Holy and righteous God, you raised Christ from the dead and glorified him at your right hand. Let the words of scripture, fulfilled in Jesus your Son, burn within our hearts and open our minds to recognize him in the breaking of bread. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.”

—Philippians 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (”Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Folliott S. Pierpoint (1835-1917); Music: Dix, Conrad Kocher (1786-1872); arr. William H. Monk (1823-1889)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter addressed the people, “You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

“And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.”

People

Thanks be to God.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

```
Hal-le, hal-le, hal-le- lu- jah.
hal-le-lu- jah.

Hal-le, hal-le, hal-le- lu- jah. Hal-le-

lu- jah, hal-le- lu- jah.

lu- jah, hal-le-lu, hal-le-lu- jah. jah.

lu- jah, hal-le- lu- jah.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon: Jesus stood among the disciples and said to them, “Peace be with you.” They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence. Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.”

Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

1. We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.

2. Christ, who on the cross forsaeken, like a lamb to slaughter led, suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.

3. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,

We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's King to rule and reign,

So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend,

Virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

We shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811-1887)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. Through his victory, the reign of sin has ended, a new age has dawned, a broken world is restored, and we are made whole once more.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
  hallowed be thy Name,
  thy kingdom come,
  thy will be done,
  on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
  but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
  and the power, and the glory,
  for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.

Security Enhancements

On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wanding.

Other entrances remain open, as follows:

- At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.
- On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.
- At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.
- If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Core Values: What's Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm
(Trinity Church, Manning Room)

Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
April 20-22: Inclusiveness*
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation by testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have generated a number of discoveries that you can learn more about at trinitywallstreet.org.

The design phase of the Trinity Church rejuvenation is now complete. This means that plans are in place to begin sustained work inside Trinity Church starting in early May.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, beginning Monday, May 7, our weekly service schedule will be as follows:

- Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15 am, 11:15am and Compline services will be held in St. Paul’s Chapel. The 9am service will be held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.
- Weekdays (beginning May 7): Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am), the 12:05pm weekday service, Evening Prayer and Thursday Evensong (5:15pm) will be offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

Breaking Bread
1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
This gathering explores the themes of letting go, giving away, and blossoming anew in our daily lives. Come for an informal communal meal, as we break bread and seek Christ through reflection on faith, community and ministry. Information: Regina Jacobs at gingerbeer@optonline.net or Kathy Bozzuti-Jones at kbozzuti-jones@trinitywallstreet.org.
Tenth Annual Poetry Festival
1:30pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity parishioners and friends gather to read original verse or favorite poems for an afternoon of fun. Each participant will read up to four minutes. The celebrated poet and critic Lawrence Joseph will open the festivities reading from his own work, including pieces from his 2017 book of verse, So Where Are We? Mr. Lawrence is a Guggenheim Fellow and winner of two National Endowment for the Arts poetry fellowships.

COMING SOON
EDNY Lawn Games
11:30am-3pm, Saturday, April 28, Central Park
Join other young adults from other Episcopal parishes in the diocese for some Saturday afternoon fun! We will meet at Mineral Springs in Central Park. We’ll gather, greet, eat, and celebrate Holy Communion, and then we’ll play some good old-fashioned field games. This event is open to all ages, so please bring a friend (or two!). Bring your own picnic lunch and/or snacks to share. Eucharist begins at 12:30pm; games begin at 1pm.
Information: young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sunday Suppers
3-5pm, April 29, St. Paul’s Chapel
Members of the parish of Trinity Church Wall Street and the neighboring community meet at St. Paul’s Chapel for Sunday Suppers, an opportunity for parishioners and their downtown neighbors to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. Volunteers are requested. Please RSVP by Monday, April 23, to sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, May 4 and 11, Parish Center
Staying Connected through Healthy Conversations. What happens when your needs as an individual and your needs as a couple are in conflict? Peggy A. Barnett of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute will lead discussions about how to build, regain, and maintain trust by using healthy techniques for listening and being heard. Child care is available on request. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife.

The Tetragrammaton at St. Paul’s
8pm, Friday, May 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, invites Trinity parishioners and downtown neighbors to attend a talk co-led by its scholar-in-residence, Julie Seltzer, and the Rev. Beth Blunt. The conversation, inspired by the Chapel's unique architecture and iconography, will explore both the meaning and evolution of the Tetragrammaton (the Hebrew name of God) in the Five Books of Moses and the history and significance of St. Paul's L’Enfant altarpiece. The talk will begin at 8pm; guests also are invited to join Tamid for an open table Shabbat dinner at 7:15pm. RSVPs required for dinner only—please email Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by Friday, April 27.

Riverkeepers Sweep
9am-2pm, Saturday, May 5, meet at Parish Center
Join Trinity congregation members and friends for the 7th Riverkeeper Sweep, an annual day of service for the Hudson River and its tributaries. We will help clean and remove debris from one of the waterfront sites that are part of the hundreds of miles of shoreline from Brooklyn to the Adirondacks. It is a fun way to learn about our waterfront and the care it needs. A great activity for all ages from elementary school (with adult supervision) and up. For information and to register early to assure a place, email David Ward at djward71@yahoo.com.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity’s LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend, based on Patricia Lyons’ Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeydukes-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: Wendy Claire Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org.

Background Screening Program

Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity now requires background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House

In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Earth Credo: Living in Harmony with the Earth and its Source

April 22-April 27 or October 28-November 2

This 5-day immersion course will deepen participants’ practice and spirituality of living in right relationship with the natural world. We will immerse ourselves directly in the land and learn practical outdoor skills needed to be comfortable interacting more closely with nature, as well as learn contemplative disciplines that support intimacy with God through Creation. Discussion topics will include spiritually grounded environmental stewardship, ecological justice, and the building of sustainable culture. This retreat is designed to be accessible to those with little outdoor experience.

Mary Magdalene

May 4-6

In this retreat, co-led by the Rev. Shane Phelan and the Rev. Daniel Simons, we will look at the images and stories about Mary Magdalene. As one of the most powerful and controversial figures in the history of Christianity, she has been labeled a prostitute, and also Jesus’ follower and close companion. With the discovery of extra-canonical materials such as the Gospel of Mary, another Mary emerges: one in whom we witness the battles over the roles of women in the early movement centered on Jesus. This is an adults only retreat.

Rest and Renewal

July 20-22

Trinity Camper Reunion

July 26-28

Learn more and book at trinityretreatcenter.org.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Faith Leaders Discussion
This Tuesday, April 17, Trinity is hosting a gathering for faith leaders from across the city to discuss the plan to close the Rikers Island jail facilities. We will be joined by the Honorable Judge Jonathan Lippman and City Councilmember Keith Powers, chair of the Committee on Criminal Justice. Information: action@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins” (Ephesians 1:7). I was sitting there getting my taxes done and I just decided to open the Bible app. How timely is this? I’m here paying “Uncle Sam” his due, and the word of God is telling me that Jesus Christ has already paid the price for my sin...for my freedom! I read the scripture aloud for my sister and tax preparer to hear it. I loved it! —Neilia Trimmingham

Green Notes
“A spirit of reverence for all creation permeates the Rule, together with a sense of oneness with the land, the days and the seasons. Such conscious respect for all created goods makes it impossible to pollute the land, water or air; to waste resources or to forget about the children who will one day inhabit the earth.” —from Of All Good Gifts, a Statement from the Conference of American Benedictine Prioresses, June 1980.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I Juro Tempus Non Fore Amplius” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
