Welcoming God,
you receive and bless all who come to you in humility.
Show us our false pride,
that we may repent of all conceit and arrogance
and, caring for one another, may honor Jesus
to the glory of your name. Amen.
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” — Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” — Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” — Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” — Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” — Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” — Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

We often describe liturgy at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel as a river: an apt analogy, since it suggests how it flows around—and how it shapes—the surrounding environment. During these twenty-five weeks of the Season after Pentecost, we will feature a variety of prayers within the context of our Holy Eucharist. We encourage you to recognize which of these many facets of worship resonate most personally with you.

Collect for Purity

BCP p. 355

Celebrant
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All
Amen.
Gloria

All

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 17:1-7

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?” But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?” So Moses cried out to the Lord, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.”

The Lord said to Moses, “Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the Lord, saying, “Is the Lord among us or not?”

The Psalm

Psalm 78:1-3, 12-16

John Goss (1800-1880)

Sung by the choir.

Choir

Hear my teaching, O my people; *
    incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth in a parable; *
    I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.
That which we have heard and known,
    and what our forefathers have told us, *
    we will not hide from their children.
He worked marvels in the sight of their forefathers, *
    in the land of Egypt, in the field of ZOan.
He split open the sea and let them pass through; *
    he made the waters stand up like walls.
He led them with a cloud by day, *
    and all the night through with a glow of fire.
He split the hard rocks in the wilderness *
    and gave them drink as from the great deep.
He brought streams out of the cliff, *
    and the waters gushed out like rivers.
A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Philippians.

If there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?” Jesus said to them, “I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.” So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

“What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’ He answered, ‘I will not’; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, ‘I go, sir’; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross forsaken, like a lamb to suffer led, earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came, to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Give us courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We remember especially those impacted by this year's hurricane and tropical storm season, and we pray for all those affected by natural disasters in Mexico and Puerto Rico. Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Silence

Deacon

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes.
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant  Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All  Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant  We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.
The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

Communion Anthem

Ave verum corpus

William Byrd (1543-1623)

Ave verum corpus, natum ex Maria Virgine; vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine; cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit sanguine; esto nobis praegustatum mortis in examine.
O dulcis, O pie, O Jesu Fili Mariae; miserere mei. Amen.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who has truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mortals, whose side was pierced, whence flowed water and blood: Be for us a foretaste of heaven during our final examining. O Jesu sweet, O Jesu pure, O Jesu, Son of Mary, have mercy upon me. Amen.

—Pope Innocent VI (1282-1362)

Silence follows the anthem.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Core Values: What’s Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we’re taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we’ve learned.

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct. 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love”; what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.

Illuminating the Spirit: Neon Glass Workshop
10:30am, Brooklyn Glass, 142 13th St., Brooklyn
In this one-day workshop, students will learn basic neon tube bending techniques and learn how to wire and hang neon units. Students can expect to finish one small neon project by the end of the one-day course. There is also the option to purchase your bending kit at the end of the course. Space firmly limited. A $50 deposit is required to hold a spot, refundable after attendance at the workshop. Information and to enroll: Ryan Campbell at the.house.of.campbell@gmail.com.
NEXT SUNDAY

Discovery: Who is My Neighbor?
10am, St. Paul’s Chapel (Note location change)
Who are our neighbors? What is our neighborhood? Join Discovery adult education class for a wide-ranging exploration of these questions. We’ll look to scripture and hear from speakers as we confront our human inclination to see the world in terms of “us” and “them.” This week: The Rev. Pauli Murray: Legacy of Activism with Barbara Lau, Director, Pauli Murray Center. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Forum: Black Madonna Pilgrimage
Following the 11:15 service, Trinity Church
Join us to discuss a pilgrimage in southern France and Barcelona to explore the heritage of the Black Madonna and Mary Magdalene (May 22-30, 2018). Information: Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org.

Auden, the Psalms, and Me
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Trinity parishioner and poet J. Chester Johnson, one of two surviving members of the drafting committee for the retranslation of the psalms in the current Book of Common Prayer, has written Auden, the Psalms, and Me. He will discuss the book, including the role of the eminent poet W.H. Auden, also a member of the committee, and the story of the creation of the retranslation of these very special psalms. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON

ParentSpace
6-8:30pm, October 13 and 20, Parish Center
Join therapists from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute to understand how child and adolescent development affect parenting, learn strategies for healthy communication and how to navigate conflict, and explore spiritual resources to hold you up along the way. Session topics include “Parenting and Spirituality” with Sarah McCaslin LMSW (Oct. 13) and “Communication and Conflict” with Paul Kelly LMHC (Oct. 20). Information/RSVPs: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

New Sights and Sounds
In October and November, expect some exciting developments at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel: a newly renovated organ will be installed at St. Paul’s, and a new color of paint with an impressive historic lineage will be displayed in portions of Trinity. Both projects will affect how we experience our worship spaces for a period of time. Please see the details below.

St. Paul’s Chapel
Accommodating the installation of a renovated organ means that the chapel will have restricted hours from October 1 until November 18. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am, as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings.

Trinity Church
As the parish determines the scope of a renovation that is being proposed for 2018, scaffolding will go up inside the 171-year-old Trinity Church building during the week of October 9. This will allow a team to “mock up” portions of the church to recreate the original color scheme envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. This project, which will require the scaffolding to remain in place until the end of November, is one part of a design phase exploring the potential renovation. Make sure to let your opinions on the color be known! Apart from the addition of Compline, Trinity’s regular open hours and worship schedule will not change.

Living with Loss: A Six-Week Series
6:30pm, Mondays, beginning Oct. 16, Trinity Church
Loss both forces and beckons us to change and reflect on the story of our lives. How we come to terms with a closing chapter, and open ourselves to the next one, is the work of grief. Join therapist Kim Schneiderman, licensed clinical social worker and therapist with the Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute, for this six-week series open to all who are experiencing loss and grief. October 16, 23, 30, Nov. 6, 13, 20. Chapel Service Nov. 27, 6:30pm, Trinity Church, Chapel of All Saints. RSVP: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.
Save the Date: Undocumented
10am-1pm, October 28, Trinity Church
What do faith communities need to know? A half-day teach-in for people of faith to learn about current issues related to immigration, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), temporary protected status, and sanctuary. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Safe Church Training
1pm, November 5
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Lunch included. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Twelfth Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
December 1-3, Trinity Retreat Center
The “Big Book” of Alcoholics Anonymous captures four awful moments of demoralization—terror, bewilderment, frustration and despair—that occur before we discovered the priceless gift of emotional, physical and spiritual sobriety. No longer are we imprisoned by these four horsemen, but they certainly do re-appear on occasion to bedevil and frighten us. The Rev. Stuart H. Hoke will help us recapture our encounters with the four horsemen, and use the gifts our program gives us to face them squarely and take the wind out of their sails. Sponsored by Trinity’s Community Standing Committee. Cost: $125 double room; $195 single. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Register Now for Trinity Institute 2018
Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Michelle Alexander, Elizabeth Edman and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2018 giving drive will launch next Sunday, October 8. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity’s core values, and the goal for 2018 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Development office (wbtrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692).

Help after Hurricane Harvey
The disastrous effects of Hurricane Harvey are expected to impact Texas and Louisiana for years to come. Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is working with dioceses in the hurricane’s path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. To donate to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund, visit episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Parish Choir will sing at Evensong Sept. 28–Nov. 16 and at the 9am Eucharist Oct. 1–Nov. 26. This choir joins the rich musical tradition at Trinity including The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Retreat Center Group Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wwarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Pastoral Care

In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community (212.602.0895).

Congregational Voice
“For he is God’s servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword for nothing. He is God’s servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer” (Romans 13:4). My brother and his wife are cops. It’s really scary for my family when news first hits about a cop being shot. We have to keep reminding ourselves there’s a reason for them to do what they do. We pray to St Michael often. —Vincent LaVeglia

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted.
