God, you shape us into living parables. Pray with your Spirit in us so that we may understand our experiences as healing metaphors, and become creative and abundant stewards of the environment you entrusted to our love. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. This season is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church. A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

We often describe liturgy at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel as a river: an apt analogy, since it suggests how it flows around—and how it shapes—the surrounding environment. During these twenty-five weeks of the Season after Pentecost, we will feature a variety of prayers within the context of our Holy Eucharist. We encourage you to recognize which of these many facets of worship resonate most personally with you.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

Es ist das Heil uns kommen her, BWV 638

Salvation has come to us.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930), alt.; after Joachim Neander (1650-1680)
Music: Michael, Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

Collect for Purity

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.
Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?” Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Leah’s eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful. Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, “I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.” Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me.” So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed.” So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her. (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.) When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?” Laban said, “This is not done in our country—giving the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years.” Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

The Psalm 105:1-8

Reader Let us read from Psalm 105 in unison.

All Give thanks to the LORD and call upon his Name; *

make known his deeds among the peoples.

Sing to him, sing praises to him, *

and speak of all his marvelous works.

Glory in his holy Name; *

let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

Search for the LORD and his strength; *

continually seek his face.

Remember the marvels he has done, *

his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,

O offspring of Abraham his servant, *

O children of Jacob his chosen.

He is the LORD our God; *

his judgments prevail in all the world.

He has always been mindful of his covenant, *

the promise he made for a thousand generations.

---

The Second Reading

Romans 8:26-39

Reader A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans.

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.”

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Hymnal 398, vv. 1-2

Please stand as you are able.

I sing the al-might-y power of God, that made the moun-tains rise, that spread the flow-ing seas a-broad and built the lofy skies.

I sing the good-ness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food;
he formed the crea-tures with his Word, and then pro-nounced them good.

I sing the wis-dom that or-dained the sun to rule the day;
Lord, how thy won-ders are dis-played, wher-e’er I turn my eye,

the moon shines full at his com-mand, and all the stars ob-y,
if I sur-vey the ground I tread, or gaze up-on the sky!

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.; Music: Forest Green, English melody; adapt. and harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Another parable Jesus put before the crowds: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”
“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“What have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for our sake, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:
earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,
souls of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Saviour, Son of God in human frame,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Saviour, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

Reader Almighty God, we pray for your holy catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for all bishops, priests, deacons, and all ministers in your church;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
Silence
Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP p. 361/377

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.
If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us be with you now and for ever.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Hymnal 493, vv. 1-3

1 Oh for a thousand tongues to sing my dear Redeemer’s praise,
2 My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim
3 Jesus! the Name that charms our fears and bids our sorrows cease;

1 the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace!
2 and spread through all the earth abroad the honors of thy Name.
3 ’tis music in the sinner’s ears, ’tis life and health and peace.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788), alt.; Music: Azmon, Carl Gotthilf Gläser (1784-1829); adapt. and arr. Lowell Mason (1792-1872)

HAITI SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUCCESS

Give the gift of education to students in Haiti. Donate today to change a child’s life.

Since the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Sisters of St. Margaret and parishioners of Trinity Church Wall Street have given scholarships to Haitian students of all ages who could not afford an education. As the new school year approaches, our goal is to raise $10,000 to cover the school fees for 13 students in our program.

You can donate by writing a check to Trinity Church Wall Street (Haiti Scholarships in the memo line) and dropping it in the giving boxes at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel; donating online; or giving to the plate offering during services on July 30.

Give online and learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/HaitiScholars.

Join THE TRINITY CHARTER SOCIETY

Be part of a legacy that spans three centuries when you include Trinity Church Wall Street in your will or estate plans.

In addition to ensuring the continued impact of the parish’s ministry in our neighborhood and throughout the world, members of The Trinity Charter Society have their names inscribed in the Trinity Memorial Book in the Chapel of All Saints and receive invitations to special events.

To make a bequest or for more information, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at 212.602.9692 or wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org.
Trinity Church Wall Street is in the process of defining and exploring our core values of faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship. Mark your calendar for the upcoming special event.

LISTENING HEARTS AND CORE VALUES RETREAT
Saturday, September 30 | 9am-5pm | Trinity Church

All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Is Trinity in Your Will?
Please consider including Trinity Church Wall Street in your estate planning. By doing so you will be invited to join The Trinity Charter Society, whose members have declared their support of Trinity’s future ministry and mission by remembering Trinity Church Wall Street in their wills or other vehicles. If you would like more information about planned giving, please contact the Fund Development office (wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org; 212.602.9692).

Congregational Voice
“He answered, ‘Have you not read that the one who made them at the beginning “made them male and female,” and said, “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?” So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate” (Matthew 19:4-6). The key insight is this: the marriage that Jesus is referring to is the union of your spirit and your body before the Fall. You have left your first love. Remember, therefore, from where you have fallen, repent, and do the first works. The first works is to restore the supremacy of your spirit by mortifying the deeds of your body. The only way to mortify the deeds of the body is to amplify the spirit of love. —Brigette Ffolkes

Core Values: Social Justice
“Can I see another’s woe, and not be in sorrow too? Can I see another’s grief, and not seek for kind relief?” —William Blake

In July, we are exploring the core value of social justice. What does social justice mean to you and how does this core value shape your day-to-day life? Send your thoughts to Fr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones at mbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org, or share your thoughts with fellow parishioners, clergy, and staff at an upcoming Illuminating Core Values session:

- Stewardship
  Thursday, August 17, 6:30-8:15pm,
  Trinity Church, Manning Room

Here’s another opportunity for exploring and celebrating our core values:

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Prayer Requests
Prayer requests may be found on a separate card printed weekly and located at the back of the churches. The list is cleared at the end of each month. To add names to the list, email worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners always receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted.
