Through the storms of life, O God, you are with your people in the person of Jesus your Son. Calm our fears and strengthen our faith that we may never doubt his presence among us but proclaim that he is your Son, risen from the dead, living for ever and ever. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.
Hymn in Procession

Surely it is God who saves me; trusting him, I shall not

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

God our rock and refuge: keep us safe in your care and strengthen us with your grace, that we may pray to you faithfully and love one another boldly, following the example of Jesus, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

This is the story of Jacob and his family. When Joseph was seven years old, he was in the field with the sheep and his brothers. Joseph told their father some of the bad things the brothers were doing. That didn't make the brothers happy at all. Jacob loved Joseph more than any of his other children. He had made him a beautiful long robe. His brothers knew their father loved Joseph the best and they hated him for it. They couldn't even be nice to him.

The brothers were in the field with the flock one day when Jacob sent Joseph to check on them. They could see him coming, and thought they might get away with killing him by saying a wild animal had eaten him. Reuben heard their plan and said, “Don't kill him. Just throw him in this pit instead.” Reuben thought he'd come back later and rescue Joseph. The brothers stripped the robe off Joseph and threw him in the pit, which was empty and dry. Then they sat down to eat, and saw a caravan with camels coming near on their way to Egypt. Judah had an idea. He said, “What's the point of killing Joseph if we could sell him for some money instead?” All the brothers agreed. So when some traders from Midian came by, they sold Joseph to them for twenty pieces of silver. And the caravan took Joseph into Egypt.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Jesus dismissed the crowds and made the disciples get into a boat and go to the other side of the lake. When he was finally alone, he went up the mountain to pray. He was still there when it got dark. By this time, a storm had come upon the lake and the boat the disciples were in was being battered by the waves. Early in the morning, Jesus came walking on the sea toward the boat. They thought they were seeing a ghost, and they were terrified. But immediately Jesus said to them, “Take heart! It's me. Don't be afraid.”
Peter said, “Lord, if it’s you, tell me to walk on the water toward you.” Jesus said, “Come.” Peter got out of the boat, and started walking on the water toward Jesus. He noticed how strong the wind was and got scared and began to sink. “Jesus, save me,” Peter said. Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “Peter, why did you doubt you could do it? Have you so little faith in me?” The two of them got in the boat with the rest of the disciples and the wind stopped right away. Everyone in the boat worshipped Jesus, saying, “Truly, you are the Son of God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Rev. Elizabeth Blunt

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy."

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our Bishops, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may celebrate our core value of stewardship and truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For those in sorrow, sickness, need, or any kind of trouble, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, “Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you.” Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and give us the peace and unity of your heavenly City, where with God and the Holy Spirit, you live and reign, now and for ever.

Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of Christ.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1, adapted

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, holy and merciful Creator, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:
Celebrant  Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All
The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

_A celebrant_ And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.

All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

_A celebrant_ And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

_A all_ Our Father, who art in heaven,
  hallowed be thy Name,
  thy kingdom come,
  thy will be done,
  on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
  who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
  but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
  and the power, and the glory,
  for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

WLP 742

1. Loving Spirit, loving Spirit, you have chosen me to be;
2. Like a mother you enfold me, hold my life within your own;
3. Like a father you protect me, teach me the discerning eye;
4. Friend and lover in your closeness I am known and held and blest;
5. Loving Spirit, loving Spirit, you have chosen me to be;

you have drawn me to your wonder, you have set your sign on me.
Feed me with your very body, form me of your flesh and bone.
Hoist me up upon your shoulder, let me see the world from high.
In your promise is my comfort, in your presence I may rest.

Words: Shirley Erena Murray (b. 1931); Music: Omni die, melody from Gross Catolisch Gesangbuch, 1631; harm. William Smith Rockstro (1823-1895)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant God's blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always.

All Amen.

Trinity In Your Neighborhood
beginning Saturday, August 26, Staten Island
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. The next gatherings include a backyard cookout at 3pm, Saturday, August 26, in Staten Island; tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Haiti Scholars Fund Drive Exceeds Goal!
Thanks to the generous response from parishioners and friends of Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel, the campaign for Haiti Scholars for Success has raised $10,289.18, exceeding the $10,000 goal. On behalf of the Vestry, Church-Wardens, Rector, the Sisters of St. Margaret, and scholarship recipients, a heartfelt thanks to everyone whose donations made this campaign a resounding success. All gifts of any amount go directly towards helping students in Haiti pay their annual school fees and thus attend school this coming year. By donating, you are enabling students in Haiti to reach their full potential through education—the key to lifting Haiti out of poverty in future years. This is a living example of Trinity’s core value of compassion in action. Blessings to everyone for your compassionate generosity! Information: trinitywallstreet.org/haitischolars.
SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUCCESS

Give the gift of education to students in Haiti. Donate today to change a child’s life.

Since the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Sisters of St. Margaret and parishioners of Trinity Church Wall Street have given scholarships to Haitian students of all ages who could not afford an education. As the new school year approaches, our goal is to raise $10,000 to cover the school fees for 13 students in our program.

You can donate by writing a check to Trinity Church Wall Street (Haiti Scholarships in the memo line) and dropping it in the giving boxes at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel; donating online; or giving to the plate offering during services on July 30.

Give online and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/HaitiScholars.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words ‘JURO TEMPSUS
NON FORE AMPLIUS’ which translate as ‘I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP).
Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God’s Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching
Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017
Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
