Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Pentecost, the fiftieth and final day of the Easter season, is one of the principal feasts of the Episcopal church, and is commonly regarded as the birthday of the broader Christian Church. On this day, as described in the reading from Acts appointed for the Day of Pentecost, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit—the third being of the Trinity—to his disciples, as he had foreshadowed in his teaching. As is common with many feast days pertaining to Jesus' apostles, it is customary to wear red vestments to symbolize the “tongues, as of fire” that inspired them to preach the Gospel in other languages.

Pentecost is also one of the four holy days (along with the Easter Vigil, The Baptism of Our Lord, and All Saints' Day) especially suitable for Holy Baptism; therefore, on this day we are invited to renew our baptismal vows during the service.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Ich ruf zu dir, Herr Jesu Christ, BWV 639

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

I call to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

O for a thousand tongues to sing my dear Redeemer's praise,
My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim
He speaks; and, listening to his voice, new life the dead receive, the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace!

and spread through all the earth abroad the honors of thy Name.
the mournful broken hearts rejoice, the humble poor believe.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788), alt.; Music: Azmon, Carl Gotthilf Gläser (1784-1829); adapt. and arr. Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

Baptismal Acclamation

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

The Psalm

Psalm 104:25-32
Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)

Sung by the choir.

Choir

O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
   in wisdom you have made them all;
   the earth is full of your creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
   creatures both small and great.

There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
   which you have made for the sport of it.

All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.

You give it to them; they gather it; *
   you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
   you take away their breath,
   and they die and return to their dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
   and so you renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
   may the LORD rejoice in all his works.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

Reader

A Reading from Paul’s first letter to the Corinthians.

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

BCP p. 292

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

   He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
   He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
   He descended to the dead.
   On the third day he rose again.
   He ascended into heaven,
   and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
   He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
     the holy catholic Church,
     the communion of saints,
     the forgiveness of sins,
     the resurrection of the body,
     and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God’s help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.
All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

BCP p. 367/380

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes
Music: from Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828); arr. Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the Blessed Mary, Saint Paul, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy Name,
   thy kingdom come,
   thy will be done,
   on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
   who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
   but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
   and the power, and the glory,
   for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.
Communion Anthem

Exsultate, justi

Exsultate, justi, in Domino; rectos decet collaudatio. Confitemini Domino in cithara; in psalterio decem chordarum, in psalterio. Psallite illi, cantate ei canticum novum, bene psallite ei in vociferatione.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye just: praise is fitting for the upright. Give praise to God upon the harp, play upon the ten-stringed psaltery. Sing to him a new song, sing skillfully with a strong voice.

—Psalm 33:1-3

Silence follows the anthem.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrate Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrate The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation
Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!

O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
join the great throng, psaltery, harp, and organ, and song, sounding in glad adoration.

All that hath life and breath come now with thanks to God.
Let the Amen sound from his people again; gladly for evermore to adore him.

STANDING ROCK PILGRIMAGE

AUGUST 4-8
STANDING ROCK SIOUX RESERVATION, ND

All ages (14 and younger require parent accompaniment)

Join Trinity children, youth, and adults on a pilgrimage to the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation, a journey that will expose travelers to life in a place and culture far different than their own.

Pilgrims will walk historic holy sites, attend a pow wow, learn about water access issues in the area and the controversial pipeline, and attend church services. We will listen, learn, and open ourselves to the change that inevitably happens on a journey like this.

Mandatory training is June 10 (10am-1pm).
Cost: $300 per person.

Core Values: Compassion
“Compassion constitutes a radical form of criticism, for it announces that the hurt is to be taken seriously, that the hurt is not to be accepted as normal and natural but is an abnormal and unacceptable condition for humanness.” —Walter Brueggemann

In June, we will explore the core value of compassion. What does compassion mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

5:30pm, meet at Parish Center
Join community activists, organizers, politicians, and citizens as we make our voice heard at this reimagined Rally experience. Information: TrinityIntegrityGroup@outlook.com.

Trinity Cares—I n Your Neighborhood
1:30pm, June 17, Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brooklyn
Our first Trinity In Your Neighborhood will be hosted by parishioner Paul Donahue in his neighborhood. Trinity In Your Neighborhood is an opportunity to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings may be as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. If you live in Bed-Stuy and would like to attend, or if you’d like to start a gathering in your neighborhood, email Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0753.

Sunday School & Youth Year-End Celebration
10am, June 18, St. Paul’s Chapel
We will thank our teachers and congratulate our graduates at this intergenerational party with live Caribbean music and dancing, including a performance by the Movement Choir! A van leaves Trinity Church for St. Paul’s at 9:45am. Information: Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lecture-Recital
2pm, June 18, St. Paul’s Chapel
Violist Junah Chung and pianist Barbara Podgurski perform music by Bloch, Hindemith, Beethoven, and Bruch. Reception follows. Admission is free. Sponsored by Trinity Congregational Arts Allegro. Information: dehope@ix.netcom.com or mikako.kumagai@gmail.com.

Care for Caregivers
10:30am-2:30pm, June 24, Parish Center
Join the Rev. Kristin Miles and art therapist Jessica Heller of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for an afternoon of reflection and replenishment for caregivers. Together we will take a moment in our day to be replenished in the sharing of a meal, in the catching of our breath, in the comfort of prayer, and in the practice of resting in the presence of God. We will reflect on the spirituality of caregiving and the importance of self-care through supportive discussion, meditation, and creative expression. RSVPs appreciated by June 19 to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Summer Sundays Begin (and Sailing!)
10am, beginning June 25, St. Paul’s Chapel
The theme of our intergenerational education hour this year is Creation Care. Summer Sundays will continue through Sunday, September 10. In our first four weeks, we’ll be exploring the gift of water, so we are going sailing! On June 25, at 11am, you are invited on a two-hour ecological tour of New York Harbor on board the 19th-century restored schooner Pioneer, leaving from South Street Seaport. Pioneer has a limited number of seats, so please RSVP to Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org by June 18 with a firm commitment to reserve your place.

BULLETIN BOARD
Volunteers needed: CSA
June-October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This summer Trinity is buying shares in two local Community Supported Agriculture concerns to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.
Parish Choir Forming
Trinity is organizing a Parish Choir, a semi-professional-level choir that will sing for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 3pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. Auditions are available by appointment. The choir will meet seasonally: now through June 11 and September 24–November 19. This choir joins the rich musical family at Trinity including the Trinity Choir of Men and Boys, the Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Josh Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

Renew Your Stewardship Pledge for 2017
Just a reminder that if you pledged in 2016, you still need to send in your 2017 pledge card or pledge online (trinitywallstreet.org/give). Without a new pledge, 2017 payments will be recorded as donations, not pledge payments. If you donate, please consider pledging. If you have already pledged, thank you! Information: wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Mission and Service Trips
Next Trip: Panama, June 21-26
Want to make a difference? Want to participate in an activity that can create true and lasting change? Consider applying for an upcoming trip to visit Trinity’s mission partners. Members of the Trinity community and friends engage in service to build partnerships and relationships through hands-on work. Other trips scheduled for 2017 include New York City (Fridays, July 14-August 11) and Burundi (TBD). Information: trinitywallstreet.org/mission.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
There are still several places open for the January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for their Epiphany celebrations, and there is a registration discount of $50 before July 15th. After that date participation will be on an as-available basis. Contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to reserve your place.

The Sisters are In
Weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!” The sisters are in most weekday mornings or afternoons before or after the 12:05pm service.
Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

AIDS Walk NY
Trinity’s AIDS Walk NY team had a fantastic time walking on May 21. If you missed the walk, there’s still time to donate. To give, call 212.807.WALK and ask that your donation be credited to Trinity’s team number 9797.

Congregational Voice
“When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ‘Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?’ He said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.” (Matthew 22:34-40) This is my favorite verse because I think it captures the essence of Jesus the best. Love our God. And then love our neighbor. These, above all else, are our commandments. This is the hardest thing to do. Pure love for a person even when we don’t agree or understand. —Mary-Margaret Little

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.
Heart Talk is a space for women to ‘join each other in the journey’ as they share their stories, build relationships and reflect on being women of faith in the city. Open to women of all ages and stages. Participants are welcome to bring their lunches.

For more information, email Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

CONTEMPLATIVE WEDNESDAYS

Drop in Every Wednesday, 6:30-8pm
November 16, 2016–June 21, 2017
Parish Center (2 Rector Street)

All are welcome to drop in for a midweek respite—to participate in an ongoing rhythm of silent meditation practice and spiritual conversation. Come and renew your capacity for open-hearted engagement in the world.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including the Book of Occasional Services (BOS).
