Gracious God, in the resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ, you have given us eternal life and glorified your name in all the world. Refresh our souls with the living streams of your truth, that in our unity, your joy may be complete. Amen.
Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life. The Easter season, also known as Eastertide, continues for 50 days until the Day of Pentecost, which occurs on May 20 this year.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. The word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Hymn in Procession

1 Morning has broken like the first morning,
2 Sweet the rain's new fall sun-lit from heaven,

1 Black-bird has spoken like the first bird,
2 Like the first dew fall on the first grass,

1 Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
2 Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,

1 Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!
2 Sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

Words: Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965), alt.; Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody; harm. Alec Wyton (1921-2007)
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, “Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus—for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection.”

So they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.” And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus prayed for his disciples saying, “I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

“I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon  The Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

1. We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began.

2. Christ, who on the cross was forsaken, like a lamb to slaughter led, suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.

3. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Saviour, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's King, to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Saviour, Lord and friend, virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Psaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

You raised your son, Jesus Christ, to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory, and gave him a name which is above every name: at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.
We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
   hallowed be thy Name,
   thy kingdom come,
   thy will be done,
   on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
   but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
   and the power, and the glory,
   for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

1. Breathe on me, Breath of God, fill me with life anew,
2. Breathe on me, Breath of God, until my heart is pure,
3. Breathe on me, Breath of God, till I am wholly thine,
4. Breathe on me, Breath of God, so shall I never die;

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Horace Clarence Boyer (1935-2009)
Dismissal

Deacon    Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.
People    Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule

After several months of testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed and the weekly service schedule is as follows:

Weekdays: Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service are offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays (beginning May 13): The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services are held in St. Paul’s Chapel. Nursery is available in the Chapel of Remembrance in St. Paul’s Chapel. The 9am service is held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer. The entrance to the Chapel of All Saints is accessible through the north churchyard.

In addition to weekly service changes, the following location changes have been made:

- Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints is open daily 7am-6pm for prayer unless a service or event is being held in the space.
- St. Paul’s Chapel is open daily from 10am-6pm, except for Wednesday, when the chapel will open at 11am to accommodate the Preschool chapel.
- A Sister of St. Margaret will be available in the Chapel of All Saints 10:30-11:45am weekdays for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone.
- Brown Bag Lunch packing and distribution occurs at St. Paul’s Chapel. The schedule of packing and distribution remains the same.
- Congregational Council meetings take place in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Catch Your Breath is held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Trinity’s Gift Shop has closed but the online shop remains available.
- Community Bible Study (10am Sundays) is held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Weekly tours of St. Paul’s Chapel are available at 3pm Fridays.

If you are unsure about where a program is being held, please consult the Events calendar on Trinity’s website.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

You can also keep up to date at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Trinity In Your Neighborhood
3-5pm, Park Slope/Boerum Hill, Brooklyn
Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. The second gathering is June 30 (5:30-7:30pm) in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn; others are being planned. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. Don’t see your neighborhood? To host or attend gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

Visit to “David Bowie Is”
1pm, Brooklyn Museum
Trinity's LGBT Integrity Group and the Congregational Arts Committee are co-sponsoring a visit to the internationally acclaimed David Bowie exhibition that has been touring globally for the past five years and is taking its final bow at the Brooklyn Museum. Space is limited. RSVP to Tivaun Cooper at trinityintegritygroup@outlook.com or Bill McCue at andrewtaylor47@yahoo.com. Learn more about the exhibition at brooklynmuseum.org.

NEXT SUNDAY

The Day of Pentecost
On the day of Pentecost, or the day Christ’s followers became the “church,” the Rt. Rev. Andrew M.L. Dietsche, Bishop of New York, will be on hand as we celebrate baptisms, confirmations, reaffirmations, and receptions into the Church. To learn more about baptism, visit trinitywallstreet.org/baptism. To learn more about membership, visit trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

AIDS Walk NY
10am, Central Park
Join Trinity’s interfaith team for the annual AIDS Walk New York in support of AIDS treatment, research, and education. The 10k (6.2 miles) walk begins and ends in Central Park. You can participate by walking with the team or donating/raising funds. Stop by the tables after the 9:15am and 11:15am services on May 13 to sign up, donate, or volunteer. Information: Al DiRaffaele at ninegraff2@gmail.com.

Docent Training
2pm May 20; May 23 (time TBD)
During Trinity’s rejuvenation, tours of Trinity Church will be suspended, but tours of St. Paul’s Chapel will be offered at 3pm Fridays and immediately following the 11:15am service on Sundays (beginning May 20). If you’d like to become a docent, email Leah at tours@trinitywallstreet.org for more information or to sign up for training.

COMING SOON

Commitment to Discipleship Reunion
Preparation: 1pm, June 3, Parish Center
Reunion: June 8-10, Trinity Retreat Center
All who participated in Trinity's Eastertide “Commitment to Discipleship” are invited to a reunion led by Canon Jamie Callaway, Westina Matthews, Scott Townell, and Tapua Tunduwani. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/discipleship.
Finding Faith with Harry Potter
July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center
Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyon’s Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeydukes-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

Security Enhancements
To accommodate the May 7 closing of Trinity Church's nave, the following security arrangements will be in place at Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel.

At Trinity Church, worshippers for weekday services and the 9am Sunday service will enter through the exterior door to the Chapel of All Saints on the north side of the church. Everyone will be asked to undergo a bag check and wanding.

At St. Paul’s Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, magnetometers (metal detectors) will be in use at the south Broadway door and the Church Street doors for visitors, staff and parishioners. The south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Add Trinity to Your Calendar!
Now you can add Trinity’s events to your digital calendar and never miss another program or service. On any upcoming event found at trinitywallstreet.org/events, look for the “Add to Calendar” button above the time and location details. Click the button and choose your digital calendar—iCalendar, Google Calendar, Outlook, Outlook online, or Yahoo! Calendar. Need help? Information: worshipbulletin@trinitywallstreet.org.

The Lina Lowry Library
Hours: 12-3pm, Monday, Tuesday, and Friday
Did you know there’s a library at the Parish Center? Come visit! Located in the Parish Center’s Large Conference Room, the library is named in memory of beloved parishioner Lina Lowry. All members of the parish may borrow books from the library, which include religious and sacramental works, biographies and autobiographies, ancient and modern texts, children’s books, and much more.
Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.
Congregational Voice
“For thus says the Lord: Only when Babylon’s seventy years are completed will I visit you, and I will fulfill to you my promise and bring you back to this place. For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you” (Jeremiah 29:10-12). This is one of my favorite verses because at my lowest point God saved me and continues to fulfill that promise.
—Suzanne Ffolkes-Goldson

Green Notes
Twenty-one youngsters, aged 10 to 21, are suing the United States for failure to protect them from the negative effects of climate change. The lawsuit has gone forward after a judge dismissed the administration’s attempt to have it dismissed. Juliana v. the United States will be heard in a federal court in Oregon. Go to: grist.org and search for “kids’ climate change suit.”

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB).
