Holy God,
the earth is full of the glory of your love.
May we your children, born of the Spirit,
so bear witness to your Son Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, that all the world may believe and have eternal life
through the One who saves,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
now and for ever. Amen.
Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the north side of the pulpit by the steps during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today is Trinity Sunday, the third Principal Feast of the Episcopal Church occurring during the past month, and the patronal feast day of the Trinity Church Wall Street parish. On Trinity Sunday, the Collect and Preface—prayers specific to the day—invite us to contemplate the three-fold nature of God: manifested as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and yet one unified Being. Trinity Sunday is always observed on the first Sunday after the Day of Pentecost; Thomas Becket was consecrated Archbishop of Canterbury on that day in 1162. Historically, from the 12th until the early 20th century, the Sundays after Pentecost were counted as the Sundays after Trinity.

Prelude in E-flat Major, BWV 552a

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Introit

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Benedicta sit sancta Trinitas.
Blessed is the holy Trinity.

—Tobit 12:6
Acclamation

Celebrant   Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People       And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

Opening Hymn

Hymnal 362

Words: Reginald Heber (1783-1826), alt.; Music: Nicaea, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Gloria

Hymnal S 236
Music: John Rutter (b. 1945)

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory."

The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!"

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 29:1-4, 8-11

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.

Verses are chanted on the reciting tone; change pitch on underlined syllables and with each new line of text.

Choir

Ascribe to God, you heavenly beings, *
ascrbe to God glory and strength.

Ascribe due honor to God’s holy Name; *
worship the Most High in the beauty of holiness.

All

The voice of God is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders; *
God is upon the mighty waters.

The voice of God is a powerful voice; *
the voice of God is a voice of splendor.

REFRAIN

The voice of God makes the oak trees writhe *
and strips the forests bare.

And in the temple of the Holy One, *
all are crying, “Glory!”

God sits enthroned above the flood, *
enthroned for evermore.

God shall give strength to the people; *
God shall give the people the blessing of peace.

REFRAIN
The Second Reading

Reader

A Reading from Paul’s letter to the Romans.

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Reader

After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Peace.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Hymnal 409

1 The spacious firmament on high,
2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
3 What though in solemn silence all with all the blue ethereal sky,

the moon takes up the wondrous tale,
move round the dark terrestrial ball?

and spangled heavens, a shining frame,
and nightly to the listening earth
What though no real voice nor sound

Romans 8:12-17
Words: Joseph Addison (1672-1719); para. of Psalm 19:1-6; Music: Creation, Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809); adapt. Dulcimer, or New York Collection of Sacred Music, 1850, alt.
Deacon

John 3:1-17

Deacon

Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.”

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. Dr. William Lupfer
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan
Christ, who on the cross was slain, like a lamb to slaughter led,
We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead, saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came, to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813

The Prayers of the People

PRR p. 212, adapted

Reader Pour out your Spirit upon all flesh and inspire us, O Holy One, that we may proclaim your prophecy of justice and speak your message of compassion and love.

Let your Spirit rest upon your Church like tongues of fire, O God, to inspire us to do your will.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People I will praise my God while I have my being.

Reader Let your glory go forth into all the world to guide the leaders of the nations and all in authority, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor, that they may obey your Spirit and bless your people.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People I will praise my God while I have my being.

Reader Let your glory go forth to comfort all who live under poverty, violence, or threat, that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People I will praise my God while I have my being.
Reader  Bless this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading our Strategic Task Forces in the areas of the Trinity Commons Parish Center, Housing and Homelessness, Racial Justice, Leadership Development, and Mission Real Estate Development.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People  I will praise my God while I have my being.

Reader  Comfort with your life-giving Spirit those for whom we pray.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People  I will praise my God while I have my being.

Reader  Raise into your resurrection life those who have died.

I will sing to God as long as I live:

People  I will praise my God while I have my being.

Silence

Celebrant  Let the fire of your divine love descend upon us, O God, to inspire and heal, to renew and empower, that the earth may be filled with your glory, and all creation sing to you in praise; through Jesus Christ the Risen One, in the power of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All  Amen.

Confession and Absolution  EOW p. 19

Deacon  Let us confess our sins to God.

All  God of all mercy,

we confess that we have sinned against you,

opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,

in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,

the evil we have done,

and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ,

that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant  Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All  Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.

Ubi caritas

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est,
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exultemus, et in ipso iucundemur.
Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum,
Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero. Amen.

—Antiphon for Maundy Thursday

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
Censing of the Altar

Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo.
Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2

The Great Thanksgiving EOW p. 57; BCP p. 361/380

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being; and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 130
God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,

                 hallowed be your Name,
                 your kingdom come,
                 your will be done,
                 on earth as in heaven.

Celebrant  Give us today our daily bread.

All  Forgive us our sins,

                 as we forgive those who sin against us.

Celebrant  Save us from the time of trial,

All  and deliver us from evil.

Celebrant  For the kingdom, the power,

All  and the glory are yours,

Celebrant  now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People  Therefore let us keep the feast, Alleluia.

Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for

All  you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward by row to receive communion. We receive at one station at the front of the center aisle and return to our seats by the side aisles.

Communion will also be served in the balconies on both sides. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the north side of the pulpit by the steps.
Communion Anthem

Faire is the Heaven

Faire is the heaven where happy soules have place
In full enjoyment of felicitie,
Whence they doe still behold the glorious face
Of the Divine, Eternall Majestie;
Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins
Which all with golden wings are overlight,
And those eternall burning Seraphins
Which from their faces dart out fiery light;
Yet fairer than they both, and much more bright,
Be th’Angels and Archangels, which attend
On God’s owne Person without rest or end.
These then in faire each other farre excelling
As to the Highest they approach more neare,
Yet is the Highest farre beyond all telling,
Fairer than all the rest which there appeare,
Though all their beauties joynd together were;
How then can mortall tongue hope to expresse
The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

—Edmund Spenser (1552-1599)

Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.

1. Let us break bread together on our knees
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees

1. knees); Let us break bread together on our knees
2. knees); Let us drink wine together on our knees

1. knees). When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh— Lord, have mercy on me (on me).

Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees); Let us praise God together on our knees (yes, on our knees). When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun, Oh—

Lord, have mercy on me (on me).

Words: Traditional; Music: Spiritual; arr. Carl Haywood (b. 1949), from The Haywood Collection of Negro Spirituals
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
All Amen.

Closing Hymn

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain of triumphant gladness!
Tis the spring of souls to day: Christ hath burst his prison.
Now the queen of seasons, bright with the day of splendor.
Neither night the gates of death, nor the tomb’s dark portal.

God hath brought his Israel into joy from sadness:
and from three days’ sleep in death as a sun hath risen;
with the royal feast of feasts, comes its joy to render;
nor the watchers, nor the seal hold thee as a mortal:
Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

Strategic Task Force Update

The second meeting of our Strategic Task Forces, which bring together members of the Vestry, worshipping community and staff, was held Tuesday, May 8. At each meeting, the Task Forces discuss a specific question regarding each of our five strategic areas of mission focus:

1. The Trinity Commons Parish Center (Neighborhood)
2. Housing and Homelessness (Neighborhood)
3. Racial Justice (Neighborhood)
4. Leadership Development (Leadership)
5. Mission Real Estate Development (Capacity)

The meetings also offer opportunities to build relationships among members of the Vestry, the worshipping community, and Trinity staff.

On May 8, the groups discussed “Why Trinity—What are Trinity’s particular competencies in responding to these challenges and opportunities?”

Brief reports on the meetings are included in updated booklets available at Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel. Please take one and be sure to share your ideas and questions with members of the Task Forces, whose names are listed in the booklets.

The next meeting of the Task Forces will be June 18, where members will answer the question: Where—where should Trinity focus its work to have the greatest impact?
THURSDAY, MAY 31

New Beginnings
10am, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Trinity's ministry of seniors meets for gentle yoga, Bible study, to attend the noonday service, and help with the distribution of brown bag lunches to needy persons. We also exchange news, sponsor programs and excursions of interest to those 60-years plus and their friends of all ages, and encourage participation in all phases of Trinity life. Contact: Cynthia Moten at cmoten@nyc.rr.com.

Brown Bag Lunch
12:45pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Total Embrace: Leonard Bernstein at 100
1pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity celebrates the centennial of Leonard Bernstein's birth with a wide-ranging selection of the iconic composer-conductor's music, as well as works by other notable NYC composer-conductors including Bernstein's lifelong friend Lukas Foss, as well as Gustav Mahler, Pierre Boulez, Aaron Copland, and Julian Wachner. This week: Wachner's Gaudé: an LB Anniversary for Large Orchestra; Copland's Connotations; Mahler's Symphony No. 4; NOVUS NY featuring Jessica Muirhead, soprano; Julian Wachner, conductor.

Writing God: Spiritual Journaling
6pm, Parish Center, 2 Rector St.
Journal writing is a healing process and a journey of discovery along one's spiritual path. This group is a gathering of those willing, through writing, to dive deep into the “true self.” Information: spiritualjournaling@gmail.com or 646.556.5344.

Living with Loss
6:30pm, Chapel Service, Chapel of All Saints
Grief is a deeply personal process but does not have to be endured alone. This service is the culmination of a six-part series offered in the work of grief but is open to everyone. Information: Amiriz in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

FRIDAY, JUNE 1

LGBTQ Pride Month: Raising the Pride Flag
8:30am, St. Paul's Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/action.

Core Values: What's Next
In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)
In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics
June 1-3: Social Justice*
September 14-16: Stewardship
*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

RSVP
trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Appreciation and Celebration Day
10am, Sunday, June 10, 14 Vesey St.
We invite you to celebrate and appreciate Trinity's high school graduates and all Sunday School and Youth Group teachers and volunteer leaders. Please pick up the Take-Out Church kit for your family. This year, Living a Compassionate Life is the theme. "Love is power!" —Bishop Curry at the royal wedding.

The Spirituality of Dementia
1pm, Sunday, June 10, St. Paul's Chapel
The Very Rev. Tracey Lind, newly retired Dean of Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland, will share the insights she has gained following a diagnosis of early stage Frontotemporal Dementia. What wholeness is possible as our mental and physical capacities diminish? How can we embrace life fully and with trust? Dean Lind is one of the most dynamic leaders and speakers in the Episcopal Church, and she shares this new dimension of her life and ministry with compelling grace and vulnerability. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

LGBTQ Pride Month: Poetry Reading
7-8:30pm, Monday, June 11, St. Paul's Chapel
Seven Deadly Sonnets and Other Stories: A Poetry Reading with Pádraig Ó Tuama. Irish poet Pádraig Ó Tuama went through exorcisms and reparative therapies in his 20s for being gay. During this event, Ó Tuama will share poems and stories about the impact of such measures on LGBTQ identities. Followed by a reception and book signing.
Ó Tuama’s In the Shelter will be available for purchase. Tickets: $15; available at padraigotuama.eventbrite.com. Proceeds will benefit Trinity Place, a shelter for LGBTQ youth experiencing homelessness.

LGBTQ Pride Month: Orlando Remembered

6pm, Tuesday, June 12, St. Paul’s Chapel

A memorial Holy Eucharist service to honor the 49 people who lost their lives June 12, 2016, in the Pulse nightclub shooting and to pray for an end to homophobia, hate crimes, and gun violence. The Rt. Rev. Mary Glasspool, Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of New York, celebrant; Pádraig Ó Tuama, preacher. A reception will follow the service. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/action.

Trinity In Your Neighborhood

3-5pm, June 16, East Village/Union Square

5:30-7:30pm, June 30, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn

Members of the congregation are hosting gatherings in their neighborhoods to get to know parishioners who are also neighbors. Gatherings are as simple as coffee nearby or a potluck meal in someone’s home or building. To attend, RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org. Don’t see your neighborhood? To host or attend gatherings in other neighborhoods, contact Ellen Andrews at eandrews@trinitywallstreet.org.

LGBTQ Pride Month: Pride March

June 24, Location TBD

Trinity parishioners are invited to join others in the Episcopal Diocese of New York for the 48th annual Pride March in New York City. Information: action@trinitywallstreet.org.

Finding Faith with Harry Potter

July 6-8, Trinity Retreat Center

Families will explore how the story of Harry Potter can be a fun and creative springboard to faith in this weekend based on Patricia Lyons’ Teaching Faith with Harry Potter. Parents and children will grow together, learn how to battle life’s dementors, cast spells, play Quidditch, and sample Honeydukes-inspired treats. Costumes and props are encouraged! Recommended for families with children ages 7 and older. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/summercamp.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. UPDATE: Three weeks into the rejuvenation, we can report scaffolding is going up and pews, chancel furniture, organs, and religious artifacts have been removed. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? The Vicar will give tours of the nave at 10am on Sundays in June. Check back here for details. You can also follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Holy Land Pilgrimage

Trinity pilgrims will travel through the Holy Land of Israel/Palestine March 28–April 8, 2019, and you are invited to be part of that journey. This pilgrimage will have a pre-registration phase during which you can learn more, ask questions, and begin to consider the role this journey will play in your life. Please contact the Rev. Daniel Simons, if you are interested, at dsimons@trinitywallstreet.org. Details including cost, itinerary, when registration will open, and dates for information sessions will be provided. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/holyland for more information.

Trinity’s Online Gift Shop

The online Trinity Gift Shop is a great place to purchase gifts, books, music by Trinity ensembles, jewelry, devotional items, and pieces pertaining to Trinity’s history and 9/11 ministry. Parishioners receive 20% off at the Trinity gift shop with the code PARISH20. Free shipping is always included with your order. Visit trinitywallstreet.org/giftshop.

The Sisters are In

10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints

A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Background Screening Program

Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Flower Donations

Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice

“I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” (Philippians 4:13 NKJV). This verse has always been a cornerstone verse for my family—my mother, sister, and I, especially when my father left! As I have grown in my own personal relationship I have found Christ to be the father I didn’t have. He has proven faithful to me in all endeavors. He has given me strength, protected me from dangers both seen and unseen, and continues to give me my heart’s desires as long as I honor him and put him first! —James Thorbs

Green Notes
Here is your country. Cherish these natural wonders, cherish the natural resources, cherish the history and romance as a sacred heritage, for your children and your children’s children. Do not let selfish men or greedy interests skin your country of its beauty, its riches or its romance.

—Theodore Roosevelt

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church. Bulletin cover poetry is from the Revised Common Lectionary project sponsored by the Jean and Alexander Heard Library and the Vanderbilt Divinity Library, a division of the Heard Library.
