Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

If you would like to learn more about The Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service
The Season of Stewardship

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from Roman Catholic tradition. The beginning of the season is determined by the date of Easter, and its conclusion by the date of the first Sunday of Advent.

At Trinity Parish, we have traditionally observed a “season within a season” near the end of Ordinary Time to focus together, prayerfully and intentionally, on Stewardship—one of our core values and a deeply orthodox Christian discipline.

Humanity’s call to be good stewards of the resources entrusted to us by God has direct bearing on nearly every aspect of our modern lives: our relationships; our finances; our schedules; our ways of walking responsibly through God’s good earth; the causes we take up and the partnerships we forge.

In 2019, Trinity’s congregation undertook an initiative to apply their financial contributions—their tithes and offerings—directly to the needs of their New York City neighbors and those who serve them. In the coming weeks, you will hear more about this initiative during services and in activities accessible through our website.

Observances

Alfred the Great

King of the West Saxons, 899

O Sovereign Lord, you brought your servant Alfred to a troubled throne that he might establish peace in a ravaged land and revive learning and the arts among the people: Awake in us also a keen desire to increase our understanding while we are in this world, and an eager longing to reach that endless life where all will be made clear; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Entrance Rite

Choral Prelude

_Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles._

Acclamation

_EOW p. 50_

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

_Celebrant_  Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

_People_  Glory to God for ever and ever.

Collect for Purity

_BCP p. 355_

_Celebrant_  Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

_All_  Amen.

The Canticle

_Canticle J_  _EOW p. 35_

_Celebrant_  Let us say together A Song of Judith.

_All_

I will sing a new song to my God, *

for you are great and glorious, wonderful in strength, invincible.

Let the whole creation serve you, *

for you spoke and all things came into being.

You sent your breath and it formed them, *

no one is able to resist your voice.

Mountains and seas are stirred to their depths, *

rocks melt like wax at your presence.

But to those who fear you, *

you continue to show mercy.

No sacrifice, however fragrant, can please you, *

but whoever fears the Lord shall stand in your sight for ever.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for Collect texts.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Please be seated.
The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for scripture citations.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People  Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.
Sung by all. See pp. 3–4 for hymn citations.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to …
People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See pp. 3–4 for scripture citations.

Celebrant  The Gospel of the Lord.
People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.
The Nicene Creed

Read on certain days. If read, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

People For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Reader For this community, the nation, and the world;

People For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Reader For the just and proper use of your creation;

People For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Reader For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

Reader For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

People For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

Reader For Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our diocesan Bishops; and for all bishops and other ministers;

People For all who serve God in his Church.

Reader For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

We pray especially that the Spirit might grant us wisdom and perseverance as we seek together to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship.

Hear us, Lord;

People For your mercy is great.

Reader We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

Silence

The People may add their own thanksgivings.

We will exalt you, O God our King;

People And praise your Name for ever and ever.

Reader We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

People Who put their trust in you.
Celebrant Almighty God, whose loving hand has given us all that we possess: Grant us grace that we may honor you with our substance, and, remembering the account which we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your bounty, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The altar will be set for the Eucharist.
The Great Thanksgiving

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People     And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People     We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People     It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People     Glory to you for ever and ever.
Celebrant  At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People     By your will they were created and have their being.
Celebrant  From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People     Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Celebrant  Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
People     By his blood, he reconciled us.
           By his wounds, we are healed.
Celebrant  And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.
Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Now send us forth
a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

May God, who spoke the world into being, give you grace to be wise stewards of creation;
may the Son, who redeemed the world, inspire you to go out as laborers into the harvest;
and may the Holy Spirit, whose breath fills the whole of creation, help you to bear fruits of love, joy, and peace. And the blessing of God—creating, redeeming, and sustaining—be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Hymn in Procession

Sung by all. See pp. 3–4 for hymn citations.

Dismissal

Celebrant

Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People

Thanks be to God.

Choral Postlude

Sung by the choir. See pp. 3–4 for anthem titles.
In today’s world—with today’s concerns and injustices—what does it mean for a faith community to hold fast to a practice, belief, and value of social justice? During this online retreat we will look at contemporary poems and stories, biblical texts, and examples of individuals who are trying—inspired by their faith, their pain, and their hope—to ensure systemic change and meaningful improvement in the lives of those affected by social injustice.

Social (In)Justice with Pádraig Ó Tuama
10am–3pm, Online, Register by October 25
In today’s world—with today’s concerns and injustices—what does it mean for a faith community to hold fast to a practice, belief, and value of social justice, one of Trinity Church Wall Street’s core values? During this retreat we will look at contemporary poems and stories, biblical texts, and examples of individuals who are trying—inspired by their faith, their pain, and their hope—to ensure systemic change and meaningful improvement in the lives of those affected by social injustice. Led by poet and theologian Pádraig Ó Tuama. Register by October 25 at trinitywallstreet.org/justiceretreat.

Next Sunday
Discovery
Sunday, November 1, 10am, Online
Join Discovery online for two presentations from Trinity’s Pastoral Care department on “Self-Care for Voters.” Self-care is foundational to emotional and spiritual health and, even more so, in rough political times. Discuss how self-care can be an expression of faith and form of activism, pre- and post-election; reflect on how your self-care strategies align with your core values. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Comming Soon
When A Loved One Struggles
Mondays beginning November 2, 6:30pm, Online
Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Come be in shared company for a six-week support group to help dispel the isolation. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/supportgroup.

November Day Community Gathering
Tuesday, November 3, 12pm and 7pm, Online
A free virtual convening space for people to connect on election day, these sessions will be facilitated by the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute’s Julia Kristeller. Each session will provide an opportunity for participants to step out of the election fray and find some calm in the chaos by taking time to talk about their feelings and take care of themselves. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.
Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat
First Wednesdays beginning Nov. 4, 4:30pm, Online
One of the great opportunities of our time is to recognize the sacredness of everyone and everything—and to celebrate our interconnectedness! Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat is a 45-minute online opportunity for families with children in preschool to fifth grade to build a set of world rhythms and diverse spiritual practices to do right at home. Each session has three parts: a drumming lesson from an expert teacher, a spiritual practice to try together, and an introduction to family traditions from around the world. Register for this online gathering at trinitywallstreet.org/talkingdrum.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home
Sunday, November 8, 3pm, Online
We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to your home. Classical music scholar and musician David Belkovski performs J. S. Bach’s Toccata and W. F. Bach’s Polonaise in this live music recital. Widely recognized for his artistry on both historical and modern keyboards, David has performed concertos with Juilliard415, the American Classical Orchestra, and the Eastman School Symphony Orchestra, among others. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Trinity Youth: Dismantling Racism
Sundays, November 8–22, 1–3:30pm, Online
Trinity Youth have committed to showing up for one another and doing the work of antiracism. All Trinity Youth are invited to join us for Dismantling Racism: A Youth Curriculum. This three-week series will help middle and high schoolers converse about race, become allies, and build relationships to address systemic racism in our communities. The goal is to help youth connect their faith with the work of racial healing. Youth are expected to commit to attending each session. Dismantling Racism was developed out of the Diocese of Atlanta in consultation with Dr. Catherine Meeks. For more information, please email the Rev. Matt Welsch at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/dismantlingracism.

Let’s Talk: How Do We Move Forward...?
Tuesday, November 10, 7pm, Online
Co-facilitated by Julia Kristeller and Wayne Cato, this virtual support group serves as a place for people to connect and reflect on how to move forward with hope and purpose, regardless of who is elected president. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. For this final session, Trinity's Program Manager for Action and Advocacy, Lucas Pershing, will join us to talk about the upcoming 2021 elections in New York City and broader civic engagement. Register: trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Trinity Movement Choir: Creation
Sunday, November 15, 2pm, Online
Trinity Movement Choir offers reverence for and resolve to take care of physical creation in an online dance performance of Elements of Creation, followed by a live Q&A with the performers. Trinity Movement Choir’s structured improvisation, inspired by the dreamlike intensity of Japanese butoh dance and the work of dance artist Rudolf Laban, transforms performers and audiences alike. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Lively Arts. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/movementchoir.

BULLETIN BOARD
Compassion Market Now Open
Trinity’s new Compassion Market is now open at St. Paul’s Chapel on Wednesdays from 12–3pm. Guests can get 15 healthy, pre-packaged, and shelf-stable meals and personal hygiene kits by making an appointment on the Plentiful app or by calling 917.594.6300. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/compassionmarket.

Volunteer: Reclaim Our Vote
Volunteer to phonebank to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. To volunteer, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Volunteer: Voter Hotline
Volunteer for the NYC League of Women Voters Hotline and help New Yorkers with questions about registering to vote, finding a polling site, and absentee ballots. Volunteers work remotely with calls forwarded through the League’s phone. For more information and to sign up for the training, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.
Fall Fitness & Healthy Cooking Classes
Through December 18, Online
Join Trinity and Gym Kelly Fitness for free online health and wellness classes this fall! These sessions are a chance to meet new people and offer ways to have healthy fun with friends and family in an accessible, inclusive format. Pick from aerobics, healthy cooking, and bilingual yoga classes offered multiple times a week. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/wellbeing for the full schedule, class descriptions, and how to register. For questions, email Terrell L. Moody at TMoody@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation or artwork for 2021, please contact Luke Petrinovic at lukehpetrinovic@gmail.com or LentenMeditations@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Congregational Voice
“Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister is still in the darkness. Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light, and there is nothing in them to make them stumble” (1 John 2:9–10 NIV). This is my favorite verse because I have a love for people and being a kind person. If people were seeking to be kinder to everyone, the world would be an awesome place. Also one of the reasons I love church is you are learning how to be a better person so you can go out in the world and make it better. —Ayahna Nubian

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

FLOWERS
To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Lesser Feasts and Fasts 2006 (LFF), A Great Cloud of Witnesses (GCW), Holy Women, Holy Men (HW HM), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), St. Augustine’s Prayer Book (SAPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Voices Found (VF), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
