God of freedom,
you brought your people out of slavery with a mighty hand.
Deliver us from our captivity to pride and indifference to the needs and gifts of others, that we may be ready to love as you have loved us,
and to give even as we have received. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we often describe liturgy—the way we worship in prayer, music, and lessons—as a river: an analogy that makes sense, since a river flows around but also shapes its surrounding environment. For the remainder of the Season after Pentecost, St. Paul’s will be using a Communion order borrowed from our brothers and sisters in the Church of England. This interactive prayer encourages prayerful listening, learning, participation, and joyful response. Everything you need to follow along is in this bulletin.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 14:19-31

Reader A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

The angel of God that had been leading the camp of Israel now shifted and got behind them. And the Pillar of Cloud that had been in front also shifted to the rear. The Cloud was now between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. The Cloud enshrouded one camp in darkness and flooded the other with light. The two camps didn't come near each other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and God, with a terrific east wind all night long, made the sea go back. He made the sea dry ground. The seawaters split. The Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground with the waters a wall to the right and to the left. The Egyptians came after them in full pursuit, every horse and chariot and driver of Pharaoh racing into the middle of the sea. It was now the morning watch. God looked down from the Pillar of Fire and Cloud on the Egyptian army and threw them into a panic. He clogged the wheels of their chariots; they were stuck in the mud.

The Egyptians said, “Run from Israel! God is fighting on their side and against Egypt!” God said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea and the waters will come back over the Egyptians, over their chariots, over their horsemen.”

Moses stretched his hand out over the sea: As the day broke and the Egyptians were running, the sea returned to its place as before. God dumped the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. The waters returned, drowning the chariots and riders of Pharaoh’s army that had chased after Israel into the sea. Not one of them survived.

But the Israelites walked right through the middle of the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall to the right and to the left. God delivered Israel that day from the oppression of the Egyptians. And Israel looked at the Egyptian dead, washed up on the shore of the sea, and realized the tremendous power that God brought against the Egyptians. The people were in reverent awe before God and trusted in God and his servant Moses.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Zimbabwe Alleluia, Abraham Maraire (1944-1999)

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 18:21-35

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon At that point Peter got up the nerve to ask, “Master, how many times do I forgive a brother or sister who hurts me? Seven?”

Jesus replied, “Seven! Hardly. Try seventy times seven.

“The kingdom of God is like a king who decided to square accounts with his servants. As he got under way, one servant was brought before him who had run up a debt of a hundred thousand dollars. He couldn’t pay up, so the king ordered the man, along with his wife, children, and goods, to be auctioned off at the slave market.

“The poor wretch threw himself at the king’s feet and begged, ‘Give me a chance and I’ll pay it all back.’ Touched by his plea, the king let him off, erasing the debt.

“The servant was no sooner out of the room when he came upon one of his fellow servants who owed him ten dollars. He seized him by the throat and demanded, ‘Pay up. Now!’

“The poor wretch threw himself down and begged, ‘Give me a chance and I’ll pay it all back.’ But he wouldn’t do it. He had him arrested and put in jail until the debt was paid. When the other servants saw this going on, they were outraged and brought a detailed report to the king.

“The king summoned the man and said, ‘You evil servant! I forgave your entire debt when you begged me for mercy. Shouldn’t you be compelled to be merciful to your fellow servant who asked for mercy?’ The king was furious and put the screws to the man until he paid back his entire debt. And that’s exactly what my Father in heaven is going to do to each one of you who doesn’t forgive unconditionally anyone who asks for mercy.”

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

We remember especially this day all those affected by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma.

Pray for those in any need or trouble. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for God’s creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it.

Pray for the earth and seas. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn.

Pray for God’s light to shine upon them. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God.

Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon  Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All  Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant Why is it right to give thanks and praise?
People Listen, and we will hear.
Celebrant Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory. You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish. You give us friends and families, busy streets for young and old, the life of an earthly city fulfilled in your city to come. You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:
Sanctus

We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ’s body and his blood.

Why do we share this bread and wine?

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: “This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: “This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of me.”

So, Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit upon us also, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

Why do we follow Jesus Christ?

Because he is God’s saving love in action.

Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

Music: Land of Rest, American folk hymn
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer (Continued)

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.
Brother, sister, let me serve you, let me be as
We are pilgrims on a journey, fellow travellers
When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such Brother, sister, let me serve you, let me be as

Christ to you; pray that I may have the grace to on the road; we are here to help each other harmony, born of all we've known together
Christ to you; pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

walk the mile and bear the load.
of Christ's love and agony.
let you be my servant, too.

Words and Music: Richard Gillard (b. 1953), arr. Betty Pulkingham (b. 1928)
Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

When morning gilds the skies, my heart, awakening, cries, sun and stars of space, sing, ye that see his face,
may Jesus Christ be praised! When evening shadows fall, sing, Jesus Christ be praised! God's whole creation o'er, this rings my curfew call, may Jesus Christ be praised!
both now and evermore shall Jesus Christ be praised!

Words: German, ca. 1800; tr. Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930), alt.
Music: Laudes Domini, Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)

Core Values: What’s Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we’re taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we’ve learned.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries. [Note: This event is now at capacity.]

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct. 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love”; what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.
Burundi Applications Due Sept. 29
Trip: November 29-December 10
Partnering with the Archbishop of Burundi and working primarily in the district of Matana, participants have helped with the construction of a church, built three houses for underprivileged families, and offered the Godly Play training to more than 40 Sunday school teachers. This year we will engage with the community to build six more houses. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.

Rector's Forum: Strategic Programming
10-10:45am, St. Paul's Chapel
Save the dates—October 1, October 22, November 12, and December 10—for opportunities to share your ideas as we build programming around areas of strategic focus. Please join us for coffee and conversation.

Breaking Bread
1pm, October 1, Trinity Church, Manning Room
You are invited to join us for a community meal as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net; Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity in Your Neighborhood
Next gathering: 4pm, October 1, West Village
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. Our second gathering included a backyard cookout on Staten Island. Our next get-togethers will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Auden, the Psalms, and Me
1pm, October 8, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Trinity parishioner and poet J. Chester Johnson, one of two surviving members of the drafting committee for the retranslation of the psalms in the current Book of Common Prayer, has written Auden, the Psalms, and Me. He will discuss the book, including the role of the eminent poet W.H. Auden, also a member of the committee, and the story of the creation of the retranslation of these very special psalms. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

ParentSpace
6-8:30pm, October 13 and 20, Parish Center
Join therapists from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute to understand how child and adolescent development affect parenting, learn strategies for healthy communication and how to navigate conflict, and explore spiritual resources to hold you up along the way. Session topics include “Parenting and Spirituality” with Sarah McCaslin LMSW (Oct. 13) and “Communication and Conflict” with Paul Kelly LMHC (Oct. 20). Information/RSVPs: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Safe Church Training
1pm, November 5
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We'll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael Curry, Michelle Alexander, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.
BULLETIN BOARD

Thank You to 2017 Stewardship Pledgers
Today, on Celebration Sunday, Trinity thanks all those parishioners and friends who have made a pledge for the 2017 Giving Campaign. Please visit the Stewardship table and receive your special “I Pledged” badge. Next year’s giving drive will start on Sunday, October 8. If you have any questions about pledging or stewardship at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee. They’re wearing “Ask me about pledging!” badges.

Help after Hurricane Harvey
The disastrous effects of Hurricane Harvey are expected to impact Texas and Louisiana for years to come. Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is working with dioceses in the hurricane’s path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. To donate to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund, visit episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Parish Choir will sing at Evensong Sept. 28–Nov. 16 and at the 9am Eucharist Oct. 1–Nov. 26. This choir joins the rich musical tradition at Trinity including the The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Closing
St. Paul’s Chapel will be closed from early October through mid-November while a new organ is installed in the space. The chapel will be open Sundays for 8am and 9:15am services. Visit trinitywallstreet.org for periodic progress reports.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Retreat Center Group Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at vwarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said, “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from The Message (MSG) by Eugene Peterson. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Voices Found (VF), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship (CW), and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
