God of love, you shield us with a mother’s protection and embrace us with a father’s care: enable us, young and old alike, to know such joy in your care and security in your provision, that we all will delight in being your children. Amen.

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today marks the 27th annual National Observance of Children’s Sabbath, sponsored by the Children’s Defense Fund. The theme for the observance this year is: “Realizing Dr. King’s Vision for Every Child: Lives of Hope, Not Despair.” We join with people of every religious tradition to give thanks for all children everywhere, and pledge to work for a hopeful future in which no child suffers poverty.

Every 41 seconds a child is born into poverty.
Every minute a baby is born without health insurance.
Every 2 minutes a baby is born at low birth weight.
Every 2 minutes a baby is born to a teen mother.
Every 23 minutes a baby dies before her or his first birthday.
Every 31 seconds a child is arrested.
Every 47 seconds a child is confirmed as abused or neglected.
Every 5 minutes a child is arrested for a drug offense.
Every 9 minutes a child is arrested for a violent crime.
Every 26 minutes a child or teen is injured or killed with a gun.
Every 2 hours and 48 minutes a child or teen is killed by a firearm.
Every 3 hours and 33 minutes a child or teen commits suicide.
Every 5 hours and 33 minutes a child is killed by abuse or neglect.

In our prayers we focus on the needs of children in America, especially the needs of one in six children imprisoned in poverty, the children and teens terrified by the real threat of gun violence, the children traumatized by border separations. These frightening statistics and the real children they represent call us to demonstrate our greatness through servant leadership and service. In the words of Martin Luther King, Jr., “Everybody can be great, because anybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You don’t have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.”

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Gloria

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Job 38:1-7

Reader A Reading from the Book of Job.

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind: “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 104:1-2, 4-7, 9, 25, 37b

Reader Let us read from Psalm 104 responsively by half-verse.

Bless the Holy One, O my soul; *

People O God, how excellent is your greatness;

you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

Reader You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak; *

People you spread out the heavens like a curtain.

Reader You make the winds your messengers *

People and flames of fire your servants.

Reader You have set the earth upon its foundations, *

People so that it never shall move at any time.

Reader You covered it with the Deep as with a mantle; *

People the waters stood higher than the mountains.

Reader At your rebuke they fled; *

People at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.

Reader You set the limits that they should not pass; *

People they shall not again cover the earth.

Reader O Holy One, how manifold are your works; *

People in wisdom you have made them all;

the earth is full of your creatures. Alleluia!
The Second Reading

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Please stand as you are able.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.” And he said to them, “What is it you want me to do for you?” And they said to him, “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.” But Jesus said to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” They replied, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
THE NICENE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Adapted from Children’s Sabbath Resources by Bruce Jenneker

Reader 1

On this 27th Children’s Sabbath, with people of faith all across our nation, we give thanks to God, especially for children, for our children and for every child: for the blessing they are and the blessing we may be to them, as we seek to answer the call of the prophets and do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.

Reader 2

The love of God is manifest in the Word made flesh and revealed among us as God’s own child. As sisters and brothers of Jesus, let us bring before God our prayers for children everywhere.

Intercessor

Lord Jesus Christ, you came to us first as a child in poverty and fled the threat of violence as a refugee. Help us to follow you as servant leaders to bring your love and justice to children everywhere.

People

Make us witnesses of your Gospel.

Reader 1

Our neighborhood is New York City, stretching from the sidewalks outside our buildings to all five boroughs, from members of our congregation to those who live and work in the City, and to the millions of visitors we welcome each year.

Reader 2

Our neighborhood is also our nation, the peoples of the world, and the planet that is our home.

Intercessor

You promised that when two or three of us gather in your name, you will be there in the midst of us. Give wisdom to those of who are leading us to be your witnesses in neighborhoods here at home and across the world, help us to find and train leaders for our ministries, and make us good stewards of our resources, that your work may continue to the glory of God and the welfare of people everywhere.

People

Make us witnesses of your Gospel.

Reader 1

Jesus Christ called us to be the Church and taught us that whoever would be first must be last of all and servant of all.

Reader 2

We are a rich diversity of cultures, languages, and lifestyles. We, who are many, are one body, and individually members of one another.

Intercessor

Bless our bishops, the clergy, and all the people who love and serve you.

People

Make us witnesses of your Gospel.

Reader 1

Jesus Christ saw the hunger of the thousands of people who gathered to learn from him and insisted that his disciples find food to feed them all.

Reader 2

One billion children and families live on less than one dollar a day. Nearly half of all deaths of children under five result from malnutrition—about 3 million young children every year.

Intercessor

Fill us with compassion and inspire us to work and advocate until no one is without food and all that is necessary for a healthy and fulfilling life.

People

Make us witnesses of your Gospel.
Reader 1 Nearly 30% of the world’s population is unemployed: one in every three people across the world.

Reader 2 Many are locked into the poverty of working their fingers to the bone every day taking care of somebody else’s children while forced to neglect their own, and still not being able to pay their bills.

Intercessor Guide and direct the leaders of the nations and all who make decisions for the welfare of people everywhere, that our actions will lead to change that secures a good life, offers fair remuneration, and affirms the dignity of every person.

People Make us witnesses of your Gospel.

Reader 1 Jesus Christ rejoiced in God’s care for the birds of the air and the flowers of the fields.

Reader 2 One and half million people in America are homeless; New York has the largest number of homeless people. 150 million of the world’s children live on the streets, driven there by violence, drug and alcohol abuse in the home, the death of a parent, family breakdown, war, and socioeconomic collapse.

Intercessor Open our eyes to the suffering of children and those who are most vulnerable among us; make us urgent to care for them, and diligent in our efforts to make the world we—and they—live in a more just, more kind, and more loving place.

People Make us witnesses of your Gospel.

Celebrant God of love, you shield us with a mother’s protection and embrace us with a father’s care. Enable us, young and old alike, to know such joy in your care and security in your provision that we all will delight in being your children.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution EOW p. 19

Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.

All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

An usher collects the offering.
The offering today will be designated to the Children’s Defense Fund.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [_________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The People gather around the altar for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,

you have fed us

with the bread of life and cup of salvation;

you have united us

with Christ and one another;

and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth

in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever

in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Adapted from Children’s Sabbath Resources by Bruce Jenneker

Celebrant May the wisdom, grace, and love of God strengthen you to be Christ’s heart and hands in the world; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, One God, be with you and remain with you, now and always.

All Amen.
Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People  Thanks be to God.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail.

TODAY

Whole Community Learning
10am, 14 Vesey St.
Jesus: Rebel with a Cause. Jesus didn’t rebel for rebelliousness’ sake. Nor did he oppose the unjust systems of his times merely to confront them: He had another world in view. Join Trinity parishioners and friends of all ages in weekly discussion on the meaning of Jesus’ parables, his method of upsetting the status quo, his countercultural stance, and the sublime vision that Christians the world over are still living and dying for today. Today: Toddlers to young Threes will meet in the St. Paul's Nursery and take their first Godly Play steps with a new curriculum designed for our youngest wonderers. Children and youth will explore what was so rebellious about Jesus’ compassion for children. Adults will hear about child poverty in New York City from Grace Bonilla of the Human Resources Administration and further explore Rebel Jesus, who singled out children as blessed. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/JesusRebel.

Trinity Knitters
12:30-2:30 pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
All knitters and crocheters and those who wish to learn are invited. Yarn, needles, hooks, patterns, and instruction will be provided. NEXT SUNDAY
Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2019 giving drive will launch next Sunday, October 28. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity’s core values, and the goal for 2019 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

COMING SOON
Married Life: A Gathering for Couples
6-8:30pm, Fridays, November 1 and 8, Parish Center
These engaging and informative discussions will help couples appreciate the differences that make us the unique individuals we are, but which sometimes create challenges in relationships. Come and celebrate the often-underappreciated diversity that makes being together interesting. Facilitated by Michael Bednarski, PhD of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and hosted by the Rev. Alfred Loua of Trinity’s Pastoral Care department. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. Child care is available on request.
Lecture Series: Choosing Hope
1pm, Sunday, November 4, St. Paul’s Chapel
6pm, Tuesdays, November 6, 13, St. Paul’s Chapel
Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. Over three talks, Canon David Porter, the Archbishop of Canterbury’s Chief of Staff and Strategy, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world. A light soup meal will be provided. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/ChoosingHope.

Women’s Retreat
Rest, Remember and (Re)Discover You
November 9-11, Trinity Retreat Center
Join us as we gather in the beauty of the Trinity Retreat Center in West Cornwall, CT. Offerings will include knitting as prayer, yoga, nature walks, meditation with Mother Kristin, and talks led by the wisdom teacher, the Rev. Barbara Cawthorne Crafton. Enjoy the warmth and comfort of this special place to use your time this weekend as you need. Space is limited. Please RSVP to Amiriz Sanchez in Pastoral Care at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Akari: Sculpture By Other Means
3:30-5pm, November 10, Noguchi Museum
Isamu Noguchi’s electrified paper, bamboo, and metal Akari light sculptures have quietly become among the most ubiquitous sculptures on Earth. Experience these environments that exemplify Noguchi’s concept of light as both place and object. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Dark Universe
10:30am-noon, November 17, Offsite
The Congregational Arts committee invites you to the American Museum of Natural History’s Hayden Planetarium to experience Dark Universe. Celebrate the pivotal discoveries that have led us to greater knowledge of the structure and history of the universe and our place in it—and to new frontiers for exploration. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Core Values
In October we focus on the Core Value of Compassion
When it comes to the issues of power, privilege, and gender, churches have been largely missing in action. —Elizabeth Evans
• What does this value mean to you?
• How does it affect your behavior and life?
• Are there actions or behaviors required of you because of this value?

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
2018 Holiday Retreats
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Upcoming retreats for individuals and families:

Advent Retreat: Living in Hope
December 7-9

Christmas Retreat Week
December 22-26

Want to bring your group for a retreat? Booking dates in 2019 are now available.

Learn more and book today at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Handel’s Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul's Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel’s Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity’s ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul's Chapel
Don't miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands, conductor. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

St. Paul's Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul's Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul's Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul's Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are continuing the removal of the stained glass windows but are now focusing on the north side windows. Preparations are being made to construct scaffolding throughout the nave. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

The 2018 Holiday Retreats at the Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, offer a unique opportunity for personal reflection and renewal. With retreats for individuals and groups, participants can engage in a range of activities designed to promote healing, peace, and spiritual growth. For more information or to book your stay, visit the website trinityretreatcenter.org.

Handel’s Messiah, presented by the Choir of Trinity Wall Street and the Trinity Baroque Orchestra, will be performed at St. Paul’s Chapel on selected dates throughout December. This iconic work, conducted by Julian Wachner, has a rich history, with Trinity presenting one of the first performances in North America in 1770. Trinity’s ensembles are widely regarded as among the greatest interpreters of Messiah. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah for these captivating concerts.

Join in the festive spirit with the Community Carol Sing, where carols arranged by Julian Wachner will be sung by Downtown Voices, NOVUS NY, Trinity Youth Chorus, and Stephen Sands. These performances will take place at St. Paul’s Chapel and aim to capture the essence of Christmas. Tickets can be purchased at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir is seeking volunteer singers to contribute to the new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will provide music for morning services and lead congregational hymn-singing. Interested singers should schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In, offering a space where anyone needing comfort, prayer, or companionship can connect with a Sister of St. Margaret. This ministry provides a quiet and peaceful environment for spiritual renewal.

Ministry Night, a semi-annual gathering, will shift to a more flexible schedule, meeting on the fourth Tuesday of September and January. These meetings will include discussions and planning for upcoming events and programs, as well as sharing updates with all attendees. For more information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry is an opportunity for parishioners to welcome worshippers and guests to Sunday services at 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am. Volunteers are invited to commit to serving once or twice monthly for 45 minutes. Background checks are required. For more information, contact Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.
Update: The City
Since 2014, the Trinity community has used The City, an online social media platform designed for churches, to communicate within and between Trinity’s congregational groups. In anticipation of the parent company’s shutdown of the platform in February 2019, Trinity will discontinue its use of The City November 1, 2018. Information: Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice
“Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you. Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn” (Isaiah 60:1-3). My sister and I used this verse at my mother’s burial because while she was ill, she frequently referenced it. This was the verse my grandmother would awaken her with as a child. I also remember as a child singing ‘Rise and Shine and Give God the Glory, Glory’ when I was in Sunday School.”

Choosing HOPE:
FROM ENMITY TO RECONCILIATION

November 4 | Sunday | 1pm
November 6,13 | Tuesdays | 6pm

St. Paul’s Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street

Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. As Christians, we understand our faith calls us as a reconciled people to witness to God’s love and hope, justice and mercy in a world of fear and hostility, vengeance, and oppression.

Canon David Porter, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world.

CELEBRANT, DEACON, AND PREACHER: The Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1-10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Common Worship (CW) and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
