Steadfast God,
you reach out to us in mercy even when we rebel against your holy call and prefer to walk in disobedience rather than in the way of your divine truth.
Soften our hearts with the warmth of your love,
that we may know your Son alive within us, redeeming us and raising us up into your eternal presence. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

The season of Lent—from an Old English word that means “Spring”—lasts 40 days, from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Although each Sunday is considered a “little Easter”—a time of rest from our fasting—services in this season take on a more thoughtful and quiet tone.

Today is known as Laetare Sunday, and provides further respite from the penitential character of the season. Laetare—“rejoice” in Latin—is the first word of the introit, or scripture verse historically appointed to open the service on the fourth Sunday in Lent. Flowers, which have been absent the past three weeks, return to decorate the chancel, and are pink in color; some parishes also don rose-colored vestments. Like Gaudete Sunday in Advent, Laetare Sunday invites us to look forward to the joy of the upcoming feast.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Bless God who forgives all our sins.

People Whose mercy endures for ever.

The ministers process in silence.
Penitential Sentence
Mark 12:29-31
BCP p. 351

Celebrant
Jesus said, “The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord your God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.”

A Ritual of Reconciliation
BCP p. 352, adapted/EOW p. 56

Celebrant
Let us pray.

God of mercy and love, we confess to you and to each other that we have sinned against you, and opposed your will in our lives. We are truly sorry, and we ask you to forgive us.

People
Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant
We have not always loved you; We have not always treated others with mercy and compassion. We ask you to forgive us.

People
Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant
We've been proud, impatient, and angry. We've been jealous of those who have more than we do. We ask you to forgive us.

People
Create in us a clean heart, O God.

Celebrant
We've turned away when others needed our help. We've been unkind. We ask you to forgive us.

People
Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us.

Celebrant
Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Numbers.

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.” Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. And the LORD said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live.” So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words: Latin, 8th c.; Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

"And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed
The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813
The Prayers of the People

The refrain is sung once by a cantor and repeated once by the congregation before the prayers. Then it is sung once between each group as indicated.

Reader Jesus, remember us. Hear us as we pray.
For your Church around the world, we ask new life.
For all who minister faithfully to your people, we ask grace and wisdom.
For governors and rulers in this and every land, we ask your guidance.

All REFRAIN

Reader For Christians everywhere, we ask new unity in your name.
For our sisters and brothers of other faiths, we ask your divine blessing.
For people who have accepted spiritual disciplines in this holy season, we ask inspiration.
For those who cannot believe, we ask your faithful love.

All REFRAIN

Reader For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.
For people who suffer—who are hungry, lonely, oppressed, or in trouble—we ask your presence, healing, and protection.
For those who have died, and all those who mourn, we ask your mercy and comfort.

Silence

Celebrant Jesus, our only Savior, you renounced the way of ease for the way of truth and life. Draw us to seek God's kingdom whatever the cost, for the sake of the true treasure in heaven.
Amen.

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts, and prepare with joy for the Paschal feast; that, fervent in prayer and in works of mercy, and renewed by your Word and Sacraments, they may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)
Celebrant  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All  We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863), alt.; Music: St. Helena, Calvin Hampton (1938-1984)

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

EOW p. 69

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

NZPB p. 533, adapted

Celebrant  May Christ, who calls you to take up your cross, give you strength to bear your own and one another’s burdens; and the blessing of God almighty, holy and undivided Trinity,
God in community, be with you and remain with you for ever.
All

Amen.
Closing Hymn

The refrain is repeated.

There's a sweet, sweet Spirit in this place,

and I know that it's the Spirit of the Lord.

There are sweet expressions on each face,

and I know they feel the presence of the Lord.

Refrain

Sweet Holy Spirit, Sweet Heavenly Dove,

Stay right here with us, filling us with your love.

And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise; without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place.

Words and Music: Doris Akers (1922-1995)
Dismissal

Deacon  Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People  Thanks be to God.

Flowers

The flowers today are given by Sandy and Bob Blaine in memory of Sandy’s mother, Maria Irma Gutierrez, on the first anniversary of her passing.

Today—Laetare Sunday—is the only day in Lent when flowers decorate the church. After the 9:15 service at St. Paul’s Chapel and after the 11:15 service at Trinity Church, altar flowers may be taken home by parishioners. Please see a sacristan for assistance.

Security Enhancements

On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance of the church will now be open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wanding.

Other entrances remain open on the schedule we enacted last week, as follows:

At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil's color and pattern. We've also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

Exterior scaffolding installed on the southern wall of the church has provided access to one of the yellow stained-glass windows in the clerestory, the upper part of the nave that is clear of the roof and allows light into the church. The yellow tint was added in 1967. The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

The team is finishing cleaning tests on the bases of the two southwest columns that were previously scaffolded, and is also testing cleaning techniques on the stone floor in the southwest aisle.

EAST: Episcopal Asian Supper Table
6pm, March 22, St. Bartholomew’s Church
The Episcopal Asian Supper Table (EAST) celebrates the dignity of Asian and Asian-American spirituality. Our monthly events are a welcoming space to share stories, seek God, and bridge diverse cultures. We are a growing ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of New York. The guest speaker for the March 22 meeting will be Rabbi Angela Buchdahl, senior rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City and the first woman to lead the large Reform congregation in its 175-year history. Born in Korea to a Jewish-American father and a Korean Buddhist mother, Rabbi Buchdahl is the first Asian American to be ordained as cantor or rabbi in North America. An interfaith Holocaust memorial prayer service will precede her talk on her spiritual journey and a shared meal. St. Bartholomew’s Church is located at 325 Park Avenue (at 50th Street). RSVP: EAST@dioceseny.org.

March for Our Lives
March 24
Young activists at Trinity are joining the movement for common-sense gun legislation and traveling to the March For Our Lives in Washington, DC. Weekend trip to Corning Glass Museum
June 9-10
The Hospitality Committee cordially invites all members and friends of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel to a weekend trip to the Corning Glass Museum in Upstate New York. The cost is $199 double occupancy which is inclusive of all travel and lodging, as well as dinner on Saturday. night and breakfast on Sunday morning. Together we will have a magnificent weekend. Please contact Barbara Inniss at innisb@aol.com with any questions.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life's dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee. Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

You’re invited to retreat
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Learn more about these and other upcoming retreats at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Week Retreat
March 28-April 1
Together we will celebrate the most important holy days of the year: the Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, leading to Easter Sunday. Participants will reflect on each day's themes and celebrate the liturgies together in the context of nature’s early springtime re-awakening. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal Retreat
April 6-8

Mary Magdalene Retreat

BULLETIN BOARD

Easter Lily Donations
Due March 18
Lilies that will help decorate Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel for Easter may be dedicated for a suggested donation of $25. Donor names will be listed in the bulletins, and the flowers will be available for pickup after Easter. Contact flowers@trinitywallstreet.org for donation instructions and to submit your name for printing.

Pauli Murray Exhibit
Through March 21, St. Paul's Chapel
In collaboration with the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, Trinity Church Wall Street presents an exhibit about the life of Pauli Murray, civil rights activist and the first African-American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest. Visitors will have the opportunity to take a photo in front of the selfie wall and write their own lines of poetry. Additionally, 30 art students from nearby Leadership and Public Service High School will exhibit triptychs that explore how others see them, how they see themselves, and how they want the world to see them. A play about her life, To Buy the Sun, will be presented in April. Information: artasadvocacy.org.

Stations of the Cross Art Exhibition
Through April 1, throughout Manhattan
People of all faiths and spiritualities are invited on a creative and contemplative journey through Manhattan to consider injustice across the human experience. Stations of the Cross presents a pilgrimage comprised of 14 art stations, from the Cloisters to the 9/11 Memorial. Each location presents a new work of art or adds a fresh perspective to an existing memorial, highlighting the contemporary relevance of the Passion, Jesus’ final hours. Traditionally, the Stations of the Cross have served to evoke empathy with those who suffer, as Jesus did, at the hands of injustice. This year’s exhibit focuses on the experience of immigrants and refugees, exploring feelings of despair, exploitation, abandonment, and hope. Information: artstations.org.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.
