God, whose fingers sculpt sun and moon
and curl the baby’s ear;
Spirit, brooding over chaos
before the naming of day;
Savior, sending us to earth’s ends
with water and words:
startle us with the grace, love, and communion
of your unity in diversity, that we may live to the praise of your majestic name. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today is Trinity Sunday, the third Principal Feast of the Episcopal Church occurring during the past month, and the patronal feast day of the Trinity Church Wall Street parish. On Trinity Sunday, the Collect and Preface—prayers specific to the day—invite us to contemplate the three-fold nature of God: manifested as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and yet one unified Being. Trinity Sunday is always observed on the first Sunday after the Day of Pentecost; Thomas Becket was consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury on that day in 1162. Historically, from the 12th until the early 20th century, the Sundays after Pentecost were counted as the Sundays after Trinity.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All
Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Genesis 1:1—2:2 GWMV p. 94

Reader A Reading from the book of Genesis.

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth had no shape at all. There wasn't any light. The water was in total darkness and God's breath moved back and forth over the sea. God said out loud, “Let there be light.” And there was! He separated the light and the darkness and called the light “daytime” and called the dark “nighttime.” That was the very first day. “This is good,” God said.

Then he worked on separating the water from the sky. That was the second day. God said, “Let’s put all the water on the earth together in one place and call it ‘sea’ and the places of dry land we’ll call ‘earth.’” God was very pleased with how things were coming together. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth plants and trees. Let’s have plants that grow food! Great!” God said, “This third day was very good.”

God said, “Now let’s put some order to the light in the skies. We need something to separate day from night, and days from years, and seasons from seasons.” And it was so. The big light is the sun, which we see in the day, and the smaller light is the moon. Then God made all the stars in the sky. That was the fourth day.

God said, “I’d like to see some living creatures—like fish in the sea and whales and all kinds of birds in the sky. Let’s make some huge sea monsters that live way down deep, and then some little fish who like to flip out of the water. Oh, I’ve got so many great ideas about animals. Let’s make them all.” Every kind of animal that crawls or runs or flies was made by God. And God was delighted. He blessed them so that they could multiply, and said, “Please, fill up the oceans with things that swim and fill the skies with birds.” That was the fifth day.

God said, “Now, let’s see. What kind of animals should live on the dry parts? How about cows, and bugs, and cats? And all kinds of wild animals.” And the earth was filled with every kind of animal he could imagine. And God saw that it was really, really good.
Then God said, “Let us make people in our image, who are more like us; and they can take care of the earth and the seas and the animals and the birds in the air and the fish in the sea.” So God created man and woman. He blessed them and told them to be productive and have children so there would always be someone to take care of God’s creation. God explained that they could use the plants to feed themselves.

God stepped back and looked at everything. Such excellent work! That was the end of the sixth day.

On the seventh day, God took a break, blessed and declared that day a day of rest. That rest felt very, very good.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20
GWMV p. 135

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to meet. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some still weren’t sure that he was God’s Son. Jesus said to them, “God has told me to tell you, don’t ever stand still. Go and help people to become disciples. All of them, no matter where they live. Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them the new way of living I introduced to you. And don’t ever forget this: I am with you always. Always.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.
The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, adapted

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, loving and mighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

And so we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with everyone in heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Celebrant  Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; when we had wandered far from you and fallen into sin, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, and to reconcile us to you through his perfect sacrifice.
On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate your loving mercy, O God, with praise and thanksgiving. Remembering how Jesus died, and rose again, and ascended to you in heaven, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the holy food and drink of new and unending life in your Son. Sanctify us also, that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and be strengthened to serve you together in peace. At the last day, bring us with all your saints into the never-ending joy of your kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Hymnal 508

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant    Let us pray.
All          God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant    Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us be with you now and for ever.
All          Amen.
1 Joyful, joyful, we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
2 All thy works with joy surround thee, earth and heaven reflect thy rays, hearts unfold like flowers before thee, praising thee, their sun above, stars and angels sing around thee, center of unbroken praise.

Melt the clouds of sin and sadness; drive the dark of doubt away;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, blooming meadow, flashing sea, giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day, chanting bird and flowing fountain, call us to rejoice in thee.

Words: Henry Van Dyke (1852-1933); Music: Hymn to Joy, Ludwig van Beethoven (1770-1827); adapt. Edward Hodges (1796-1867), alt.

Core Values: Compassion
“Compassion constitutes a radical form of criticism, for it announces that the hurt is to be taken seriously, that the hurt is not to be accepted as normal and natural but is an abnormal and unacceptable condition for humanness.” —Walter Brueggemann
In June, we will explore the core value of compassion. What does compassion mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

- Compassion
  Thursday, June 22, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
- Social Justice
  Tuesday, July 18, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
- Stewardship
  Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room

Other opportunities for exploring and celebrating our core values include:

Celebrating Core Values

COMING SOON
Care for Caregivers
10:30am-2:30pm, June 24, Parish Center
Join the Rev. Kristin Miles and art therapist Jessica Heller of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for an afternoon of reflection and replenishment for caregivers. Together we will take a moment in our day to be replenished in the sharing of a meal, in the catching of our breath, in the comfort of prayer, and in the practice of resting in the presence of God. We will reflect on the spirituality of caregiving and the importance of self-care through supportive discussion, meditation, and creative expression. RSVPs appreciated by June 19 to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Summer Sundays Begin (and Sailing!)
10am, June 25-Sept. 10, St. Paul’s Chapel
The theme of our intergenerational education hour this year is Creation Care. In our first four weeks, we’ll explore the gift of water, so we are going sailing! On June 25, at 11am after the education hour, you are invited on a two-hour ecological tour of New York Harbor on board the 19th-century restored schooner Pioneer, leaving from South Street Seaport. Pioneer has a limited number of seats, so please RSVP to Summerlee Staten at staten@trinitywallstreet.org by June 18 with a firm commitment to reserve your place.

Community Bible Study
1pm, Sundays, June 25-Sept. 10, Trinity Church
Open and inclusive, weekly summer Sunday Bible study takes place throughout the summer while regular Discovery classes are on break. Whether you’re a Bible scholar, just opening the book for the first time, or anywhere in between, your voice is welcomed and encouraged. Led by the Community Bible Study team, informal classes encompass group reflection on one or more of the readings for the day. Drop-ins welcome! The first study, on Sunday June 25, will be an introduction led by Bob Scott, director of Faith Formation and Education. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pride March
12:30-1:30 pm, June 25, Parish Center
The Trinity LGBT Integrity Group and friends gather at the Parish Center for a reception and meet-up before marching with the Episcopal Diocese of New York and other Episcopal congregations. March time: 2-6pm. Information: TrinityIntegrityGroup@outlook.com.

Breaking Bread
1pm, June 25, Trinity Church, Manning Room
When life’s blustery winds push against your sides, what spiritual practices keep you on God’s course and move you purposefully forward? In our Breaking Bread time together, loving conversations can prompt us toward transformative moments. We invite you to join us for community eating as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations with each other. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net; Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Mission & Service Trips
Next Trip: New York City, July 14-Aug. 11 (Fridays)
Commissioning: Sunday, July 9
Want to make a difference? Want to participate in an activity that can create true and lasting change? Consider applying for an upcoming trip to visit Trinity’s mission partners. Members of the Trinity community and friends engage in service to build partnerships and relationships through hands-on work. A trip to Panama originally planned for earlier in the year has been rescheduled to September 20–25. Deadline for application is June 30. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.
Trinity Retreat Center Preview Picnic
12-4pm, July 29, West Cornwall, CT
Visit the retreat center and get a sneak peek of renovations under way and talk to directors Heidi and Joe Rose and the Rev. Daniel Simons about the progress that has been made at the center as it moves closer to reopening. Tour the center’s renovation projects and meet the new farm animals. Trinity will provide transportation, a hearty lunch, and family-friendly activities. Free and open to all. RSVP by July 15 at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
There are still several places open for the January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations, and there is a registration discount of $50 before July 15th. After that date participation will be on an as-available basis. Contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to reserve your place.

BULLETIN BOARD
Farewell Bob Zito!
Today we say farewell to the Rev. Deacon Bob Zito and thank him for his ministry at Trinity. Since 2010, Bob has served as Trinity’s deacon, as well as leading The Broad Way Bible study on Monday afternoons. This August, Bob will begin an appointment as Assistant Professor of Business Law at Marist College. He and Dana will live in New Paltz. Come wish them well at the Trinity picnic after the 11:15am service.

Celebrating our Graduates
Today the Trinity Youth Chorus would like to recognize graduating Senior Chorister Erica D’Anconca. Erica has been a member of the Trinity Youth Chorus for the past four years and will be attending Carnegie Mellon University next fall to major in Vocal Performance.

Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity is buying shares in two local Community Supported Agriculture concerns to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Parish Choir Forming
Trinity is organizing a Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that will sing for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 3pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Auditions are available by appointment. The choir meets seasonally; the next session will run September 24–November 19. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the Trinity Choir of Men and Boys, The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Josh Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Trinity Charter Society
On May 30, five new members were inducted into The Trinity Charter Society: Gabriel Bonadie, the Rev. Canon James G. Callaway, Dr. Mary Chilton Callaway, Alfred DiRaffaele, and Shirley Quashie. Society members have declared their support of Trinity’s future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their estate plans. If you have included Trinity in your will or in another type of estate planning vehicle, or if you would like more information about The Trinity Charter Society, please contact the Fund Development office: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org; 212.602.9692.

The Sisters are In
Weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!” The sisters are in most weekday mornings or afternoons before or after the 12:05pm service.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.
AIDS Walk NY
Trinity's AIDS Walk NY team had a fantastic time walking on May 21. If you missed the walk, there's still time to donate. To give, call 212.807.WALK and ask that your donation be credited to Trinity's team number 9797.

Congregational Voice
“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him and he will make straight your paths” (Proverbs 3:5-6). I always refer to this verse because I have a tendency of analyzing and doing my plans, but don’t rely on God’s plan. My path will be directed by Him and I will obey. God is my co-pilot. —Marilyn King

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God's Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS) and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
