Holy and awesome God, your Son’s authority is found in integrity and living truth, not the assertion of power over others. Open our imaginations to new dimensions of your love, and heal us of all that severs us from you and one another, that we may grow into the vision you unfold before us. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

In the Episcopal Church, the season of Epiphany bridges the liturgical seasons of Christmastide (a festive season) and Lent (a penitential season). As with the Season of Pentecost (also known as Ordinary Time), the number of Sundays in Epiphanytide is variable—from five to nine weeks—since the date of Easter changes each year. Also like Ordinary Time, the traditional color of vestments (the robes worn by clergy and the fabric dressings on the altar) is green.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Gloria

All
Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth:
Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Reader A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said: "The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: 'If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.'

"Then the LORD replied to me: 'They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak—that prophet shall die.'"

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 111:1-8

Reader Let us read from Psalm 111 responsively by half-verse.

Hallelujah!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart,*

in the assembly of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the deeds of the LORD!* they are studied by all who delight in them.

His work is full of majesty and splendor,* and his righteousness endures for ever.

He makes his marvelous works to be remembered;* the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

He gives food to those who fear him,* he is ever mindful of his covenant.

He has shown his people the power of his works,* in giving them the lands of the nations.

The works of his hands are faithfulness and justice;* all his commandments are sure.

They stand fast for ever and ever,* because they are done in truth and equity.
The Second Reading

A Reading from Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians.

Now concerning food sacrificed to idols: we know that “all of us possess knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. Anyone who claims to know something does not yet have the necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him.

Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that “no idol in the world really exists,” and that “there is no God but one.” Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as in fact there are many gods and many lords—yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. “Food will not bring us close to God.” We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God.” But Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.” At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Winnie Varghese
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: We believe in one God,
All: the Father, the Almighty,
     maker of heaven and earth,
     of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Reader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishops Andrew, Mary, and Allen; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of God.

Pray that they may find and be found by God.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Pray that we may live into our mission and vision to the fullest.

Silence

Reader I ask your prayers for the departed.

Pray for those who have died.

The congregation offers prayers and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

Reader Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.

Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

Celebrant Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing as you are able.

All Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

An usher collects the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.
The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;
Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The People gather around the altar for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

People Thanks be to God.

7-9pm, Trinity Church
Even if you’re not registered for the Trinity Institute: Values in Action conference, you can attend the opening night free of charge. The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry preaches at opening worship, followed by a keynote address by Pulitzer-Prize winning journalist Jose Antonio Vargas. The

Core Values: What’s Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month. In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Values in Action and Discernment Retreats
Open to all Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Come spend a weekend surrounded by the beauty of nature as we delve deeper into our core values.

Using poetry, art, silence, meditation, music, and a desire to expand our living of Trinity’s core values, the staff of the retreat center, the Rev. Daniel Simons, Dr. Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, the staff of Listening Hearts Ministries, and the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones will lead participants through six retreats to explore each of Trinity’s six core values.

There will be plenty of time for fun and community as we spend time at a welcoming table—and interacting with the Trinity donkeys—and are transformed and equipped to bring forth our mission.

Retreat dates and topics
February 23-25: Faith
March 16-18: Integrity
April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing (based on double occupancy)
$50/night for adults and children over 12
$25/night for children ages 5-12
Children less than 5 years old stay free.

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The scaffolding that used to reach the ceiling and upper walls in the chancel and on the west side of the nave have been taken down.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil's color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. Beginning the week of January 29, members of the renovation team will install lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity's original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

To learn more, or watch videos of the Vicar showing the discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

Conference will offer participants skills, ideas, inspiration, and a greater capacity to take action against injustice, rooted in your deepest values and effective partnerships. Learn more at TI2018.org.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3

Brown Bag Lunch
12:45pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag

NEXT SUNDAY

A Litany of Atlanta
1:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta is a documentary theater work in progress conceived by Trinity parishioner Ruth Antoinette Foy. Using W.E.B. Du Bois’ poem, A Litany of Atlanta, as the foundation, the theater weaves a story of devastation, pain, despair, and hope from reconstruction to present. J. Chester Johnson’s Elaine Race Massacre and Day of Repentance (Litany of Apology and Repentance for the Episcopal Church’s role in slavery) is a major element of this piece. Other contributions are from Langston Hughes and Mark Bozzuti-Jones, among others. Included with this year’s presentation will be Meditations on Civil Rights Activists by J. Chester Johnson. This staged reading is a Congregational Arts Black History Month project, in collaboration with the Task Force Against Racism. There will be a talk back directly following the performance. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP to Toni Foy: rafoy@hotmail.com.

Trinity Men: Super Bowl Party
5pm, 10 Barclay Street, 3rd Floor
Join Vicar Phil Jackson and other men from Trinity to watch the Super Bowl together. Hosted by Martez Moore. Space is limited and RSVPs are required to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON

Security Enhancements
In an effort to keep parishioners and visitors safe in our worship spaces, Trinity Church Wall Street will soon implement bag checks and wanding for everyone who enters Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. We are continuing to work with our security provider on the details, and will provide more information as those details are available. If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

DOS WORLDS
February 9-11, St. Paul’s Chapel
DOS WORLDS is a multimedia piece that, through movement, theatre and film, explores the story of rejection and the search for transcendent unity between people who have lost something they believe they will never regain. Performances at 7pm February 9-10, and 3pm February 11. Workshop for all ages at 3pm, February 10. Information: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

Stations of the Cross
February 14-April 1
Opening Reception 6pm, Feb. 15, Trinity Church
“Stations of the Cross” is a public art project comprised of 14 “art stations” located across Manhattan, from the Cloisters museum to the 9/11 Memorial. The exhibition breaks open the journey of Jesus, inviting people of all faiths to consider injustice and pain across the human experience. The focus for 2018 is the experience of immigrants and refugees. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/stations.
Winter Work Weekend
Feb. 16-18, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Come to work and worship as we partner with the Cornwall Conservation Trust to groom and rebuild trails in the forest surrounding the center. Attendees should be prepared to engage in a day of rigorous activity. Your stay and meals are free of charge. Availability is limited. Book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pauli Murray Exhibit
February 17–March 21, St. Paul's Chapel
March 1, Opening Reception
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street will present an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. A play about her life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

Lenten Retreat
March 2-4, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Lent is an ideal time to slow down to reconnect to our spiritual center in preparation for the Easter feast. This retreat will focus on the deeply renewing and restorative themes of the season, inviting participants into various forms of prayer in nature, and giving ample time for reflection and rest. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Forgiveness: The Heart's True Home (Workshop)
March 17, Trinity Retreat Center
This day-long workshop will use a family systems approach to invite participants deeper into the practice of forgiveness and reconciliation—within their own personal lives and families, as well as in the broader, sometimes conflicted communities in which we find ourselves. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Week Retreat
March 28-April 1, Trinity Retreat Center
Together we will celebrate the most important holy days of the year: the “Triduum” of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, leading to Easter Sunday. Participants will reflect on each day’s themes and celebrate the liturgies together in the context of nature’s early springtime re-awakening. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal Retreat
April 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Participants are invited to relax during this weekend dedicated to refreshment and renewal of body and soul through rest, prayer, and play. Time will be lightly structured around a daily house schedule, giving ample space to reconnect with nature, pursue special interests, and participate in the community we make together. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Mary Magdalene Retreat
May 4-6, Trinity Retreat Center
The month of May is traditionally associated with Mary and the retreat center will be blooming. This retreat will explore the strong feminine archetype of Mary Magdalene, found hidden in a historically masculine Christian tradition. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee. Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Follow up with the Trinity Pilgrims
The Trinity pilgrims have safely returned from Ethiopia. Sunday congregation members include Wendy Boyce, Roz Hall, Sharon Hardy, Yvette Horton, Summerlee Staten, and Sian Wetherill. Ask them about their journey, and remember, we are ALL pilgrims on the road!

Save the Date: Mission & Service Trips
6pm, January 31, Parish Center
Learn more about Trinity’s Mission & Service Engagement trips. Upcoming trips include: Panama (March 20-26); Navajoland (May 23-28); New York City (June 22-July 20, Fridays only); New Orleans (July 19-23); Burundi (September 12-23); and Haiti (October 10-15). Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0709.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it.”

Justice for Sergio
Sergio Reyes, a senior at Leadership and Public Service High School, one of Trinity’s neighbors, was shot and killed by police after allegedly holding up a bodega with a fake gun in February 2017. Sergio’s classmates, members of Trinity’s new Advocacy Apprentice program, created a three-part podcast to honor their friend and explore the narratives and social forces surrounding the events that led to his death. Primarily designed for high school students in local public schools, Advocacy Apprentices work on projects to address current justice issues in New York City through storytelling, visual art, community engagement, and service projects. Hear the podcast at trinitywallstreet.org/sergio.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

Congregational Voice

“Put on the whole armour of God so that you may stand against the wiles of the devil” (Ephesians 6:11 KJV). I tell my grandchildren to “armour up!” The verse has saved me in many life situations!

—Geraldine Taylor-Brown

Green Notes: Bottled Water

Bottled water: The plastic used, plus energy to collect and clean water, plus fuel needed to ship bottles to stores, totals millions of barrels of oil each year (Sierra Club). Kick the bottled water habit by installing a water filter on your faucet and purchasing a reusable water bottle.
