Shepherd of Israel,
may Jesus, Emmanuel and son of Mary,
be more than just a dream in our hearts.
With the apostles, prophets, and saints,
save us, restore us,
and lead us in the way of grace and peace,
that we may bear your promise into the world. Amen.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

About this Service

In Advent, Christians wait with joy for the coming of Jesus. These four weeks give us time to tidy up our hearts—to take stock of our lives and prepare for all the hope the world inherited when Jesus was born in a stable in Bethlehem. We look for the star together with faithful people from all over the world. Some of their diverse traditions are reflected in the prayers and songs and sayings in today’s worship.

Together, we invite our savior and friend to return to us once again:

Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus!

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed are you, holy and living One.

People You come to your people and set them free.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965); Music: Besançon Carol, harm. John L. Hooker (b. 1944)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Purify our conscience, Almighty God, by your daily visitation, that your Son Jesus Christ, at his coming, may find in us a mansion prepared for himself; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Isaiah 7:10-16

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

God spoke to Ahaz again. This time God said, “Ask me to do anything you want as a sign; anything as high as the highest heaven or as deep as the deepest sea. Go ahead, ask me for a sign so I can prove myself to you.” But Ahaz didn’t feel good about that. “I’m not going to ask you to prove yourself, God. I won’t give you a test.” Isaiah said, “Listen to me, people of the house of David. Is it not enough for you to wear out human beings? Do you have to pester God as well? God will give you a sign. Here’s what it will be: A young girl will have a baby, and she will name him Immanuel. By the time he starts walking he’ll have figured out the right way to live, and how to turn away from bad choices. And by the time that happens, the land ruled by the two kings you are scared of will be empty.”

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 1:18-25

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

Here’s the story of when Jesus was born. Mary, his mother, was engaged to Joseph. But before they were married, Mary found out she was going to have a baby. The Holy Spirit made that happen! Joseph knew people would talk about Mary behind her back because she wasn’t married, and he didn’t want that to happen to her. So he planned to stop the engagement quietly and no one need know about this baby. That sounded like a good plan to Joseph. But then one night a messenger from God came to him while he was sleeping and said, “Joseph, don’t worry about taking Mary as your wife, even though that baby isn’t yours. This baby is very special and the Holy Spirit is the reason he will be born. When the baby is born, name him Jesus; he’s the one who will save his people from their sin. Don’t be afraid, Joseph.” This is what Isaiah was talking about when he said—a young woman will have a baby who will be named Immanuel, which means, “God is with us." When Joseph woke up from that dream, he decided to do just what the messenger from God told him to do. He married Mary, and when her baby was born, he named him Jesus.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

Reader

In joyful expectation, we pray to the God of Hope.

Come to your Church as a loving counsellor and a righteous judge.

Help us, and all those who govern, to live in your light.

Maranatha:

People

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Reader

Come to all who suffer as savior and comforter.

Break into our lives, where we struggle with sickness and sadness and fear, and set us free to serve you with our whole hearts.

Maranatha:

People

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.
Reader Come to us as a Good Shepherd and guardian of our souls.
Share with us, and with all the faithful departed,
your victory over evil and death.

Maranatha:

People Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Reader Come from heaven, Lord Jesus, with power and glory.
Lift us up to meet you,
That with the blessed Mary and all your saints and angels
We may live with you in your new creation.

Maranatha:

People Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Silence

Celebrant Come, Lord Jesus; do not delay. Give new courage to all those who trust in your love.
By your coming, raise us to share in the joy of your kingdom; on earth as in heaven, where you live and reign with the Father and the Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Happy are those whose sins are forgiven, whose wrongs are pardoned.

Silence

God forgives and heals us.

All We need your healing, merciful God:
give us true repentance.
Some sins are plain to us;
some escape us,
some we cannot face.
Forgive us;
set us free to hear your word to us;
set us free to serve you.

Celebrant God forgives you. Forgive others; forgive yourself.

Silence

Through Christ, God has put away your sin: approach your God in peace.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to offer thanks and praise.
Celebrant God of might and mercy, Creator of the universe, your goodness calls forth every praise we can speak.
People Glory to you for ever and ever.
Celebrant You made all things: the stars that spread across the sky; this abundant earth we call home; waters and weather, creatures great and small.
People All gifts come from you, O God.
Celebrant You created human beings from the first elements. You made us able to think, to move, to love, and to remember. You charged us with the care of your world. But we turned against you and against each other. We chose a path apart from you.

Again and again, you called us to return. When it was time, you sent your only Son to be born of your servant, Mary; in him, you fulfilled your Law and opened for us the way of freedom and peace.

People Through Jesus' sacrifice, we are healed.
Celebrant For all of this, we praise you, together with the heavenly choir of angels, apostles, saints, and the faithful from every generation. With them, and with your children all around the world, we sing of your goodness and glory:

Sanctus

Music: Composer of melody unknown; based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant And so, Creator, we who have been redeemed by Jesus, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Christ our Lord.
On the night he was betrayed, he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: this is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Together, we remember all Jesus has done to redeem us, and we offer you this sacrifice of thanksgiving.

_all_ We celebrate his death and resurrection,
And we look for the day of his coming.

_celebrant_ Almighty God of our ancestors and Father of our Savior, Jesus: open our eyes to your light shining through the world around us. Help us to come to this table for strength and renewal. Through your grace, may the food and drink we receive together make us one body and one spirit in Jesus, inspired to serve the world in his name.

dlly_ Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

_celebrant_ Accept our prayers and our praise, Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship, for ever and ever.

_all_ AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

celebrant_ And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say, _all_ Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
    Give us this day our daily bread.
    And forgive us our trespasses,
    as we forgive those who trespass against us.
    And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
    For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and glory,
    for ever and ever. AMEN.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

celebrant_ We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.
_people_ We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

celebrant_ The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to come forward for a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.
Communion Hymn

Words: George Herbert (1593-1633); Music: The Call, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: Elisha A. Hoffman (1829-1929); Music: Anthony J. Showalter (1858-1924); arr. Carl Haywood (b. 1949), from Songs of Praise
Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

BULLETIN BOARD

Holiday Hours
The Parish Center will be closed from 3pm Friday, December 23, through Monday, December 26, and on Sunday, January 1. Trinity offices will be closed Monday, December 26, and Monday, January 2, 2017. Please check trinitywallstreet.org for information about services and events.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase holiday gifts, including Christmas ornaments, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. When you shop in December, you receive a free Christmas card to give with your gift. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

Poinsettia Donations
Poinsettias that will decorate the Trinity chancel for Christmas may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $20. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Christmas. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing.

Be a Good Steward: Pledge Now
Christmastide is the season of giving, the perfect time to make your pledge to Trinity’s 2017 Giving Campaign, “Being Good Stewards.” If you have already made your pledge, thank you! By renewing and increasing your pledge for next year at whatever amount, you extend the reach of Trinity’s ministry and programs to help those most vulnerable among us. If you make regular or occasional donations, please consider making a formal financial pledge. Stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes are available near the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. You may place your pledge card and envelope in offering plates at any Trinity service. You may also pledge online at www.trinitywallstreet.org/give. For more information or questions, contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.
Pledge Payment Deadline
Please note that to be counted in this calendar year, all 2016 pledge payments should be received at Trinity Church's office or postmarked no later than December 31, 2016. If you have any questions, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Considering a Planned Gift to Trinity?
Over the past 320 years, bequests by parishioners and friends have made an important contribution to Trinity's financial foundation, extending the parish's ministry in our neighborhood and throughout the world. You can be part of this legacy by joining those who have declared their support of Trinity's future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their estate plans. You will then be inducted into The Trinity Charter Society, whose members have their names inscribed in the Trinity Memorial Book in the Chapel of All Saints and receive invitations to special events. (One is coming up soon.) If you have provided for Trinity in your will or through another type of planned gift and would like to become a member of The Trinity Charter Society, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at 212.602.9692 or wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and all who humble themselves will be exalted” (Matthew 23:12). This is one of my favorite verses. If you are boasting about yourself, God will put you in a position to be humble. But, if you are boasting about God, he will put you in a position to be exalted. God says to put no one before Him. — Wayne Scott

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God’s Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982; Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP); and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS). The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and the Book of Occasional Services (BOS).

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

Sunday parking validation for the Battery Parking Garage is available at the Parish Center, 2 Rector St. Please ask an usher for directions.
