God of Aaron, Miriam, and Moses, you stayed the hand of your wrath when we fell into idolatry and discord; and when we forgot our deliverance, your love for us remained unchanging. Transform us and our world into a place of justice, love, and peace. Welcome us to your wedding feast where all are invited to be gathered in. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we often describe liturgy—the way we worship in prayer, music, and lessons—as a river: an analogy that makes sense, since a river flows around but also shapes its surrounding environment. For the remainder of the Season after Pentecost, St. Paul’s will be using a Communion order borrowed from our brothers and sisters in the Church of England. This interactive prayer encourages prayerful listening, learning, participation, and joyful response. Everything you need to follow along is in this bulletin.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant    Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People        And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Folliot Sandford Pierpoint (1835-1917), alt.; Music: Dix, melody Conrad Kocher (1786-1872); arr. William Henry Monk (1823-1889); harm. The English Hymnal, 1906

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

When the people realized that Moses was taking forever in coming down off the mountain, they rallied around Aaron and said, "Do something. Make gods for us who will lead us. That Moses, the man who got us out of Egypt—who knows what's happened to him?" So Aaron told them, "Take off the gold rings from the ears of your wives and sons and daughters and bring them to me." They all did it; they removed the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from their hands and cast it in the form of a calf, shaping it with an engraving tool.

The people responded with enthusiasm: "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from Egypt!" Aaron, taking in the situation, built an altar before the calf. Aaron then announced, "Tomorrow is a feast day to God!"

Early the next morning, the people got up and offered Whole-Burnt-Offerings and brought Peace-Offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink and then began to party. It turned into a wild party!

God spoke to Moses, "Go! Get down there! Your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt have fallen to pieces. In no time at all they've turned away from the way I commanded them: They made a molten calf and worshipped it. They've sacrificed to it and said, 'These are the gods, O Israel, that brought you up from the land of Egypt!'"

God said to Moses, "I look at this people—oh! what a stubborn, hard-headed people! Let me alone now, give my anger free reign to burst into flames and incinerate them. But I'll make a great nation out of you."

Moses tried to calm his God down. He said, "Why, God, would you lose your temper with your people? Why, you brought them out of Egypt in a tremendous demonstration of power and strength. Why let the Egyptians say, 'He had it in for them—he brought them out so he could kill them in the mountains, wipe them right off the face of the Earth.' Stop your anger. Think twice about bringing evil against your people! Think of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants to whom you gave your word, telling them 'I will give you many children, as many as the stars in the sky, and I'll give this land to your children as their land forever.'" And God did think twice. He decided not to do the evil he had threatened against his people.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Zimbabwe Alleluia, Abraham Maraire (1944-1999)

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 22:1-14

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus responded by telling still more stories. “God’s kingdom,” he said, “is like a king who threw a wedding banquet for his son. He sent out servants to call in all the invited guests. And they wouldn’t come!

“He sent out another round of servants, instructing them to tell the guests, ‘Look, everything is on the table, the prime rib is ready for carving. Come to the feast!’ They only shrugged their shoulders and went off, one to weed his garden, another to work in his shop. The rest, with nothing better to do, beat up on the messengers and then killed them. The king was outraged and sent his soldiers to destroy those thugs and level their city.

“Then he told his servants, ‘We have a wedding banquet all prepared but no guests. The ones I invited weren’t up to it. Go out into the busiest intersections in town and invite anyone you find to the banquet.’ The servants went out on the streets and rounded up everyone they laid eyes on, good and bad, regardless. And so the banquet was on—every place filled.

“When the king entered and looked over the scene, he spotted a man who wasn’t properly dressed. He said to him, ‘Friend, how dare you come in here looking like that!’ The man was speechless. Then the king told his servants, ‘Get him out of here—fast—and make sure he doesn’t get back in.’ That’s what I mean when I say, ‘Many get invited; only a few make it.’”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer

Silence follows the sermon.
THE CREED

Reader I ask your prayers for God’s people throughout the world; for bishops and ministers, for all of us gathered here.

Pray for the Church. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among all nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. We remember especially those impacted by this year’s hurricane and tropical storm season.

Pray for those in any need or trouble. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for God’s creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it.

Pray for the earth and seas. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.
Reader I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn, especially those who lost their lives in Las Vegas.

Pray for God’s light to shine upon them. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God.

Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving

CW Prayer Two, adapted

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Why is it right to give thanks and praise?

People Listen, and we will hear.

Celebrant Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory. You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish. You give us friends and families, busy streets for young and old, the life of an earthly city fulfilled in your city to come. You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:
We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ’s body and his blood.

Why do we share this bread and wine?

Celebrate On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: “This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: “This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of me.”

So, Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit upon us also, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

Celebrate Why do we follow Jesus Christ?

People Because he is God’s saving love in action.

Celebrate Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

Music: Land of Rest, American folk hymn
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant  And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All  Our Father, who art in heaven,
     hallowed be thy Name,
     thy kingdom come,
     thy will be done,
     on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
     and the power, and the glory,
     for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

1. Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees);
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees);

1. Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees).
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees).

1. When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh, Lord, have mercy on me (on me).
2.

Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees);
Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees).

When I
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

JOYFUL, JOYFUL, WE ADORE THEE, GOD OF GLORY, LORD OF LOVE; All thy works with joy sur-round thee, earth and heaven reflect thy rays, hearts un-fold like flowers before thee, praising thee, their sun a-bowe.
stars and an-gels sing a-round thee, cen-ter of un-bro-ken praise.

MELT THE CLOUDS OF SIN AND SAD-NESS; DRIVE THE DARK OF DOUBT A-WAY;
Field and for est, vale and moun-tain, bloom-ing mea-dow, flash - ing sea, giv-er of im-mor-tal glad-ness, fill us with the light of day.
chant-ing bird and flow-ing foun-tain, call us to re-joice in thee.

Evensong of Comfort
5:15pm, Trinity Church, Chapel of All Saints
On the first anniversary of her death, we remember former parishioner Deborah Danner with a quiet gathering of song, prayer, comfort, and hope. In our remembrance of Deborah, we offer prayers and blessings for family, friends, and all people affected by natural disasters, violence, and divisiveness. A homily will be offered by the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, priest and director of Pastoral Care & Community. Light refreshments will follow the service.

Core Values: What's Next
Earlier this year, we explored our six core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. In September we reflected and evaluated what we learned.

In October, we begin exploring more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love”; what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Cares
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Join us for an evening gathering to better know and care for fellow parishioners. In the words of St. Paul, we are to “rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.” A light meal will be served. All are welcome. Sponsored by Pastoral Care & Community. For more information and to RSVP, email Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Writing God: Spiritual Journaling
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one’s spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the “true self.” This season we invite you to explore, in community, reflections from the writings of mystics, spiritual directors, activists, and others including Hildegard of Bingen, Julian of Norwich, the Celtic tradition, Thomas Merton, Daniel Berrigan, Joan Chittister, Richard Rohr, and Andrew Harvey. The writings of these spiritual leaders, along with weekly writing prompts, inspire and guide the writer to follow the flow from within and onto the page. Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

NEW SIGHTS AND SOUNDS
In October and November, expect some exciting developments at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel: a newly renovated organ will be installed at St. Paul’s, and a new color of paint with an impressive historic lineage will be displayed in portions of Trinity. Both projects will affect how we experience our worship spaces for a period of time. Please see the details below.

ST. PAUL’S CHAPEL
Accommodating the installation of a renovated organ means that the chapel will have restricted hours through November 18. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings.

TRINITY CHURCH
As the parish determines the scope of a renovation that is being proposed for 2018, scaffolding will go up inside the 171-year-old Trinity Church building during the week of October 16. This will allow a team to “mock up” portions of the church to recreate the original color scheme envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. This project, which will require the scaffolding to remain in place until the end of November, is one part of a design phase exploring the potential renovation. Make sure to let your opinions on the color be known! Apart from the addition of Compline, Trinity’s regular open hours and worship schedule will not change.

NEXT SUNDAY
Rector’s Forum: Strategic Programming
10am, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity is Building: Neighborhoods, Leadership, and Capacity. At this charette, you’re invited to share your ideas as we build programming around areas of strategic focus. Please join us for coffee and conversation. The next sessions, all beginning at 10am, are: October 22, November 12, and December 10.
COMING SOON

Calling All Artists (and Art Lovers)
Friday, Oct. 27 through Sunday, Oct. 29
The Congregational Arts Committee is hosting a weekend getaway at the newly reopened Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. Join us for movies, music, a visual arts workshop, and more in this idyllic site on the banks of the Housatonic River next to 700 acres of state forest. Space is limited, and reservations are first-come, first-served. A deposit of $50 per person for double-occupancy rooms and $85 for single-occupancy rooms is required. Contact James Langford at jayray3@gmail.com for more information.

Undocumented
10am-1pm, October 28, Trinity Church
What do faith communities need to know? A half-day teach-in for people of faith to learn about current issues related to immigration, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), temporary protected status, and sanctuary. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/undocumented.

Discovery for Families Retreat
November 3-5, Trinity Retreat Center
Please join us for fun, relaxation, and nature at the newly renovated Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. All families are welcome. Cost is $50 per adult per night and $25 per child per night, and includes lodging and all meals. There is generous financial assistance if needed. Transportation to and from the train station in Wassaic will be provided. To find out more or to confirm your place, please email Keith Klein at kklein23@gmail.com.

Safe Church Training
1-5pm, November 5, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Lunch included. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Mission & Service 10th Anniversary
November 9-12, St. Paul’s Chapel
Parishioners, staff, and friends of Trinity are invited to help mark the tenth anniversary of Mission & Service engagement trips at Trinity with a weekend of service. Activities include packing Brown Bag Lunches and hygiene kits for Church World Service, volunteering at the Hour Children Thrift Shop and St. Margaret’s House garden, as well as a travelers’ reunion reception. Information: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Interfaith Thanksgiving
11:30am-1pm, November 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
No one should be alone or hungry on Thanksgiving. The congregations of Park 51, Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, and Trinity Church Wall Street invite congregants and neighbors to gather for a meal and shared company. Doors open at 11:30am with live music, followed by an interfaith blessing at noon, and a Thanksgiving meal from 12-1pm. The meal will be both halal and kosher-friendly. Trinity’s Brown Bag Lunch program will take place at St. Paul’s at 12:45pm. Volunteer positions are available for Wednesday evening and Thursday. Information and RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/thanksgiving.

Twelfth Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
December 1-3, Trinity Retreat Center
The “Big Book” of Alcoholics Anonymous captures four awful moments of demoralization—terror, bewilderment, frustration and despair—that occur before we discovered the priceless gift of emotional, physical, and spiritual sobriety. No longer are we imprisoned by these four horsemen, but they certainly do re-appear on occasion to bedevil and frighten us. The Rev. Stuart H. Hoke will help us recapture our encounters with the four horsemen, and use the gifts our program gives us to face them squarely and take the wind out of their sails. Sponsored by Trinity’s Community Standing Committee. Cost: $125 double room; $195 single. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Michelle Alexander, Elizabeth Edman, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names
Please submit names of those who have died during the last year for inclusion in the Prayers of the People at the 12:05pm Eucharist on November 2. Please submit your names directly to departed@trinitywallstreet.org or call Korin at 212.602.0759 by Wednesday, October 25.

Giving Tree
October 15-December 1, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts for the children and youth we work with through our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House, a local women’s shelter), New Orleans, Panama, Haiti, and Burundi. The Giving Tree makes giving easy: Simply stop by one of the trees, take a tag describing a specific gift, and once you’ve purchased that gift, bring it back to the tree where you got the tag. You may also mail the gift to 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271 by December 1. If you prefer not to shop, instead choose a tag that requests a monetary donation. Donations may be made by check or money order to 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271. Please make the checks payable to Trinity Church with “Giving Tree” in the memo line. You may also give through Trinity’s online giving site trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Stephanie Burgos at sburgos@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0846.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, through Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. The Parish Choir will sing at Evensong through Nov. 16 and at the 9am Eucharist through Nov. 26. This choir joins the rich musical tradition at Trinity including The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library

Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Book your Holiday Retreat Now
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Advent. The retreats are booking up quickly so make your plans soon. The Advent retreat focuses on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. There is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, for a single room. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Retreat Center Group Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.
Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Sunday Staff
listed by last name
This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from The Message (MSG) by Eugene Peterson. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Voices Found (VF), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LVAS), and Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship (CW), and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
