God our redeemer, in sustaining the lives of Naomi and Ruth, you gave new life to your people. We ask that from age to age, new generations may be born to restore life and nourish the weak, by returning to you those things we once thought ours. Amen.

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision. By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

If you are not Episcopalian, a member of the Anglican Communion, Lutheran, or Catholic, you may not be familiar with the ancient tradition of commemorating women and men who have dedicated to their lives to serving Christ. As part of our tradition we lift up these individuals as examples of how we can follow in the footsteps of these saints. Not because they were perfect, but because in the full bloom of their humanness and brokenness, they lived lives of holiness, showing forth God's love with all their heart, mind and soul, while loving others as themselves.

The Book of Common Prayer (pp. 19-30) and the Revised Common Lectionary prescribe many of the saints' days observed here at Trinity Church. Further resources for learning more about the Common of Saints are A Great Cloud of Witnesses and Lesser Feasts and Fasts, which provide additional biographical information about the ministry and sacrifice of these individuals.

Charles Simeon

Priest, 1836

Charles Simeon was an inspirational leader of the Evangelical Revival in England in the early 19th century. He served as the Rector of Holy Trinity, the University Church in Cambridge for fifty-four years until his death in 1836.

Simeon was a serious young man who was so scrupulously conscientious of his unworthiness that he experienced the Eucharist as an occasion of guilt, not gladness. At Easter in 1780 he had a powerful conversion encounter with the sweetness and beauty of the risen Christ. From that moment he devoted himself to helping others know the same joy.

His enthusiasm for Christ was considered vulgar by academics and townspeople alike, and rowdy students often disrupted worship in his church. He overcame this initial hostility, and his preaching, writing, and pastoral zeal caused many to win others for Christ. He exercised his most enduring influence at “conversation parties,” where he entertained undergraduates and provided them with tea and serious discussion as an alternative to the drunkenness, idleness, and bullying which beset their peers.

He was a founder of the Church Missionary Society, and a frequent adviser on chaplaincies to the growing British overseas interests, especially in India.

Readings: Romans 10:8b-17; John 21:15-17

Ferial Day

Tuesday, November 13

Weekday

From the Latin feria meaning “free day”: in antiquity a day on which the people, especially the slaves, were not obliged to work. In the liturgical calendar of the Church, a feria is an ordinary weekday that is neither a feast nor a fast; as such it is an extension of the preceding Sunday and is assigned the collect of that Sunday. In recent official liturgical texts in English, the term “weekday” is used instead of feria or “ferial day.”

Consecration of Samuel Seabury

Wednesday, November 14

First American Bishop, 1796

After the Revolution, a secret meeting of Connecticut clergymen in Woodbury, held on March 25, 1783, named the Rev. Samuel Seabury or the Rev. Jeremiah Leaming, whichever would be able or willing, to seek episcopal consecration in England. Leaming declined; Seabury accepted, and sailed for England. He expected his negotiations with the English bishops to be easy and quick but was bitterly disappointed. After a fruitless year in London he journeyed north to Aberdeen, where he opened negotiations with the bishops of the Scottish Episcopal Church. The Scottish bishops quickly agreed to consecrate him, but on one condition: that he do all in his power to make the American Church adopt the Scottish Communion Office. This liturgy was the first true “alternative rite” in Anglican history; it remodeled and enriched the Communion Order of the English Prayer Book, so that the Eucharist might conform more closely to the shape of the ancient liturgies.

We honor Samuel Seabury not only for his perseverance in bringing the Anglican episcopate to North America, but also for his role in renewing the liturgical heritage of our communion.

George Whitefield and Francis Asbury

Evangelists; 1770, 1816

These two Englishmen came under the influence of John and Charles Wesley and emerged as two of the great figures out of the religious fervor of colonial and post-revolutionary America.

George Whitefield followed John Wesley to Georgia where he served a parish in Savannah. As he found himself differing in doctrine from both the Wesleys and the Anglican Church, he founded and was president of the first Methodist conference. He returned to America several times and his preaching sparked the Great Awakening of 1740. He preached to thousands throughout the colonies, often riding from New York to Charleston on horseback.

Francis Asbury was sent to America by John Wesley in 1771. Like Whitefield he rode many miles on horseback and became known as a gifted preacher throughout the colonies. He was the only Methodist minister to remain in America when the War for Independence broke out. When the newly independent Methodist Episcopal Church was formed, he served as one of its first two bishops. He ordained Richard Allen (commemorated on March 26), the former slave and founder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Margaret

Queen of Scotland, Helper of the Poor, 1093

Born in Hungary, Margaret was an Anglo-Saxon princess who became the consort of King Malcolm III of Scotland in 1069. She bore eight children and through her husband initiated civilizing reforms in the Scottish royal court, the Scottish Church, and the Scottish nation.

However, Margaret is chiefly remembered for her efforts on behalf of Scotland’s poor. She not only gave away large sums of money but also ensured that institutions already in place did indeed provide relief for the homeless, the hungry, and the orphaned. In addition, Margaret supplied the funds which purchased freedom for those Anglo-Saxons who had been sold into slavery by their Norman conquerors. Hence, to her title of Queen is added the still greater title for a Christian: “Helper of the Poor.”

Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Collect for Purity

_Celebrant_ Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

_All_ Amen.

Kyrie

_On most days_
_Celebrant_ Lord, have mercy.
_People_ Christ, have mercy.
_Celebrant_ Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

_On certain days_
_Celebrant_ Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

_Celebrant_ The Lord be with you.
_People_ And also with you.
_Celebrant_ Let us pray.

_The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day._

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to...
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.
The Homily

Silence follows the homily.

The Nicene Creed

On certain days, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand or continue standing as you are able.

Reader Let us pray for the Church and the world.
People You alone are worthy of praise and glory.

Reader Guide and direct all those who lead the Church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, and all bishops. Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That Christ will be revealed in us.

Reader Send your Holy Spirit on your holy Church, especially on the Iglesia Episcopal de Cuba and Bishop Delgado, and on the Sisters of St. Margaret.
People Make us all one, that the world may believe.

Reader Strengthen all who serve the world in Christ’s name to bring good news to the poor, release to captives, freedom to those oppressed; and to proclaim to all the world the blessing and grace of God.
People Give us courage to be brave witnesses of the Gospel.

Reader Inspire and lead those who hold authority in the nations of the world, especially Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor.
People Guide them in the ways of justice and peace.
Reader Open our eyes to your handiwork in all creation. Make us faithful stewards, O God.
People That we will cherish the world in your name.
Reader Make us alive to the needs of our community.
People Help us to share one another’s joys and burdens.
Reader Bless our homes and families.
People Grant that your love will grow in our hearts.
Reader Deepen our compassion for all who suffer from sickness, grief, or trouble. Be near with your presence and power to all affected by the tsunami in Indonesia and all those rebuilding their lives in the wake of the recent hurricanes.
People May all who suffer find their strength in your presence.
Reader We remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see.
People Keep them in the embrace of your eternal love.
Reader Bless this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. Guide and direct us, O Lord.
People That your will may be done on earth.
Celebrant God of grace and glory, you know our needs before we ask: Help us to ask only what accords with your will; and those good things which we dare not, or in our thoughtlessness cannot ask, grant us for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Confession and Absolution EOW p. 19

Celebrant Let us confess our sins to God.
All God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.
Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
All Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant says the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.
On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ’s Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with [__________ and] all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
    Give us today our daily bread.
    Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
    Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
    For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.
Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The sacristans will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at the front of the center aisle in a single line. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify a sacristan.

All are welcome to receive communion. Hold your hands in front of you to receive the bread, and help guide the chalice to your lips. If you wish only to receive a blessing, please cross your arms across your chest. Gluten-free wafers are available.

The organist plays an improvisation while communion is received.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All God of abundance,

you have fed us

with the bread of life and cup of salvation;

you have united us

with Christ and one another;

and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.

Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit,

that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant The blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever.

All Amen.
Dismissal

Celebrant Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
People Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar area.

Core Values

In November we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

Harvest Breakfast and Harvest Brunch
Trinity celebrates the Ingathering of 2019 stewardship pledges at all four Sunday services. All are invited to the Harvest Breakfast at 14 Vesey St. at 10am, following the 8am, 9am, and 9:15am services. The annual Harvest Brunch following the 11:15am service will also be held at 14 Vesey St. Come and attend the breakfast or brunch (or both!) and enjoy the fellowship, celebration, and a delicious meal with fellow parishioners and friends of Trinity. And if you haven’t done so yet, please make your pledge of financial support for Trinity’s mission and ministry in 2019 (learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/give or pick up a pledge packet). If you’ve already pledged, thank you!

2pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

Compline by Candlelight
8pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
The final service of the traditional monastic Ritual of the Hours, Compline—from the Latin verb complere, meaning to complete—is one of the oldest services of the Christian Church. Darkened and candlelit, St. Paul’s Chapel is the ideal environment for this weekly chant-based service featuring The Choir of Trinity Wall Street in intimate offerings of chant, improvisation, psalmody, and newly composed sacred works.

Next Sunday
Whole Community Learning
10am, 14 Vesey St.
Peer groups and children of all ages are invited to join the community for the Harvest Breakfast in the auditorium.
COMING SOON

Introduction to Brown Bag Volunteering
1:30-2:30pm, Tuesday, November 20, Parish Center
4-5pm, Wednesday, December 19, Parish Center
Brown Bag Lunch is offering training sessions for current active volunteers. Topics include strategies for conflict resolution; best practices for site conduct; and information about other volunteer opportunities at Trinity. Information or to RSVP: Rassey at rdelossantos@trinitywallstreet.org.

Interfaith Community Thanksgiving
Noon-1:30pm, Thursday, Nov. 22, St. Paul's Chapel
Trinity Church Wall Street, Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, and the Interfaith Center of New York invite congregants, neighbors, and friends to gather for a meal and shared company. The doors will open at 11:30am with live music, followed by an interfaith blessing at noon and a Thanksgiving meal. The meal will be both halal and kosher. For more information on the event, to volunteer, or to RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/thanksgiving.

Book Talks with Austin Channing Brown
6:30pm, Nov. 27, St. Paul's Chapel
6:30pm, Nov. 29, St. Mary’s Episcopal Church
Join Austin Channing Brown as she discusses her book I’m Still Here and invites us to confront apathy, recognize God’s ongoing work in the world, and discover how blackness—if we let it—can save us all. RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/austinchanningbrown.

Silent Night at Trinity
5:30-6:30pm, Nov. 27, Trinity Church
Join Austria’s Kroll Family Singers and Trinity ensembles to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the most famous Christmas song in the world and its message, which means the same in every language: peace. According to legend, the very first time the song was performed in the United States was on Christmas Day in 1839 in front of the Hamilton Memorial in Trinity Churchyard by Rainer Singers, an Austrian folk group from Tirol. On November 27, “Silent Night” will be performed at the Hamilton Monument in Trinity’s churchyard, followed by a concert of Christmas music from Austria and around the world in the Chapel of All Saints. Information: Melissa Attebury at mattebury@trinitywallstreet.org.

Weekday Congregation Gathering
5:45-7pm, Thursday, Nov. 29, Chapel of All Saints
Do you attend Morning Prayer, the 12:05pm service, Evening Prayer, or Evensong? Come meet others who attend weekday services and enjoy fellowship, food, beverages, and music. RSVP: trinitywallstreet.org/weekday.

Annual 12-Step Recovery Retreat
November 30-December 2, Trinity Retreat Center
“All Will Not Be Fair Weather” with the Rev. Stuart Hoke. Foul weather certainly has its way of clouding the picture as we trudge this road of happy destiny. Even with spiritual tools, a cloud of encouraging witnesses, and a place where we are connected at the deepest level, we will always have our humanity making its appearance. In this retreat, Stuart will focus on “self-propulsion” as a springboard for our sharings—acknowledging both our humanity and the grace that fills in the gaps between who we are and who we are called to be. Open to all persons recovering from and/or affected by their own or someone else’s addiction. The cost is $125 for a shared room, $195 for a single. Information: Amiriz Sanchez at asanchez@trinitywallstreet.org.

Care for Caregivers
11:30-3pm, Saturday, December 1, Parish Center
An Afternoon of Reflection and Replenishment—because caregivers need care, too. Join Julia Kristellar of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and the Rev. Alfred Loua for an afternoon of care. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Please RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

Gifts of Light: An Advent Collaboration
3-5pm, Sunday, December 9, St. Paul's Chapel
“Gifts of Light” is an interactive intergenerational Advent event incorporating performances by the Movement Choir with opportunities for audience members to create their own visual performance or written art to present as their own gift of light on the altar. Gifts of Light is created and presented by Trinity’s Congregational Arts Committee in collaboration with Ministries of Trinity.
Handel's Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 16, St. Paul's Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel's Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity's ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Community Carol Sing
7:30pm, December 22, St. Paul's Chapel
3pm, December 23, St. Paul's Chapel
Don't miss this extravaganza of Christmas favorites. The concert features opportunities to sing along to carols arranged by Julian Wachner, from his album The Snow Lay on the Ground. Downtown Voices; NOVUS NY; Trinity Youth Chorus; Stephen Sands and Julian Wachner, conductors. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/downtownvoices.

Mindful Therapy for Anxious Times
10am-4pm, January 12, 2019, Offsite
Join psychiatrist Mark Epstein, MD, and staff from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for a day-long conference that will explore how mindful psychotherapy techniques can help manage and decrease anxiety. This conference is designed for mental health professionals and the general public who are interested in exploring the ways mindfulness can help us cope with precarious political and societal circumstances and events. Location: Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 West 55th Street. Information and to register: trinitywallstreet.org/psiconference.

Annual Stewardship Pledge Appeal
The 2019 giving appeal has launched. Please watch your mail for the new stewardship brochure and pledge card. Stewardship is one of Trinity's core values, and the goal for 2019 is to increase the number of pledgers and households by 50% or more. If you have any questions about pledging at Trinity, please ask a member of the Stewardship Committee or contact the Rev. Elizabeth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482. Please also join us for our annual Harvest Breakfast and Brunch, at 10am and 1pm, on Sunday, November 18, at 14 Vesey Street.

The Giving Tree
Through November 27, various locations
Make a child’s wish come true this Christmas. Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts to support more than 400 children, youth and some mothers of our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House women's shelter), Panama, Haiti, Burundi, Navajoland, Brown Bag guests, and refugee families. For some, these will be the only gifts they receive this Christmas. Stop by a tree at St. Paul's Chapel, Chapel of All Saints (Trinity Church), Parish Center (56 Trinity Place) or 14 Vesey Street (Sundays only). Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0709, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/GivingTree to learn more.

Christmas Pageant
Calling all angels, shepherds, magi and assorted barnyard animals! This year's Christmas Pageant will be held during the 9:15am service on Sunday, December 23. There is one mandatory rehearsal on Saturday, December 22 at St. Paul’s Chapel from 10am to 12pm. To sign up, please email Wendy Barrie with your child's name, age, preferred role and whether they are interested in a speaking part.

What Do You Think?
Trinity’s Communications & Marketing team wants you to receive the news and information you want and need to know about Trinity’s ministries, programs, and events. Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.
St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will move to a semi-annual schedule, meeting in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation for 2019, please contact Emory Edwards at eeeds2@gmail.com.

2018 Holiday Retreats
The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Upcoming retreats for individuals and families:

Advent Retreat: Living in Hope
December 7-9
Retreat is full, waitlist is available.

Christmas Retreat Week
December 22-26
Want to bring your group for a retreat? Booking dates in 2019 are now available.

Congregational Voice
“When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved” (John 11:33). Jesus had a genuine love for people. He demonstrated that with the death of his friend Lazarus. He had love for him and his two sisters. It moved him, not only in words but with positive actions. It’s a fine quality to imitate in our lives. Good actions motivated by a good heart and genuine love for people. I guess that’s why I stay in the background, content with helping others at the hospital. I love being the advocate for the sick and infirm. There’s a certain reward I get when I can produce a smile or ease someone’s pain even for a moment. —John M. Valdez

Now Comes The Setting Sun: A Russian Orthodox Masterpiece

Friday, November 16 at 7:30pm • St. Paul’s Chapel • Free

The Choir of Trinity Wall Street; Julian Wachner, conductor

The Choir of Trinity Wall Street presents Rachmaninoff’s Vespers or All-Night Vigil, a hauntingly beautiful cornerstone of choral repertoire. In the new year, evening concerts are devoted to premieres of Trinity co-commissions, including works by Nico Muhly, David T. Little, Ellen Reid, and Daniel Schlosberg.
Choosing HOPE: FROM ENMITY TO RECONCILIATION

November 4 | Sunday | 1pm
November 6, 13 | Tuesdays | 6pm
St. Paul’s Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street

Where relationships have broken down and harm has occurred, we can live in ongoing enmity or take the difficult journey to heal and restore. As Christians, we understand our faith calls us as a reconciled people to witness to God’s love and hope, justice and mercy in a world of fear and hostility, vengeance, and oppression.

Canon David Porter, will lead us on an exploration of what this means through the lens of the conflict in Northern Ireland, the post-war experience of Coventry Cathedral, and the challenges for the global church in a changing and divided world.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Daily scripture readings come from the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. On certain days, we remember a saint or feast of the church in the course of the service, and may use proper collects, readings, and prefaces appointed by Lesser Feasts and Fasts, A Great Cloud of Witnesses, or Holy Women, Holy Men. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW) and Common Worship (CW).
