God our redeemer, in sustaining the lives of Naomi and Ruth, you gave new life to your people.
We ask that from age to age, new generations may be born to restore life and nourish the weak, by returning to you those things we once thought ours. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area for prayers at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today with Americans across the nation we observe Veterans Day on the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I. Originally called Armistice Day, commemorating the signing of the agreement that ended World War I at 11:00am on November 11, 1918, this federal holiday was changed to Veterans Day in 1954 to honor all the men and women who have served in the armed forces of the United States. Each year, special ceremonies are held at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Veterans Day, a U.S. federal holiday, is a time to honor and thank those who are serving or have served in the military and are still with us; in this it is different than Memorial Day, which is a day to remember and honor those who lost their lives in service to their country.

Acclamation

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Opening Hymn

Hymnal 705, vv. 1-2

1 As those of old their first fruits brought of vine-yard, flock, and field to God, the giver of all good, the source of bounteous yield; so we today our farm and market, shop and home, of mind, and heart, and hand.

2 A world in need now summons us to labor, love, and give; to make our life an offering to God that all may live; the Church of Christ is world redeemed by Christ-like love; all life in Christ made new.

Words: Frank von Christierson (1900-1996), alt.
Music: Forest Green, English melody; adapt. and harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
Collect for Purity

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Gloria

Hymnal S 280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, 7. you alone are the Most...
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Ruth.

Naomi her mother-in-law said to Ruth, “My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.” She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.”

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.”

Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 127

Reader
Let us read Psalm 127 in unison.

All

Unless God builds the house, *
their labor is in vain who build it.

Unless God watches over the city, *
in vain the sentries keep their vigil.

It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late; *
vain, too, to eat the bread of toil,
for God gives to the beloved sleep.

Children are a heritage from God, *
and the fruit of the womb is a gift.

Like arrows in the hand of a warrior *
are the children of one’s youth.

Happy are they who have their quiver full of them; *
they shall not be put to shame
when they contend with their enemies in the gate.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28

Reader
A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People
Thanks be to God.
"Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free,
'tis the gift to come down where we ought to be,
and when we find ourselves in the place just right,
'twill be in the valley of love and delight.

When true simplicity is gained to bow and to bend we shan't be ashamed, to turn, turn, will be our delight till by turning, turning we come round right.

Words: Joseph Brackett, Jr. (1797-1882); Music: Simple Gifts, Joseph Brackett, Jr.
Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  As Jesus taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Deacon  The Sermon

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Reader Let us pray for the Church and the world.

People Blessed are you, God of every time and place.

Reader Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, and all bishops. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.

People That Christ will be revealed in us.

Reader Send your Holy Spirit on your holy Church, on the Iglesia Episcopal de Cuba, the Episcopal Diocese of Cuba and Bishop Griselda Delgado Del Caprio, and on the Diocesan Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York.

People Make us all one, that the world may believe.

Reader Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.

People Guide them in the ways of justice and peace.
Reader  Strengthen all who serve the world in Christ’s name to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, freedom to those oppressed; and to proclaim to all the world the blessing and grace of God.

People  Give us courage to be brave witnesses of the Gospel.

Confession and Absolution  CW pp. 84, 96, adapted

Deacon  Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All  O God of compassion and love, holy is your name. In our sinfulness we cry to you to forgive, heal, and restore us. Take our guilt away, and cleanse our hearts to love and serve you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant  May almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

Prayer  For those in the Armed Forces  BCP p. 823, adapted Celebrant  On this 100th anniversary of the end of World War I at 11:00am on November 11, 1918, we bring before you all who have served in the United States military. Almighty God, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all those who have served in our armed forces at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace, strengthen them in their trials and temptations, give them courage to face the perils which beset them, and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be; and give all of us who benefit from their selfless service a true sense of gratitude, that we will honor them for the sacrifices they made on our behalf; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.
1 Almighty Father, strong to save, whose arm hath bound the restless wave, who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep: O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

2 O Christ, the Lord of hill and plain o'er which our traffic runs a main by mountain pass or valley low; wherewith all who dare the eagle's flight, and keep them by thy guard- ing hand from every peril on the land.

3 O Spirit, whom the Father sent to spread abroad the firmament; O Wind of heaven, by thy might save danger's hour; from rock and tempest, fire and foe, pro- tect them where so e'er they go; thus ever-more shall watch-ful care from every peril in the air.

4 O Trinity of love and power, our people shield in majesty of three; to us, in ev'ry place where we appear, with one accord, arise to thee glad praise from space, air, land, and sea.
THE HOLY EUCHARIST

THE PEACE

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

WELCOME

THE OFFERTORY

The organist plays an improvisation while the ushers collect the offering.

AT THE PRESENTATION

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Hymnal S 130
Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.
On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant
Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All
All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
AMEN.

† THE LORD’S PRAYER
BCP p. 364

Celebrant
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People     Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at the front of the center aisle in a single line. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant  Let us pray.
All          God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Henri-Frédéric Amiel, adapted

Celebrant  Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And the blessing of God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.
All          Amen.
Closing Hymn

Words: Robert Robinson (1735-1790); Music: Nettleton, melody from A Repository of Sacred Music, Part II, 1813; harm. Carl Haywood (b. 1949), from Songs of Praise

1. Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace; Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest be; Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter, Bind my wandering heart to praise. Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above. Praise the mount, O fix me on it. Mount of God’s unchanging love.

2. O, grace how great a debtor, Daily I’m constrained to love. Here’s my heart, Lord, take and seal it. Seal it from thy courts above.

Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Postlude

Schmücke dich, O liebe Seele, Op. 122, No. 5

Deck thyself, O soul, with gladness.

Core Values

In November we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
Interfaith Community Thanksgiving
Noon-1:30pm, Thursday, Nov. 22, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity Church Wall Street, Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, and the Interfaith Center of New York invite congregants, neighbors, and friends to gather for a meal and shared company. The doors will open at 11:30am with live music, followed by an interfaith blessing at noon and a Thanksgiving meal. The meal will be both halal and kosher. For more information on the event, to volunteer, or to RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/thanksgiving.

Book Talks with Austin Channing Brown
6:30pm, Nov. 27, St. Paul's Chapel
6:30pm, Nov. 29, St. Mary's Episcopal Church
Join Austin Channing Brown as she discusses her book I'm Still Here and invites us to confront apathy, recognize God’s ongoing work in the world, and discover how blackness—if we let it—can save us all. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/austinchanningbrown.

Silent Night at Trinity
5:30-6:30pm, Nov. 27, Trinity Church
Join Austria’s Kroll Family Singers and Trinity ensembles to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the most famous Christmas song in the world and its message, which means the same in every language: peace. According to legend, the very first time the song was performed in the United States was on Christmas Day in 1839 in front of the Hamilton Memorial in Trinity Churchyard by Rainer Singers, an Austrian folk group from Tirol. On November 27, “Silent Night” will be performed at the Hamilton Monument in Trinity’s churchyard, followed by a concert of Christmas music from Austria and around the world in the Chapel of All Saints. Information: Melissa Attebury at mattebury@trinitywallstreet.org.

Weekday Congregation Gathering
5:45-7pm, Thursday, Nov. 29, Chapel of All Saints
Do you attend Morning Prayer, the 12:05pm service, Evening Prayer, or Evensong? Come meet others who attend weekday services and enjoy fellowship, food, beverages, and music. RSVP: trinitywallstreet.org/weekday.

Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
November 30-December 2, Trinity Retreat Center
“All Will Not Be Fair Weather” with the Rev. Stuart Hoke. Foul weather certainly has its way of clouding the picture as we trudge this road of happy destiny. Even with spiritual tools, a cloud of encouraging witnesses, and a place where we are connected at the deepest level, we will always have our humanity making its appearance. In this retreat, Stuart will focus on “self-propulsion” as a springboard for our sharings—acknowledging both our humanity and the grace that fills in the gaps between who we are and who we are called to be. Open to all persons recovering from and/or affected by their own or someone else’s addiction. The cost is $125 for a shared room, $195 for a single. Information: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Care for Caregivers
11:30-3pm, Saturday, December 1, Parish Center
An Afternoon of Reflection and Replenishment—because caregivers need care, too. Join Julia Kristellar of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and the Rev. Alfred Loua for an afternoon of care. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Please RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

Gifts of Light: An Advent Collaboration
3-5pm, Sunday, December 9, St. Paul’s Chapel
“Gifts of Light” is an interactive intergenerational Advent event incorporating performances by the Movement Choir with opportunities for audience members to create their own visual performance or written art to present as their own gift of light on the altar. Gifts of Light is created and presented by Trinity’s Congregational Arts Committee in collaboration with Ministries of Trinity.

Handel’s Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel’s Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity’s ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

2018 Holiday Retreats
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul’s Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul’s Chapel
Don’t miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands and Julian Wachner, conductors. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Mindful Therapy for Anxious Times
10am-4pm, January 12, 2019, Offsite
Join psychiatrist Mark Epstein, MD, and staff from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for a day-long conference that will explore how mindful psychotherapy techniques can help manage and decrease anxiety. This conference is designed for mental health professionals and the general public who are interested in exploring the ways mindfulness can help us cope with precarious political and societal circumstances and events. Location: Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 West 55th Street. Information and to register: trinitywallstreet.org/psiconference.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Scaffolding is continuing to be built. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2019 giving appeal has launched. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity's core values, and the goal for 2019 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482. Please also join us for our annual Harvest Breakfast and Brunch, at 10am and 1pm, on Sunday, November 18, at 14 Vesey Street.

The Giving Tree
Through November 27, various locations
Make a child's wish come true this Christmas. Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts to support more than 400 children, youth and some mothers of our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House women’s shelter), Panama, Haiti, Burundi, Navajoland, Brown Bag guests, and refugee families. For some, these will be the only gifts they receive this Christmas. Stop by a tree at St. Paul's Chapel, Chapel of All Saints (Trinity Church), Parish Center (56 Trinity Place) or 14 Vesey Street (Sundays only). Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0709, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/GivingTree to learn more.

Christmas Pageant
Calling all angels, shepherds, magi and assorted barnyard animals! This year’s Christmas Pageant will be held during the 9:35am service on Sunday, December 23. There is one mandatory rehearsal on Saturday, December 22 at St. Paul’s Chapel from 10am to 12pm. To sign up, please email Wendy Barrie with your child’s name, age, preferred role and whether they are interested in a speaking part.

What Do You Think?
Trinity's Communications & Marketing team wants you to receive the news and information you want and need to know about Trinity’s ministries, programs, and events. Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul's Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation for 2019, please contact Emory Edwards at eedwards2@gmail.com.

Congregational Voice
"When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved” (John 11:33). Jesus had a genuine love for people. He demonstrated that with the death of his friend Lazarus. He had love for him and his two sisters. It moved him, not only in words but with positive actions. It’s a fine quality to imitate in our lives. Good actions motivated by a good heart and genuine love for people. I guess that’s why I stay in the background, content with helping others at the hospital. I love being the advocate for the sick and infirm. There’s a certain reward I get when I can produce a smile or ease someone’s pain even for a moment. —John M. Valdez

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words ‘JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS’ which translate as ‘I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,’ referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.
