Palm Sunday
Blessing of the Palms and Holy Eucharist Rite II with Passion Gospel
March 25, 2018, 9:15am

St. Paul's Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street, New York City
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Palm Sunday, which has been celebrated by Christians since at least the 4th century, marks the transition from our Lenten period of preparation into Holy Week. The concept of that transition defines this service: we begin with a festive remembrance of Jesus' final entry into Jerusalem—a parade of welcome when people lined the road ahead of him with cloth and palm branches. At the Gospel, the story of the Passion is read; we're asked to consider where Jesus' path will finally lead: to his arrest, conviction, and death on the cross.

The Episcopal tradition moves through the story of Easter slowly and deliberately. Holy Week culminates in what we call the Triduum: a three-part service that arcs from Maundy Thursday through Good Friday and, finally, into the surpassing joy of Easter. Your Trinity clergy and Education staff are always available to provide resources and support if you'd like more information about this historic celebration, the very heart of our Christian joy and hope.

The Liturgy of the Palms

Please take a palm branch with you to your seat.

Acclamation

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord.
People: Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

BCP p. 270
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.’” They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?” They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it.

Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!” Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Blessing of the Palms

Please lift your palm branches into the air.

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and help us to always call him our King, and follow him down the road to eternal life. For he lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Benedictus and Hosanna

Celebrant Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

People Hosanna in the highest.
Hymn

Words: Jeannette Threlfall, (1821-1880); Music: Ellacombe, from Gesangbuch...der Herzogl, Wittenberg 1784, alt.; adapt. Katholisches Gesangbuch, 1863; harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to give us the example of great humility in his death on the cross. Help us to walk in the way of his suffering, and to share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Words: Latin, 8th c.; Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994)

Ubì caritas et amor, ubì caritas, Deus ibi est.

The Passion Gospel

Please continue standing as you are able.

Deacon The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

There is no congregational response.

As soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered him, “You say so.” Then the chief priests accused Jesus of many things. Pilate asked him again, “Have you no answer? See how many charges they bring against you.” But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.
Now at the festival Pilate used to release a prisoner for them, anyone for whom they asked. Now a man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the insurrection. So the crowd came and began to ask Pilate to do for them according to his custom. Then Pilate answered them, “Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?” For he realized that it was out of jealousy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas for them instead. Pilate spoke to them again, “Then what do you wish me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?” The crowd shouted back, “Crucify him!”

Then the soldiers led Jesus into the courtyard of the palace. And they clothed Jesus in a purple cloak; and after twisting some thorns into a crown, they put it on him. And they began saluting him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” After mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to Golgotha to crucify him.

It was nine o’clock in the morning. The inscription of the charge against him read, “The King of the Jews.” And with Jesus they crucified two bandits, one on his right and one on his left.

Those who passed by derided Jesus. In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes, were also mocking Jesus among themselves and saying, “He saved others; he cannot save himself. Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now, so that we may see and believe.”

When it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. At three o’clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” Then Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. Now when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way Jesus breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was God’s Son!”

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.
The Prayers of the People

Please stand as you are able.
The refrain is sung twice by all before the prayers. Then it is sung once between each group as indicated.

Reader  Jesus, remember us. Hear us as we pray.
For your Church around the world, we ask new life.
For all who minister faithfully to your people, we ask grace and wisdom.
For governors and rulers in this and every land, we ask your guidance.

All  REFRAIN

Reader  For Christians everywhere, we ask new unity in your name.
For our sisters and brothers of other faiths, we ask your divine blessing.
For people who have accepted spiritual disciplines in this holy season, we ask inspiration.
For those who cannot believe, we ask your faithful love.

All  REFRAIN

Reader  For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.
For people who suffer—who are hungry, lonely, oppressed, or in trouble—we ask your presence, healing, and protection.
For those who have died, and all those who mourn, we ask your mercy and comfort.

Silence

Celebrant  Jesus, our only Savior, you renounced the way of ease for the way of truth and life. Draw us to seek God’s kingdom whatever the cost, for the sake of the true treasure in heaven.
Amen.

REFRAIN
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation

Hymnal 380, v. 3

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer
BCP p. 364

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814-1863), alt.; Music: St. Helena, Calvin Hampton (1938-1984)
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who calls you to take up your cross, give you strength to bear your own and one another's burdens; and the blessing of God almighty, holy and undivided Trinity, God in community, be with you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: Theodulph of Orleans (d. 821); tr. John Mason Neale (1818-1866), alt.
Music: Valet will ich dir geben, melody Melchior Teschner (1584-1635), alt.; harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

Core Values: What's Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm
(Trinity Church, Manning Room)

Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

COMING SOON

To Buy the Sun
7pm, April 5 through April 7; 2pm, April 7
St. Paul’s Chapel
To Buy the Sun, an original play by Lynden Harris, explores Pauli Murray’s extraordinary life and the challenge she offers us all. Using archival images, three chairs, and a typewriter, the performers bring to life 60 characters, six decades, and two continents in this acting tour de force. By the close of To Buy the Sun, you will want to cheer for this mixed-race, gender non-conforming attorney, poet, activist, professor, and priest. Tickets ($15) are available at TBTSNYC.eventbrite.com. Scholarships are available.

EAST: Feminism and Christianity in Korea
5:30pm, Saturday, April 7, Trinity Church
Dr. Song Woo Hur, expert on feminist politics and women’s movements in South Korea, will discuss “A Korean Feminist’s Wrestling with God: Living with Feminism and Christianity in Korea” at the April gathering of The Episcopal Asian Supper Table, Episcopalians of Asian descent living in the Metro New York area, seeking to live out their faith with authenticity, spiritual depth, and cultural integrity. Free and open to the public. RSVP appreciated at EAST@dioceseny.org.

Foundations
1pm, Sundays, April 8–May 6, Parish Center
A series for those seeking Adult Baptism or Confirmation, Reception, or Reaffirmation of Faith in the Episcopal Church. It is also a great opportunity to acquire a greater understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian and Anglican for those seeking formal membership at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer and much more. Join Trinity’s Vicar, the Rev. Phillip Jackson, and other clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning.

Poetry Workshop
1-2:30pm, April 8, St. Paul’s Chapel
A poetry workshop for all Trinity writers who wish to participate in the Annual Poetry Festival to be held April 22. We will read poems in progress and discuss how to compose a decent poem. Participants will share their thoughts about writing. Open to all. Information: Alan at abfilm9@gmail.com.

ParentSpace
6-8:30pm, Fridays, April 13 and 20, Parish Center
ParentSpace: Daily Connection for Busy Families. Hectic schedules and long to-do lists keep our families disconnected even when we’re doing things together. Come discover how to better connect with your child emotionally and spiritually despite the busyness. Led by Sarah McCaslin of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Supper is provided. Child care is available. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/parentspace.

EDNY Lawn Games
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, April 28, Central Park
Join other young adults from other Episcopal parishes in the diocese for some Saturday afternoon fun! We will meet up at Mineral Springs in Central Park. We’ll gather, greet, eat, and celebrate Holy Communion, and then we’ll play some good old fashioned field games. This event is open to all ages, so please bring a friend (or two!). Bring your own picnic lunch and/or snacks to share. Eucharist begins at 12:30pm; games begin at 1pm. Information: young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.
Weekend trip to Corning Glass Museum
June 9-10
The Hospitality Committee cordially invites all members and friends of Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel to a weekend trip to the Corning Glass Museum in Upstate New York. The cost is $199 double occupancy which is inclusive of all travel and lodging, as well as dinner on Saturday night and breakfast on Sunday morning. Together we will have a magnificent weekend. Information: Barbara Inniss at innisb@aol.com.

Save the Date: Harry Potter Weekend
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Bring your family with children ages 7 and older to a Harry Potter-themed camp led by Patricia Lyons and using principles from her book, Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will play (and grow) together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast some spells, and sample Harry Potter-themed treats. Families will also learn how the Harry Potter story reflects values that can be part of an imaginative and fun exploration of faith. Cost: $100 per adult, $50 per child (includes lodging/meals); $100 per family activity fee. Transportation is on your own. Reservations are not confirmed until payment is made. Financial aid available. Information: Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

You’re invited to retreat
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Learn more about these and other upcoming retreats at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Week Retreat
March 28-April 1
Together we will celebrate the most important holy days of the year: the Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, leading to Easter Sunday. Participants will reflect on each day’s themes and celebrate the liturgies together in the context of nature’s early springtime re-awakening. Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal Retreat
April 6-8

Earth Credo: Living in Harmony with the Earth and its Source
April 22-April 27 or October 28-November 2

Mary Magdalene Retreat
May 4-6

Trinity Camper Reunion
July 26-28

BULLETIN BOARD
Stations of the Cross Art Exhibition
Through April 1, throughout Manhattan
People of all faiths and spiritualities are invited on a creative and contemplative journey through Manhattan to consider injustice across the human experience. Stations of the Cross presents a pilgrimage comprised of 14 art stations, from the Cloisters to the 9/11 Memorial. Each location presents a new work of art or adds a fresh perspective to an existing memorial, highlighting the contemporary relevance of the Passion, Jesus’ final hours. Traditionally, the Stations of the Cross have served to evoke empathy with those who suffer, as Jesus did, at the hands of injustice. This year’s exhibit focuses on the experience of immigrants and refugees, exploring feelings of despair, exploitation, abandonment, and hope. Information: artstations.org.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER
Today we pray for the Most Rev. Suheil Dawani and the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem & the Middle East.
Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
“The Lord is my light and salvation, whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?” (Psalm 27:1) and “I will lift up my eyes unto the hills, from whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth” (Psalm 121:1-2). Both of these Psalms have helped me deal with my son’s untimely death, especially Psalm 121. People look and me and think that I’m strong, but I’m not on my own. The strength they see comes from God.
—Miriam Fauntleroy

Green Notes
Sometime in late May or early June, Cape Town, South Africa is predicted to completely run out of water. Climate change and growing populations mean that the crisis in Cape Town inevitably will repeat itself on a global level. The future will depend on what governments and residents do now to prepare. To read more, search for “cape town water crisis” on curbed.com.
