith with the work of racial healing. Youth are expected to commit to attending each session. Dismantling Racism was developed out of the Diocese of Atlanta in consultation with Dr. Catherine Meeks. For more information, please email the Rev. Matt Welsch at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/dismantlingracism.

Let’s Talk: How Do We Move Forward…?
Tuesday, November 10, 7pm, Online
Co-facilitated by Julia Kristeller and Wayne Cato, this virtual support group serves as a place for people to connect and reflect on how to move forward with hope and purpose, regardless of who is elected president. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. For this final session, Trinity's Program Manager for Action and Advocacy, Lucas Pershing, will join us to talk about the upcoming 2021 elections in New York City and broader civic engagement. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Trinity Movement Choir: Creation
Sunday, November 15, 2pm, Online
Trinity Movement Choir offers reverence for and resolve to take care of physical creation in an online dance performance of Elements of Creation, followed by a live Q&A with the performers. Trinity Movement Choir’s structured improvisation, inspired by the dreamlike intensity of Japanese butoh dance and the work of dance artist Rudolf Laban, transforms performers and audiences alike. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Lively Arts. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/movementchoir.

Trinity's new Compassion Market is now open at St. Paul’s Chapel on Wednesdays from 12–3pm. Guests can get 15 healthy, pre-packaged, and shelf-stable meals and personal hygiene kits by making
Volunteer: Reclaim Our Vote
Volunteer to phonebank to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. To volunteer, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Volunteer: Voter Hotline
Volunteer for the NYC League of Women Voters Hotline and help New Yorkers with questions about registering to vote, finding a polling site, and absentee ballots. Volunteers work remotely with calls forwarded through the League’s phone. For more information and to sign up for the training, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Fitness & Healthy Cooking Classes
Through December 18, Online
Join Trinity and Gym Kelly Fitness for free online health and wellness classes this fall! These sessions are a chance to meet new people and offer ways to have healthy fun with friends and family in an accessible, inclusive format. Pick from aerobics, healthy cooking, and bilingual yoga classes offered multiple times a week. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/wellbeing for the full schedule, class descriptions, and how to register. For questions, email Terrell L. Moody at TMoody@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation or artwork for 2021, please contact Luke Petrinovic at lukehpetrinovic@gmail.com or LentenMeditations@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister is still in the darkness. Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light, and there is nothing in them to make them stumble” (1 John 2:9–10 NIV). This is my favorite verse because I have a love for people and being a kind person. If people were seeking to be kinder to everyone, the world would be an awesome place. Also one of the reasons I love church is you are learning how to be a better person so you can go out in the world and make it better. —Ayahna Nubian

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

FLOWERS
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. The cover prayer comes from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP). Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), St. Augustine’s Prayer Book (SAPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
