Shepherd of all,
by laying down your life for your flock
you reveal your love for all.
Lead us from the place of death
to the place of abundant life,
that guided by your care for us,
we may rightly offer our lives
in love for you and our neighbors. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul's Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.; Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm. Alec Wyton (1921-2007)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people; Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Psalms.

The Lord is my shepherd; *
I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures *
and leads me beside still waters.
He revives my soul *
and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.
Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I shall fear no evil; *
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.
Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, *
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said, “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep.

“I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

“For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

1. We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
2. Christ, who on the cross forsa ken, like a lamb to slaughter led,
3. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's King to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.
we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. Through his victory, the reign of sin has ended, a new age has dawned, a broken world is restored, and we are made whole once more.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
    who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Security Enhancements
On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we’ve experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wandng.

Other entrances remain open, as follows:

At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.

On St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Core Values: What’s Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm
(Trinity Church, Manning Room)

Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
May 18-20: Compassion
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule
Over the past several months, the church design team has developed the scope for a rejuvenation of the Trinity Church interior by testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have generated a number of discoveries that you can learn more about at trinitywallstreet.org.

The design phase is now complete and plans are in place to begin a sustained period of work inside Trinity Church starting in early May.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, beginning Monday, May 7, our weekly service schedule will be as follows:

Weekdays (beginning May 7): Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service will be offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services will be held in St. Paul's Chapel. The 9am service will be held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

Living with Loss
6:30-8pm, through May 24, Parish Center
6:30pm, May 31, Chapel Service, Trinity Church
Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This 6-part series offers support in the work of grief. Facilitated by Rev. Julia Kristeller of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. RSVPs appreciated at trinitywallstreet.org/loss. For more information, contact Amiriz in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Illuminating Core Values: Compassion
6:30pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room
All are invited to a discussion about the meaning of Compassion and the role Compassion plays in our public life. We will explore the following questions: What actions does this core value require in our world today? How does Compassion influence your life actions? How does our belief in Jesus influence our Compassion? Join us as we delve deeper into our core values and ask what they mean for our community. NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday Suppers
3-5pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Members of the parish and the neighboring community meet to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. Volunteers are requested. Please RSVP by Monday, April 23, to sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON

Tamid Downtown Book Group
7pm, Monday, April 30, Offsite
The book for April is Searching for Zion—The Quest for Home in the African Diaspora by Emily Raboteau. All are invited to participate in this special opportunity to meet the author and discuss the work and her craft. We will meet at the MCNY (Metropolitan College of New York), 60 West St. Information: Janet MacMillan at macmilj@yahoo.com or 201.915.9814.

Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, May 4 and 11, Parish Center
Staying Connected through Healthy Conversations. What happens when your needs as an individual and your needs as a couple are in conflict? Peggy A. Barnett of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute will lead discussions about how to build, regain, and maintain trust by using healthy techniques for listening and being heard. Child care is available on request. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife.

The Tetragrammaton at St. Paul’s
8pm, Friday, May 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue invites Trinity parishioners and downtown neighbors to attend a talk co-led by its scholar-in-residence, Julie Seltzer, and the Rev. Beth Blunt. The conversation, inspired by the Chapel’s unique architecture and iconography, will explore both the meaning and evolution of the Tetragrammaton (the Hebrew name of God) in the Five Books of Moses and the history and significance of St. Paul’s L’Enfant altarpiece. The talk will begin at 8pm; guests are also invited to join Tamid for an open table Shabbat dinner at 7:15pm. RSVPs required for dinner only—please email Melissa Hayes at mhayes@trinitywallstreet.org by Friday, April 27.

Riverkeepers Sweep
9am-2pm, Saturday, May 5, meet at Parish Center
Join Trinity parishioners and friends for the 7th Riverkeeper Sweep, an annual day of service for the Hudson River and its tributaries. We will help clean and remove debris from one of the waterfront sites that are part of the hundreds of miles of shoreline from Brooklyn to the Adirondacks. It is a fun way to learn about our waterfront and the care it needs. A great activity for all ages from elementary school (with adult supervision) and up. For information and to register early to assure a place, email David Ward at djward71@yahoo.com.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity’s LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity’s Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion co-led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.
Strategic Task Force Update

In February 2018, the Rector announced the creation of five Strategic Task Forces at Trinity Church. These Task Forces were established to bring together key stakeholders at Trinity—the Vestry, the worshipping community, and the staff—to develop a collaborative consensus on five areas of mission focus:

1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)

The establishment of these Strategic Task Forces at Trinity is one step in a multi-year process—which began in 2015—to clarify and articulate our core values and strategic mission priorities. These values and strategic priorities have guided Trinity for over three centuries, and they must be continually re-examined and explored against the backdrop of current challenges and opportunities.

The goal of each Task Force is to provide a forum for developing a collaborative consensus among Trinity’s key stakeholder groups on overarching strategic direction in each area—to reach agreement on Trinity’s hopes and dreams in our five areas of mission focus. To accomplish this goal, each of the five Task Forces will answer the following specific questions:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>What</th>
<th>What is the problem/challenge/opportunity/need explored by the Task Force and what should Trinity’s strategic direction be for addressing that challenge?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Why Trinity</td>
<td>What are Trinity’s particular competencies in responding to this challenge, including our history of addressing the issue, our financial capacity, our expertise and staff; our relationships; and our reputation?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Where</td>
<td>Where should Trinity focus its work to have the greatest impact?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Who</td>
<td>Who are the potential partners (grantees and other donors, government, churches, the private sector, etc.) for this work?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When</td>
<td>What is the five/ten-year directional frame for this work?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Each Task Force will also identify where there are potential areas of synergy or overlap with other Task Forces.

The Task Forces will use the following discernment matrix to guide their discussion by considering how their ideas would:

- Advocate for our strategic vision
- Have memorable impact and visibility
- Maximize leverage for change

The first meeting of the Strategic Task Forces was held on Thursday, April 19, to discuss the first question above. The co-chairs’ reports from that meeting will be shared with the Vestry, worshipping community, and staff. Four additional meetings will be held between now and mid-September to discuss the remaining questions.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a "mighty angel" with a "face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire," straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel's feet appear the words "JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS" which translate as "I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay," referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
