Holy God,
you call us to righteousness and light.
Teach us the undivided law of love,
that we may love your children even as you do,
love you with all our will and strength,
and find our freedom in this blessed service,
taught to us in word and deed
by Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

We often describe liturgy at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel as a river: an apt analogy, since it suggests how it flows around—and how it shapes—the surrounding environment. During these twenty-five weeks of the Season after Pentecost, we will feature a variety of prayers within the context of our Holy Eucharist. We encourage you to recognize which of these many facets of worship resonate most personally with you.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Glória

All

Glory to God in the highest,
    and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
    we worship you, we give you thanks,
    we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
    have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
    receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
    Jesus Christ,
    with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant

The Lord be with you.

People

And also with you.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the LORD. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 149:1-6, 8-9

Reader

Let us read from Psalm 149 responsively by half-verse.

Hallelujah!

Sing to the LORD a new song; *

People

sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; *

People

let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Let them praise his Name in the dance; *

People

let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

For the LORD takes pleasure in his people *

People

and adorns the poor with victory.

Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *

People

let them be joyful on their beds.

Let the praises of God be in their throat *

People

and a two-edged sword in their hand;

To bind their kings in chains *

People

and their nobles with links of iron;

To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *

People

this is glory for all his faithful people.

Hallelujah!
The Second Reading
A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans.

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet”; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

The Word of the Lord.

People
Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel
Matthew 18:15-20

Please stand as you are able.

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus said, “If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

“Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
The Rev. Elizabeth Blunt

Silence follows the sermon.
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All

  the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
  of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

  the only Son of God,
  eternally begotten of the Father,
  God from God, Light from Light,
  true God from true God,
  begotten, not made,
  of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

  he came down from heaven:
  by the power of the Holy Spirit
  he became incarnate from the Virgín Mary,
  and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

  he suffered death and was buried.

  On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

  he ascended into heaven
  and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

  and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Give us courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We remember especially all those affected by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

People Hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing as you are able.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

An usher collects the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.
He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.
On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”
After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant  We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All  Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction  BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The People gather around the altar for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher. All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Ringing the Bell of Hope
8:45am, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Wall Street remembers the anniversary of September 11, 2001 with the ringing of the Bell of Hope. The Bell of Hope was given to New York City by London in 2002. Placed in St. Paul’s churchyard, it has been rung each year on 9/11 since the first anniversary. In addition, the bell has sounded in solidarity with other victims of terrible attacks and terrorism. It was created by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in London’s East End, where the original Liberty Bell was cast in 1752.

Volunteers Needed: Intrepid Museum
11am, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum
We’ll join forces with more than 2,000 volunteers representing more than 40 companies, interfaith groups, and organizations to help combat hunger by helping assemble more than half a million dry meals. As an official partner for this project, Trinity is seeking volunteers. There are two shifts available: 11am-1:30pm and 1-3:30pm (these times include the 30 minutes you’ll need to check in and go through security). Information and registration: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Burundi Applications Due Sept. 29
Trip: November 29-December 10
Partnering with the Archbishop of Burundi and working primarily in the district of Matana, participants have helped with the construction of a church, built three houses for underprivileged families, and offered the Godly Play training to more than 40 Sunday school teachers. This year we will engage with the community to build six more houses. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.

Core Values: What’s Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we’re taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we’ve learned.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries. [Note: This event is now at capacity.]

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct. 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love;” what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.
Catch Your Breath
1pm, Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 20, Trinity Church
Spiritual resources for the here and now. This group allows you to take a break—participate in a breathing exercise, enjoy some quiet time, and listen to a short teaching—before tackling the rest of your day. Bring your lunch for a centering, supportive midday interlude. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Fall Family Retreat
September 21-23, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Reserve your spot now! Over the Rosh Hashanah public school break, families are invited to spend two nights and three days at Trinity Retreat Center for a lightly-programmed getaway in the country. Please RSVP directly to Trinity Retreat Center (retreat@trinitywallstreet.org) with the number of adults and the number of children in your party, and whether you will arrive by train (Grand Central Terminal to Wassaic) or by car. The cost for both nights is $100 per adult or teen and $50 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under under 5) for double occupancy, which includes meals and snacks. Financial aid is available; please contact Wendy Barrie (wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org).

Trinity in Your Neighborhood
Next gathering: 4pm, October 1, West Village
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. Our second gathering included a backyard cookout on Staten Island. Our next get-togethers will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

ParentSpace
6-9pm, October 13 and 20, Parish Center
Join therapists from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute to understand how child and adolescent development affect parenting, learn strategies for healthy communication and how to navigate conflict, and explore spiritual resources to hold you up along the way. Session topics include Parenting and Spirituality with Sarah McCaslin LMSW (Oct. 13) and Communication and Conflict with Paul Kelly LMHC (Oct. 20). Information/RSVPs: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Safe Church Training
1pm, November 5
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, Confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Lunch included. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Save the Date: Trinity Institute 2018
Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael Curry, Michelle Alexander, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Information: TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Welcome the Rev. Alfred Loua
Please welcome the Rev. Alfred Loua, Trinity’s new Priest for Pastoral Care & Community. Before coming to Trinity, Fr. Alfred served as staff chaplain at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit and in parish and chaplain ministries in Michigan, France, Cameroon, and Mali. At Trinity, Fr. Alfred will join the Pastoral Care team in providing pastoral care and visits to parishioners and community members, sacramental preparation, training for lay ministers, and small group facilitation, in addition to his participation in Trinity liturgies.
Welcome Canon Jenneker
This month, we welcome the Very Rev. Bruce W.B. Jenneker of Durbanville, Cape Town, South Africa, as sabbatical priest. Canon Jenneker, senior priest of the Diocese of Saldanha Bay and rector of All Saints Church in Durbanville, is spending the last month of his four-month sabbatical at Trinity. While here, Canon Jenneker will spend his time working in the Liturgy department and with various groups in the Trinity community. Canon Jenneker is not unfamiliar with the United States—he spent 24 years here, serving as Precentor at Trinity Church on Copley Square in Boston, Massachusetts, as Canon Precentor of Washington National Cathedral, and associate rector at St. Alban's Church in Washington, D.C. He served on the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music of the General Convention for several years and was its chair for two Triennia. He returned to South Africa in 2005 and serves as the Convener of the Prayer Book Revision Committee. Please give Canon Jenneker a warm Trinity welcome!

Help after Hurricane Harvey
The disastrous effects of Hurricane Harvey are expected to impact Texas and Louisiana for years to come. Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is working with dioceses in the hurricane's path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. To donate to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund, visit episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Downtown Voices Choir Auditions through September 15
Auditions are open for Downtown Voices, Trinity's semiprofessional choir featuring talented volunteers and members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, under the direction of Stephen Sands. The choir rehearses weekly on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9pm, September 2017 through May 2018. To learn more and request an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semiprofessional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul's Chapel Closing
October 1 through mid-November
St. Paul's Chapel will be closed from early October through mid-November while a new organ is installed in the space. The chapel will be open Sundays for 8am and 9:15am services. Visit trinitywallstreet.org for periodic progress reports.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season's themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Information: trinityretreatcenter.org

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.
The Sisters are In 10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. "Sister Gloria and I share this ministry," Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. "I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!"

Pastoral Care

In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community (212.602.0895).

Congregational Voice

“Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything; tell God your needs and don’t forget to thank him for his answers. If you do this, you will experience God’s peace, which is far more wonderful than the human mind can understand. His peace will keep your thoughts and your hearts quiet and at rest as you trust in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7). When I was reading this verse, I thought of sharing it on Facebook because we all need to trust God. —Douglas Graham

CELEBRANT, DEACON, AND PREACHER: The Rev. Elizabeth Blunt

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted.
