In the flaming bush
you promised deliverance to your people, O God, and in the cross of Jesus
you embraced our suffering and pain.
In times of misery,
show us the transforming power of your love that we may know the hope of your glory. Amen.
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

If you are not Episcopalian or a member of the Anglican Communion, you may not be familiar with the ancient tradition of commemorating women and men who have dedicated their lives to serving Christ. As part of our tradition we lift up these individuals as examples of how we can follow in the footsteps of these saints. Not because they were perfect, but because in the full bloom of their humanness and brokenness, they lived lives of holiness, showing forth God’s love with all their heart, mind and soul, while loving others as themselves.

The Book of Common Prayer (pp. 19-30) and the Revised Common Lectionary prescribe many of the saints’ days observed here at Trinity Church. Further resources for learning more about the Common of Saints are Holy Women, Holy Men and Lesser Feasts and Fasts, which provide additional biographical information about the ministry and sacrifice of these individuals.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.
Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed

On certain days please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader Almighty God, we pray for your holy catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Reader Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
People That your Name may be glorified by all people.

Reader We pray for all bishops, priests, deacons, and all ministers in your church;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

Reader We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Reader Help us celebrate our core value of stewardship;
People That we may truly become generous with our time, talent, and treasure.

Reader Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Reader We pray for the people of southeast Texas and Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Harvey and the extensive rain and flooding. Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Reader Give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Reader We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Reader Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.
Silence
Add your own prayers, either silently or aloud.

Celebrant Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant says the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory.
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes.
Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All  Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
     Give us this day our daily bread.
     And forgive us our trespasses,
     as we forgive those who trespass against us.
     And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
     For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
     for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All  Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant  The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
All  Amen.
Dismissal

Celebrant  Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People     Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints.

Flowers

Share life events by dedicating altar flowers to celebrate a birthday, wedding, anniversary, or birth of a child, or to commemorate a departed loved one. E-mail flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for more information.

Flowers decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel throughout the week. On Thursdays after the 12:05 service, remaining flowers may be taken home by parishioners. Please see a sacristan for assistance.
RESPONDING TO HURRICANE HARVEY

A Prayer for All Who Help

Blessed are you, Lord, God of mercy, who through your Son gave us a marvelous example of charity and the great commandment of love for one another. Send down your blessings on these your servants, who so generously devote themselves to helping others. Grant them courage when they are afraid, wisdom when they must make quick decisions, strength when they are weary, and compassion in all their work. When the alarm sounds and they are called to aid both friend and stranger, let them faithfully serve you in their neighbor. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

― Adapted from the Book of Blessings, #587, by Diana Macalintal

Episcopal Relief & Development invites you to join us in prayer and support for communities affected by Hurricane Harvey.

Episcopal Relief & Development is working with dioceses in the hurricane’s path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. Local churches and partners are assessing damage, confirming the safety of members and others in their communities and using available facilities and resources to respond to immediate concerns.

Your contribution to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund helps Episcopal Relief & Development support Church and other local partners as they provide critical emergency assistance.

To help care for those affected by this crisis, please fill out the coupon below and mail it in with your check or credit card information. You can also contribute online at episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Thank you for your compassion and prayers. With your partnership, we are healing a hurting world.

A word from the Most Reverend Michael Curry, Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church

Long ago the prophet Malachi taught that we are all children of God by virtue of our creation by the same God. “Have we not all one father? Has not one God created us?” he asked (2:10). Jesus taught the same thing when he told a story about a Good Samaritan. We are indeed all the children of God. And if we are all God’s children, then we are all brothers and sisters.

As you know, our brothers and sisters in Texas now need our help. Our support of Episcopal Relief and Development is a tangible, practical, effective and reliable way to do that, not just in the short term, but for the long haul. Thank you for whatever you can do for together we are the human family of God.

Enclosed is my gift to the Hurricane Harvey Fund to assist those who are in need.

Core Values: What’s Next
For six months, we have explored our core values and how they have been part of and impacted our individual lives. This month we're taking the time to reflect and evaluate what we've learned.

Listening Hearts and Core Values Retreat
9am-5pm, September 30, Trinity Church
All are invited to this retreat as we use silence, song, creative engagement with Scripture, and contemplative sharing of reflections to examine what our core values mean for our community and our daily lives. Led by Listening Heart Ministries. [Note: This event is now at capacity.]

In October, we will explore more deeply how to put our values in action by examining social, political, cultural, and religious issues.

Panel Discussion: Faith
6pm, Oct 3, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of faith in our public life, exploring questions like: What does it mean to be spiritual and not religious? What is a faith response to the political realities of today? Does faith matter? Panelists include Chester Johnson, Peter Heltzel, Gary Hellman, Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, Roz Hall, and David Peters.

Panel Discussion: Integrity
6pm, Oct 19, Trinity Church, Manning Room
Parish and community leaders discuss the role of integrity in our public life, exploring questions like: Pope Francis said he sees himself as "a sinner looked on by Jesus with love," what does it mean to be a saved sinner or a loved sinner? Is honesty possible in politics? Panelists include Deborah Hope, Keith Klein, Wayne Cato, Bob Scott, Darren Levine, and Beth Blunt.

COMING SOON
Ringing the Bell of Hope
8:45am, September 11, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Wall Street remembers the anniversary of September 11, 2001 with the ringing of the Bell of Hope. The Bell of Hope was given to New York City by London in 2002. Placed in St. Paul’s churchyard, it has been rung each year on 9/11 since the first anniversary. In addition, the bell has sounded in solidarity with other victims of terrible attacks and terrorism. It was created by the Whitechapel Bell Foundry in London’s East End, where the original Liberty Bell was cast in 1752.
Volunteers Needed: Intrepid Museum
10am, September 11, Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum
We’ll join forces with more than 2,000 volunteers representing more than 40 companies, interfaith groups, and organizations to help combat hunger by helping assemble more than half a million dry meals. As an official partner for this project, Trinity is seeking volunteers. There are two shifts available: 11am-1:30pm and 1-3:30pm (these times include the 30 minutes you’ll need to check in and go through security). Information and registration: Mandy Culbreath at mculbreath@trinitywallstreet.org.

Calling of the Names Ceremony
4pm, September 11, St. Paul’s Churchyard
The second annual ceremony remembering 9/11 responders, rescue and recovery workers and volunteers who came to help in the days, weeks and months following the September 11, 2001 attacks, and have since died. All deceased responders will be remembered regardless of the reason for their death —9/11 related or otherwise.

Time’s Arrow, Part 1: Webern
September 12-14, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and NOVUS NY perform the works of Austrian serialist composer Anton Webern, alongside those of the early contrapuntal composers who influenced him, as well as works by the later composers he inspired. The festival examines how an artist’s work relates to personal politics and whether the two spheres can be separated. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/timesarrow for details.

Rector’s Forum: Strategic Programming
10am, Sunday, September 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity is Building: Neighborhoods, Leadership, and Capacity. You’re invited to share your ideas as we build programming around areas of strategic focus. Please join us.

Celebration Sunday
1pm, Sunday, September 17, St. Paul's Chapel
All are invited to kick off the new program year with a picnic lunch and festive activities fair. Come learn about the various ministries of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel—from social justice ministries to classes for all ages to the knitting group—and sign up for something new. Whether you are a longtime member or a new parishioner, there will be plenty of fellowship, food, and fun—including music, face painting, and balloon art. Information: see Barbara Inniss or email innissb@aol.com.

Catch Your Breath
1pm, Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 20, Trinity Church
Spiritual resources for the here and now. This group allows you to take a break—participate in a breathing exercise, enjoy some quiet time, and listen to a short teaching—before tackling the rest of your day. Bring your lunch for a centering, supportive midday interlude. Information: Amiriz at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity in Your Neighborhood
Next gathering: 4pm, October 1, West Village
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gathering, held in June, was a lovely meal in the Bedford-Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. Our second gathering included a backyard cookout on Staten Island. Our next get-togethers will include tea, refreshments, and company into the evening in Greenwich Village beginning at 4pm, Sunday, October 1; and dinner in Jersey City at 7pm, Saturday, October 14. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. If you are interested in hosting or attending gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pilgrimage to Ethiopia
January 15–23, 2018
The January pilgrimage to Ethiopia for the Epiphany celebrations is nearly full. If you are hoping to go, please contact Fr. Daniel at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org to secure your place.

Save the Date: Trinity Institute 2018
Values in Action: A Trinity Institute Conference
February 2-3, 2018
We all want to create a better world—and that requires action and connection. Discerning shared values is crucial to forming powerful partnerships and moving forward with courageous intention. We’ll explore how we can set a collaborative course at Trinity Institute 2018: Values in Action, a conference designed to help you get grounded and connected so you can get going. Speakers include the Most Rev. Michael Curry, Michelle Alexander, and Pádraig Ó Tuama. More information coming soon at TI2018.org.

Help after Hurricane Harvey
The disastrous effects of Hurricane Harvey are expected to impact Texas and Louisiana for years to come. Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is working with dioceses in the hurricane’s path to best support responses and address needs as more information becomes available. To donate to the Hurricane Harvey Response Fund, visit episcopalrelief.org/hurricane-harvey-response.

Downtown Voices Choir Auditions through September 15
Auditions are open for Downtown Voices, Trinity’s semiprofessional choir featuring talented volunteers and members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, under the direction of Stephen Sands. The choir rehearses weekly on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 9pm, September 2017 through May 2018. To learn more and request an audition, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Parish Choir Auditions
Available by appointment, Sept. 24—Nov. 19
Trinity has established the Parish Choir, a semiprofessional-level choir that sings for Thursday Evensong and the 9am Sunday service at Trinity. Commitment includes rehearsals at 4pm Thursdays and 8:30am Sundays. This choir joins the rich musical history at Trinity including the The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, the Trinity Youth Chorus, and the Family Choir. Information: Joshua Anand Slater at jslater@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Closing
October 1 through mid-November
St. Paul’s Chapel will be closed from early October through mid-November while a new organ is installed in the space. The chapel will be open Sundays for 8am and 9:15am services. Visit trinitywallstreet.org for periodic progress reports.
Volunteers needed: CSA through October
Brown Bag Lunch is adding fruits and vegetables to the menu! This year Trinity bought a share in a local Community Supported Agriculture concern to provide fresh food to those who cannot afford it. Volunteers are needed to pick up the food each week and bring it back to Trinity for distribution. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/CSA.

Holiday Retreats in West Cornwall, CT
Thanksgiving, Nov. 21-26; Advent, Dec. 8-10; Christmas, Dec. 22-26, Trinity Retreat Center
Families and individuals are invited to the Trinity Retreat Center for the holidays. The Advent retreat will focus on expanding our awareness of God using the season’s themes. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas retreat weeks, enjoy hearty, festive meals, holiday activities for all ages, and a cozy fireside. Cost per night for double occupancy is $50 for each adult or teen, $25 for children 5-12 (no cost for children under 5). Cost includes meals, snacks, and activities. For anyone wishing the privacy of a single room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night. Information: trinityretreatcenter.org

Trinity Retreat Booking
Parish groups are invited to request Trinity Retreat Center reservation dates from fall of 2017 through late summer 2018. Submit reservation requests at trinityretreatcenter.org. Trinity Retreat Center will reach out to confirm dates no later than a month after submission. Email questions about rates or reservations to retreat@trinitywallstreet.org.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community (212.602.0895).

Congregational Voice
“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not the result of works, so that no one may boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9). This is THE thing that we want so much. Grace: freedom from fears, resentments, and any kind of trouble is given freely by God if we simply have faith that we will have it. Just a little bit of faith. Not perfection, just a little itty bit of faith. We do not earn grace, it’s given freely to us by God. Nothing we do gets it. But remember, those who get it have nothing to boast about! Pretty cool, eh? –Scott Smith, Head Sacristan

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Daily scripture readings come from the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL). On certain days, we remember a saint or feast of the church in the course of the service, and may use proper collects, readings, and prefaces appointed by Lesser Feasts and Fasts or Holy Women, Holy Men. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982 and Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS). Other service elements usually taken from the BCP may also come from additional sources as noted.
