The Second Sunday of Easter
Holy Eucharist Rite II
April 8, 2018, 9:15am

Light of the world, shine upon us and disperse the clouds of our selfishness, that we may reflect the power of the resurrection in our life together. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Carl P. Daw, Jr. (b. 1944); para. of The First Song of Isaiah
Music: Thomas Merton, Ray W. Urwin (b. 1930)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.” Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Help us remember that the earth is your own creation and a holy place, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others.

Pause

Loving God,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, that we will love one another as Jesus loves us.

Pause

Loving God,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Be with this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Pause

Loving God,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader Comfort and strengthen all those who are sick, lonely, afraid, or in trouble, and keep us ever mindful of the needs of others.

Pause

Loving God,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader We give to your tender mercy all who have died and those who mourn as we pray that we may also share in your heavenly kingdom.

Pause

Loving God,

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O Lord our God, accept the prayers of your people this day; in your mercy, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. Through his victory, the reign of sin has ended, a new age has dawned, a broken world is restored, and we are made whole once more.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)
Celebrant
We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

1. Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees); When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh, Lord, have mercy on me (on me).

2. Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees); Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees). When I
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.
1. I serve a risen Savior, He’s in the world today:
2. In all the world around me I see His loving care,

1. I know that He is living, whatever others say;
2. And though my heart grows weary I never will despair;
3. Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ, the King!

1. I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer,
2. I know that He is leading through all the stormy blast,
3. The hope of all who seek Him, the help of all who find,

1. And just the time I need Him, He’s always near.
2. The day of His appearing will come at last.
3. None other is so loving, so good and kind.

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!

He lives, He lives,
Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.
People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Security Enhancements
On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wanding.

Other entrances remain open, as follows:
At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.
Bach at One

Core Values: What’s Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm (Trinity Church, Manning Room)
Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)
Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching; then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

New Beginnings is Trinity’s ministry of seniors that meets weekly on Thursday mornings for Trinity Church Rejuvenation
Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil's color and pattern. We've also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

During the week of March 12, the second-to-last pew on the southwest side of the church was removed so the rejuvenation team could access ducts that are currently blocked by the pew.

To learn more about additional discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity parishioners and friends gather to read original verse or favorite poems for an afternoon of fun. Each participant will read up to four minutes. The celebrated poet and critic Lawrence Joseph will open the festivities reading from his own work, including pieces from his 2017 book of verse, So Where Are We? Mr. Lawrence is a Guggenheim Fellow and winner of two National Endowment for the Arts poetry fellowships.

EDNY Lawn Games
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, April 28, Central Park
Join other young adults from other Episcopal parishes in the diocese for some Saturday afternoon fun! We will meet at Mineral Springs in Central Park. We'll gather, greet, eat, and celebrate Holy Communion, and then we'll play some good old-fashioned field games. This event is open to all ages, so please bring a friend (or two!). Bring your own picnic lunch and/or snacks to share. Eucharist begins at 12:30pm; games begin at 1pm. Information: young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sunday Suppers
3-5pm, April 29, St. Paul's Chapel
Members of the parish of Trinity Church Wall Street and the neighboring community meet at St. Paul's Chapel for Sunday Suppers, an opportunity for parishioners and their downtown neighbors to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. Volunteers are requested. Please RSVP by Monday, April 23, to sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, May 4 and 11, Parish Center
Staying Connected through Healthy Conversations. What happens when your needs as an individual and your needs as a couple are in conflict? Peggy A. Barnett of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute will lead discussions about how to build, regain, and maintain trust by using healthy techniques for listening and being heard. Child care is available on request. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife.

The Tetragrammaton at St. Paul's
8pm, Friday, May 4, St. Paul's Chapel
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, invites Trinity parishioners and downtown neighbors to attend a talk co-led by its scholar-in-residence, Julie Seltzer, and the Rev. Beth Blunt. The conversation, inspired by the Chapel's unique architecture and iconography, will explore both the meaning and evolution of the Tetragrammaton (the Hebrew name of God) in the Five Books of Moses and the history and significance of St. Paul's L'Enfant altarpiece. The talk will begin at 8pm; guests are also invited to join Tamid for an open table Shabbat dinner at 7:15pm. RSVPs required for dinner only—please email Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by Friday, April 27.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity's LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyons’ Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeyduke’s-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity’s Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion co-led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
