O God of mercy,
in Jesus Christ you freed us from sin and death,
and by your Holy Spirit
you nourish our mortal bodies with life.
Plant us now in good soil,
that our lives may flower
in righteousness and peace. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.”

—Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

We often describe liturgy at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel as a river: an apt analogy, since it suggests how it flows around—and how it shapes—the surrounding environment. During these twenty-five weeks of the Season after Pentecost, we will feature a variety of prayers within the context of our Holy Eucharist. We encourage you to recognize which of these many facets of worship resonate most personally with you.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

WLP 812, vv. 1, 3

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin
My hand will save,
I who made the stars of night,
Finest bread I will provide.

I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?__

Refrain

Here I am, Lord.__ Is it I, Lord?__ I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord.__

_if you lead me__, I will hold your people in my heart._

Words and Music: Daniel L. Schutte (b. 1947)
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the book of Genesis.

Isaac was forty years old when he and Rebekah married, and they prayed for children for a long time. Finally, when Isaac was sixty, Rebekah became pregnant. She felt so miserable she said, “If this is what motherhood is like, why should I bother?” She asked God what she should do, and God said to her, “The reason you feel so bad is that you’re pregnant with two babies—not just one. And they’ll be as different as two separate nations.”

When the twins were born, the first was red and hairy; so they named him Esau. The second came out holding onto his brother’s foot. So they called him Jacob. As they grew up, Esau became a skilled hunter and an outdoorsman; Jacob was a quiet man who spent most of his time indoors. Isaac loved Esau best, but Rebekah had a special place in her heart for Jacob.

One day, when Jacob was cooking stew, Esau came in from the field, starving. He begged Jacob to let him eat some of the stew. Jacob said, “First, sell me your birthright.” (In those days, the oldest child always inherited the parents’ house and belongings). Esau was so hungry that all he could think about was food. He said, “My birthright won’t be much good to me if I die of hunger!” Jacob made him swear to keep his promise; he swore, then ate his fill of bread and stew and walked away. And that’s how Esau lost his birthright to his younger brother.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23  GWMV p. 154, adapted

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus was sitting beside the sea. So many people gathered around him that he finally got into a boat and pushed off into the water while the crowd stood on the beach and listened.

He taught them many things that day: "A farmer," he said, "went into his field to scatter seed. Some seeds fell on the hard path and the birds came and ate it right up. Other seeds fell on the rocky soil. The seeds started to grow but since their roots weren’t very deep, when the sun came up, they got scorched and withered up. Other seeds fell in the thorns, which choked them. But some seeds fell on good soil and produced lots of grain.

"Here’s what that story means: If you hear but don’t understand God’s word to you, you are like seeds on the pathway. Nothing starts to grow inside of you. If you joyfully hear God’s word but forget all about it when trouble comes, you’re like the seeds that fell on soil full of rocks. If you hear the word, but all your worries and desires choke what God says, you’re like the seeds that fell in the thorns. But, if you hear and understand God’s word, you are like the seeds that fell on good ground, and grew into strong, healthy plants.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, adapted

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People        And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People          We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People          It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, to give thanks to you at all times and in all places, loving and mighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

And so we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with everyone in heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Celebrant Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; when we had wandered far from you and fallen into sin, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, and to reconcile us to you through his perfect sacrifice.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate your loving mercy, O God, with praise and thanksgiving. Remembering how Jesus died, and rose again, and ascended to you in heaven, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the holy food and drink of new and unending life in your Son. Sanctify us also, that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and be strengthened to serve you together in peace. At the last day, bring us with all your saints into the never-ending joy of your kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Hymn 508

1 Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life anew;
2 Breathe on me, Breath of God, untill my heart is pure,
3 Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am wholly thine,
4 Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I never die;
   that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.
   untill with thee I will one will, to do or to endure.
   untill all this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.
   but live with thee the perfect life of thine eternity.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant    Let us pray.

All          God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant    Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us be with you now and for ever.

All          Amen.
Closing Hymn

Every time I feel the spirit moving in my heart, I will pray. Every time I feel the spirit moving in my heart, I will pray.

1. Upon the mountain my Lord spoke, out of his mouth came fire and smoke.
2. Jordan river chilly and cold, chills the body but not the soul. There ain’t but one train runs this

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUCCESS
Give the gift of education to students in Haiti. Donate today to change a child’s life.

Since the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Sisters of St. Margaret and parishioners of Trinity Church Wall Street have given scholarships to Haitian students of all ages who could not afford an education. As the new school year approaches, our goal is to raise $10,000 to cover the school fees for 13 students in our program.

You can donate by writing a check to Trinity Church Wall Street (Haiti Scholarships in the memo line) and dropping it in the giving boxes at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel; donating online; or giving to the plate offering during services on July 30.

Give online and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/HaitiScholars.
Explore Trinity’s CORE VALUES

Trinity Church Wall Street is in the process of defining and exploring our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. Mark your calendar for the upcoming special event.

LISTENING HEARTS AND CORE VALUES RETREAT
Saturday, September 30 | 9am-5pm | Trinity Church

All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

This summer Trinity is buying shares in two local Community Supported Agriculture concerns to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values: Social Justice
“Can I see another's woe, and not be in sorrow too? Can I see another's grief, and not seek for kind relief?” —William Blake

In July, we will explore the core value of social justice. What does social justice mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

- Social Justice
  Tuesday, July 18, 6:30-8:15pm,
  Trinity Church, Manning Room

- Stewardship
  Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm,
  Trinity Church, Manning Room

Here’s another opportunity for exploring and celebrating our core values:

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

There’s Still Time to Pledge for 2017
Last month the 2017 Stewardship Appeal broke the record for the highest dollar total ever. You can still join this successful effort by making your pledge, even mid-year. If you make regular donations, please consider formally pledging. Stewardship pledge cards and return envelopes are available at the entrances of Trinity Church.
and St. Paul’s Chapel, or you can pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. If you have already pledged, thank you! Information: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Is Trinity in Your Will?
Please consider including Trinity Church Wall Street in your estate planning. By doing so you will be invited to join The Trinity Charter Society, whose members have declared their support of Trinity’s future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their wills or other vehicles. For more information about planned giving, contact the Fund Development office (wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org; 212.602.9692).

Congregational Voice
“Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works” (Hebrews 10:24 NLT). This verse really does remind you what love is. It links love to acts. Love can’t be a noun; it has to be a verb. —Vicki Assevero

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

To submit an item for publication, please email lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org at least 10 days before you’d like the announcement to appear.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God’s Word, My Voice (GWMY) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS) and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
