2018 Stewardship Pledge Appeal

Today we launch the 2018 stewardship pledge appeal in support of our mission and many ministries. The theme for 2018 is “The Core Value of Stewardship.” As Fr. Mark asks us, “How would Trinity be different if we truly lived our core value of stewardship?” By pledging your financial support you are strengthening this pillar of Trinity’s identity and extending the congregation’s outreach to our neighborhood and the world. If you pledged in 2017, pledged in past years, make recorded donations, or are a member but have not pledged recently, you should receive a 2018 stewardship brochure and pledge card in the mail. Trinity gratefully accepts pledges of financial support at whatever amount. The Stewardship Committee has set a goal for 2018 to increase the number of Trinity’s pledging households by 50%. “We want to include everyone in the pledging process,” says Stewardship Committee Chair Felicia Eve. Stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes are available near the entrances of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. You may also record your pledge and create a payment schedule online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. If you have any questions about stewardship, please contact Willem Brans, Director of Development, at wbrans@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.9692.

Core Values: What’s Next
Earlier this year, we explored our six core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. In September we reflected and evaluated what we learned.

In October, we begin exploring more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Integrity

Trinity in Your Neighborhood
7pm, Jersey City
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. This get-together will include dinner in Jersey City at 7pm. RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

New Sights and Sounds
In October and November, expect some exciting developments at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel: a newly renovated organ will be installed at St. Paul’s, and a new color of paint with an impressive historic lineage will be displayed in portions of Trinity. Both projects will affect how we experience our worship spaces for a period of time. Please see the details below.

St. Paul’s Chapel
Accommodating the installation of a renovated organ means that the chapel will have restricted hours through November 18. Sunday services will take place at 8am and 9:15am as regularly scheduled. However, at other times during the week, the chapel will be closed. Compline will be held at Trinity Church on Sunday evenings.

Trinity Church
As the parish determines the scope of a renovation that is being proposed for 2018, scaffolding will go up inside the 171-year-old Trinity Church building during the week of October 16. This will allow a team to “mock up” portions of the church to recreate the original color scheme envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. This project, which will require the scaffolding to remain in place until the end of November, is one part of a design phase exploring the potential renovation. Make sure to let your opinions on the color be known! Apart from the addition of Compline, Trinity’s regular open hours and worship schedule will not change.

NEXT SUNDAY
Community Discussion: Council Bylaws
10am, St. Paul’s Chapel
To gather additional community input, the Rev. Phil Jackson, Vicar, will convene this discussion on the proposed revisions to the Congregational Council bylaws. The revisions concern a new annual class structure for council membership, the addition of a new membership committee, and aligning the existing bylaws with the 2017 ordinances. All are welcome.

Twelfth Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat

No longer are we imprisoned by these four horsemen, but they certainly do re-appear on occasion to bedevil and frighten us. The Rev. Stuart H. Hoke will help us recapture our encounters with the four horsemen, and use the gifts our program gives us to face them squarely and take the wind out of their sails. Sponsored by Trinity’s Community Standing Committee. Cost: $125 double room; $195 single. Information: Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

You may also mail the gift to 120 Broadway, 38th Fl., New York, NY 10271 by December 1. If you prefer not to shop, instead choose a tag that requests a monetary donation. Donations may be made by check or money order to 120 Broadway, 38th Floor, New York, NY 10271. Please make the checks payable to Trinity Church with “Giving Tree” in the memo line. You may also give through Trinity’s online giving site trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Stephanie Burgos at sburgos@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0846.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church

But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it”

Congregational Voice
“Those who trust in the Lord are steady as Mount Zion, unmoved by any circumstance” (Psalms 125:1). Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.
