ALL SAINTS’ DAY
Holy Eucharist Rite II
Thursday, November 1, 2018, 12:05pm

TRINITY CHURCH
THE CHAPEL OF ALL SAINTS
BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY
MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the 4th century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. The feast allows us to express our sense of communion with all those who have gone before us, whether known or unknown, who have witnessed to their faith in Christ.

This Chapel is dedicated to the honor of All the Saints, especially those who planted, served and grew the witness to Christ and the Gospel in this place.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Canticle 21: You are God

All
You are God: we praise you;
You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father:
All creation worships you.
To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you;
Father, of majesty unbounded,
your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.

You, Christ, are the king of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free
you did not shun the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come and be our judge.
Come then, Lord, and help your people,
bought with the price of your own blood,
and bring us with your saints
to glory everlasting.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And also with you.

Celebrant
Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose people are knit together in one holy Church, the mystical Body of your Son: grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All
Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The Psalm

Psalm 24:1-6

Reader        Let us read from Psalm 24 responsively by half-verse.

People        the world and all who dwell therein.

Reader        For it is God who founded it upon the seas *

People        and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

Reader        “Who can ascend the hill of the Most High, *

People        who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,

Reader        nor sworn by what is a fraud.

People        Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *

Reader        They shall receive a blessing from the Holy One *

People        and a just reward from the God of their salvation.”

Reader        Such is the generation of those who seek God, *

People        of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

The First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

Reader        A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The Word of the Lord.

People        Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?” Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.
The Homily
Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed
Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Reader
Let us pray for the Church and the world.

Blessed are you, God of every time and place.

People
You alone are worthy of praise and glory.

Reader
Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, and all bishops. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.

People
That Christ will be revealed in us.

Reader
Send your Holy Spirit on your holy Church, on the Church in the Province of the West Indies, and on the Afterschool and Summer Camp Programs of the Diocese of New York.

People
Make us all one, that the world may believe.

Reader
Strengthen all who serve the world in Christ’s name to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, freedom to those oppressed; and to proclaim to all the world the blessing and grace of God.

People
Give us courage to be brave witnesses of the Gospel.

Reader
Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.

People
Guide them in the ways of justice and peace.

Reader
Open our eyes to your handiwork in all creation. Make us faithful stewards, O God.

People
That we will cherish the world in your name.
Reader Make us alive to the needs of our community.
People Help us to share one another's joys and burdens.
Reader Bless our homes and families.
People Grant that your love will grow in our hearts.
Reader Deepen our compassion for all who suffer from sickness, grief, or trouble. Be near with your presence and power to all affected by the tsunami in Indonesia and all those rebuilding their lives in the wake of the recent hurricanes.
People May all who suffer find their strength in your presence.
Reader We remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see.
People Keep them in the embrace of your eternal love.
Reader Bless this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. Guide and direct us, O Lord.
People That your will may be done on earth.

Celebrant God of grace and glory, you know our needs before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our thoughtlessness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.
All God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All Amen.
The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The Great Thanksgiving

NZPB p. 421, adapted

Celebrant The Lord is here.
People God's Spirit is with us.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right indeed, everliving God, to give you thanks and praise through Christ your beloved Only-begotten and anointed One. You are the source of all life and goodness; through your eternal Word you have created all things from the beginning.

When we sinned and turned away you called us back to yourself and gave Jesus Christ to share our human nature. He made the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world. In him you have made us a holy people by sending upon us your holy and lifegiving Spirit.

Therefore with the faithful who rest in Christ, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:
Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant

On the night before he died Jesus Christ took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins; do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.
Celebrant
Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which we offer through Christ our great high priest.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts of bread and wine that in them we may receive the body and blood of Christ; and upon us that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power, may be renewed for the service of your reign.

United in Christ with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you,
O God, in songs of everlasting praise:

All
Blessing, honor and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant
Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant
The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The sacristans will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at the front of the center aisle in a single line. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan.

All are welcome to receive communion. Hold your hands in front of you to receive the bread, and help guide the chalice to your lips. If you wish only to receive a blessing, please cross your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

All
Holy God, ruler of earth and heaven,
we praise your glory reflected in your saints.
May we who feasted at this table
be filled with the joy of your eternal kingdom,
where Jesus is Lord,
now and for ever.
Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant
May God give you grace to follow the saints in faith and hope and love; and the blessing of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, One God, who creates, redeems, and sanctifies, be among you and remain with you, now and for ever.

All
Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant
Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People
Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Flowers

The flowers this week are given in cherished remembrance of Betty Kormick by Korin and Korey Kormick.
One year after your passing, your memory lives on in the hearts of those you loved.

After the conclusion of the service today, parishioners are invited to take home flowers from the chancel arrangement.

Choosing HOPE:
FROM ENMITY TO RECONCILIATION

November 4 | Sunday | 1pm
November 6,13 | Tuesdays | 6pm
St. Paul’s Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street

Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. As Christians, we understand our faith calls us as a reconciled people to witness to God’s love and hope, justice and mercy in a world of fear and hostility, vengeance, and oppression.

Canon David Porter, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world.

Core Values
In October we focus on the Core Value of Compassion

Christianity has a history of manipulating the Bible to reinforce patriarchy.—Stephen Mattson

• What does this value mean to you?
• How does it affect your behavior and life?
• Are there actions or behaviors required of you because of this value?

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
November 30-December 2, Trinity Retreat Center
“All Will Not Be Fair Weather” with the Rev. Stuart Hoke. Foul weather certainly has its way of clouding the picture as we trudge this road of happy destiny. Even with spiritual tools, a cloud of encouraging witnesses, and a place where we are connected at the deepest level, we will always have our humanity making its appearance. In this retreat, Stuart will focus on “self-propulsion” as a springboard for our sharings—acknowledging both our humanity and the grace that fills in the gaps between who we are and who we are called to be. Open to all persons recovering from and/or affected by their own or someone else’s addiction. The cost is $125 for a shared room, $195 for a single. Information: Amiriz Sanchez at ASanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Handel’s Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel’s Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity’s ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul’s Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
Don’t miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands and Julian Wachner, conductors. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Update: The City
Since 2014, the Trinity community has used The City, an online social media platform designed for churches, to communicate within and between Trinity’s congregational groups. In anticipation of the parent company’s shutdown of the platform in February 2019, Trinity will discontinue its use of The City November 1, 2018. Information: Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Pastoral Care
In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, please call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Team on call for the week: Kristin Miles, Sister Ann, Sister Gloria, or Sister Promise. For other pastoral needs, especially pastoral conversation about life issues, call the Rev. Kristin Kaulbach Miles, Director for Pastoral Care and Community, at 212.602.0895.

Congregational Voice
“Not that I speak in respect of want: for what I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content” (Philippians 4:11 KJV). I posted this verse on Facebook recently because some people create their own demise by trying to obtain wants instead of necessities. This verse reminds us to be content. —James Norton Bradley

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Daily scripture readings come from the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. On certain days, we remember a saint or feast of the church in the course of the service, and may use proper collects, readings, and prefaces appointed by Lesser Feasts and Fasts, A Great Cloud of Witnesses, or Holy Women, Holy Men. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), Common Worship (CW), and Scottish Liturgy 1982 (SL).
