MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philiippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

In the New Testament “the saints” means “Christian believers”: that is, all members of the church. Gradually the term “saint” came to mean the heroes of the faith, and that was how All Saints' Day on November 1 was eventually regarded. Odilo, the abbot of Cluny in the first half of the eleventh century, provided for the commemoration of All the Departed on November 2, and this Benedictine tradition spread throughout the church. The feast was abolished in England at the Reformation but has been restored to many Anglican calendars as a general Commemoration of the Faithful Departed.

This feast allows us to give thanks to God for all those who lived the faith we share with them, especially those unnamed and unknown witnesses. In many communities it is an occasion for the solemn remembrance of those who died in the past year, with the solemn reading of their names.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Acclamation

Celebrant          Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People             And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Collect for Purity

Celebrant  Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Canticle

Kontakion for the Departed

All  Give rest, O Christ,
to your servants with your saints,
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

You only are immortal,
the creator and maker of mankind;
and we are mortal,
formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return.

For so did you ordain when you created us, saying,
“You are dust, and to dust you shall return.”
All of us go down to the dust;
yet even at the grave we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Give rest, O Christ,
to your servant with your saints,
where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

The Collect of the Day

SL p. 148, adapted

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.

People  And also with you.

Celebrant  Let us pray.

O God, the Maker and Redeemer of all believers, and the hope of those we love but see no longer: Grant to the faithful departed the unsearchable benefits of Christ's passion, and by your loving wisdom and almighty power work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The Psalm

Reader Let us read Psalm 130 responsively by half-verse.
Out of the depths have I called to you;
O God, hear my voice; *
People let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
Reader If you were to note what is done amiss, *
People O God, who could stand?
Reader For there is forgiveness with you, *
People therefore you shall be feared.
Reader I wait for you, O God; my soul waits for you; *
People in your word is my hope.
Reader My soul waits for you,
more than sentries for the morning, *
People more than sentries for the morning.
Reader O Israel, wait upon God, *
People for with God there is mercy.
Reader With God there is plenteous redemption; *
People God shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon.
The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them.
In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace.
For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality.
Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them forever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.
The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.
Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

```
Let saints on earth in concert sing with those whose work is done;
One family we dwell in him, one Church, above, beneath,
E’en now by faith we join our hands with those that went before,
for all the servants of our King in heaven and earth are one.
though now divided by the stream, the narrow stream of death.
and greet the everlasting bands on the eternal shore.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788), alt.; Music: Dundee, melody from The CL Psalms of David, 1615; harm. Thomas Ravenscroft (1592?-1635?), alt.

The Holy Gospel

John 5:24-27

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life. Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Rev. C. Alfred Loua
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Form V, adapted

Reader In peace, let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Christ, have mercy.”
For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For Michael our Presiding Bishop, for Andrew, Mary, and Allen our own Bishops, for all ministers in this parish and throughout the world, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For those in positions of public trust, that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Christ.
People Christ, have mercy.
Reader For this congregation, that we may have courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Christ.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal.

We remember especially:

Joan Britton Bovers
Vonn Brochart
Robert John Daly
Ronnie E. Goswick
Zvonimir Guja
Saieed Hasnoo
Anne Howe Billings Hilton
George S. Hope
Michael Joseph Irons
Norman Johnson
Maria Menna Perper
Frank Alvin Riley, Jr.
Imogen Roche
Denise Marie Randolph Shockley
Henry Harrington Hill Todd

And those we now name...

The People name those whom they wish to remember, either silently or aloud.

People Christ, have mercy.

Reader Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

People To you, O Lord our God.

Silence

Celebrant Loving Creator of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer: Grant them your peace; let light perpetual shine upon them; and, in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.

All God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering.
The organist plays an improvisation.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant  The Lord is here.
People    God's Spirit is with us.
Celebrant  Lift up your hearts.
People    We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People    It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant  It is right indeed, everliving God, to give you thanks and praise through Christ your beloved Only-begotten and anointed One. You are the source of all life and goodness; through your eternal Word you have created all things from the beginning.

When we sinned and turned away you called us back to yourself and gave Jesus Christ to share our human nature. He made the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world. In him you have made us a holy people by sending upon us your holy and lifegiving Spirit.

Therefore with the faithful who rest in Christ, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Sanctus

Music: from Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828)
Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant

On the night before he died Jesus Christ took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins; do this as often as you drink it, to remember me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which we offer through Christ our great high priest.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts of bread and wine that in them we may receive the body and blood of Christ; and upon us that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power, may be renewed for the service of your reign.

United in Christ with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise:

All

Blessing, honor and glory be yours,
here and everywhere,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
  hallowed be your Name,
  your kingdom come,
  your will be done,
  on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
  as we forgive those
  who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
  and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
  and the glory are yours,
  now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction
BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The sacristans will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at the front of the center aisle in a single line. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan.

All are welcome to receive communion. Hold your hands in front of you to receive the bread, and help guide the chalice to your lips. If you wish only to receive a blessing, please cross your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer
SL p. 148, adapted

Please stand as you are able.

All God of love,
may the death and resurrection of Christ
bring us with the faithful departed into the peace of your eternal home.
Now send us out into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to live in the confidence of our hope and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart through Jesus Christ, our hope and our salvation.
Amen.

The Blessing
BCP p. 503, adapted

Celebrant The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the eternal covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do God’s will, working in you that which is pleasing in God’s sight; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.

Dismissal
BCP p. 366

Celebrant Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

Postlude
If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.
Married LIFE
a gathering for couples

Building Strengths and Meeting Challenges
6-8:30PM, THURSDAYS, NOVEMBER 1 AND 8
PARISH CENTER, 56 TRINITY PLACE
Dinner is provided at 6pm. Program begins at 6:30pm.

Facilitated by Michael Bednarski, PhD of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and hosted by the Rev. Alfred Loua of Trinity’s Pastoral Care department.

Take time with your spouse and other couples to gain insight into the good, the bad, and the ordinary of life in marriage.

These engaging and informative discussions will help couples appreciate the differences that make us the unique individuals we are, but which sometimes create challenges in relationships.

RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. Child care is available on request.

Choosing HOPE: FROM ENMITY TO RECONCILIATION

November 4 | Sunday | 1pm
November 6, 13 | Tuesdays | 6pm
St. Paul’s Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street

Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. As Christians, we understand our faith calls us as a reconciled people to witness to God’s love and hope, justice and mercy in a world of fear and hostility, vengeance, and oppression.

Canon David Porter, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world.

Core Values
In October we focus on the Core Value of Compassion
Christianity has a history of manipulating the Bible to reinforce patriarchy.—Stephen Mattson

• What does this value mean to you?
• How does it affect your behavior and life?
• Are there actions or behaviors required of you because of this value?

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Dark Universe
1030am-Noon, November 17, Offsite
The Congregational Arts committee invites you to the American Museum of Natural History’s Hayden Planetarium to experience Dark Universe. Celebrate the pivotal discoveries that have led us to greater knowledge of the structure and history of the universe and our place in it—and to new frontiers for exploration. Sponsored by Trinity’s Congregational Arts. Information: Charles Jamison at charles.jamison@gmail.com.

Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
November 30-December 2, Trinity Retreat Center
“All Will Not Be Fair Weather” with the Rev. Stuart Hoke. Foul weather certainly has its way of clouding the picture as we trudge this road of happy destiny. Even with spiritual tools, a cloud of encouraging witnesses, and a place where we are connected at the deepest level, we will always have our humanity making its appearance. In this retreat, Stuart will focus on “self-propulsion” as a springboard for our sharings—acknowledging both our humanity and the grace that fills in the gaps between who we are and who we are called to be. Open to all persons recovering from and/or affected by their own or someone else’s addiction. The cost is $125 for a shared room, $195 for a single. Information: Amiriz Sanchez at ASanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Handel’s Messiah
730pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel’s Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity’s ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
730pm, December 22, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
Don’t miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands and Julian Wachner, conductors. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are constructing scaffolding throughout the nave and chancel. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

What Do You Think?
Trinity’s Communications & Marketing team wants you to receive the news and information you want and need to know about Trinity’s ministries, programs, and events. Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Update: The City
Since 2014, the Trinity community has used The City, an online social media platform designed for churches, to communicate within and between Trinity’s congregational groups. In anticipation of the parent company’s shutdown of the platform in February 2019, Trinity will discontinue its use of The City November 1, 2018. Information: Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice

“Not that I speak in respect of want: for what I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content” (Philippians 4:11 KJV). I posted this verse on Facebook recently because some people create their own demise by trying to obtain wants instead of necessities. This verse reminds us to be content. —James Norton Bradley

Sr. Promise, SSM

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Daily scripture readings come from the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. On certain days, we remember a saint or feast of the church in the course of the service, and may use proper collects, readings, and prefaces appointed by Lesser Feasts and Fasts, A Great Cloud of Witnesses, or Holy Women, Holy Men. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), A New Zealand Prayer Book (NZPB), Common Worship (CW), and Scottish Liturgy 1982 (SL).

In an effort to reach a broad audience, Trinity Wall Street records its services and events for broadcast on the internet. Your attendance at a service or event constitutes your consent to be included in any filming, photographing, audio recording, or broadcast and for any other use in whole or in part, including publicity and promotion. If you prefer to avoid being filmed, please sit in the back pews on the side aisles.

As part of Trinity Wall Street’s commitment to responsible stewardship of the earth’s resources, this publication is printed on paper that is manufactured with 100% post-consumer fibers.

Assistive Listening devices are available for this service and are located at the welcome table.
