Holy God,
you have revealed the glory of your love in Jesus Christ,
and have given us a share in your Spirit.
May we who listen to Christ follow faithfully,
and, in the dark places where you send us,
reveal the light of your gospel. Amen.
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

While the feast of the Transfiguration of Our Lord is celebrated annually in the Episcopal Church on the fixed date of August 6, the last Sunday after the Epiphany is often informally called “Transfiguration Sunday.” In all three years of the lectionary cycle, the appointed Gospel reading for this final Sunday of Epiphanytide recounts an incident—described by three of the four gospel writers—in which Jesus appears to his disciples Peter, James, and John in dazzling, otherworldly glory on a mountaintop. Christ’s dramatic revelation as the Son of God is a fitting culmination to the scriptural arc of the Epiphany season, which focuses on the many ways in which Jesus manifested his divinity while in human form. The liturgical vestments used on this day are, appropriately, white.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People    And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

1 Morning has broken like the first morning,
2 Sweet the rain’s new fall sunlit from heaven,

1 Blackbird has spoken like the first bird,
2 Like the first dew fall on the first grass.

1 Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
2 Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,

1 Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!
2 Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.
Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm. Alec Wyton (1921-2007)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

2 Kings 2:1-3, 6-11

Reader: A Reading from the second Book of Kings.

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?” And he said, “Yes, I know; keep silent.” Elisha refused to leave Elijah wherever they traveled.

In Jericho, Elijah said to him, “Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.” Elisha said, “Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.” He responded, “You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.” As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.
This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.
Ev'rywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine.

Oh, this little light of mine,
This little light of mine,

I'm gonna let it shine;
I'm gonna let it shine;

Let it shine,
Let it shine.

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)
The Deacon reads:

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

The People respond:

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon:

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!” Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

The Deacon continues:

The Gospel of the Lord.

The People respond:

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

God of love,

People  Hear our prayer.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon    Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

   Silence

All       Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All       Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People  And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People  We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People  It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus
Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant
We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
        on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

1 I want to walk as a child of the light.
2 I want to see the brightness of God.
3 I'm looking for the coming of Christ.

1 I want to follow Jesus.
2 I want to look at Jesus.
3 I want to be with Jesus.

1 God set the stars to give light to the world. The 2 Clear sun of righteousness, shine on my path, and 3 When we have run with patience the race, we

1 star of my life is Jesus.
2 show me the way to the Father.
3 shall know the joy of Jesus.

Post-Communion Prayer

Words: Kathleen Thomerson (b. 1934); Music: Houston, Kathleen Thomerson

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
The Blessing

Celebrant

The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All

Amen.

LEVAS 114
Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People   Thanks be to God.

Flowers

The flowers are given today in loving memory of Walter T. Oerlemans. One year ago today his ashes were interred in the Trinity Memorial Garden, forever to be a part of the soil and earth of this church. Feel free to visit and sit on the bench, tell him how you are feeling and what’s new in your life. He would want to know. Walter, your kind presence and gentle hands are deeply missed.

Share life events by dedicating altar flowers to celebrate a birthday, wedding, anniversary, or birth of a child, or to commemorate a departed loved one. E-mail flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for more information.

Flowers decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel throughout the week. On Thursdays after the 12:05 service, remaining flowers may be taken home by parishioners. Please see a sacristan for assistance.
Episcopal Saint:
Remembering Pauli Murray’s Life and Work

Pauli Murray was a priest, poet, teacher, trailblazing attorney, and pioneering civil rights activist. Join Trinity as we honor the legacy of this Episcopal saint.

Exhibit
Imp, Crusader, Dude, Priest
February 17-March 21

In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity presents an interactive exhibit chronicling Murray’s life and legacy. The exhibit explores Murray’s multifaceted identity and how she aspired to integrate them into a single life of purpose and transformation.

Presented alongside self-portraits from the students at Leadership and Public Service High School.

Opening reception on March 1.
Free and open to all.

TODAY

Youth Group: DOS WORLDS Workshop
10am, 14 Vesey St. (across from St. Paul’s Chapel)
At this interactive workshop, participants will explore through movement, theater, and sound, what compassion and inclusiveness mean to us and each other. Level of movement will depend on ability of attendees. Information: Wendy Claire Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9627.

Storytelling Session: Ethiopia Pilgrims
10am, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Members of the Trinity community recently returned from a pilgrimage to Ethiopia. You are invited to hear their stories and see some of their pictures at this informal gathering. Sharing pilgrimage stories with the wider community has a dual purpose: it helps the pilgrim continue to understand the depths of the recent experience, while also inviting others, however directly or indirectly, to perhaps experience a pilgrimage in the future.

Trinity Knitters
12:30-2:30pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Are you an experienced knitter, new to the craft, or somewhere in between? Trinity Knitters welcomes you to come knit or crochet items for the housebound, children of incarcerated parents, returning veterans, and others in need. Yarn, needles, and patterns are available to all, and expert instruction is provided for first-timers. Join in the fun and fellowship! Information: macmilj@yahoo.com or 201.915.9814.

Discovery: Living Our Values
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
During the season of Epiphany, we remember the coming of the wise men bringing gifts to the Christ child, who by doing so reveal Jesus to the world. Join Discovery adult education class for an exploration of how our actions make known our deepest values and convictions, as we look to activists and role models who reveal how to create the world we want to live in. This Week: Can Christians Cultivate Disruption as a Virtue? Presented by the Rev. Elizabeth M. Edman, author of Queer Virtue. This class will consider how “queerness” as a kind of disruption can help Christians cultivate justice in our communities and in our world.

DOS WORLDS
3pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
DOS WORLDS is a multimedia piece that, through movement, theatre, and film, explores the story of rejection and the search for transcendent unity between people who have lost something they believe they will never regain. Information: Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org.

EVERY SUNDAY

Trinity Church Rejuvenation
Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. In the coming days, members of the renovation team will complete the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity’s original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

The team is finishing cleaning tests on the bases of the two southwest columns that were previously scaffolded and is also testing cleaning techniques on the stone floor in the southwest aisle.

6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one’s spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the "true self.” This season we invite you to explore, in community, reflections from the writings of mystics, spiritual directors, activists, and others including Hildegard of Bingen, Julian of Norwich, the Celtic tradition, Thomas Merton, Daniel Berrigan, Joan Chittister, Richard Rohr, and Andrew Harvey. The writings of these spiritual leaders, along with weekly writing prompts, inspire and guide the writer to follow the flow from within and onto the page. Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

Opening Reception: Stations of the Cross
February 15-April 1
6-8pm, Trinity Church
“Stations of the Cross” is a public art project comprised of 14 art stations located across Manhattan, from The Cloisters museum to the 9/11 Memorial. The exhibition breaks open the journey of Jesus, inviting people of all faiths to consider injustice and pain across the human experience. The focus for 2018 is the experience of immigrants and refugees. Come meet the artists and representatives from all the sites—including G. Roland Biermann, creator of Stations, 2016-2018, the art located at Trinity Church (Station 13)—with opening remarks from the Rt. Rev. Andrew M.L. Dietsche, Bishop of New York. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/stations.
COMING SOON

Security Enhancements
After receiving feedback from members of the congregation regarding our security enhancements, we are adjusting our plans. In March, we will begin checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel. We believe this will be a less intrusive and quicker process, while still protecting those who enter our buildings. More details about the start date and entrance/exit plans will be shared soon. If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Pauli Murray Exhibit
February 17–March 21, St. Paul's Chapel
6-8pm, March 1, Opening Reception
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street will present an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. A play about her life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

Organ Inauguration Festival
February 19-25, St. Paul's Chapel
Celebrate the newly installed Noack three-manual pipe organ in St. Paul's Chapel with a week-long festival and weekly recitals featuring some of today's leading concert organists. Free and open to all. See the full schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pipes.

Young Adult Sunday Brunch
February 25, 12:45pm, Offsite
Join Trinity's Young Adult Group for social and spiritual fellowship with other community members in their 20s and 30s! We will meet for our monthly brunch after the 11:15am service at 12:45pm inside the church by the main entrance on Broadway. We'll walk together to a neighborhood restaurant for brunch. Please kindly RSVP to Alan Yu or Marie Heimann at young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Bach at One
Beginning February 26
Mondays at 1pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity's popular Bach at One series welcomes the addition of a marvelous new organ to St Paul's Chapel by pairing favorite cantatas with Bach's magnificent Preludes and Fugues and Leipzig Chorales. Free and open to all. See the full schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/bach.

Pipes at One
Beginning March 2
Fridays at 1pm, St. Paul's Chapel
All are invited to these free weekly recitals showcasing our new organ. Curated by Associate Organist Avi Stein. Free and open to all. See the full schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pipes.

Lenten Retreat
March 2-4, Trinity Retreat Center, West Cornwall, CT
Lent is an ideal time to slow down to reconnect to our spiritual center in preparation for the Easter feast. This retreat will focus on the deeply renewing and restorative themes of the season, inviting participants into various forms of prayer in nature, and giving ample time for reflection and rest. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Forgiveness: The Heart's True Home
March 17, Trinity Retreat Center
This day-long workshop will use a family systems approach to invite participants deeper into the practice of forgiveness and reconciliation—within their own personal lives and families, as well as in the broader, sometimes conflicted communities in which we find ourselves. Although this is a day retreat, participants are welcome to stay and join the community for meals in the Main House on Friday and Saturday nights at normal rates. Please indicate in the booking request form which night(s), if any, you'll be staying with us. The workshop begins at 9am. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Week Retreat
March 28-April 1, Trinity Retreat Center
Together we will celebrate the most important holy days of the year: the Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, leading to Easter Sunday. Participants will reflect on each day's themes and celebrate the liturgies together in the context of nature's early springtime re-awakening. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal Retreat
April 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Participants are invited to relax during this weekend dedicated to refreshment and renewal of body and soul through rest, prayer, and play. Time will be lightly structured around a daily house schedule, giving ample space to reconnect with nature, pursue special interests, and participate in the community we make together. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.
Mary Magdalene Retreat
Mary 4-6, Trinity Retreat Center
The month of May is traditionally associated with Mary and the retreat center will be blooming. This retreat will explore the strong feminine archetype of Mary Magdalene, found hidden in a historically masculine Christian tradition. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life's dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee.
Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Justice for Sergio
Sergio Reyes, a senior at Leadership and Public Service High School, one of Trinity's neighbors, was shot and killed by police after allegedly holding up a bodega with a fake gun in February 2017. Sergio’s classmates, members of Trinity’s new Advocacy Apprentice program, created a three-part podcast to honor their friend and explore the narratives and social forces surrounding the events that led to his death. Primarily designed for high school students in local public schools, Advocacy Apprentices work on projects to address current justice issues in New York City through storytelling, visual art, community engagement, and service projects. Hear the podcast at trinitywallstreet.org/sergio.

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!
Now you can add Trinity’s events to your digital calendar and never miss another program or service. On any upcoming event found at trinitywallstreet.org/events, look for the “Add to Calendar” button above the time and location details. Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at vvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

Green Notes: Sea Levels Rising
More than a hundred million people worldwide live within three feet of mean sea level. Average global sea level has risen between four and eight inches in the past hundred years, exposing Shanghai, Bangkok, Jakarta, Tokyo, and New York City to catastrophic floods. The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words “JURO TEMPS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). The Prayers of the People and other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
