Faithful God,
make our hearts bold with love for one another.
Pour out your Spirit upon all people,
that we may live your justice and sing in praise
the new song of your marvelous victory. Amen.
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Trisagion, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

CHORAL PRELUDE

Nisi Dominus
Claudio Monteverdi (1567-1643)

Gloria Patri et Filio et Spiritui Sancto.

 Unless God builds the house, their labor is in vain who build it. Unless God watches over the city, in vain the sentries keep their vigil. It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late; vain, too, to eat the bread of toil, for God gives to the beloved sleep. Children are a heritage from God, and the fruit of the womb is a gift. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth. Happy are they who have their quiver full of them; they shall not be put to shame when they contend with their enemies in the gate.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

—Psalm 127

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
1. Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

2. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

3. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us.

5. You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

6. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord.

7. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, “Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?” So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.
Verses are chanted on the reciting tone; change pitch on underlined syllables and with each new line of text.

Choir
Sing a new song to God, *
who has done marvelous things.
With your right hand, O God, and your holy arm, *
you have won for yourself the victory.

All
Shout with joy to God, all you lands; *
lift up your voice, rejoice, and sing.
Sing to God with the harp, *
with the harp and the voice of song.

REFRAIN

With trumpets and the sound of the horn, *
shout with joy before God who reigns in majesty.
Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, *
the lands and those who dwell therein.
Let the rivers clap their hands, *
and let the hills ring out with joy before God, who will come to judge the earth.
God shall judge the world in righteousness * and the peoples with equity.

REFRAIN
The Second Reading

_A Reading from the first letter of John._

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

_Thanks be to God._

_After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children's Chapel. They will return at the Peace._

The Holy Gospel

Deacon
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon
Jesus said to his disciples, "As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

The Prayers of the People

Form V, adapted

Reader In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming; for Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Andrew, Mary, and Allen our own Bishops, and for all ministers and people, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader For those in positions of public trust, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor; that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!
Reader For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and the suffering; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; and for all who have commended themselves to our prayers, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader For this congregation, that we may have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader For strength as we commit to transformative ministry in congregational and community life, service, advocacy, leadership and financial capacity; for those who are dedicating their time to this effort, that your Holy Spirit might guide them in all wisdom to discern where you are leading, and how we may best as a community use our resources, time, and talents to be a blessing to our church, our neighborhood, and our world; we pray to
you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone; that they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Christ.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

People To you, O Lord our God.

Magnificat in B-flat Major

Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm,
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

—Luke 1:46-55

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 1

Celebrant It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.
But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Sanctus

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant
Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All
AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the south rail by the pulpit. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the Chapel of All Saints and someone will meet you there.
Communion Anthem

O sacrum convivium

O sacred banquet! in which Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory to us is given. Alleluia.

—attr. St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274)

Silence follows the anthem.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May the God who shakes heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb and heal us, fill you with power to go forth and proclaim the gospel; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Celebrant  Beloved, we who are gathered here know that the nave of Trinity Church, which has been consecrated and set apart for the ministry of God's holy Word and Sacraments, will for a time rest from its sacred duties as it is repaired, restored, and rejuvenated.

This building has been hallowed by our cherished memories, and we know that many of us will suffer a sense of loss as our worship moves to new locations in the time ahead. We pray that we all will be comforted by the knowledge that the presence of God is not tied to any time, place, or building.

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant  Let us pray.

Lord God, in your great goodness you have accepted this building to your honor and glory. Receive our praise and thanksgiving for the blessings, help, and comfort which you have bestowed upon your people in this place. Continue, we pray, your many mercies among these your people, that we may be conscious at all times of your unchanging love until we return again with joy to this sacred space; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Celebrant  Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our prayers, and dispose the way of your servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among the swift and varied changes of this world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Strategic Task Force Update
The second meeting of our Strategic Task Forces, which bring together members of the Vestry, worshipping community and staff, will be held on Tuesday, May 8. At each meeting, the Task Forces discuss a specific question regarding each of our five strategic areas of mission focus:
1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)

In addition to discussing the questions, the meetings offer opportunities to build relationships among members of the Vestry, the worshipping community, and Trinity staff. On Tuesday, the groups will be discussing “Why Trinity—What are Trinity's particular competencies in responding to these challenges and opportunities?”

The topic of the first meeting, held on April 19, was “What is the problem/challenge/need explored by the Task Force and what should Trinity's strategic direction be for addressing that challenge?”

Brief reports on the April 19 meeting are included in the updated booklets available at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel. Please take one and be sure to share your ideas and questions with members of the Task Forces, whose names are listed in the booklets. Reports from the May 8 meeting will be available in updated booklets on Sunday, May 20.

Core Values: What’s Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

- Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)
- Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm (2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
- May 18-20: Compassion
- June 1-3: Social Justice*
- September 14-16: Stewardship

*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule

Over the past several months, the church design team has developed the scope for a rejuvenation of the Trinity Church interior by testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s. The tests have generated a number of discoveries that you can learn more about at trinitywallstreet.org.

The design phase is now complete and plans are in place to begin a sustained period of work inside Trinity Church starting May 7.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, beginning Monday, May 7, our weekly service schedule will be as follows:

Weekdays (beginning May 7): Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service will be offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services will be held in St. Paul's Chapel. Nursery will be available in the Chapel of Remembrance in St. Paul's Chapel. The 9am service will be held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer. The entrance to the Chapel of All Saints is accessible through the north churchyard.

In addition to weekly service changes, the following location changes are planned:

Beginning May 6, all Brown Bag Lunch packing and distribution will move to St. Paul's Chapel. The schedule of packing and distribution will not change.

Beginning May 7

- Trinity's Chapel of All Saints will be open daily 7am-6pm for prayer unless a service or event is being held in the space.
- St. Paul's Chapel will be open daily from 10am-6pm, except for Wednesday, when the chapel will open at 11am to accommodate the Preschool chapel.
- A Sister of St. Margaret will be available in the Chapel of All Saints 10:30-11:45am weekdays for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone.
- Congregational Council meetings will take place in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Catch Your Breath will be held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Trinity's Gift Shop will close but the online shop still will be available.

Beginning May 11, regular weekly tours of St. Paul’s Chapel will be available at 3pm on Fridays.

If you are unsure about where a program is being held, please consult the Events calendar on Trinity's website.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

COMING SOON
Trinity In Your Neighborhood
Begins May 19, Park Slope/Boerum Hill, Brooklyn
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The first gatherings are scheduled for May 19 in Park Slope/Boerum Hill, Brooklyn, and June 30 in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn; others are being planned. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. Don't see your neighborhood? To host or attend gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Saturday, May 19, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity's LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

AIDS Walk NY
10am, May 20, Central Park
Join Trinity’s interfaith team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. The 10k (6.2 miles) walk begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team or donating/raising funds. Stop by the tables after the 9:15am and 11:15am services May 6 and May 13 to sign up, donate, or volunteer. Information: Al DiRaffaele at ninegraff@nyc.rr.com.
Security Enhancements
To accommodate the May 7 closing of Trinity Church's nave, the following security arrangements will be in place at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel.

At Trinity Church, worshippers for weekday services and the 9am Sunday service will enter through the exterior door to the Chapel of All Saints on the north side of the church. Everyone will be asked to undergo a bag check and wanding.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, magnetometers (metal detectors) will be in use at the south Broadway door and the Church Street doors for visitors, staff and parishioners. The south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity’s Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyons' Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeydukes-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Congregational Voice
We are truly incapable of controlling events in our lives; our trust and reliance upon God is the key to our existence. “Be still and know that I am God. The Lord Almighty is with us. The God of Jacob is our fortress” (Psalm 46:11-12). This verse is my favorite Bible teaching which has the most profound message. These verses confirm that God has a plan for each one of us, regardless of life’s disruptions. I thank God for this message.
—Melba Duncan, Congregational Council
