Commemoration of All Faithful Departed

November 2, 2020, 12:05pm
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Allhallowtide

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the fourth century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. Among the seven Principal Feasts of The Episcopal Church, it is the only one that may be observed both on its fixed date and on the Sunday immediately following. In 2020, November 1 happens to fall on the Sunday itself.

The annual triduum of All Hallows’ Eve, All Saints’ Day, and the Commemoration of All Faithful Departed reminds us of our communion with all the saints and faithful witnesses who have gone before us, known and unknown.

The Entrance Rite

Choral Prelude

There is an Old Belief

There is an old belief
That on some solemn shore
Beyond the sphere of grief
dear friends shall meet once more,

Beyond the sphere of Time
And Sin, and Fate’s control, Serene in changeless prime of body and of soul.

That creed I fain would keep,
That hope I’ll ne’er forgo.
Eternal be the sleep,
if not to waken so.

—John Gibson Lockhart (1794-1854)

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)
Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant    Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People       Glory to God for ever and ever.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant    Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
              Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.
All           Amen.

Anthem

All          Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more,
             neither sighing, but life everlasting.
             You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind;
             and we are mortal, formed of the earth,
             and to earth shall we return.

             For so did you ordain when you created me, saying,
             “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.”
             All of us go down to the dust;
             yet even at the grave we make our song:
             Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

             Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints,
             where sorrow and pain are no more,
             neither sighing, but life everlasting.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant    God be with you.
People       And also with you.
Celebrant    Let us pray.

O God, the Maker and Redeemer of all believers: Grant to the faithful departed the unsearchable benefits of the passion of your Son; that on the day of his appearing they may be manifested as your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
All           Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For this perishable body must put on imperishability, and this mortal body must put on immortality. When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled:

“Death has been swallowed up in victory.”

“Where, O death, is your victory?
   Where, O death, is your sting?”

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Celebrant

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

“Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch

Silence follows the homily.
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People  CW:TS p. 542, adapted/BCP p. 395  Read by Karen Thomas

Reader United in the company of all the faithful and looking for the coming of the kingdom, let us offer our prayers to God, the source of all life and holiness.

Merciful Creator, strengthen the Church by your Holy Spirit, that we may live as a royal priesthood and a holy nation to the praise of Jesus Christ our Savior. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Bless Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan Bishops; and all ministers and people of your Church, that by faithful proclamation of your word we may be built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets into a holy temple in Christ. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Empower our parish through the gift of your holy and life-giving Spirit, that we may be given grace to live our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Hold in your embrace all who witness to your love in the service of the poor and needy; all who minister to the sick and dying; and all who bring light to those in darkness. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Touch and heal all those whose lives are marred by sin and pain, that, raised from death to life in Christ, their sorrow may be turned to eternal joy. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader In this year of incalculable losses, we remember all those taken by the COVID-19 pandemic around the world, and mourn with those who mourn them. Receive in your mercy the souls of all those who have gone before us, and especially those dear to us:

See p. 18 for the names of the Departed.

The People may add their own remembrances, either silently or aloud.

Preserve in faith your servants on earth; guide us to your kingdom, and grant us your peace at all times. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We give you thanks for the whole company of your saints in glory, in fellowship with whom we offer our prayers and praises; by your grace may we, like them, be made perfect in your love. Lord, in your mercy,

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

_Celebrant_
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

_Silence_

_All_
Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

_Celebrant_
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

_Celebrant_
The peace of the Lord be always with you.

_People_
And also with you.

_The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture._

Welcome

_The altar will be set for the Eucharist._
The Great Thanksgiving

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People     And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People     We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People     It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People     Glory to you for ever and ever.
Celebrant  At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People     By your will they were created and have their being.
Celebrant  From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People     Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Celebrant  Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
People     By his blood, he reconciled us.
             By his wounds, we are healed.
Celebrant  And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:
Holy, Holy, Holy

Music: from A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.
Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
  hallowed be your Name,
  your kingdom come,
  your will be done,
  on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
  as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
  and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
  and the glory are yours,
  now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.
A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader

I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People

In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

Bright Mansions

In bright mansions above
Lord, I want to live up yonder
In bright mansions above
My mother's gone to glory
I want to go there too
Lord, I want to live up yonder
In bright mansions above
My father's gone
My sister's gone
My brother's gone
My Savior's gone

—Traditional spiritual
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty God,

we thank you that in your great love you have fed us with the spiritual food and drink of the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and have given us a foretaste of your heavenly banquet.
Grant that this Sacrament may be to us a comfort in affliction, and a pledge of our inheritance
in that kingdom where there is no death, neither sorrow nor crying,
but the fullness of joy with all your saints;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ who makes saints of sinners, who has transformed those we remember today, raise and strengthen you that you may transform the world; and the blessing of God—
Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life—be among you, and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Sundays, November 8–22, 1–3:30pm, Online
Trinity Youth have committed to showing up for one another and doing the work of antiracism. All Trinity Youth are invited to join us for Dismantling Racism: A Youth Curriculum. This three-week series will help middle and high schoolers converse about race, become advocates, and build relationships to address systemic racism in our communities. The goal is to help youth connect their faith with the work of racial healing. Youth are expected to commit to attending each session. Dismantling Racism was developed out of the Diocese of Atlanta in consultation with Dr. Catherine Meeks. For more information, please email the Rev. Matt Welsch at MWelsch@trinitywallstreet.org. To register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/dismantlingracism.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.
