Holy One of Israel, covenant-keeper, you restore what is lost, heal what is wounded, and gather in those who have been rejected. Give us the faith to speak as steadfastly as did the Canaanite woman, that the outcast may be welcomed and all people may be blessed. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org_membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant    Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People        Glory to God for ever and ever.
Hymn in Procession

Morn-ing has bro-ken like the first morn-ing,
Sweet the rain's new fall sun-lit from heav-en,
black-bird has spo-ken like the first bird,
like the first dew-fall on the first grass.

Praise for the sing-ing! Praise for the morn-ing!
Praise for the sweet-ness of the wet gar-den,
Praise for them, spring-ing fresh from the Word!
 sprung in com-plete-ness where his feet pass.

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.; Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm. Alec Wyton (1921-2007)

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
The Collect of the Day
Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Holy Wisdom, in your loving kindness you created and restored us when we were lost: inspire us with your truth, that we may love you with our whole minds and run to you with open hearts, through Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Genesis 45:1-15

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

There was a famine in the land and people from all around the area came to Egypt in search of food. They would come before Joseph, who was in charge of distributing the grain. A group of men came before Joseph one day and Joseph realized the men were his brothers who had sold him into slavery years before. But his brothers didn’t know it was Joseph in front of them. Joseph was overcome with emotion and told everyone to leave him alone with these men who were his brothers. He started crying so loudly that everyone in the palace heard him. “Look. It’s me. It’s Joseph! Tell me, is our father still alive?”

The brothers were so surprised they couldn’t even talk. And they were ashamed as well, because they had treated Joseph so poorly, and thought he’d been dead for years. Yet he was standing right in front of them, as a leader in Egypt! Joseph said, “Come closer to me, brothers.” And they did.

“Yes, I’m the one you sold to people in Egypt so you could get rid of me. There is no reason to beat yourselves up over that, though, because God had a bigger purpose for me. Here I am, in a position where I can help you and your families. The crops have failed and your people are hungry. God has made me a ruler here in Egypt. I have grain to give you and it will keep you alive. It wasn’t you who sent me here. It was God. Go home and tell our father that I am alive and bring him back here. Tell him the whole story. Hurry up. Bring all your families back with you, too, and all your animals. I will provide for all of you here.”

Then Joseph collapsed in the arms of his brother Benjamin and cried and cried. He kissed all of his brothers and they all cried together and talked together for hours.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 15:21-28  GWMV p. 171

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus walked to a place called Tyre and Sidon. A woman who was not a believer ran toward him and shouted, “Show me some mercy, Lord, Son of David. My daughter is tormented by a demon.”

Jesus kept on walking without even looking at her or answering her. His disciples asked him to send her away because she was bugging them. Jesus said to the woman, “I was sent only to God’s people of Israel, not people in Canaan.” That didn’t discourage her. She knelt at Jesus’ feet saying, “Please, Lord, help me. I really need your help.”

Jesus said, “Do you think it’s fair to take food meant for the children and give it to the dogs?”

The woman said, “I get that, Lord. But the dogs have to eat too. And they will eat the crumbs that fall from the table if they have to.”

Jesus was shocked by how strong she was and how much she kept pushing him to help her daughter. He said, “Woman, your faith is incredible! Your prayer will be answered as you wish.” And her daughter was healed that very moment.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Daniel Simons
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

In peace and in faith, let us offer our prayers, saying, "Christ, have mercy."

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our Bishops, and for all ministers and people, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For our President, for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

For those who travel on land, on water, or in the air, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.

That we may celebrate our core value of stewardship and truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure, let us pray.

Christ, have mercy.
Reader  For those in sorrow, sickness, need, or any kind of trouble, let us pray.
People  Christ, have mercy.
Reader  For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray.
People  Christ, have mercy.
Reader  In the communion of saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life, to Christ our God.
People  To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Celebrant  Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, “Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you”: Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and give us the peace and unity of your heavenly City where with God and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All  Have mercy upon us, most merciful God; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of Christ.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People    And also with you.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People    We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People    It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, holy and merciful Creator, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:

Sanctus

WLP 858
Celebrant Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ's sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.
All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy Name,
   thy kingdom come,
   thy will be done,
       on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
   but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
   and the power, and the glory,
   for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan or usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer
EOW p. 69

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever
in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
Celebrant

God's blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always.

All

Amen.

Trinity in Your Neighborhood
3pm, Staten Island
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. Today’s gathering includes a backyard cookout in Staten Island. Our next gathering will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversations about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community (212.602.0895).

Congregational Voice
“Do not adorn yourselves outwardly by braiding your hair, and by wearing gold ornaments or fine clothing; rather, let your adornment be the inner self with the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in God’s sight” (1 Peter 3:3-4). While I was reading the story about Leah in the book, Slightly Bad Girls of the Bible, this verse was used to talk about how true beauty is within one’s self. I really connect with this verse and hope that I am one of those women (or I aspire to be one). —Dr. Beverly Ffolkes-Bryant

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from God's Word, My Voice (GWMV) by Lyn Zill Briggs, which is a version of Biblical texts considered more accessible for children. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and My Heart Sings Out (MHSO); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
