In the flaming bush you promised deliverance to your people, O God, and in the cross of Jesus you embraced our suffering and pain. In times of misery, show us the transforming power of your love that we may know the hope of your glory. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.”

—Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Every three years, the Episcopal Church convenes an international youth event so “that the energy of the youth of the Episcopal Church can continue to be utilized in active ministry as members of the Body of Christ.” This year, the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event welcomed nearly 1,400 participants, including the Rev. Winnie Varghese, Director of Justice and Reconciliation at Trinity Church Wall Street, who preached at the Closing Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer used at that EYE17 service was adapted by the youth participants, and it joins other liturgical elements featuring expansive language that we will use at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel during Sunday worship throughout the month of August. Expansive language evokes images that invite us to think of God in creative ways, and aptly highlights Trinity’s core value of inclusiveness.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All
Amen.
Glória

All Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Jesus, you are the way through the wilderness: show us your truth in which we journey, and by the grace of the Holy Spirit be in us the life that draws us to God.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Exodus 3:1-15

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.” When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the LORD said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.” But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’” God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you: This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.”

The Psalm

Psalm 105:1-8

Reader

Let us read from Psalm 105 in unison.

All

We give you thanks, O God, and call upon your Name; *
we make known your deeds among the peoples.

We sing to you; we sing your praise *
and speak of all your marvelous works.

We glory in your holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek you rejoice.

We search for you and your strength; *
we continually seek your face.

We remember the marvels you have done, *
the wonders and the judgments of your mouth.

O offspring of Abraham, your servant, *
O children of Jacob, the chosen ones.

You are our God indeed; *
your judgments prevail in all the world.

You have always been mindful of your covenant, *
the promise you made for a thousand generations.

The Second Reading

Romans 12:9-21

Reader

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

People

Thanks be to God.
Please stand as you are able.

I sing the almighty power of God, that made the mountains rise,
I sing the goodness of the Lord, that filled the earth with food;
that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies, he formed the creatures with His Word, and then pronounced them good.

I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
Lord, how thy wonders are displayed, wher'e'er I turn my eye,
the moon shines full at his command, and all the stars obey,
if I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky!

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.
Music: Forest Green, English melody; adapt. and harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

“For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for our salvation, like a lamb to slaughter led, We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things begun.

suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,

We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign,

So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary, up-on whom the Spirit came.

to the Father’s side ascended, till as judge he comes again.

we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

People
To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.
Celebrant Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you": Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City where with God and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Have mercy upon us, most merciful God; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1, adapted

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God and Creator.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is a right and truly joyful thing to give you thanks, Lord, holy and merciful Creator of our Universe and home, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, giving to your church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining with your heavenly chorus of angels and archangels who sing this hymn to glorify your holy name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might, heaven and earth are full,
full of your glory.

San - na in the highest.
San - na

in the highest. Bless’d is the one who comes...
Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed and holy Creator: you made us in your image to roam your beautiful creation, to adventure among your people, and to praise you in honor and glory. But in our sinfulness we strayed from your path and from your light. Time after time you called us back into your goodness with prophets and visionaries, but we did not listen. Finally, you sent your only Son, Jesus Christ, to lead us from our sins and reconcile us to you so we might live in your light and love. Through Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, he illuminated your path for us to follow you with a full heart and soul, and to rightfully bring you praise and glory for ever.

On the night he was handed over to die upon the cross, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and broke it, and sharing it among his friends he praised you and gave you thanks, saying, “Take and eat, for this is my body given to you. Do this in the remembrance of me.”

After the meal he poured wine, and sharing it with his friends he gave you thanks, saying, “Drink, for this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for the forgiveness of your sins and all sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of your creation:

All

The peace of the world has died.
The peace of God has risen.
Our peace will come again.

Celebrant

And now, Lord, we celebrate the redemption and forgiveness of our sins through this feast of thanks and praise in the name of your Son and our Savior Jesus. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us, your people, so that we may faithfully and wholeheartedly receive these sacraments and serve you in unity, justice and peace, and that we may find a joyful place in your celestial kingdom with your saints and prophets by our side.
All this we ask in your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor, praise, and glory is yours, Almighty God and Celestial Creator, for ever and ever.

The Lord’s Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,

    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover and Redeemer is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for all Her People. Take them in remembrance and thanks that Christ has died for us, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with glory and praise.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan or usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, adapted

Celebrant May the blessing of God—loving, liberating, and life-giving—be with you now and evermore.
All Amen.

A Prayer for All Who Help

Blessed are you, Lord, God of mercy, who through your Son gave us a marvelous example of charity and the great commandment of love for one another. Send down your blessings on these your servants, who so generously devote themselves to helping others. Grant them courage when they are afraid, wisdom when they must make quick decisions, strength when they are weary, and compassion in all their work. When the alarm sounds and they are called to aid both friend and stranger, let them faithfully serve you in their neighbor. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A word from the Most Reverend Michael Curry, Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church

Long ago the prophet Malachi taught that we are all children of God by virtue of our creation by the same God. “Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us?” he asked (2:10). Jesus taught the same thing when he told a story about a Good Samaritan. We are indeed all the children of God. And if we are all God’s children, then we are all brothers and sisters.

As you know, our brothers and sisters in Texas now need our help. Our support of Episcopal Relief and Development is a tangible, practical, effective and reliable way to do that, not just in the short term, but for the long haul. Thank you for whatever you can do for together we are the human family of God.

12:45pm
Join Trinity’s Young Adult Group for social and spiritual fellowship with others in their 20s and 30s! The group meets the second Sunday of the month in the back of the church to enjoy brunch in the neighborhood. Information: young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Safe Church Training
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
The Bishop expects all employees, wardens, vestry members, pastoral visitors, youth leaders, Confirmation sponsors, acolyte leaders, choir directors, Sunday school teachers, and volunteers working on a regular basis to complete Safe Church Training in sexual misconduct awareness, either in person or online. Lunch included. Information: kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.
Forum: Standing Rock Pilgrimage
1pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
All are invited to hear about the recent Trinity pilgrimage to Standing Rock Sioux Reservation. Come see photos, ask questions, and join us as the travelers share their experiences in North Dakota.

Movement Choir Presents Reconciliation
1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Trinity Movement Choir’s dance designed to mark the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks has come to have a broader meaning as audiences have applied the piece to cataclysmic events in their own countries and lives. But the message remains the same: there is a route from agony and numbness back to life, through openness to love that breaks the chain of revenge and injury. Free and open to all. Directed by Marilyn Green with music by Jeff Repella. Information: Marilyn Green at marilyngreenart@gmail.com.

COMING SOON
Ringing the Bell of Hope
8:45am, September 11, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Wall Street remembers the anniversary of September 11, 2001 with the ringing of the Bell of Hope. The Bell of Hope was given to New York City by London in 2002. Placed in St. Paul’s churchyard, it has been rung each year on 9/11 since the first anniversary. In addition, the bell has sounded in solidarity with other victims of terrible attacks and terrorism. It was created by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in London’s East End, where the original Liberty Bell was cast in 1752.

Volunteers Needed: Intrepid Museum
10am, September 11, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum
We’ll join forces with more than 2,000 volunteers representing more than 40 companies, interfaith groups, and organizations to help combat hunger by helping assemble more than half a million dry meals. As an official partner for this project, Trinity is seeking volunteers. There are two shifts available: 11am-1:30pm and 1-3:30pm (these times include the 30 minutes you’ll need to check in and go through security). Information and registration: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Calling of the Names Ceremony
4pm, September 11, St. Paul’s Churchyard
The second annual ceremony remembering 9/11 responders, rescue and recovery workers and volunteers who came to help in the days, weeks and months following the September 11, 2001 attacks, and have since died. All deceased responders will be remembered regardless of the reason for their death—9/11 related or otherwise.

Core Values: What’s Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we’re taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we’ve learned.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries. [Note: This event is now at capacity.]

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct. 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct. 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as “a sinner looked on by Jesus with love,” what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

Information: Keisha at kjoseph@trinitywallstreet.org.
Time’s Arrow, Part 1: Webern
September 12-14, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and NOVUS NY perform the works of Austrian serialist composer Anton Webern, alongside those of the early contrapuntal composers who influenced him, as well as works by the later composers he inspired. The festival examines how an artist’s work relates to personal politics and whether the two spheres can be separated. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/timesarrow for details.

Rector’s Forum: Strategic Programming
10am, Sunday, September 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity is Building: Neighborhoods, Leadership, and Capacity. You’re invited to share your ideas as we build programming around areas of strategic focus. Please join us.

Trinity Knitters
12:30pm, Sunday, September 17, Parish Center
Are you an experienced knitter, new to the craft, or somewhere in between? Trinity Knitters welcomes you to come knit or crochet items for the housebound, children of incarcerated parents, returning veterans, and others in need. Yarn, needles, and patterns are available to all, and expert instruction is provided for first-timers. Join in the fun and fellowship! Information: Janet MacMillan at macmilj@yahoo.com or 201.915.9814.

Celebration Sunday
1pm, Sunday, September 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
All are invited to kick off the new program year with a picnic lunch and festive activities fair. Come learn about the various ministries of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel—from social justice ministries to classes for all ages to the knitting group—and sign up for something new. Whether you are a longtime member or a new parishioner, there will be plenty of fellowship, food, and fun—including music, face painting, and balloon art. Information: see Barbara Inniss or email innissb@aol.com.

Catch Your Breath
1pm, Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 20, Trinity Church
Spiritual resources for the here and now. This group allows you to take a break—participate in a breathing exercise, enjoy some quiet time, and listen to a short teaching—before tackling the rest of your day. Bring your lunch for a centering, supportive midday interlude. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

RECONCILIATION
Presented by The Trinity Movement Choir
Sunday, September 10, 1pm | St. Paul’s Chapel
A journey with movement and music from the agony and numbness of tragedy back to life through love that breaks the chain of revenge and injury.

FREE AND OPEN TO ALL.
Trinity in Your Neighborhood
Next gathering: 4pm, October 1, West Village
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. Our second gathering included a backyard cookout on Staten Island. Our next get-togethers will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Save the Date: Trinity Institute 2018
Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael Curry, Michelle Alexander, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. More information coming soon at TI2018.org.

Downtown Voices Choir Auditions
through September 15
Auditions are open for Downtown Voices, Trinity’s semiprofessional choir featuring talented volunteers and members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, under the direction of Stephen Sands. The choir rehearses weekly on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9pm, September 2017 through May 2018. To learn more and request an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semiprofessional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Closing
October 1 through mid-November
St. Paul’s Chapel will be closed from early October through mid-November while a new organ is installed in the space. The chapel will be open Sundays for 8am and 9:15am services. Visit trinitywallstreet.org for periodic progress reports.

Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Information: trinityretreatcenter.org

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said, “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community (212.602.0895).

Congregational Voice
“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not the result of works, so that no one may boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9). This is THE thing that we want so much. Grace: freedom from fears, resentments, and any kind of trouble is given freely by God if we simply have faith that we will have it. Just a little bit of faith. Not perfection, just a little itty bit of faith. We do not earn grace, it’s given freely to us by God. Nothing we do gets it. But remember, those who get it have nothing to boast about! Pretty cool, eh? —Scott Smith, Head Sacristan

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL) and are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. The Prayers of the People and other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW). The Eucharistic Prayer was adapted by Andrés González-Bonillas and the worship team of the 2017 Episcopal Youth Event, and is used with permission.
