God, you promise never to forsake us, but to bring us to life, nurture us with your presence, and sustain us even in the hour of our death. Meet us in our deepest doubts when we feel abandoned, drowning in our fear of your absence. Visit us in the tension between our yearning and our anger, that we may know your mercy and grace in our time of need. Amen.

Mission
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. It is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church. The beginning of the season is determined by the date of Easter, and its conclusion is determined by the date of the first Sunday of Advent. In 2018, there are twenty-seven weeks after Pentecost, spanning more than half of the entire calendar year.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, Blessing, and Dismissal are used in services. You may notice, as the summer progresses, that we will use a variety of prayers representing both traditional and expansive ways of invoking the divine.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Job.

Job said: "Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning. Oh, that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling! I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me. There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

"If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him; on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; If only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!"

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Reader Let us read from Psalm 22 in unison.

All My God, my God, why have you forsaken me, *
   and are so far from my cry
   and from the words of my distress?

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
   by night as well, but I find no rest.

Yet you are the Holy One, *
   enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

Our forebears put their trust in you; *
   they trusted, and you delivered them.

They cried out to you and were delivered; *
   they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

But as for me, I am a worm, and less than human, *
   scorned by all and despised by the people.

I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
   you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
   and there is none to help.

The Second Reading

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.'" He said to him, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible."
Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for the Church and the world.

Blessed are you, God of every time and place.

People You alone are worthy of praise and glory.

Reader Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, and all bishops. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.

People That Christ will be revealed in us.

Reader Send your Holy Spirit on your holy Church, on the Church in Wales and Archbishop John Davies, and on the Christian Education Commission in the Diocese of New York.

People Make us all one, that the world may believe.

Reader Strengthen all who serve the world in Christ’s name to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, freedom to those oppressed; and to proclaim to all the world the blessing and grace of God.

People Give us courage to be brave witnesses of the Gospel.

Reader Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.

People Guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Reader Open our eyes to your handiwork in all creation. Make us faithful stewards, O God.

People That we will cherish the world in your name.

Reader Make us alive to the needs of our community.

People Help us to share each other’s joys and burdens.

Reader Bless our homes and families.

People Grant that your love will grow in our hearts.

Reader Deepen our compassion for all who suffer from sickness, grief or trouble. Be near with your presence and power to all affected by the tsunami in Indonesia and all those rebuilding their lives in the wake of Hurricane Florence.

People May all who suffer find their strength in your presence.

Reader We remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see.

People Keep them in the embrace of your eternal love.

Reader Bless this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading our us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership and Capacity.

People Guide and direct us, O Lord.

Reader That your will may be done on earth.

Celebrant God of grace and glory, you know our needs before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our thoughtlessness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Great Thanksgiving

EOW p. 57; BCP p. 361/378

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Holy, holy, holy Lord,

God of power and might, heaven and earth are full,

full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes.
Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
    Give us today our daily bread.
    Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those
    who sin against us.
    Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
    For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at the front of the center aisle in a single line. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.

All Amen.
Closing Hymn

Hymnal 680, vv. 1-2, 5

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure; Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away; our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home; sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defense is sure; they fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.; para. of Psalm 90:1-5;

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

THANKSGIVING RETREAT WEEK, NOVEMBER 21–25, 2018
The centerpiece of the week, of course, will be the Thanksgiving meal—but every day will be a celebration, with activities and time to reflect on our blessings. Prayer, worship, and community reflection will punctuate our late-autumn days together in the New England woods. Come for just a few days or the whole week.

AN ADVENT RETREAT: LIVING IN HOPE, DECEMBER 7–9, 2018
The season between Thanksgiving and Christmas is harried for many, but it doesn’t have to be! Join Fr. Daniel Simons, Director of Spiritual Formation at the retreat center, for a weekend of spacious reflection on Advent’s quietly hopeful and confident energy. We’ll use teaching, quiet time, and group conversation to make the season of Advent our own.

CHRISTMAS RETREAT WEEK, DECEMBER 22–26, 2018
Unplug from the busyness of the season and enjoy a festive, meaningful Christmas in West Cornwall. Participate in community Christmas-time activities: carol singing, walks in the quiet woods, conversations around the tree, common-table meals, and Christmas Eve worship by candlelight. Oh, and if there’s snow, the sledding hill is waiting. Come for just a few days or the whole week.

The price per night for each adult and teen ages 12 and older is $50 for double occupancy and $85 for single occupancy. The price for children 5–11 is $25; children younger than 5 stay free.

Children’s Sabbath Weekend
October 19-22
In collaboration with the Children’s Defense Fund and congregations around the country, Trinity observes the 27th annual Children’s Sabbath in a common commitment to improve the lives of children and work for justice on their behalf. This year’s theme is “Realizing Dr. King’s Vision for Every Child: Lives of Hope, Not Despair.” All are welcome to participate in the weekend’s family-friendly service opportunities including: Brown Bag distribution, Skate and Serve, Whole Community Learning, Sunday Suppers and PJ Drive, PJ Drive Sorting, and Kianga House Reading Night and PJ Party. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/ChildSabbath.

Children’s Sabbath: Skate & Serve
4-8pm, Offsite
Trinity children, parents and youth are invited to a fun afternoon of rollerblading, skateboarding, pizza, stories, and packing Brown Bag lunches at the Alfred E. Smith Houses. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/childsabbath.

Neighborhood Movie Nights
7pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Whether you’re a sports fan or just enjoy a good movie, you are invited to cheer along groundbreaking and underdog athletes at St. Paul’s Chapel neighborhood movie nights. Doors open at 6:30pm. Admission and snacks are free. Films are suitable for general audiences. This month: The Natural with Robert Redford, Robert Duvall, and Glenn Close (1984, PG).

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

Neon Workshop
11am-4pm, Brooklyn Glass
In this concise introduction to the art and science of neon tube making, students will learn about components, tools, and methods as they create an abstract piece of neon, using various torches with intimate instruction. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Brown Bag Lunch
12:45pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

NEXT SUNDAY

Whole Community Learning
10am, 14 Vesey St.
As part of the Children’s Sabbath Weekend, Grace Bonilla, Administrator at the Human Resources Administration, which oversees children and families across city agencies such as the Department of Homeless Services, will join the Trinity Community for a guided discussion on child poverty in New York City. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/wholecommunity.
Trinity Knitters
12:30-2:30 pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
All knitters and crocheters and those who wish to learn are invited. Yarn, needles, hooks, patterns, and instruction will be provided. Learn how to knit or crochet prayer shawls and items for shut-ins, babies, returning veterans, mariners, and others in need. Information: Janet MacMillan at 201.915.9814 or macmilj@yahoo.com.

Sunday Suppers
3pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Members of the parish and the neighboring community meet for Sunday Suppers, an opportunity for parishioners and their downtown neighbors to share a family-style hot meal, conversation, fellowship, and fun. If you’d like to attend or volunteer, please email sundaysuppers@trinitywallstreet.org. At the October 21 Sunday Suppers, we will collect new pajamas for children at Kianga House Family Shelter and Hour Children. Please visit trinitywallstreet.org/childsabbath for details.

COMING SOON
Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, November 1 and 8, Parish Center
These engaging and informative discussions will help couples appreciate the differences that make us the unique individuals we are, but which sometimes create challenges in relationships. Come and celebrate the often-underappreciated diversity that makes being together interesting. Facilitated by Michael Bednarski, PhD, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and hosted by the Rev. Alfred Loua of Trinity’s Pastoral Care department. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. Child care is available on request.

Lecture Series: Choosing Hope
1pm, Sunday, November 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
6pm, Tuesdays, November 6, 13, St. Paul’s Chapel
Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. Over three talks, Canon David Porter, the Archbishop of Canterbury’s Chief of Staff and Strategy, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world. A light soup meal will be provided. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/ChoosingHope.

Core Values
In October we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

If I was going to remain a Christian, I needed to find a path that had room for the rage and grief I carried with me as a rape survivor. —Samantha Field

• What does this value mean to you?
• How does it affect your behavior and life?
• Are there actions or behaviors required of you because of this value?

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott and Toni Foy
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Rozzutti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Women's Retreat
Rest, Remember and (Re)Discover You
November 9-11, Trinity Retreat Center
Join us as we gather in the beauty of the Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. Offerings will include knitting as prayer, yoga, nature walks, meditation with Mother Kristin, and talks led by the wisdom teacher, the Rev. Barbara Cawthorne Crafton. Enjoy the warmth and comfort of this special place to use your time this weekend as you need. Space is limited. Please RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Akari: Sculpture By Other Means
3:30-5pm, November 10, Noguchi Museum
Isamu Noguchi's electrified paper, bamboo, and metal Akari light sculptures have quietly become among the most ubiquitous sculptures on Earth. Experience these environments that exemplify Noguchi's concept of light as both place and object. Sponsored by Trinity's Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Dark Universe
10:30am-noon, November 17, Offsite
The Congregational Arts committee invites you to the American Museum of Natural History's Hayden Planetarium to experience Dark Universe. Celebrate the pivotal discoveries that have led us to greater knowledge of the structure and history of the universe and our place in it—and to new frontiers for exploration. Sponsored by Trinity's Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Handel's Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul's Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel's Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity's ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul's Chapel
Don't miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands, conductor. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing the remove the stained glass windows but are now focusing on the north side windows. Preparations are being made to construct scaffolding throughout the nave. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names
To remember loved ones who have died during the last year in the Prayers of the People at the 12:05pm Eucharist on November 2, please submit the names directly to departed@trinitywallstreet.org or call Korin at 212.602.0759 by Friday, October 26.
Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2019 giving drive will launch next Sunday, October 28. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity’s core values, and the goal for 2019 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

What Do You Think?
Trinity’s Communications & Marketing team wants you to receive the news and information you want and need to know about Trinity’s ministries, programs, and events. Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words ‘I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.
