God, you promise never to forsake us,
but to bring us to life,
nurture us with your presence,
and sustain us even in the hour of our death.
Meet us in our deepest doubts
when we feel abandoned,
drowning in our fear of your absence.
Visit us in the tension between our yearning and our anger, that we may know your mercy and grace in our time of need. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

If you are not Episcopalian, a member of the Anglican Communion, Lutheran, or Catholic, you may not be familiar with the ancient tradition of commemorating women and men who have dedicated to their lives to serving Christ. As part of our tradition we lift up these individuals as examples of how we can follow in the footsteps of these saints. Not because they were perfect, but because in the full bloom of their humanness and brokenness, they lived lives of holiness, showing forth God’s love with all their heart, mind and soul, while loving others as themselves.

The Book of Common Prayer (pp. 19-30) and the Revised Common Lectionary prescribe many of the saints’ days observed here at Trinity Church. Further resources for learning more about the Common of Saints are A Great Cloud of Witnesses and Lesser Feasts and Fasts, which provide additional biographical information about the ministry and sacrifice of these individuals.

Teresa of Avila
Nun, Spiritual Teacher and Reformer, 1552-1582

Teresa of Avila was a Spanish nun of the sixteenth century whose visions of Christ and gifts as a spiritual director have placed her among the greatest of all Christian mystics. She entered the Carmelite convent in her native town of Avila when she was twenty-one. Over the next two decades she endured many illnesses, one of which left her paralyzed, and also with a nagging sense that in her prayers and devotions she was doing nothing more than “treading water.” Then, in answer to her despair, she began to have visions and hear “interior voices.” The most famous of these experiences took place over a number of days in 1559. At her left side Teresa beheld an angel who held a golden spear with a flaming tip, with which he pierced her heart again and again. Teresa later wrote that each time the angel withdrew the spear she was “left completely afire with a great love for God,” and knew that her soul would “never be content with anything less than God.”

Three years later, in obedience to another vision, Teresa left her convent with thirteen other nuns to observe the primitive constitutions of the Carmelite Order in all their strictness. Despite fierce, sometimes violent opposition from the Carmelite establishment, Teresa eventually founded seventeen Reformed Carmelite houses.

In the midst of her other concerns Teresa also found time to write a number of books which reflect her holiness, wisdom, and sense of humor; and through them she has become one of the most widely loved saints in the Church, attractive even to those who have not shared her Spanish Catholicism or her monastic vocation.

Teresa was one of two women declared a Doctor of the Church in 1970, primarily because of her two mystical contemplative works, The Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle. She was a close spiritual and personal friend of St. John of the Cross.

Ferial Day

Ferial Day

Saint Luke
Evangelist

Luke was a Gentile, probably a Greek Christian, a physician, a companion of Paul’s on his missionary journeys, and once, it seems, Paul’s only companion in prison. He has been identified as the writer of both the Gospel which bears his name and its sequel, the Acts of the Apostles. He had apparently not known Jesus but was clearly much inspired by hearing about him from those who had known him.

Luke wrote in Greek so that Gentiles might learn about Jesus Christ. In the first chapter of his Gospel, he makes it clear that he is offering authentic knowledge about Jesus’ birth, ministry, death, and resurrection. The Gospel is not a full biography—none of the Gospels are—but a history of salvation.

Only Luke provides the very familiar stories of the annunciation to Mary, of her visit to Elizabeth, of the child in the manger, the angelic host appearing to shepherds, and the meeting with the aged Simeon.
Luke includes in his work six miracles and eighteen parables not recorded in the other Gospels. In Acts he tells about the coming of the Holy Spirit and the story of the Gospel's transition from Jerusalem to Rome, from the source of our religious heritage to the heart of the imperial world; it is a gospel for all, especially the disadvantaged.

Luke was with Paul apparently until the latter's martyrdom in Rome. What happened to Luke after Paul's death is unknown, but the Gospel that bears his name is, of the four Gospels, the one that most proclaims the universal salvation offered by Jesus from which no one is excluded, no one is forgotten, and no one is left behind. Strangers and foreigners, women and children, outcasts and victims of prejudice are encountered by Jesus and brought into the circle of the Gospel's redeeming power.

Henry Martyn
October 19

Priest, Missionary to India and Persia, Translator of Scripture, 1812

Henry Martyn had intended to become a lawyer, but while a student at Cambridge University, Charles Simeon (commemorated on November 12), the notable Evangelical rector of Holy Trinity, Cambridge, inspired him to go to India as a missionary. After serving as Simeon's curate for a short time, Martyn traveled to Calcutta in 1806 as chaplain of the East India Company.

He is remembered for his work in translating the New Testament into Hindi, Persian and Arabic, the Psalms into Persian, and parts of the Book of Common Prayer into Hindi. He went to Persia to revise the Persian translation. He suffered from tuberculosis and died in 1812 at age thirty-one in Armenia on his way back to Britain. The Armenian Christians recognized his greatness and buried him with the honors usually accorded to one of their own bishops. Very soon afterwards, his life of energetic devotion and remarkable accomplishment became widely known. He is remembered as one of the founders of the modern Christian Church in India and Iran.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation

Celebrant
Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People
And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Kyrie

On most days

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

On certain days

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading
Please be seated.
The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day.
Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn
Please stand as you are able.

Words: Brian A. Wren (b. 1936), alt.; Music: Land of Rest, American folk melody; adapt. and harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)

The Holy Gospel
Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.
Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

7
The Homily
Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed
On certain days, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People
Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader Let us pray for the Church and the world.
People You alone are worthy of praise and glory.

Reader Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, and all bishops. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That Christ will be revealed in us.

Reader Send your Holy Spirit on your holy Church, on the Church in Wales and Archbishop John Davies, and on the Christian Education Commission in the Diocese of New York.
People Make us all one, that the world may believe.

Reader Strengthen all who serve the world in Christ’s name to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, freedom to those oppressed; and to proclaim to all the world the blessing and grace of God.
People Give us courage to be brave witnesses of the Gospel.

Reader Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.
People Guide them in the ways of justice and peace.
Reader    Open our eyes to your handiwork in all creation. Make us faithful stewards, O God.
People    That we will cherish the world in your name.

Reader    Make us alive to the needs of our community.
People    Help us to share each other’s joys and burdens.

Reader    Bless our homes and families.
People    Grant that your love will grow in our hearts.

Reader    Deepen our compassion for all who suffer from sickness, grief or trouble. Be near with your presence and power to all affected by the tsunami in Indonesia and all those rebuilding their lives in the wake of Hurricane Florence.
People    May all who suffer find their strength in your presence.

Reader    We remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see.
People    Keep them in the embrace of your eternal love.

Reader    Bless this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading our us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership and Capacity.
People    That your will may be done on earth.

Celebrant God of grace and glory, you know our needs before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our thoughtlessness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
All    Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.
All    God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All    Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace
Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome
Please be seated.

The Offertory
The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation
Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving
Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.
The Celebrant says the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 130
Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant  Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All  Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
Celebrant Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
   hallowed be your Name,
   your kingdom come,
   your will be done,
   on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
   who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
   and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
   and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer EOW p. 69

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing BCP p. 339

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal BCP p. 366

Celebrant Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Core Values
In October we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

If I was going to remain a Christian, I needed to find a path that had room for the rage and grief I carried with me as a rape survivor. —Samantha Field

- What does this value mean to you?
- How does it affect your behavior and life?
- Are there actions or behaviors required of you because of this value?

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

- January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott and Toni Foy
- March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
- May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
- July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
- September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
- November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation

The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Compline by Candlelight
8pm, St. Paul's Chapel
The final service of the traditional monastic Ritual of the Hours, Compline—from the Latin verb complere, meaning to complete—is one of the oldest services of the Christian Church. Darkened and candlelit, St. Paul's Chapel is the ideal environment for this weekly chant-based service featuring The Choir of Trinity Wall Street in intimate offerings of chant, improvisation, psalmody, and newly composed sacred works. Today: Robert Parsons O Bone Jesu.

COMING SOON
Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, November 1 and 8, Parish Center
These engaging and informative discussions will help couples appreciate the differences that make us the unique individuals we are, but which sometimes create challenges in relationships. Come and celebrate the often-underappreciated diversity that makes being together interesting. Facilitated by Michael Bednarski, PhD, of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and hosted by the Rev. Alfred Loua of Trinity's Pastoral Care department. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. Child care is available on request.

Lecture Series: Choosing Hope
1pm, Sunday, November 4, St. Paul's Chapel
6pm, Tuesdays, November 6, 13, St. Paul's Chapel
Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. Over three talks, Canon David Porter, the Archbishop of Canterbury's Chief of Staff and Strategy, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world. A light soup meal will be provided. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/ChoosingHope.

Women's Retreat
Rest, Remember and (Re)Discover You
November 9-11, Trinity Retreat Center
Join us as we gather in the beauty of the Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. Offerings will include knitting as prayer, yoga, nature walks, meditation with Mother Kristin, and talks led by the wisdom teacher, the Rev. Barbara Cawthorne Crafton. Enjoy the warmth and comfort of this special place to use your time this weekend as you need. Space is limited. Please RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Akari: Sculpture By Other Means
3:30-5pm, November 10, Noguchi Museum
Isamu Noguchi's electrified paper, bamboo, and metal Akari light sculptures have quietly become among the most ubiquitous sculptures on Earth. Experience these environments that exemplify Noguchi's concept of light as both place and object. Sponsored by Trinity's Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Dark Universe
10:30am-noon, November 17, Offsite
The Congregational Arts committee invites you to the American Museum of Natural History's Hayden Planetarium to experience Dark Universe. Celebrate the pivotal discoveries that have led us to greater knowledge of the structure and history of the universe and our place in it—and to new frontiers for exploration. Sponsored by Trinity's Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Handel's Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul's Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel's Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity's ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul's Chapel
Don't miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands, conductor. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.
BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing to remove the stained glass windows but are now focusing on the north side windows. Preparations are being made to construct scaffolding throughout the nave. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

All Faithful Departed: Submitting Names
To remember loved ones who have died during the last year in the Prayers of the People at the 12:05pm Eucharist on November 2, please submit the names directly to departed@trinitywallstreet.org or call Korin at 212.602.0759 by Friday, October 26.

Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2019 giving drive will launch next Sunday, October 28. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity’s core values, and the goal for 2019 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapellochoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Daily scripture readings come from the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. On certain days, we remember a saint or feast of the church in the course of the service, and may use proper collects, readings, and prefaces appointed by Lesser Feasts and Fasts, A Great Cloud of Witnesses, or Holy Women, Holy Men. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and Common Worship (CW).

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
