Tender and precious God,
from ancient times
the promise of your salvation has sustained your people.
With Mary and Joseph,
teach us to treasure in our hearts the birth of Jesus,
and with shepherds and angels,
lead us to praise his holy name. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ.

About this Service

Christmas Eve

The celebration of Christ’s coming among us at Christmas—the incarnation—is one of the two highest holy days of the Christian year, along with the celebration of his resurrection on Easter. In the Book of Common Prayer, Christmas Day is one of the seven principal feasts. The Christmas season lasts twelve days: from Christmas Day until January 5, the day before the Epiphany.

Christmas is much more than simply the celebration of Jesus’ birth: it reminds us of the central truth that “the Word became flesh and lived among us” (John 1:14), fulfilling the prophecy that “the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel—God is with us” (Isaiah 7:14).

It’s our custom at Trinity to symbolize our shared faith, love, hope, and joy in Jesus by lighting candles during the hymn, “Silent Night.”

Although we can’t gather physically this Christmas, the light that joins us together is real.
If you have a candle at home, we suggest you keep it close during the service, and then join us in lighting it as we sing.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

The Celebrant lights the Advent wreath.

1 O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O
2 God from God, Light from Light eternal,
3 Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
4 Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;

1 come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
2 lo! he abhors not the Virgin's womb;
3 sing, all ye creatures of heaven above;
4 Jesus, to thee be glory given;

1 come, and behold him, born the King of angels;
2 only be gotten Son of the Father;
3 glory to God, glory in the highest;
4 Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing;

Refrain

1 O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him;
2 O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
God be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Titus 3:4–7

Reader
A Reading from the Letter to Titus.

When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People
Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal Hopson (b. 1933)
The Holy Gospel

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones

The Prayers of the People

 CW:TS p. 67, adapted Read by the Klein family

Reader Let us pray to Jesus our Savior.

Christ, born in a stable, give courage to all who are seeking a home.

Jesus, Savior,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Christ, for whom the angels sang, shield our joy on this holy night, and give the song of the kingdom to all who mourn.

Jesus, Savior,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Christ, worshiped by the shepherds, give peace on earth to all who are oppressed or in trouble.

Jesus, Savior,

People Hear our prayer.
Reader Christ, before whom the wise men knelt, give humility and wisdom to all who govern.

Jesus, Savior,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Christ, whose radiance filled a lowly manger, give the glory of your resurrection to all who rest in you.

Jesus, Savior,

People Hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant Jesus, Savior, child of Mary, you know us and love us; you share our lives and hear our prayer. Glory to you for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.
The Offertory

Sussex Carol

On Christmas night all Christians sing,
To hear the news the angels bring,
News of great joy, news of great mirth,
News of our merciful King's birth.

Then why should men on earth be so sad,
Since our redeemer made us glad,
When from our sin he set us free,
All for to gain our liberty.

When sin departs before his grace,
Then life and health come in its place;
Angels and men with joy may sing,
All for to see the new-born King.

All out of darkness we have light,
Which made the angels sing this night:
"Glory to God and peace to men,
Now and for evermore. Amen."

—Traditional English carol

At the Presentation

Hymnal 380, v. 3

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People      We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People      It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant  We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.
You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us.
Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Sanctus

WLP 785

Sung twice by all.

Words: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown;
arr. based on two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.
Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy Name,
   thy kingdom come,
   thy will be done,
   on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
   but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
   and the power, and the glory,
   for ever and ever. Amen.
The Fraction and Invitation

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant
Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader
I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

People
In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

Communion Anthem

Mary Had a Baby

Mary had a baby, My Lord!
Where was He born? Born in a manger.
What did they call Him? “King Jesus,”
He was called “King Jesus.”
Mary had a Baby, oh, yes!
He is called “King Jesus,” “Mighty Counselor,” “King Emmanuel,” “Mighty God,”
“Everlasting Father,” “Prince of Peace.”
Mary had a Baby, oh, yes!

—Traditional spiritual
Hymn

If you wish, please join us in lighting a candle at home during the third verse.

Words: Joseph Mohr (1792-1848); tr. John Freeman Young (1820-1885)
Music: Stille Nacht, melody Franz Xaver Gruber (1787-1863); harm. Carl H. Reinecke (1824-1910); desc. Julian Wachner (b. 1969)
Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

May Christ our infant savior give you the joy of the Bethlehem shepherds, the awe of the worshipping sages, and the humility and love of the holy family. May you become as little children, and may the blessing of God our Creator, Redeemer, and Giver of Life be with you always.

All

Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
Go, tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born.

1. While shepherds kept their watching over silent flocks by night,
2. The shepherds feared and trembled, when lo! above the earth,
3. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born,

Behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.
Rang out the angel chorus that hailed the Savior’s birth.
And God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

Words: Luke 2:8–20; adapt. John W. Work, Jr. (1871-1925); Music: Spiritual

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

“A Visit from St. Nicholas” Annual Reading
6pm and 10pm, PIX11

‘Twas the night before Christmas... Feel the warmth and experience the magic of a century-old holiday tradition—in your own home. The 110th reading of “A Visit from St. Nicholas” at Church of the Intercession in Washington Heights will not be held in person this year, but you can hear the story during a special broadcast scheduled for Christmas Eve and 4:30am Christmas morning on PIX11. During the program, the poem will be read by Tony Award-winner James Monroe Iglehart, best known as Genie in Aladdin. There will be a guest appearance by Young People's Chorus, The Boys and Girls Choir of Harlem Alumni Ensemble, the singing of “Silent Night,” and a visit to Clement Clarke Moore’s grave in Trinity Cemetery. Moore, the son of Trinity Rector Benjamin Moore and a professor at General Seminary, wrote the poem in 1823 as a gift to his children.

First and third Tuesdays starting January 5
Mental Health Equity and Resilience with DOHMH
The COVID-19 pandemic is a worldwide shared traumatic experience that disrupts and affects our families, friends, and communities. In NYC and nationally, people of color are disproportionately affected by COVID-19. To address the mental health challenges brought by the pandemic and structural racism in our city, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) is providing free virtual presentations to our Trinity community in self-care, coping skills, and ways to build individual and community resilience. Join us for this one-hour workshop at 11:30am on the first Tuesday or at 6:30pm on the third Tuesday of every month. RSVP for free at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

Living with Loss: Support in Grief

Tuesdays beginning Feb. 16, 6:30–7:45pm, Online

Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This six-week series will facilitate reflection and expression to help us cope with loss. Facilitated by Kim Schneiderman from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/loss.

Let’s Stay in Touch: Parish Directory
Would you like to stay in touch with other parishioners during this unusual time but you don’t have your pew neighbor’s phone number or email address? Trinity’s membership department is compiling a directory to help us all stay connected until we can worship together again. To receive a digital copy of the directory, please contribute your contact information and a photo. Contact information may include any or all of the following: email address, mailing address, telephone number, and/or social media handle. To contribute or for more information, email Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org.

Family Worship: Home Edition
Each week, we’re offering a simple service for families to follow at home. There are prayers, videos of scripture and stories being read by some familiar faces, brief 9:15-style video reflections offered by the clergy, and special music, along with coloring sheets and an activity to do together as a family. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/familyworship to see this week’s service.

Comfort at One—“Passing Through”
Mondays–Fridays, 1pm, Online
During trying times, music stills our souls and provides a healing grace. This fall, the series features performances on the theme of “Passing Through”—passing through musical styles from early music to world premieres while reflecting a message of hope that “this too shall pass.” Mondays–Fridays at 1pm, we’re sharing #ComfortatOne performances on Facebook, Twitter, and trinitywallstreet.org/comfortatone, where you can easily catch up on anything you may have missed, no matter what time it is. Follow us and tune in for encore performances of our favorite concerts professionally filmed in HD, along with current at-home performances from Trinity’s extended family of artists. We hope these concerts help you find a haven of peace and comfort.

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Church Wall Street live streams its services and events and records them for broadcast via the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you wish to attend but prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

Sunday parking validation for Icon Parking at 21 Barclay Street is available for parishioners. Please see security staff to receive a validation stamp.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth's resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
