Almighty God,
your Son has shown us
how to love one another.
May our love for you overflow into joyous service and be a healing witness to our neighbors through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

We often describe liturgy at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel as a river: an apt analogy, since it suggests how it flows around—and how it shapes—the surrounding environment. During these twenty-five weeks of the Season after Pentecost, we will feature a variety of prayers within the context of our Holy Eucharist. We encourage you to recognize which of these many facets of worship resonate most personally with you.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Erbarm dich mein, O Herre Gott, BWV 721
Have mercy on me, O Lord God.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 680, vv. 1-3

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.; para. of Psalm 90:1-5

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Gloria

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.” Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses.

Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 90:1-6, 13-14
John Bertalot (b. 1931)

Sung by the choir.

Choir

Lord, you have been our refuge *
from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or the land and the earth were born, *
from age to age you are God.
You turn us back to the dust and say, *
“Go back, O child of earth.”
For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past * and like a watch in the night.
You sweep us away like a dream; *
we fade away suddenly like the grass.
In the morning it is green and flourishes; *
in the evening it is dried up and withered.
Return, O LORD; how long will you tarry? *
be gracious to your servants.
Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

The Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

Reader

A Reading from Paul’s first letter to the Thessalonians.

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts.

As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

The Word of the Lord.

People

Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 645, vv. 1-2, 6

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Henry Williams Baker (1821-1877); para. of Psalm 23

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: “What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “The son of David.” He said to them, “How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet”’? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?” No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Elizabeth Blunt
THE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
Christ, who on the cross for-saken, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit, in one Church, below, above:
earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead, saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love,

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came, to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Christ, have mercy.”

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Andrew, Mary, and Allen our own Bishops, for all ministers in this parish and throughout the world, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For those in positions of public trust, that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For this congregation, that we may have courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Christ.

Christ, have mercy.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

O God, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full,

San - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is he who comes...
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant  Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All  Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant  We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
     hallowed be thy Name,
     thy kingdom come,
     thy will be done,
     on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
     but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
     and the power, and the glory,
     for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

Communion Anthem

O Sacred Feast

Healey Willan (1880-1968)

O Sacred Feast, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed in us, our souls are filled with grace, and the pledge of everlasting glory is given unto us. Alleluia.

—Sarum Primer

Silence follows the anthem.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation
As the church design team develops the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, scaffolding will be visible inside our 171-year-old Trinity Church through mid-December. This will allow a team to mock up portions of the church to test cleaning techniques and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

As this work proceeds, measures are being taken to protect artifacts inside the church. The Renaissance triptych painting (facing the votive candles) has been removed for preservation and safe storage. The baptismal font will be well-protected and remain in place.

You will also see the footings for scaffolding on both the south and north sides in the rear bay of the Church near the Broadway entrance. This is where the full paint mock-ups will be done.

At the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about that stencil’s color and pattern.

Additionally, cleaning is also being done on the column in front of the pulpit.

And if you are paying very close attention, you may see holes, covered in plastic, that have been bored into the church walls in various places. These are done so that we can see what type of construction was used in building our beautiful church.

Coming Up, Stained Glass: Beginning on Monday, October 30, scaffolding will be installed on the southern exterior of Trinity Church to allow access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows. The yellow tint was added in 1967. Members of the renovation team will lighten six of the panes of glass within a single window to correspond with the vision of Trinity’s original architect, Richard Upjohn. As with the paint color mock ups, this is a test to see how the change—in this case a much lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

St. Paul’s Chapel: The installation of a renovated organ continues. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings.

Core Values: What’s Next
Earlier this year, we explored our six core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. In September we reflected and evaluated what we learned.

For the remainder of the year, we are exploring more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Upcoming sessions:
November 7: Inclusiveness
November 20: Compassion
December 5: Social Justice
December 21: Stewardship
Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.

Contemplative Wednesdays
6:30-8pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
All are welcome to participate in an ongoing rhythm of silent meditation practice and spiritual conversation to renew our hearts and expand our capacity for open-hearted engagement in the world. Drop in and give yourself the gift of resting in God. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.

Environmental Justice Group
6:30pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
The mission of the Environmental Justice Group is to educate ourselves, the congregation, and community about the realities and significance of man’s impact on the environment and about ways in which we can become good stewards of the earth. Our work is to inspire cultural change so sustainable practice will become an accepted and valued norm. We meet on the first Wednesday of each month. Information: David Ward at djward71@yahoo.com or join the group on The City.

Achieving Racial Equity: A Conversation
6:30-8pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Join this discussion exploring the impact of race and racism, how it functions in our world and ways to work toward racial equity, guided by social worker, community organizer, and facilitator David Peters. All are welcome. Co-sponsored by Trinity’s Task Force Against Racism and Justice & Reconciliation. Information: Ruth Frey at rfrey@trinitywallstreet.org.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2

New Beginnings
10am, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
New Beginnings is Trinity’s ministry of seniors that meets weekly for gentle yoga, Bible study, to attend the noonday service, and help with the distribution of brown bag lunches to needy persons. We also exchange news, sponsor programs and excursions of interest to those 60-years plus and their friends of all ages, and encourage participation in all phases of Trinity life. Contact: Cynthia Moten at cmoten@nyc.rr.com.

All Faithful Departed
12:05pm, Trinity Church
The Commemoration of All Faithful Departed celebrates the lives of those near to us who have died in the last year. At this service, the names of those who have died will be read aloud.

Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Writing God: Spiritual Journaling
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one’s spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the “true self.” This season we invite you to explore, in community, reflections from the writings of mystics, spiritual directors, activists, and others including Hildegard of Bingen, Julian of Norwich, the Celtic tradition, Thomas Merton, Daniel Berrigan, Joan Chittister, Richard Rohr, and Andrew Harvey. The writings of these spiritual leaders, along with weekly writing prompts, inspire and guide the writer to follow the flow from within and onto the page. Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

The Psalms Experience
through Nov. 11, St. Paul's Chapel and Alice Tully Hall
Encompassing nearly one thousand years of musical settings by 150 different composers, this unique collaboration by four world-renowned choirs, including The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, explores the universal and transcendental themes of the Book of Psalms. The Psalms Experience is part of Lincoln Center’s White Light Festival. Tickets at lincolncenter.org.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Young Adults Retreat: Rooted in Happiness
November 3-5, Trinity Retreat Center
Let’s enjoy time together in the beauty and serenity of creation to reflect on faith and the pursuit of happiness. Fr. Daniel Simons and Fr. Frank Hakoola will join us with spiritual practices and reflection. Information and to RSVP: Alan Yu and Marie Heimann at young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Discovery for Families Retreat
November 3-5, Trinity Retreat Center
Please join us for fun, relaxation, and nature at the newly renovated Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. All families are welcome. Cost is $50 per adult per night and $25 per child per night, and includes lodging and all meals. There is generous financial assistance if needed. Transportation to and from the train station in Wassaic will be provided. To find out more or to confirm your place, please email Keith Klein at kklein23@gmail.com.

NEXT SUNDAY

All Saints’ Day
On this day, we’ll celebrate the Feast of All Saints, one of the seven principal Feasts of the Episcopal church year, and the day the church recognizes “persons of heroic sanctity” among the entire membership of the Christian community. It is also one of the holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms; therefore, on this day we welcome new Christians through the sacramental baptismal rite, and we are invited to renew our baptismal vows during the service. The parish will observe baptism at the 9:15am service at St. Paul’s Chapel and the 11:15am service at Trinity Church.
Safe Church Training
1-5pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
The bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness. Lunch included. Email to preregister (required) by November 2 or request online access at ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON
Mission & Service 10th Anniversary
November 9-12, St. Paul’s Chapel
Parishioners, staff, and friends of Trinity are invited to help mark the tenth anniversary of Mission & Service engagement trips at Trinity with a weekend of service. Activities include packing Brown Bag Lunches and hygiene kits for Church World Service, volunteering at the Hour Children Thrift Shop and St. Margaret’s House garden, as well as the Traveler’s Reunion Reception. Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org.

Rachmaninoff Vespers
8pm, November 10 & 12, Trinity Church
Rachmaninoff’s ethereal and lush setting of the mystical All-Night Vigil of the Orthodox Church was among his favorite works. Downtown Voices presents this a cappella masterpiece in beautiful Trinity Church. Downtown Voices; Stephen Sands, conductor. Free.

Hospitality Committee Retreat
November 10-12, Trinity Retreat Center
Please join us at our retreat center in West Cornwall, CT. Space is limited. Cost is $170 for a single room for two nights or $100 per person per night if you are willing to share. RSVP by October 29 to Barbara Inniss at innissb@aol.com.

Interfaith Thanksgiving
11:30am-1pm, November 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
No one should be alone or hungry on Thanksgiving. The congregations of Park 51, Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, and Trinity Church Wall Street invite congregants and neighbors to gather for a meal and shared company. Doors open at 11:30am with live music, followed by an interfaith blessing at noon, and a Thanksgiving meal from 12-1pm. The meal will be both halal and kosher-friendly. Trinity’s Brown Bag Lunch program will take place at St. Paul’s at 12:45pm. Volunteer positions are available for Wednesday evening and Thursday. Information and RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/thanksgiving.

Twelfth Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
December 1-3, Trinity Retreat Center
The “Big Book” of Alcoholics Anonymous captures four awful moments of demoralization—terror, bewilderment, frustration and despair—that occur before we discovered the priceless gift of emotional, physical, and spiritual sobriety. No longer are we imprisoned by these four horsemen, but they certainly do re-appear on occasion to bedevil and frighten us. The Rev. Stuart H. Hoke will help us recapture our encounters with the four horsemen, and use the gifts our program gives us to face them squarely and take the wind out of their sails. Sponsored by Trinity’s Community Standing Committee. Cost: $125 double room; $195 single. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Handel’s Messiah
December 15, 16, and 17; Trinity Church
Handel’s Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and the Grammy-nominated Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra are still widely regarded as peerless interpreters of the work. Tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Register Now for Trinity Institute 2018
Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, Michelle Alexander, Elizabeth Edman, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. Parishioners can register for free with the code PARISHVALUES. Seating is limited, so register soon at TI2018.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Giving Tree
October 15-December 1, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts for the children and youth we work with through our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House, a local women’s shelter), New Orleans, Panama, Haiti, and Burundi. The Giving Tree makes giving easy: Simply stop by one of the trees, take a tag describing a specific gift, and once you've purchased that gift, bring it back to the tree where you got the tag. You may also mail the gift to 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271 by December 1. If you prefer not to shop, instead choose a tag that requests a monetary donation. Donations may be made by check or money order to 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271. Please make the checks payable to Trinity Church with “Giving Tree” in the memo line. You may also give through Trinity's online giving site trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Stephanie Burgos at sburgos@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0846.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, through Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. The Parish Choir will sing at Evensong through Nov. 16 and at the 9am Eucharist through Nov. 26. This choir joins the rich musical tradition at Trinity including The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there's a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children's books, and much more.

Book your Holiday Retreat Now
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Advent. The retreats are booking up quickly so make your plans soon. The Advent retreat focuses on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. There is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, for a single room. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Retreat Center Group Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!

Congregational Voice
“Let us then fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace (the throne of God’s unmerited favor to us sinners), that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find grace to help in good time for every need [appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it]” (Hebrews 4:16 AMPC). All my friends know—and I tell them—I go to church because that is where the sinners meet. For all have sinned; let the first man cast a stone who is without sin. —Mike Singletary

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay;” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted.
