O God, from your providing hand even the dissatisfied and grumbling receive what they need for their lives. Teach us your ways of justice and lead us to practice your generosity, so that we may live a life worthy of the gospel made known through your Son Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we often describe liturgy—the way we worship in prayer, music, and lessons—as a river: an analogy that makes sense, since a river flows around but also shapes its surrounding environment. For the remainder of the Season after Pentecost, St. Paul’s will be using a Communion order borrowed from our brothers and sisters in the Church of England. This interactive prayer encourages prayerful listening, learning, participation, and joyful response. Everything you need to follow along is in this bulletin.

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People  And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words and Music: Daniel L. Schutte (b. 1947)

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in deepest sin
My hand will save.

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I who made the stars of night,
Finest bread I will provide.

I will make their darkness bright,
Till their hearts be satisfied.
Who will hear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Here I am, Lord.
Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord.

if you lead me,
I will hold your people in my heart.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

The whole company of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron there in the wilderness. The Israelites said, “Why didn’t God let us die in comfort in Egypt where we had lamb stew and all the bread we could eat? You’ve brought us out into this wilderness to starve us to death, the whole company of Israel!”

God said to Moses, “I’m going to rain bread down from the skies for you. The people will go out and gather each day’s ration. I’m going to test them to see if they’ll live according to my Teaching or not. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they have gathered, it will turn out to be twice as much as their daily ration.”

Moses and Aaron told the People of Israel, “This evening you will know that it is God who brought you out of Egypt; and in the morning you will see the Glory of God. Yes, he’s listened to your complaints against him. You haven’t been complaining against us, you know, but against God.”

Moses said, “Since it will be God who gives you meat for your meal in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, it’s God who will have listened to your complaints against him. Who are we in all this? You haven’t been complaining to us—you’ve been complaining to God!”

Moses instructed Aaron: “Tell the whole company of Israel: ‘Come near to God. He’s heard your complaints.’” When Aaron gave out the instructions to the whole company of Israel, they turned to face the wilderness. And there it was: the Glory of God visible in the Cloud.
God spoke to Moses, “I’ve listened to the complaints of the Israelites. Now tell them: ‘At dusk you will eat meat and at dawn you’ll eat your fill of bread; and you’ll realize that I am God, your God.’”

That evening quail flew in and covered the camp and in the morning there was a layer of dew all over the camp. When the layer of dew had lifted, there on the wilderness ground was a fine flaky something, fine as frost on the ground. The Israelites took one look and said to one another, man-hu (What is it?). They had no idea what it was. So Moses told them, “It’s the bread God has given you to eat.”

The Word of the Lord.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said, “God’s kingdom is like an estate manager who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. They agreed on a wage of a dollar a day, and went to work. Later, about nine o’clock, the manager saw some other men hanging around the town square unemployed. He told them to go to work in his vineyard and he would pay them a fair wage. They went. He did the same thing at noon, and again at three o’clock. At five o’clock he went back and found still others standing around. He said, ‘Why are you standing around all day doing nothing?’

“They said, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He told them to go to work in his vineyard. When the day’s work was over, the owner of the vineyard instructed his foreman, ‘Call the workers in and pay them their wages. Start with the last hired and go on to the first.’

“Those hired at five o’clock came up and were each given a dollar. When those who were hired first saw that, they assumed they would get far more. But they got the same, each of them one dollar. Taking the dollar, they groused angrily to the manager, ‘These last workers put in only one easy hour, and you just made them equal to us, who slaved all day under a scorching sun.’

Matthew 20:1-16
“He replied to the one speaking for the rest, 'Friend, I haven’t been unfair. We agreed on the wage of a dollar, didn’t we? So take it and go. I decided to give to the one who came last the same as you. Can’t I do what I want with my own money? Are you going to get stingy because I am generous? Here it is again, the Great Reversal: many of the first ending up last, and the last first.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

Reader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for bishops and ministers, for all of us gathered here.

Pray for the Church. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among all nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We remember especially those impacted by this year's hurricane and tropical storm season, and we pray for all those affected by the catastrophic earthquakes in Mexico. I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for God's creation and for the will and wisdom to care for it.

Pray for the earth and seas. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader I ask your prayers for those who have died and those who mourn.

Pray for God's light to shine upon them. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Praise God for those in every generation who follow Jesus and give glory to God.

Pray that we will learn to do the same, every day. God of love,

People Hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us pray also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God, in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace
Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.
The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome
Please be seated.

Blessing of Backpacks
At the Rector’s invitation, the children gather at the altar with their backpacks.
Rector God of Wisdom, we give you thanks for schools and classrooms and for the teachers and students who fill them each day. We thank you for this new beginning, for new books and new ideas. We thank you for sharpened pencils, pointy crayons, and crisp blank pages waiting to be filled. We thank you for the gift of making mistakes and trying again. Help us to remember that asking the right questions is often as important as giving the right answers.

Today we give you thanks for these your children, and we ask you to bless them with curiosity, understanding and respect. May their backpacks be a sign to them that they have everything they need to learn and grow this year in school and in Sunday School. May they be guided by your love. All this we ask in the name of Jesus, who as a child in the temple showed his longing to learn about you, and as an adult taught by story and example your great love for us.

All Amen.

The Offertory
Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.
At the Presentation
Hymnal 380, v. 3

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1567?)

The Great Thanksgiving
CW Prayer Two, adapted

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Why is it right to give thanks and praise?

People Listen, and we will hear.

Celebrant Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory. You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish. You give us friends and families, busy streets for young and old, the life of an earthly city fulfilled in your city to come. You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:
Sanctus

We thank you, loving Father, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood.

Why do we share this bread and wine?

People Listen, and we will hear.

Celebrant On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in remembrance of me."

So, Father, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit upon us also, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

Why do we follow Jesus Christ?

People Because he is God's saving love in action.

Celebrant Help us, Father, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.

Music: Land of Rest, American folk hymn
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Brother, sister, let me serve you, let me be as
We are pilgrims on a journey, fellow travellers
When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such Brother, sister, let me serve you, let me be as

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Core Values: What's Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we're taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we've learned.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries. [Note: This event is now at capacity.]

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct. 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love”; what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.
Breaking Bread
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
You are invited to join us for a community meal as we break bread and find Christ in our life together in community, ministry, and activity through loving conversations. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net; Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

4pm, West Village
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. This get-together will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, and our next gathering will include dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON
Trinity LGBT Integrity Group
6pm, October 3, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Trinity Church Wall Street’s LGBT Integrity Group offers a supportive and inclusive environment to discuss the issues, concerns, and roles of LGBT people in a faith-based community. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. Meets the first Tuesday of every month. Information: TrinityIntegrityGroup@outlook.com.

Artist Chuck Close: Art Film Viewing
7-9pm, October 5, Parish Center
Join Trinity Congregational Arts as we view a film on Chuck Close, the famed American painter and photographer known for his massive-scale photorealistic portraiture. Paralyzed and suffering from face-blindness, Close continues to produce highly sought-after work. Some of his most recent work adorns the walls of the new 2nd Avenue Subwayline. Light refreshments will be served. Free, open to all.

New Sights and Sounds at Trinity and St. Paul’s
In October and November, expect some exciting developments at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel: a newly renovated organ will be installed at St. Paul’s, and a new color of paint with an impressive historic lineage will be displayed in portions of Trinity. Both projects will affect how we experience our worship spaces for a period of time. Please see the details below.

St. Paul’s Chapel
Accommodating the installation of a renovated organ means that the chapel will have restricted hours from October 1 until November 18. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am, as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings.

Trinity Church
As the parish determines the scope of a renovation that is being proposed for 2018, scaffolding will go up inside the 171-year-old Trinity Church building during the week of October 9. This will allow a team to “mock up” portions of the church to recreate the original color scheme envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. This project, which will require the scaffolding to remain in place until the end of November, is one part of a design phase exploring the potential renovation. Make sure to let your opinions on the color be known! Apart from the addition of Compline, Trinity’s regular open hours and worship schedule will not change.

Auden, the Psalms, and Me
1pm, October 8, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Trinity parishioner and poet J. Chester Johnson, one of two surviving members of the drafting committee for the retranslation of the psalms in the current Book of Common Prayer, has written Auden, the Psalms, and Me. He will discuss the book, including the role of the eminent poet W.H. Auden, also a member of the committee, and the story of the creation of the retranslation of these very special psalms. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.
ParentSpace
6-8:30pm, October 13 and 20, Parish Center
Join therapists from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute to understand how child and adolescent development affect parenting, learn strategies for healthy communication and how to navigate conflict, and explore spiritual resources to hold you up along the way. Session topics include “Parenting and Spirituality” with Sarah McCaslin LMSW (Oct. 13) and “Communication and Conflict” with Paul Kelly LMHC (Oct. 20). Information/RSVPs: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Living with Loss: A Six-Week Series
Mondays, 6:30-8pm in Oct. and Nov., Trinity Church
Loss both forces and beckons us to change and reflect on the story of our lives. How we come to terms with a closing chapter, and open ourselves to the next one, is the work of grief. Join therapist Kim Schneiderman, licensed clinical social worker and therapist with the Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute, for this six-week series open to all who are experiencing loss and grief. October 16, 23, 30, Nov. 6, 13, 20. Chapel Service Nov. 27, 6:30pm, Trinity Church, Chapel of All Saints. RSVP: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Save the Date: Undocumented
10am-1pm, October 28, Trinity Church
What do faith communities need to know? A half-day teach-in for people of faith to learn about current issues related to immigration, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), temporary protected status, and sanctuary. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Safe Church Training
1pm, November 5
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Lunch included. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We'll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael Curry, Michelle Alexander, and Pádraig O Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD
Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
Trinity extends deep thanks and gratitude to all those parishioners and friends who made a pledge to the 2017 Stewardship Campaign. The 2017 pledge appeal will launch in two weeks, on Sunday, October 8, so please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. The goal for 2018 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50%. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee. They're wearing buttons that say "Ask me about stewardship." Or contact the Development Office, wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Help after Hurricane Harvey
The disastrous effects of Hurricane Harvey are expected to impact Texas and Louisiana for years to come. Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is working with dioceses in the hurricane's path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. To donate to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund, visit episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Parish Choir will sing at Evensong Sept. 28—Nov. 16 and at the 9am Eucharist Oct. 1—Nov. 26. This choir joins the rich musical tradition at Trinity including The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and... the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Retreat Center Group Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said, “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Congregational Voice
“No one shall be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you” (Joshua 1:5). It’s interesting when I did this Facebook questionnaire this verse came up as my favorite Bible verse and how they paralleled it to the 23rd Psalm. Surprisingly, this verse and the 23rd Psalm truly capture my love of God and his love for me. “I will fear no evil for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.” —Dr. Beverly Ffolkes-Bryant

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are excerpted from The Message (MSG) by Eugene Peterson. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Voices Found (VF), Lift Every Voice and Sing (LVAS), and Wonder, Love and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), Common Worship (CW), and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
