Faithful God,
make our hearts bold with love for one another.
Pour out your Spirit upon all people,
that we may live your justice and sing in praise
the new song of your marvelous victory. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATT 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHIL 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GAL 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—GEN 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

1. For the beauty of the earth, for the beauty of the skies, for the love which from our birth o'er and around us lies,
   Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.

2. For the beauty of each hour of the day and of the night, for the vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light,

Words: Folliott S. Pierpoint (1835-1917); Music: Dix, Conrad Kocher (1786-1872);
arr. William H. Monk (1823-1889)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
God be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader
A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People
Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Deacon
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

_Form IV, adapted_
BCP p. 388/395

Reader With our hearts full of joy and hope, we pray to God for the Church and for the world.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Guide the people of this land, and of every land, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Help us remember that the earth is your own creation and a holy place, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, that we will love one another as Jesus loves us.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Be with this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Guide us in this time of transformation; help us discern where you are leading, and how we as a community may best use our resources to be a blessing to our church, our neighborhood, and our world.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader Comfort and strengthen all those who are sick, lonely, afraid, or in trouble, and keep us ever mindful of the needs of others.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._

Reader We give to your tender mercy all who have died and those who mourn as we pray that we may also share in your heavenly kingdom.

Pause

Loving God,

People _Hear our prayer._
Celebrant  O Lord our God, accept the prayers of your people this day; in your mercy, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.
Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People   And also with you.
Celebrant   Lift up your hearts.
People   We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant   Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People   It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant   It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. Through his victory, the reign of sin has ended, a new age has dawned, a broken world is restored, and we are made whole once more.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant   We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.
On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant
And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All
Our Father, who art in heaven,
  hallowed be thy Name,
  thy kingdom come,
  thy will be done,
  on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
  but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
  and the power, and the glory,
  for ever and ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music

Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.
sun, Oh Lord, have mercy on me (on me).

Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees); Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees). When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh

Lord, have mercy on me (on me).

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Carl Haywood (b. 1949), from The Haywood Collection of Negro Spirituals
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
All Amen.
1 He is risen, he is risen! Tell it out with joyous voice; he has burst his three days' prison;

2 Come, ye sad and fearful-hearted, with glad smile and radiant brow! Death's long shadows have departed;

3 Come, with high and holy hymning, hail our Lord's unblest day: not one darksome cloud is dimming heaven's gate: we are free from sin's dark prison.

4 He is risen, he is risen! He hath opened let the whole wide earth rejoice: death is conquered, Jesu' woes are over now, and the passion yonder glorious morning ray, breaking o'er the risen to a holier state; and a brighter we are free, Christ has won the victory, that he bore- sin and pain can vex no more, purple east, symbol of our Easter feast, Easter beam on our longing eyes shall stream.

Words: Cecil Frances Alexander (1818-1895), alt.; Music: Unser Herrscher, Joachim Neander (1650-1680)
Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.
People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Strategic Task Force Update
The second meeting of our Strategic Task Forces, which bring together members of the Vestry, worshipping community and staff, will be held on Tuesday, May 8. At each meeting, the Task Forces discuss a specific question regarding each of our five strategic areas of mission focus:
1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)
In addition to discussing the questions, the meetings offer opportunities to build relationships among members of the Vestry, the worshipping community, and Trinity staff. On Tuesday, the groups will be discussing “Why Trinity—What are Trinity’s particular competencies in responding to these challenges and opportunities?”

The topic of the first meeting, held on April 19, was “What is the problem/challenge/opportunity/need explored by the Task Force and what should Trinity’s strategic direction be for addressing that challenge?”

Brief reports on the April 19 meeting are included in the updated booklets available at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel. Please take one and be sure to share your ideas and questions with members of the Task Forces, whose names are listed in the booklets.

Reports from the May 8 meeting will be available in updated booklets on Sunday, May 20.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule

Over the past several months, the church design team has developed the scope for a rejuvenation of the Trinity Church interior by testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have generated a number of discoveries that you can learn more about at trinitywallstreet.org.

The design phase is now complete and plans are in place to begin a sustained period of work inside Trinity Church starting May 7.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, beginning Monday, May 7, our weekly service schedule will be as follows:

Weekdays (beginning May 7): Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service will be offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services will be held in St. Paul's Chapel. Nursery will be available in the Chapel of Remembrance in St. Paul's Chapel. The 9am service will be held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer. The entrance to the Chapel of All Saints is accessible through the north churchyard.

In addition to weekly service changes, the following location changes are planned:

Beginning May 6, all Brown Bag Lunch packing and distribution will move to St. Paul's Chapel. The schedule of packing and distribution will not change.

Beginning May 7
- Trinity's Chapel of All Saints will be open daily 7am-6pm for prayer unless a service or event is being held in the space.
- St. Paul's Chapel will be open daily from 10am-6pm, except for Wednesday, when the chapel will open at 11am to accommodate the Preschool chapel.
- A Sister of St. Margaret will be available in the Chapel of All Saints 10:30-11:45am weekdays for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone.
- Congregational Council meetings will take place in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Catch Your Breath will be held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Trinity's Gift Shop will close but the online shop still will be available.

Beginning May 11, regular weekly tours of St. Paul's Chapel will be available at 3pm on Fridays.

If you are unsure about where a program is being held, please consult the Events calendar on Trinity’s website.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.
Married Life: A Gathering for Couples

We will meet for our monthly brunch after the 11:15am service at 12:45pm on the Broadway portico. We’ll walk together to a neighborhood restaurant for brunch. Please kindly RSVP to Alan Yu or Marie Heimann at young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

COMING SOON
Trinity In Your Neighborhood
Begins May 19, Park Slope/Boerum Hill, Brooklyn
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gatherings are scheduled for May 19 in Park Slope/Boerum Hill, Brooklyn, and June 30 in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn; others are being planned. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. Don’t see your neighborhood? To host or attend gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity’s LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

AIDS Walk NY
10am, May 20, Central Park
Join Trinity's interfaith team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. The 10k (6.2 miles) walk begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team or donating/raising funds. Stop by the tables after the 9:15am and 11:15am services May 6 and May 13 to sign up, donate, or volunteer. Information: Al DiRaffaele at ninegraft@nyc.rr.com.
Security Enhancements
To accommodate the May 7 closing of Trinity Church’s nave, the following security arrangements will be in place at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

At Trinity Church, worshippers for weekday services and the 9am Sunday service will enter through the exterior door to the Chapel of All Saints on the north side of the church. Everyone will be asked to undergo a bag check and wanding.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, magnetometers (metal detectors) will be in use at the south Broadway door and the Church Street doors for visitors, staff and parishioners. The south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity’s Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyons’ Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeydukes-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop
The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
We are truly incapable of controlling events in our lives; our trust and reliance upon God is the key to our existence. “Be still and know that I am God. The Lord Almighty is with us. The God of Jacob is our fortress” (Psalm 46:11-12). This verse is my favorite Bible teaching which has the most profound message. These verses confirm that God has a plan for each one of us, regardless of life’s disruptions. I thank God for this message.
—Melba Duncan, Congregational Council

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
