God of Sarah and Abraham, long ago you embraced your people in covenant and promised them your blessing. Strengthen us in faith, that, with your disciples of every age, we may proclaim your deliverance in Jesus Christ to generations yet unborn. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The season of Lent—from an Old English word that means “Spring”—lasts 40 days, from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday.

Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten “disciplines”: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Although each Sunday is considered a “little Easter”—a time of joy and a rest from our fasting—services in this season take on a more thoughtful and quiet tone. We begin with a confession of all the ways we know we stand in need of God’s never-failing mercy.

We’re glad to have you here with us as we walk the road to Jerusalem together.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Bless God who forgives all our sins.
People Whose mercy endures for ever.

The ministers process in silence.
Penitential Sentence

Mark 12:29-31

Celebrant Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.”

A Ritual of Reconciliation

Celebrant Let us pray.

God of mercy and love, we confess to you and to each other that we have sinned against you, and opposed your will in our lives. We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us.

People Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant We have not always loved you; We have not always loved our neighbors, or forgiven others as you have forgiven us.

People Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant We’ve been proud, impatient, and angry. We’ve been jealous of those who have more than we do.

People Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant We’ve turned away when others needed our help. We’ve been unkind.

People Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People Amen.

Hymnal 439, v. 1

Words: American folk hymn, ca. 1835; Music: Wondrous Love, from The Southern Harmony, 1835
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy: Be gracious to all who have gone astray from your ways, and bring them again with penitent hearts and steadfast faith to embrace and hold fast the unchangeable truth of your Word, Jesus Christ your Son; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous.” Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.”

God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words: Latin, 8th c.; Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)

The Holy Gospel

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus began to teach his disciples that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

The refrain is sung once by a cantor and repeated once by the congregation before the prayers. Then it is sung once between each group as indicated.

Reader Jesus, remember us. Hear us as we pray.

For your Church around the world, we ask new life.
For all who minister faithfully to your people, we ask grace and wisdom.
For governors and rulers in this and every land, we ask your guidance.

All REFRAIN
Reader For Christians everywhere, we ask new unity in your name.
For our sisters and brothers of other faiths, we ask your divine blessing.
For people who have accepted spiritual disciplines in this holy season, we ask inspiration.
For those who cannot believe, we ask your faithful love.

All REFRAIN

Reader For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.
For people who suffer—who are hungry, lonely, oppressed, or in trouble—we ask your presence, healing, and protection.
For those who have died, and all those who mourn, we ask your mercy and comfort.

Silence

Celebrant Jesus, our only Savior, you renounced the way of ease for the way of truth and life. Draw us to seek God's kingdom whatever the cost, for the sake of the true treasure in heaven.

All Amen.

REFRAIN

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.
At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.
People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863), alt.; Music: St. Helena, Calvin Hampton (1938-1984)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who calls you to take up your cross, give you strength to bear your own and one another’s burdens; and the blessing of God almighty, holy and undivided Trinity,
God in community, be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

The refrain is repeated.

There’s a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,

and I know that it’s the Spirit of the Lord.

There are sweet expressions on each face,

and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain

Sweet Holy Spirit, Sweet Heavenly Dove,

Stay right here with us, filling us with your love.

And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise;

without a doubt we’ll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place.

Security Enhancements
Beginning March 1, we will begin checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

Our current plans are as follows: At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance will open at 7am and the north vestibule will open at 9am; all those who enter will pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule will be used only as an exit. The entrance in the back of the church will be open only to those in wheelchairs.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance will open at 7am. At 8:30am, the north vestibule will open, and five minutes before the 9am and 11:15am services, the Broadway entrance will close and remain closed during the service. The north vestibule will remain open and the south vestibule will continue to be the exit.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door will be an entrance, the north Broadway door will be an exit, and the Church Street doors will act as both entrance and exit.

We will be monitoring the new security process and may adjust these plans as necessary. Thank you for your patience.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation
Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone. Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

The team is finishing cleaning tests on the bases of the two southwest columns that were previously scaffolded, and is also testing cleaning techniques on the stone floor in the southwest aisle.

NEXT SUNDAY
Council Elections and Annual Meeting
Voting after all services
Annual meeting, 1:30pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Eligible members can cast their votes for Congregational Council candidates and Delegates to the Diocesan Convention following the 8am and 9:15am services at St. Paul’s Chapel and the 9am and 11:15am services at Trinity Church. As defined in the Ordinances for persons entitled to vote: “All persons who on the date of an annual election shall have attained the age of 18 years and who, for the period of one year preceding such annual election shall have been duly enrolled on the Congregation’s records as members of the Congregation and shall have partaken of the Holy Communion within said year in the Parish and who shall have contributed to the support of the Parish by a recorded gift of any amount in the preceding year, and no other persons, shall be entitled to vote at such annual election.” The ballots will be counted after voting closes (1pm) and the results of the vote will be announced at the Annual Meeting.

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone. Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

The team is finishing cleaning tests on the bases of the two southwest columns that were previously scaffolded, and is also testing cleaning techniques on the stone floor in the southwest aisle.

Council Standing Committee chairs will provide Committee updates.

COMING SOON
Masterworks for Double Choir
March 11, Trinity Church
Downtown Voices, Trinity's adult semi-professional choir conducted by Stephen Sands, presents masterworks for double choir by Martin, Rheinberger, and Howells. Free and open to all. For more information, visit trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Forgiveness: The Heart's True Home
March 17, Trinity Retreat Center
This day-long workshop will use a family systems approach to invite participants deeper into the practice of forgiveness and reconciliation—within their own personal lives and families, as well as in the broader, sometimes conflicted communities in which we find ourselves. Although this is a day retreat, participants are welcome to stay and join the community for meals in the Main House on Friday and Saturday nights at normal rates. Please indicate in the booking request form which night(s), if any, you'll be staying with us. The workshop begins at 9am. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Week Retreat
March 28-April 1, Trinity Retreat Center
Together we will celebrate the most important holy days of the year: the Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, leading to Easter Sunday. Participants will reflect on each day's themes and celebrate the liturgies together in the context of nature's early springtime re-awakening. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal Retreat
April 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Participants are invited to relax during this weekend dedicated to refreshment and renewal of body and soul through rest, prayer, and play. Time will be lightly structured around a daily house schedule, giving ample space to reconnect with

2018-2019 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 3, 2018, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

December 31, 2017 through April 3, 2018 is the period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2018 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

• Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by January 14, 2018.
• The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2018-2019.
• During the week of March 18, 2018, a mail ballot form and accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope, will be mailed to all eligible parishioners.* The ballot and pre-paid return envelopes also will be available in both Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel at each service until the election starting on March 18, 2018.
• Vestry Election Day is April 3, 2018. In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in Trinity Church. Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 3. The results will be announced on the web the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

*All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018), and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.
nature, pursue special interests, and participate in the community we make together. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Mary Magdalene Retreat
May 4-6, Trinity Retreat Center
The month of May is traditionally associated with Mary and the retreat center will be blooming. This retreat will explore the strong feminine archetype of Mary Magdalene, found hidden in a historically masculine Christian tradition. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee. Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

EAST: Episcopal Asian Supper Table
6pm, March 22, St. Bartholomew’s Church
The Episcopal Asian Supper Table (EAST) celebrates the dignity of Asian and Asian-American spirituality. Our monthly events are a welcoming space to share stories, seek God, and bridge diverse cultures. We are a growing ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. The guest speaker for the March 22 meeting will be Rabbi Angela Buchdahl, senior rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City and the first woman to lead the large Reform congregation in its 175-year history. Born in Korea to a Jewish-American father and a Korean Buddhist mother, Rabbi Buchdahl is the first Asian American to be ordained as cantor or rabbi in North America. An interfaith Holocaust memorial prayer service will precede her talk on her spiritual journey and a shared meal. St. Bartholomew’s Church is located at 325 Park Avenue (at 50th Street). RSVP: EAST@dioceseny.org.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, a Penitential Order, which begins on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP); service music not otherwise credited is composed by Joshua Anand Slater. Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
