The Transfiguration of Our Lord Jesus Christ
Holy Eucharist Rite II
August 6, 2017, 9:15am

God beyond all seeing and knowing, we meet you in the night of change and crisis, and wrestle with you in the darkness of doubt.

Give us the will and spirit to live faithfully and love as we are loved. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

We feature these worship elements beginning today in conjunction with the Transfiguration, one of the seven Feasts of Our Lord observed in the Episcopal Church. Three of the four Gospel writers describe Jesus’ appearance in dazzling glory on a mountaintop with Moses and Elijah, and his revelation as the Son of God. These readings are always appointed for the Last Sunday after the Epiphany as well the Transfiguration.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Sun of Righteousness, so gloriously risen, shine in our hearts as we celebrate our redemption, that we may see your way to our eternal home, where you reign, one holy and undivided Trinity, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Moses came down from the top of Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant in his hands—the agreement between God and Israel. As he came back to the people waiting for him at the bottom, Moses didn’t realize that the skin of his face was shining because he’d been talking with God. When his brother Aaron and all the people saw him, they were afraid to come near him.

But Moses called them back, and when they were gathered around him, he explained the commandments God had given him. When he was finished speaking, he covered his shining face with a veil of cloth. Whenever he spoke with the Lord after that day, he would take the veil off while he told the people what God had said, and they would see his face shining. When he was done, he’d cover his face back up.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

MHSO 20

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words and Music: Fintal O’Carroll (1922-1981) and Christopher Walker (b. 1947)
Deacon     The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People    Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon    Jesus took Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. While he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly his disciples saw two men—Moses and Elijah—shining the same way Jesus was. They were talking together with him about his plan to leave the earth soon from Jerusalem.

Before this happened, Peter and John and James had been so tired they could hardly keep their eyes open; they almost missed seeing Jesus and Moses and Elijah in all their glory.

But now Peter was so excited that he said to Jesus, “Master, it’s good that we’re here; let’s build three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah!”—but he didn’t really understand what he was saying.

Suddenly, while he was still talking, a cloud swept in around them, and they were terrified. Then a voice came from the cloud and said, “This is my Son, my Chosen One; listen to him!” After they heard those words, they found Jesus alone. And for a long time they didn’t tell anyone about the things they’d seen that day.

People    Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Frank Hakoola
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

Reader In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy."

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all people, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For our Bishop, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the good earth God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the widowed and orphans, for the sick and the suffering, and for those who are alone, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.
Reader For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.

People To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Celebrant Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, “Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you”: Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of your heavenly City, where with God and the Holy Spirit, you live and reign, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of Christ.

Welcome

Please be seated.
The Offertory
Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation
Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.

The Great Thanksgiving
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, holy and merciful Creator, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:
Sanctus

Celebrant Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ's sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink this, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All
The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant
And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.

All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All
AMEN.

---

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
  hallowed be thy Name,
  thy kingdom come,
  thy will be done,
  on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
  but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
  and the power, and the glory,
  for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Words: Shirley Erena Murray (b. 1931); Music: Omni die, melody from Gross Catolisch Gesangbuch, 1631; harm. William Smith Rockstro (1823-1895)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant God's blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always.

All Amen.
Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)
Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUCCESS
Give the gift of education to students in Haiti. Donate today to change a child’s life.

Since the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Sisters of St. Margaret and parishioners of Trinity Church Wall Street have given scholarships to Haitian students of all ages who could not afford an education. As the new school year approaches, our goal is to raise $10,000 to cover the school fees for 13 students in our program.

You can donate by writing a check to Trinity Church Wall Street (Haiti Scholarships in the memo line) and dropping it in the giving boxes at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel; donating online; or giving to the plate offering during services on July 30.

Give online and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/HaitiScholars.

Prayer Requests
Beginning today, prayer requests may be found in the announcements section of all service bulletins. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Downtown Voices Choir Auditions
through September 15
Auditions are open for Downtown Voices, Trinity’s semiprofessional choir featuring talented volunteers and members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, under the direction of Stephen Sands. The choir rehearsees weekly on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9pm, September 2017 through May 2018. To learn more and request an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Stewardship Pledges Set New Records
The 2017 Stewardship Appeal recently broke the record for the highest number of pledges—173—and the highest dollar total ever—$362,255—in Trinity’s history. A great thank-you to all the parishioners and friends of Trinity who have made a formal stewardship pledge for 2017. If you donate to Trinity but have not pledged, you can still join this successful effort by making your formal pledge, even in mid-year. Stewardship pledge cards and return envelopes are available at the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, or you can pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Volunteers needed: CSA
through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity has bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values: Stewardship

“Lord, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve.”—St. Ignatius of Loyola

In August, we are exploring the core value of stewardship. What does stewardship mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

• Stewardship
  Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room

Here’s another opportunity for exploring and celebrating our core values:

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words JURO TEMPUS NON FORAE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God’s Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
