Light of the world,
shine upon us
and disperse the clouds of our selfishness, that we may reflect the power of the resurrection
in our life together. Amen.
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Trisagon, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Sir Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)

Let all mortal flesh keep silence
and stand with fear and trembling, and lift itself above all earthly thought.

For the King of kings and Lord of lords, Christ our God, cometh forth to be our oblation,
and to be given for Food to the faithful.

Before Him come the choirs of angels with every principality and power;
the Cherubim with many eyes, and wingèd Seraphim,
who veil their faces as they shout exultingly the hymn:

Alleluia!

Hymn in Procession

Hymnal 174

1 At the Lamb’s high feast we sing praise to our victorious King,
2 Where the Paschal blood is poured, death’s dark angel sheathes his sword;
3 Mighty victim from on high, hell’s fierce powers beneath thee lie;
4 Easter triumph, Easter joy, these alone do sin destroy.

who hath washed us in the tide flowing from his pierced side;
Israel’s hosts triumphant go through the wave that drowns the foe;
thou hast conquered in the fight, thou hast brought us life and light:
From sin’s power do thou set free souls new-born, O Lord, in thee.

praise we him, whose love divine gives his sacred Blood for wine, Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed, Paschal victim, Paschal bread;
now no more can death appall, now no more the grave enchain;
Hymns of glory, songs of praise, Father, unto thee we raise:
Collect for Purity

Celebrant  Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Gloria

1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: re-

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader
A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

The Second Reading

1 John 1:1—2:2

Reader A Reading from the first letter of John.

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.
My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon       The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People       Glory to you, Lord Christ.
Deacon       When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.” A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.” Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.” Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

The Prayers of the People

Form V

Reader In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Christ, have mercy.”

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Andrew, Mary, and Allen our own Bishops, for all ministers in this parish and throughout the world, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.
Reader  For those in positions of public trust, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor; that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Christ.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Reader  For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Christ.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Reader  For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, we pray to you, O Christ.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Reader  For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Christ.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Reader  For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Christ.

People  Christ, have mercy.

Reader  Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

People  To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Celebrant  You have anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, O Eternal One, and raised him from death on the cross into resurrection life: Feed us with his life as we eat and drink with him in this Eastertide Eucharist, that we may be his witnesses, sharing in the Spirit’s work of reconciliation and peace through the Risen One, Jesus Christ our Savior.

All  Amen.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.

Sing Ye to the Lord

Sing ye to the Lord,
for He hath triumphed gloriously.
Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea.
Mighty Victim from the sky,
hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light.
Now no more can death appall,
now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
and in Thee Thy Saints shall rise.
Mighty Victim from the sky,
hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
and in Thee Thy Saints shall rise.
Alleluia!
Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1

EOW p. 57/BCP p. 379

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Sanctus

WLP 858

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Blessed is he who comes Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant  Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All          AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All        Our Father in heaven,
              hallowed be your Name,
              your kingdom come,
              your will be done,
              on earth as in heaven.
              Give us today our daily bread.
              Forgive us our sins,
              as we forgive those
              who sin against us.
              Save us from the time of trial,
              and deliver us from evil.
              For the kingdom, the power,
              and the glory are yours,
              now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People    Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the south rail by the pulpit. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.
Communion Anthem

Geistliches Lied, Op. 30

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Laß dich nur nichts nicht dauren mit Trauren, sei stille, wie Gott es fügt,
so sei vergnügt mein Wille!

Was willst du heute sorgen auf morgen?
Der Eine steht allem für,
der gibt auch dir das Deine.

Sei nur in allem Handel ohn Wandel, steh feste, was Gott beschleuβt,
das ist und heißt das Beste.
Amen.

Do not be sorrowful or regretful;
Be calm, as God has ordained,
and thus my will shall be content.

What do you want to worry about from day to day?
There is One who stands above all who gives you, too, what is yours.

Only be steadfast in all you do,
stand firm; what God has decided,
that is and must be the best.
Amen.

—Paul Fleming (1609-1640)

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May the God who shakes heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb and heal us, bless you with power to go forth and proclaim the gospel; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Security Enhancements
On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wanding.

Other entrances remain open, as follows:

At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.
Core Values: What's Next

In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm
(Trinity Church, Manning Room)

Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals.

You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
- April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
- May 18-20: Compassion
- June 1-3: Social Justice*
- September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

RSVP

Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil’s color and pattern. We’ve also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

During the week of March 12, the second-to-last pew on the southwest side of the church was removed so the rejuvenation team could access ducts that are currently blocked by the pew.

To learn more about additional discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

yoga, Bible study, to attend the noonday service, and help with the distribution of brown bag lunches to needy persons. We also exchange news, sponsor programs and excursions of interest to those 60-years plus and their friends of all ages, and encourage participation in all phases of Trinity life.

Tenth Annual Poetry Festival
1:30pm, Sunday, April 22, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity parishioners and friends gather to read original verse or favorite poems for an afternoon of fun. Each participant will read up to four minutes. The celebrated poet and critic Lawrence Joseph will open the festivities reading from his own work, including pieces from his 2017 book of verse, So Where Are We? Mr. Lawrence is a Guggenheim Fellow and winner of two National Endowment for the Arts poetry fellowships.

EDNY Lawn Games
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, April 28, Central Park
Join other young adults from other Episcopal parishes in the diocese for some Saturday afternoon fun! We will meet at Mineral Springs in Central Park. We’ll gather, greet, eat, and celebrate Holy Communion, and then we’ll play some good old-fashioned field games. This event is open to all ages, so please bring a friend (or two!). Bring your own picnic lunch and/or snacks to share. Eucharist begins at 12:30pm; games begin at 1pm. Information: young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sunday Suppers
3-5pm, April 29, St. Paul's Chapel
Members of the parish of Trinity Church Wall Street and the neighboring community meet at St. Paul’s Chapel for Sunday Suppers, an opportunity for parishioners and their downtown neighbors to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. Volunteers are requested. Please RSVP by Monday, April 23, to sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, May 4 and 11, Parish Center
Staying Connected through Healthy Conversations. What happens when your needs as an individual and your needs as a couple are in conflict? Peggy A. Barnett of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute will lead discussions about how to build, regain, and maintain trust by using healthy techniques for listening and being heard. Child care is available on request. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife.

The Tetragrammaton at St. Paul’s
8pm, Friday, May 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, invites Trinity parishioners and downtown neighbors to attend a talk co-led by its scholar-in-residence, Julie Seltzer, and the Rev. Beth Blunt. The conversation, inspired by the Chapel's unique architecture and iconography, will explore both the meaning and evolution of the Tetragrammaton (the Hebrew name of God) in the Five Books of Moses and the history and significance of St. Paul's L’Enfant altarpiece. The talk will begin at 8pm; guests are also invited to join Tamid for an open table Shabbat dinner at 7:15pm. RSVPs required for dinner only—please email Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by Friday, April 27.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity’s LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyons’ Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeyduke’s-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity’s Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion co-led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.

You're invited to retreat
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations.

Earth Credo: Living in Harmony with the Earth and its Source
April 22-April 27 or October 28-November 2
This 5-day immersion course will deepen participants’ practice and spirituality of living in right relationship with the natural world. We will immerse ourselves directly in the land and learn practical outdoor skills needed to be comfortable interacting more closely with nature, as well as learn contemplative disciplines that support intimacy with God through Creation. Discussion topics will include spiritually grounded environmental stewardship, ecological justice, and the building of sustainable culture. This retreat is designed to be accessible to those with little outdoor experience.

Mary Magdalene
May 4-6
In this retreat, co-led by the Rev. Shane Phelan and the Rev. Daniel Simons, we will look at the images and stories about Mary Magdalene. As one of the most powerful and controversial figures in the history of Christianity, she has been labeled a prostitute, and also Jesus’ follower and close companion. With the discovery of extra-canonical materials such as the Gospel of Mary, another Mary emerges: one in whom we witness the battles over the roles of women in the early movement centered on Jesus. This is an adults only retreat.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a ‘mighty angel’ with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), All Desires Known (ADK) by Janet Morley, and Planning for Rites and Rituals: Year B (PRR).
