God of the prophets,
you call us from evil to serve you.
Fulfill in us your commonwealth of justice and joy, that the light of your presence
may be revealed to all nations,
to the glory of Jesus’ name. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

In the Episcopal Church, the season of Epiphany bridges the liturgical seasons of Christmastide (a festive season) and Lent (a penitential season). As with the Season of Pentecost (also known as Ordinary Time), the number of Sundays in Epiphanytide is variable—from five to nine weeks—since the date of Easter changes each year. Also like Ordinary Time, the traditional color of vestments (the robes worn by clergy and the fabric dressings on the altar) is green.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Charles Coffin (1676-1749); tr. Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861, after John Chandler (1807-1876), alt.
Music: Puer nobis, melody from Trier MS, 15th cent.; adapt. Michael Praetorius (1571-1621); harm. Cowley Carol Book, 1902
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader  A Reading from the Book of Jonah.

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, “Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.” So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days’ walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s walk. And he cried out, “Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!” And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

The Word of the Lord.

People  Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

LEVAS 221, vv. 1-2

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)
The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, “Follow me and I will make you fish for people.” And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)
The Prayers of the People

Reader: I ask your prayers for God’s people throughout the world; for bishops and ministers, for all of us gathered here. Pray for the Church.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among all nations; and for the well-being of all people. Pray for justice and peace.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. Pray for those in any need or trouble.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for God’s creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it. Pray for the earth and seas.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship. Pray that we may live into our mission and vision to the fullest.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for our parish pilgrims, walking the way of our ancient Christian forebears in Ethiopia. Pray that they may travel together with open hearts, and return safely to share the fruits of their journey with us.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn. Pray for God’s light to shine upon them.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.

Reader: Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God. Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day.

God of love,

People: Hear our prayer.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon  Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All  Have mercy upon us, most merciful God,
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637–1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510–1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Holy, holy, holy, my heart, my heart adores you! My heart is glad to say the words: you are holy, Lord.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;
Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

1 I want to walk as a child of the light.
2 I want to see the brightness of God.
3 I’m looking for the coming of Christ.

I want to follow Jesus.
I want to look at Jesus.
I want to be with Jesus.

God set the stars to give light to the world. The Clear sun of righteousness, shine on my path, and When we have run with patience the race, we star of my life is Jesus.

show me the way to the Father.
shall know the joy of Jesus.

Refrain

In him there is no darkness at all. The Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
The Blessing

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.

Flowers

The flowers are given today in loving memory of Walter T. Oerlemans, who left this world January 20, 2017. He was a faithful greeter and ever-questioning believer. He walked up the stairs and sat in the last pew every Sunday, until he was not able to walk anymore. He is remembered, loved and missed by his family each and every day.

Share life events by dedicating altar flowers to celebrate a birthday, wedding, anniversary, or birth of a child, or to commemorate a departed loved one. E-mail flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for more information.

Flowers decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel throughout the week. On Thursdays after the 12:05 service, remaining flowers may be taken home by parishioners. Please see a sacristan for assistance.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation
Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The scaffolding that used to reach the ceiling and upper walls in the chancel and on the west side of the nave have been taken down.
The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil color and pattern. We've also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.
Roughly 15-foot-tall scaffolding units, installed on two columns in Trinity Church on January 8 and 9 to give workers access for cleaning, are scheduled for removal January 26. The columns in question are the first two directly in front of the gift shop/welcome desk on the south side of the church.
Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. Beginning the week of January 21, members of the renovation team will install lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity's original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.
To learn more, or watch videos of the Vicar showing the discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

NEXT SUNDAY

Trinity Institute Opening Night
7-9pm, February 2
Even if you're not registered for the Trinity Institute: Values in Action conference, you can attend the opening night free of charge. The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry preaches at opening worship, followed by a keynote address by Pulitzer-Prize winning journalist Jose Antonio Vargas. The conference will offer participants skills, ideas, inspiration, and a greater capacity to take action against injustice, rooted in your deepest values and effective partnerships. Learn more at TI2018.org.
A Litany of Atlanta
1:30pm, Sunday, February 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
A Litany of Atlanta is a documentary theater work in progress conceived by Trinity parishioner Ruth Antoinette Foy using W. E. B. Du Bois’ poem A Litany of Atlanta as the foundation for a theater piece that weaves a story of devastation, pain, despair, and hope from reconstruction to present. J. Chester Johnson’s Elaine Race Massacre and Day of Repentance (Litany of Apology and Repentance for the Episcopal Church’s role in slavery) is a major element of this piece. Other contributions are from Langston Hughes and Mark Bozzi-Jones, among others. Included with this year’s presentation will be Meditations on Civil Rights Activists by J. Chester Johnson. This staged reading is a Congregational Arts Black History Month project, in collaboration with the Task Force Against Racism. There will be a talk back directly following the performance. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP to Toni Foy: rafoy@hotmail.com.

Trinity Men: Super Bowl Party
5pm, February 4, 10 Barclay Street, 3rd Floor
Join Vicar Phil Jackson, and other men from Trinity to watch the Super Bowl together. Hosted by Martez Moore. Space is limited and RSVPs are required to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

DOS WORLDS
February 9-11, St. Paul’s Chapel
DOS WORLDS is a multimedia piece that through movement, theatre and film explores the story of rejection and the search for transcendent unity between people who have lost something which they believe they will never regain. Performances at 7pm February 9-10, and 3pm February 11. Workshop for all ages at 3pm, February 10. Information: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

Stations of the Cross
February 14-April 1
Opening Reception 6pm, Feb. 15, Trinity Church
“Stations of the Cross” is a public art project comprised of 14 “art stations” located across Manhattan, from the Cloisters museum to the 9/11 Memorial. The exhibition breaks open the journey of Jesus, inviting people of all faiths to consider injustice and pain across the human experience. The focus for 2018 is the experience of immigrants and refugees. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/stations.

Winter Work Weekend
Feb. 16-18, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Come to work and worship as we partner with the Cornwall Conservation Trust to groom and rebuild trails in the forest surrounding the center. Attendees should be prepared to engage in a day of rigorous activity. Your stay and meals are free of charge. Availability is limited. Book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pauli Murray Exhibit
February 17 – March 21, St. Paul’s Chapel
March 1, Opening Reception
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street will present an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. A play about her life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Renew or Increase Your Stewardship Pledge
Please remember to renew (or increase) your stewardship pledge for 2018 if you have not done so yet. If you make regular or occasional donations, please consider making a recorded financial pledge. Trinity accepts annual pledges of any amount. If you have already made your pledge for 2018, we thank you. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Willem Brans, Director of Development, at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Follow the Trinity Pilgrims, Now in Ethiopia
Today the Trinity pilgrimage to Ethiopia arrives in the ancient pilgrimage town of Lalibela (Google it!). You can follow their journey online atinthemomentreflections.net and on Instagram at @countrypriest.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
Earlier this year, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This fall and winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities including some renovation work in January 2018, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Considering a Planned Gift to Trinity?
Do you have a Will? If so, please consider remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in your estate plans. You can make an important and lasting contribution to Trinity’s financial foundation, extending the parish’s ministry in our neighborhood and throughout the world in future years. By informing Trinity of your intentions, you will be invited to join The Trinity Charter Society. The names of Charter Society members are inscribed in the Trinity Memorial Book on permanent view in the Chapel of All Saints, and members also receive invitations to special events. (One is coming up this spring.) If you have provided for Trinity in your Will or through another type of planned gift and would like to become a member of The Trinity Charter Society, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at 212.602.9692 or wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Justice for Sergio
Sergio Reyes, a senior at Leadership and Public Service High School, one of Trinity’s neighbors, was shot and killed by police after allegedly holding up a bodega with a fake gun in February 2017. Sergio’s classmates, members of Trinity’s new Advocacy Apprentice program, created a three-part podcast to honor their friend and explore the narratives and social forces surrounding the events that led to his death. Primarily designed for high school students in local public schools, Advocacy Apprentices work on projects to address current justice issues in New York City through storytelling, visual art, community engagement, and service projects. Hear the podcast at trinitywallstreet.org/sergio.

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!
Now you can add Trinity’s events to your digital calendar and never miss another program or service. On any upcoming event found at trinitywallstreet.org/events, look for the “Add to Calendar” button above the time and location details. Click the button and choose your digital calendar—iCalendar, Google Calendar, Outlook, Outlook online, or Yahoo! Calendar. Need help? Information: worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
