God, you sent your Son into the world that we might live through him.
May we abide in his risen life so that we may bear the fruit of love for one another and know the fullness of joy. Amen.
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

Words: Carl P. Daw, Jr. (b. 1944); para. of The First Song of Isaiah
Music: Thomas Merton, Ray, W. Urwin (b. 1950)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 8:26-31a, 35-39

Reader

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went.

Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot and join it.” So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” He replied, “How can I, unless someone guides me?”

Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?”

He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon: Jesus said to his disciples, “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. Through his victory, the reign of sin has ended, a new age has dawned, a broken world is restored, and we are made whole once more.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

WLP 785

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer
BCP p. 364

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant   Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People      Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant   The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

All
God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All
Amen.
Closing Hymn

1. I serve a risen Savior. He's in the world today;
2. In all the world around me I see His loving care;

1. I know that He is living, whatever others say;
2. And though my heart grows weary, I never will despair;
3. Eternal hallelujahs to Jesus Christ, the King!

1. I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer;
2. I know that He is leading through all the stormy blast;
3. The hope of all who seek Him, the help of all who find.

1. And just the time I need Him, He's always near.
2. The day of His appearing will come at last.
3. None other is so loving, so good and kind.

He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!

He lives, He lives,
Words and Music: Alfred H. Ackley (1887-1960)

Catch Your Breath

A Spiritual Resource for the Here and Now

Wednesdays, 1–1:30pm
Trinity Church, Manning Room
Broadway at Wall Street

Stop by for a time of stillness and centering. A brief meditation session will be led by the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles.

Information
Ellen at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living.

We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals.

You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Strategic Task Force Update

On Thursday, April 19, members of Trinity's Vestry, worshipping community, and staff gathered for the first of five meetings of our Strategic Task Forces. These Task Forces are meeting to discuss Trinity's hopes and dreams in five strategic areas of mission focus:

1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)

At each meeting, the Task Forces will discuss a specific question to frame the conversation. The topic of the April 19 meeting was “What is the problem/challenge/opportunity/need explored by the Task Force and what should Trinity's strategic direction be for addressing that challenge?” In addition to discussing the questions, the meetings offer opportunities to build relationships among members of the Vestry, the worshipping community, and Trinity staff.

Brief reports from each Task Force are included in the updated booklets available at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel today. Please take one, and be sure to share your ideas and questions with members of the Task Forces, whose names are listed in the booklets.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 8; reports from that meeting will be available in updated booklets on Sunday, May 20.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule

Over the past several months, the church design team has developed the scope for a rejuvenation of the Trinity Church interior by testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity’s architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have generated a number of discoveries that you can learn more about at trinitywallstreet.org.

The design phase is now complete and plans are in place to begin a sustained period of work inside Trinity Church starting in early May.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, beginning Monday, May 7, our weekly service schedule will be as follows:

Weekdays (beginning May 7): Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service will be offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services will be held in St. Paul’s Chapel. The 9am service will be held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

12:45pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Pipes at One

1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

All are invited to these weekly recitals showcasing our new organ, featuring New York City’s leading organists. This week: James Kennerley. Free and open to all. See the full schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pipes.

Married Life: A Gathering for Couples

6-8:30pm, May 4 and 11, Parish Center

Staying Connected through Healthy Conversations. What happens when your needs as an individual and your needs as a couple are in conflict? Peggy A. Barnett of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute will lead discussions about how to build, regain, and maintain trust by using healthy techniques for listening and being heard. Child care is available on request. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife.

The Tetragrammaton at St. Paul’s

8pm, St. Paul’s Chapel

Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue invites Trinity parishioners and downtown neighbors to attend a talk co-led by its scholar-in-residence, Julie Seltzer, and the Rev. Beth Blunt. The conversation, inspired by the Chapel’s unique architecture and iconography, will explore both the meaning and evolution of the Tetragrammaton (the Hebrew name of God) in the Five Books of Moses and the history and significance of St. Paul’s L’Enfant altarpiece.

SATURDAY, MAY 5

Riverkeepers Sweep

9am-3pm

Join Trinity parishioners and friends for the 7th Riverkeeper Sweep, an annual day of service for the Hudson River and its tributaries. We will help clean and remove debris from one of the waterfront sites that are part of the hundreds of miles of shoreline from Brooklyn to the Adirondacks. It is a fun way to learn about our waterfront and the care it needs. Registration for this event is full, but if you would like to be put on a wait list for any cancellations, please email David Ward at djward71@yahoo.com.

Brown Bag Lunch

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church
Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”
Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Episcopal Credit Union Surveys
The Episcopal Diocese of New York and Trinity Church Wall Street are working to establish a credit union for those who are served by diocesan ministries and/or attend diocesan churches. A vital step in establishing a credit union is surveying those who would be eligible to participate in the credit union. Please complete a survey to help us establish this service. Information: Winnie Varghese at wvarghese@trinitywallstreet.org.

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!
Now you can add Trinity’s events to your digital calendar and never miss another program or service. On any upcoming event found at trinitywallstreet.org/events, look for the “Add to Calendar” button above the time and location details. The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.
Congregational Voice

“The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them” (Isaiah 11:6 KJV). I was so inspired by the young people who organized the recent “March for Our Lives” that this verse came to mind. Reports have said that this march was the biggest ever—larger than last year’s Women’s March. The Rev. Jackson’s sermon the next day also moved me. Last November 2016, one of my principals told me “we have to go through the Dark Ages before the Renaissance.” After these recent events, I am believing this. I choose Jesus! —Dr. Beverly Ffolkes-Bryant

Green Notes

The United Nations General Assembly has recognized the human right to water and sanitation, for every human being to have access to sufficient water for personal and domestic uses, which must be safe, acceptable, affordable, and physically accessible. This goal is intended to contribute to health, education, economics, and the environment.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
