All Saints’ Day
November 1, 2020, 11:15am
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Allhallowtide

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the fourth century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. Among the seven Principal Feasts of The Episcopal Church, it is the only one that may be observed both on its fixed date and on the Sunday immediately following. In 2020, November 1 happens to fall on the Sunday itself.

The annual triduum of All Hallows’ Eve, All Saints’ Day, and the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed reminds us of our communion with all the saints and faithful witnesses who have gone before us, known and unknown.

All Saints’ is also one of four holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms, along with the Baptism of Our Lord, Easter Vigil, and Pentecost; on this day we are invited to renew our own baptismal vows.

Choral Prelude

In te, Domine, speravi

In te, Domine, speravi, non confundar in aeternum: in justitia tua libera me.
Inclina, Domine, aurem tuam: accelerata ut eruas me.
Esto mihi in Deum protectorem: et in domum refugii, ut salvum me facias.
Quoniam fortitudo mea et refugium meum es tu: et propter nomen tuum deduces me et enutries me.
Educes me de laqueo quem absconderunt mihi: quoniam tu es protector meus.
In manus tuas, Domine, commendo spiritum meum: redemisti me, Domine Deus veritatis.

In you, Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be left in confusion: in your justice set me free.
Lord, turn your ear to my prayer: make haste to rescue me.
Be for me a God who protects and a house of refuge, where you may keep me safe.
For you are my strength and my refuge: and for your name’s sake will guide and nurture me.
You will draw me out from the snare they have set for me: for you are my protector.
Into your hands, Lord, I entrust my spirit: you have redeemed me, Lord God of truth.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant

God be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

All

Amen.

Please be seated.
I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

1 John 3:1–3

1 John 3:1–3

Read by Mildred Chandler

Reader

A Reading from the First Letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Deacon    The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People    Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon    When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:
    “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
    “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
    “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
    “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
    “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
    “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
    “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
    “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
    “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People

I do.

Celebrant

Do you believe in God the Father?

People

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting.

Celebrant

Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People

I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant

Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People

I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People

I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People

I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People

I will, with God’s help.
Celebrant

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Reader

United in the company of all the faithful and looking for the coming of the kingdom, let us offer our prayers to God, the source of all life and holiness.

Merciful Creator, strengthen the Church by your Holy Spirit, that we may live as a royal priesthood and a holy nation to the praise of Jesus Christ our Savior. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan Bishops; and all ministers and people of your Church, that by faithful proclamation of your word we may be built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets into a holy temple in Christ. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Empower our parish through the gift of your holy and life-giving Spirit, that we may be given grace to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Hold in your embrace all who witness to your love in the service of the poor and needy; all who minister to the sick and dying; and all who bring light to those in darkness. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

Touch and heal all those whose lives are marred by sin and pain, that, raised from death to life in Christ, their sorrow may be turned to eternal joy. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

In this year of incalculable losses, we remember all those taken by the COVID-19 pandemic around the world, and mourn with those who mourn them. Receive in your mercy the souls of all those who have gone before us, and especially those dear to us:

The People may add their own petitions, either silently or aloud.

Preserve in faith your servants on earth; guide us to your kingdom, and grant us your peace at all times. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.

Reader

We give you thanks for the whole company of your saints in glory, in fellowship with whom we offer our prayers and praises; by your grace may we, like them, be made perfect in your love. Lord, in your mercy,

People

Hear our prayer.
Celebrant O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.
The Offertory

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Amen.

—Matthew 5:3–12

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for in the multitude of your saints, you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Hymnal S 125

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)
Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Fraction Anthem

All sing the antiphon. The Cantor alone sings the verse.

Antiphon (All)

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

Verse (Cantor)

The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ. [Ant.]

Music: Mode 6 melody; adapt. Mason Martens (1933-1991)

Invitation

Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people
at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

Faire is the Heav’n

Faire is the heav’n, where happy souls have place,
In full enjoyment of felicitie,
Whence they doe still behold the glorious face
Of the divine, eternall Majestie...

Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins
Which all with golden wings are overdight,
And those eternall burning Seraphins,
Which from their faces dart out fierie light;
Yer fairer than they both, and much more bright,
Be th’ Angles and Archangels which attend
On God’s owne person, without rest or end.

These then is faire each other farre excelling
As to the Highest they approach more neare,
Yet is that Highest farre beyond all telling
Fairer than all the rest which there appeare,
Though all their beauties joynd together were:
How then can mortall tongue hope to expresse
The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant           Let us pray.
All                  Loving God,
                     we give you thanks
                     for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
                     Now send us forth
                     a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
                     that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant           May Christ who makes saints of sinners, who has transformed those we remember today, raise and strengthen you that you may transform the world; and the blessing of God—
                    Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be among you, and remain with you for ever.

All                  Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Reginald Heber (1783-1826); Music: Nicaea, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

1 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
2 Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore thee,
3 Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee,
4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!

Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee: cast ing down their golden crowns around the glassy sea; though the sinful human eye thy glory may not see, All thy works shall praise thy Name, in earth, and sky, and sea;

Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty, cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, only thou art holy; there is none beside thee, Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty,

God in three Persons, blessed Trinity, which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be. perfect in power, in love, and purity. God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

Visit trinitywallstreet.org for a time of stillness and centering and a brief recorded meditation. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/catchyourbreath.

Mindfulness for Teens | Wednesdays, 4–5pm; through December 15; Online
Trinity is partnering with The Lineage Project to offer free classes for youth ages 13–19 that weave together movement, facilitated dialogue, and guided meditation. Each class is organized around a theme, such as “determination,” that threads the three parts together, draws out students’ inner wisdom, and fosters connection among participants. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/youth.

Group Meditation & Poetry | Wednesdays, 6:30–7:30pm; Online
Join our online meditation group. Practice consists of guided meditation and contemplative reflection with poets and artists, for mutual spiritual support and growth. Spiritual directors: John Deuel and Kathy Bozzuti-Jones. Register: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Enjoy the Company of Others

Trinity Youth Advisory Call | Tuesdays, 7pm; Online
Join young people from across the city in a weekly Trinity Youth Advisory call to give direct advice and guidance on what resources are needed in your community. Your voice matters! To join the call, email Jennifer Chinn at JChinn@trinitywallstreet.org with your name, email, grade, and current school.

Trinity Youth Drop-in Call | Wednesdays, 7pm; Online
Even though we can’t meet in person, Trinity Youth are still showing up for one another! Each week, Fr. Matt Welsch is hosting a drop-in call and all Trinity Youth are invited to join—whether you can stay for the whole call or just hop on for a few minutes. Please text or email Matt at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org for more information or to get the link so you can join the next call.

New Beginnings | Thursdays, 11am; Online
Trinity’s ministry of seniors meets for Bible study. To join, email Ellen Andrews at EAndrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Fitness & Healthy Cooking Classes | through December 18; Online
Join Trinity and Gym Kelly Fitness for free online health and wellness classes this fall! These sessions are a chance to meet new people and offer ways to have healthy fun with friends and family in an accessible, inclusive format. Pick from aerobics, healthy cooking, and chair yoga classes offered multiple times a week. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/wellbeing for the full schedule, class descriptions, and how to register.

THIS WEEK

Monday, November 2

When A Loved One Struggles
6:30pm, Online
Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Mondays through December 7, come be in shared company in a support group to help dispel the isolation. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/supportgroup.

Tuesday, November 3

Election Day Community Gathering
12pm and 7pm, Online
Step out of the election fray and find some calm in the chaos by taking time to talk about your feelings and take care of yourself with mindfulness activities, conversation with others, and self-care and well-being techniques. Facilitated by Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute’s Julia Kristeller. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/vote.
Wednesday, November 4
Sister in the Virtual House
10:30–11:30am, Online
Trinity’s Sister Ann, SSM will be available to lend an ear to parishioners and neighbors who need to talk, pray, or just sit quietly. Each session will last up to 10 minutes. Only a few spots are available. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/sister.

Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat
4:30pm, Online
One of the great opportunities of our time is to recognize the sacredness of everyone and everything—and to celebrate our interconnectedness. Talking Drum, Global Heartbeat is a 45-minute online opportunity for families with children in preschool to fifth grade to build a set of world rhythms and diverse spiritual practices to do right at home. Each session has three parts: a drumming lesson from an expert teacher, a spiritual practice to try together, and an introduction to family traditions from around the world. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/talkingdrum.

Thursday, November 5
Understanding Stress Workshop
12–1pm, Online
Learn about different types of stress and your response system to gain a better understanding of self-regulation, responding to others, and the impact of compassion in this one-hour webinar. Compassion for one another, one of Trinity’s core values, can create healing and community impact. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/commons.

Saturday, November 7
Rite of Burial
11am, Online
We’ll remember parishioner Maeve Marie “Maisy” Curry, daughter of Heather and Peter, sister of Finn. The service will be live streamed on trinitywallstreet.org.

NEXT SUNDAY
Discovery
Sunday, November 8, 10am, Online
Join Discovery online for a presentation from Trinity’s Pastoral Care team on “Self-Care for Voters.” Self-care is foundational to emotional and spiritual health, even more so in rough political times. Discuss how self-care can be an expression of faith and form of activism, pre- and post-election, and reflect on how your self-care strategies align with our core values. See the full Discovery schedule and register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Sunday Afternoon Music at Home
Sunday, November 8, 3pm, Online
We’re bringing Sunday Afternoon Music to your home. Classical music scholar and musician David Belkovski performs J. S. Bach’s Toccata and W. F. Bach’s Polonaise in this live music recital. Widely recognized for his artistry on both historical and modern keyboards, David has performed concertos with Juilliard415, the American Classical Orchestra, and the Eastman School Symphony Orchestra, among others. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Allegro. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/allegro.

Trinity Youth: Dismantling Racism
Sundays, November 8–22, 1–3:30pm, Online
Trinity Youth have committed to showing up for one another and doing the work of antiracism. All Trinity Youth are invited to join us for Dismantling

VOLUNTEER TO GET OUT THE VOTE
Now through November 3

Reclaim Our Vote
Volunteer to phonebank to help get out the vote in the upcoming election. Trinity is joining Reclaim Our Vote’s nonpartisan campaign to empower voters of color and fight voter suppression. Reclaim Our Vote’s phonebanks are a lifeline to voters, providing up-to-date, accurate information. To volunteer, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Voter Hotline
Volunteer for the NYC League of Women Voters Hotline and help New Yorkers with questions about registering to vote, finding a polling site, and absentee ballots. Volunteers work remotely with calls forwarded through the League’s phone. For more information and to sign up for the training, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.
Racism: A Youth Curriculum. This three-week series will help middle and high schoolers converse about race, become advocates, and build relationships to address systemic racism in our communities. The goal is to help youth connect their faith with the work of racial healing. Youth are expected to commit to attending each session. Dismantling Racism was developed out of the Diocese of Atlanta in consultation with Dr. Catherine Meeks. For more information, please email the Rev. Matt Welsch at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/dismantlingracism.

COMING SOON

Resolutions: Skill-Building for 2021
Beginning Tuesday, November 10, 10:30am–12pm
This six-class series, facilitated by Follow Us to Success, will help adults set a strong foundation for wellness in 2021 through visioning, goal setting, and skill building in both their professional and personal lives. Classes are free; attend one, some, or all. No class on November 24. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/resolutions.

Let’s Talk: How Do We Move Forward...?
Tuesday, November 10, 7pm, Online
Co-facilitated by Julia Kristeller and Wayne Cato, this virtual support group serves as a place for people to connect and reflect on how to move forward with hope and purpose, regardless of who is elected president. Participants can expect to take part in mindfulness activities, engage in conversation with others, and learn about self-care and well-being techniques. For this final session, Trinity’s Program Manager for Action and Advocacy, Lucas Pershing, will join us to talk about the upcoming 2021 elections in New York City and broader civic engagement. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/vote.

Trinity Movement Choir: Creation
Sunday, November 15, 2pm, Online
Trinity Movement Choir offers reverence for and resolve to take care of physical creation in an online dance performance of Elements of Creation, followed by a live Q&A with the performers. Trinity Movement Choir’s structured improvisation, inspired by the dreamlike intensity of Japanese butoh dance and the work of dance artist Rudolf Laban, transforms performers and audiences alike. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts/Lively Arts. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/movementchoir.

Re-Creating/Re-Imagining Ourselves
Beginning Monday, November 16, 6–7:30pm, Online
Transitions, Resilience, and Healing through the Holidays
This has been a year of great change, loss, and transition in our work, family, and community life. As we approach the holidays and the new year we may need to re-imagine not only our celebrations, but also continue to re-create ourselves and our daily living in these challenging times. Join Jessica Heller of Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI) for these six interactive support sessions using the creative process to help heal body, mind, and spirit, as we explore together our sense of identity, presence, and resilience, and our vision for what’s next. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/recreate.

CONGREGATIONAL COUNCIL NOMINATIONS
To be eligible for Election: All persons who on the date of an annual election shall have attained the age of 18 years and who, for the period of one year preceding such annual election, shall have been duly enrolled on the Corporation’s records as members of the Congregation and shall have partaken of the Holy Communion within said year in the Parish and who shall have contributed to the support of the Parish by a recorded gift of any amount in the preceding year.

When considering a person for nomination please speak with the person to let them know you wish to submit their name for consideration.

All nominations should be in writing and directed to the Vicar’s Office for the attention of the Congregational Council Nominating & Leadership Development Committee.

Congregational Council Nominating and Development Committee: The Rev. Phillip Jackson, Mr. Donato Mallano, Mr. Scott Evenbeck, Ms. Wendy Boyce, Ms. Sian Wetherill, Dr. Joyce Coppin Mondesire, Mr. Alistair Cree.
BULLETIN BOARD

Advent at Home: A Gift for You
Trinity would like to send you a gift this Advent to help you prepare for the coming of the Christ Child. There will be activities for the whole family, holiday aromas, and a treat or two. Deadline to sign up is Sunday, November 15. To receive a packet (one per household), visit trinitywallstreet.org/adventgift.

Worship Reminders Available Via Text
Never miss another Sunday or weekday service—Trinity is offering simple text alerts to remind you of upcoming services. Simply text 11:15AM to 28259 to receive a weekly reminder and link to Trinity’s 11:15am Holy Eucharist. Text 12:05PM to 28259 to receive a reminder each weekday before the 12:05pm Holy Eucharist. Questions? Email Lynn Goswick at LGoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity After-School Kids’ Club
Wednesdays and Fridays through December 4, Online
Trinity Church Wall Street invites children in kindergarten through fifth grade to have fun with music and puppets after school this fall. Spend time with NYC Kids Project and drummer Gabriel Globus-Hoenich in this virtual series designed to give children time to explore and enjoy safe social time with their peers. Learn more and register at trinitywallstreet.org/kidsclub.

Compassion Market Now Open
Trinity’s new Compassion Market is now open at St. Paul’s Chapel on Wednesdays from 12–3pm. Guests can get 15 healthy, pre-packaged, and shelf-stable meals and personal hygiene kits by making an appointment on the Plentiful app or by calling 917.594.6300. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/compassionmarket.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation or artwork for 2021, please contact Luke Petrinovic at lukehpetrinovic@gmail.com or LentenMeditations@trinitywallstreet.org.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity's membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

Congregational Voice
“Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths” (Proverbs 3:5–6 KJV). As a little girl, we would often sing Bible verses in church. I grew up in an Anglican church. This particular verse touches my heart because in times of uncertainty and chaos, it brought me comfort to know that God is in charge of my destiny. —Sherry-Ann Atkinson

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.
