Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Pentecost, the fiftieth and final day of the Easter season, is one of the principal feasts of the Episcopal church, and is commonly regarded as the birthday of the broader Christian Church. On this day, as described in the reading from Acts appointed for the Day of Pentecost, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit—the third being of the Trinity—to his disciples, as he had foreseen in his teaching. As is common with many feast days pertaining to Jesus’ apostles, it is customary to wear red vestments to symbolize the “tongues, as of fire” that inspired them to preach the Gospel in other languages.

Pentecost is also one of the four holy days (along with the Easter Vigil, The Baptism of Our Lord, and All Saints’ Day) especially suitable for Holy Baptism, as well as for confirmation, a rite which can only be performed by a bishop. Today we welcome the Rt. Rev. Andrew M. L. Dietsche, the 16th Bishop of New York, to preach and preside as these new and renewing Christians join Trinity Church.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Caribbean melody; arr. Hal H. Hopson (b. 1933)
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
Hymn

Please stand as you are able.
The Candidates for Baptism and their Parents and Godparents approach the baptismal font.

We know that Christ is raised and dies no more.
We share by water in his saving death.
The Father’s splendor clothes the Son with life.
A new creation comes to life and grows.

Embraced by death he broke its fearful hold;
Re-born we share with him an Easter life.
The Spirit’s power shakes the Church of God.
as Christ’s new body takes on flesh and blood.

and our despair he turned to blazing joy.
as living members of a living Christ.
The universe restored and whole will sing.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Words: John Brownlow Geyer (b. 1932), alt.; Music: Engelberg, Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Please be seated.

Thanksgiving over the Water

The Celebrant blesses the water, first saying

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water.

Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Baptism

Each Candidate is presented by name to a Priest, who then pours water upon the Candidate, saying Priest N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

Then a Priest places their hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross and saying

Priest N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

All Amen.

Then a Priest gives a lighted candle to the Candidate's Parent or Godparent, saying Priest N., receive this candle as a sign that you have passed from death to life.

Shine as Christ's light in the world, to God's glory and honor.

All Amen.

When this action has been completed for all Candidates, the Celebrant says

Celebrant Let us pray.

Please stand as you are able.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

All Amen.

Celebrant Let us welcome the newly baptized.

All We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

Almighty and everliving God, let your fatherly hand ever be over these your servants; let your Holy Spirit ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of your Word, that they may serve you in this life, and dwell with you in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all. The hymn will be sung twice.

Music: Variation on a traditional liturgical text; Music: Composer of melody unknown; arr. based on a two-part version as taught by Pablo D. Sosa (b. 1933)

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;
Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
    hallowed be thy Name,
    thy kingdom come,
    thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
    and the power, and the glory,
    for ever and ever. Amen.

Strategic Task Force Update

The second meeting of our Strategic Task Forces, which bring together members of the Vestry, worshipping community and staff, was held Tuesday, May 8. At each meeting, the Task Forces discuss a specific question regarding each of our five strategic areas of mission focus:

1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)

The meetings also offer opportunities to build relationships among members of the Vestry, the worshipping community, and Trinity staff.

On May 8, the groups discussed “Why Trinity—What are Trinity’s particular competencies in responding to these challenges and opportunities?”

Brief reports on the meetings are included in updated booklets available at Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel. Please take one and be sure to share your ideas and questions with members of the Task Forces, whose names are listed in the booklets.

Reports from the May 8 meeting will be available in updated booklets on Sunday, May 20.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update and Worship Schedule

After several months of testing lighting, cleaning techniques, stained glass hues, and paint colors, Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance.

To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed and the weekly service schedule is as follows:

Weekdays: Morning Prayer (8:15 and 9am) and the 12:05pm weekday service are offered Monday-Friday in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church. Evening Prayer (5:15pm, Monday-Wednesday and Friday) and Evensong (5:15pm, Thursday) will continue in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

Sundays: The 8am, 9:15am, 11:15am, and Compline services are held in St. Paul's Chapel. Nursery is available in the Chapel of Remembrance in St. Paul's Chapel. The 9am service is held in the Chapel of All Saints in Trinity Church.

This schedule is expected to be in place until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. During this time, the nave of Trinity Church will be closed; the Chapel of All Saints will be open to the community for services, events, and prayer. The entrance to the Chapel of All Saints is accessible through the north churchyard.

In addition to weekly service changes, the following location changes have been made:

- Trinity's Chapel of All Saints is open daily 7am-6pm for prayer unless a service or event is being held in the space.
- St. Paul's Chapel is open daily from 10am-6pm, except for Wednesday, when the chapel will open at 11am to accommodate the Preschool chapel.
- A Sister of St. Margaret will be available in the Chapel of All Saints 10:30-11:45am weekdays for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone.
- Brown Bag Lunch packing and distribution occurs at St. Paul's Chapel. The schedule of packing and distribution remains the same.
- Congregational Council meetings take place in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Catch Your Breath is held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Trinity's Gift Shop has closed but the online shop remains available.
- Community Bible Study (10am Sundays) is held in the Chapel of All Saints.
- Weekly tours of St. Paul's Chapel are available at 3pm Fridays and after the 11:15am services on Sundays.

If you are unsure about where a program is being held, please consult the Events calendar on Trinity's website.

UPDATE: Less than two weeks into the rejuvenation, we can report that scaffolding is going up and pews, chancel furniture, organs, religious artifacts have been removed.

More details will be forthcoming from the Rector, the Vicar, and the Communications & Marketing team in the days to come, and throughout the duration of the rejuvenation project.

Background Screening Program
Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House
In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for "ray of light." Volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

Security Enhancements
To accommodate the May 7 closing of Trinity Church's nave, the following security arrangements will be in place at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel.

At Trinity Church, worshippers for weekday services and the 9am Sunday service will enter through the exterior door to the Chapel of All Saints on the north side of the church. Everyone will be asked to undergo a bag check and wanding.

At St. Paul's Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, magnetometers (metal detectors) will be in use at the south Broadway door and the Church Street doors for visitors, staff and parishioners. The south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.
