MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal Church year. It is also called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church. The beginning of the season is determined by the date of Easter, and its conclusion is determined by the date of the first Sunday of Advent. In 2018, there are twenty-seven weeks after Pentecost, spanning more than half of the entire calendar year.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, Blessing, and Dismissal are used in services. You may notice, as the summer progresses, that we will use a variety of prayers representing both traditional and expansive ways of invoking the divine.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

1 Samuel 1:9b-11d, 12-20

Reader

Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: “O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death.”

As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, “How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine.” But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time.” Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him.” And she said, “Let your servant find favor in your sight.” Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, “I have asked him of the LORD.”

People

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Cantor

Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah. Hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah, hal-le-lu-jah!

The Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

The People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Deacon: As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

The Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

The People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.
The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross forsaken, like a lamb to slaughter led,

We believe in God the Spirit, in one Church, below, above:

Earth and heaven sprang to being, all created things began,

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.

Saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,

We believe in Jesus risen, heaven's king to rule and reign,

So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Saviour, Lord and friend,

Virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.

We shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Holy Manna, melody from The Southern Harmony, 1835

The Prayers of the People

Composed by Bruce Jenneker

Reader

In peace we pray to you, Jesus Christ.

You lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do.

People

Help us to follow you.

Reader

You made us your Church. Bless our bishops, the clergy, and all the people who love and serve you; especially the Church in Bermuda and Bishop Dill, and on the Food Pantries, Soup Kitchens, and Feeding Programs of the Diocese of New York.

Reader

You cared for the world around you, the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.

People

Help us to protect the world you gave us.

Reader

You want us to live happy and good lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to make wise decisions for our nation, our state, and our city.

People

Help us to live together in unity.
Reader You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools, colleges, and universities; and bless everyone, old and young, with good work and fair wages.

People Help us to do our work well.

Reader You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Bless all in any need or difficulty, especially those affected by the wildfires in California.

People Help us to care for those who suffer.

Reader When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there with us. Bless our parish family, that we will be eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do. Guide those of us who are leading us to be your witnesses in neighborhoods here at home and across the world, help us to find and train leaders for our ministries, and make us good stewards of our resources, that your work may continue to the glory of God and the welfare of people everywhere.

People Help us to be your heart and mouth, hands and feet.

Confession and Absolution CW p. 89, adapted

Deacon We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

People Forgive us our sins.

Deacon We have not cared for the gifts of creation you give us.

People Forgive us our sins.

Deacon We have seen others being treated badly, unfairly, or unkindly, and have not gone to their aid.

People Forgive us our sins.

Deacon We have been silent when we have seen evil and dishonesty around us. We have failed to work for justice and for the dignity of every person.

People Forgive us our sins.

Deacon We have heard the good news of Christ, but have failed to share it with others.

People Forgive us our sins.

Deacon We have not loved you with all our heart, nor our neighbors as ourselves.

People Be merciful, O Lord, and forgive us our sins.

Celebrant May God who forgives all who truly repent have mercy upon you, pardon and free you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.
The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

The ushers collect the offering. Please pass the offering basket to the person next to you.

Special music occurs during the collection of the offering.

At the Presentation

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)
The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all.

Music: Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948), A Mass for a Soulful People
Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_________ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.
The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Please remain seated.
The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.

Words and Music: John L. Bell (b. 1949); ©1995, the Iona Community
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.
All God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And may God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.
All Amen.
Closing Hymn

1 For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies,
2 For the joy of human love, brother, sister, parent, child,

1 for the love which from our birth over and around us lies.
2 friends on earth, and friends above, for all gentle thoughts and mild,

Refrain

Christ, our Lord, to you we raise this, our hymn of grateful praise.

Words: Folliott S. Pierpoint, (1835-1917), alt., vv. 1, 3; Music: Dix, melody Conrad Kocher (1786-1872); arr. William Henry Monk (1823-1889); harm. The English Hymnal, 1906

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

Core Values
In November we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott and Tony Foy
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

Silent Night at Trinity
5:30-6:30pm, November 27, Trinity Church
Join Austria’s Kroll Family Singers and Trinity ensembles to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the most famous Christmas song in the world and its message, which means the same in every language: peace. According to legend, the very first time the song was performed in the United States was on Christmas Day in 1839 in front of the Hamilton Memorial in Trinity Churchyard by Rainer Singers, an Austrian folk group from Tirol. On November 27, “Silent Night” will be performed at the Hamilton Monument in Trinity’s churchyard, followed by a concert of Christmas music from Austria and around the world in the Chapel of All Saints. Information: Melissa Attebury at mattebury@trinitywallstreet.org.

Care for Caregivers
11:30-3pm, Saturday, December 1, Parish Center
An Afternoon of Reflection and Replenishment—because caregivers need care, too. Join Julia Kristellar of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute and the Rev. Alfred Loua for an afternoon of care. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Please RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/caregiver.

Spa for the Soul
10am-3pm, Saturday, December 8, Parish Center
Join Westina Matthews, retreat leader, in a contemplative day to explore The Intersectionality of all God’s Children—how the social categories of race, ethnicity, gender, class, ability, and other forms of difference inform your own faith walk and life in church. $25 includes lunch. To register: christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Gifts of Light: An Advent Collaboration
3-5pm, Sunday, December 9, St. Paul’s Chapel
“Gifts of Light” is an interactive intergenerational Advent event incorporating performances by the Movement Choir and members of The Choir of Trinity Wall Street with opportunities for audience members to create their own visual or written art to present as their own gift of light on the altar. Gifts of Light is created and presented by Trinity’s Congregational Arts Committee in collaboration with Ministries of Trinity. Information: Karla Chee-a-tow at karla@akashacompany.com or Pamela Mosley at pmosley1@verizon.net.

Handel’s Messiah
7:30pm, December 13, 14, and 17, St. Paul’s Chapel
The Choir of Trinity Wall Street and Trinity Baroque Orchestra present their acclaimed performance of Handel’s Messiah conducted by Julian Wachner. Messiah and Trinity have a long history—Trinity presented one of the first performances of the work in North America in 1770, and Trinity’s ensembles are still widely regarded as some of the greatest interpreters of the work. Purchase tickets at trinitywallstreet.org/messiah.

Mindful Therapy for Anxious Times
10am-4pm, January 12, 2019, Offsite
Join psychiatrist Mark Epstein, MD, and staff from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for a day-long conference that will explore how mindful psychotherapy techniques can help manage and decrease anxiety. This conference is designed for mental health professionals and the general public who are interested in exploring the ways mindfulness can help us cope with precarious political and societal circumstances and events. Location: Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 West 55th St. Information and to register: trinitywallstreet.org/psiconference.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers have completed the construction of the scaffolding. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

The Giving Tree
Through November 27, various locations
Make a child’s wish come true this Christmas. Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts to support more than 400 children, youth and some mothers of our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kianga House women’s shelter), Panama, Haiti, Burundi, Navajoland, Brown Bag guests, and refugee families. For some, these will be the only gifts they receive this Christmas. Stop by a tree at St. Paul’s Chapel, Chapel of All Saints (Trinity Church), Parish Center (56 Trinity Place) or 14 Vesey Street (Sundays only). Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0709, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/GivingTree to learn more.

Christmas Pageant
Calling all angels, shepherds, magi and assorted barnyard animals! This year’s Christmas Pageant will be held during the 9:15am service on Sunday, December 23. There is one mandatory rehearsal on Saturday, December 22, at St. Paul’s Chapel from 10am to 12pm. To sign up, please email Wendy Barrie with your child’s name, age, preferred role and whether they are interested in a speaking part.

What Do You Think?
Trinity’s Communications & Marketing team wants you to receive the news and information you want and need to know about Trinity’s ministries, programs, and events. Take a short online survey to tell us what you like and want more of, and what you don’t. To access the link, email Lynn Goswick at lgoswick@trinitywallstreet.org.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. All voice parts are welcome, but tenors and basses are especially encouraged to audition. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night meets in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Lenten Meditations
Every spring, Trinity parishioners and staff write reflections or contribute art or a photo for each day in the season of Lent. These are gathered in a small booklet that is mailed to parishioners and made available to friends. If you’d like to contribute a meditation for 2019, please contact Emory Edwards at eedwards2@gmail.com.

Congregational Council Nominations
To be eligible for Election: All persons who on the date of an annual election shall have attained the age of 18 years and who, for the period of one year preceding such annual election, shall have been duly enrolled on the Corporation’s records as members of the Congregation and shall have partaken of the Holy Communion within said year in the Parish and who shall have contributed to the support of the Parish by a recorded gift of any amount in the preceding year.

When considering a person for nomination please speak with the person to let them know you wish to submit their name for consideration.

All nominations should be in writing and directed to the Vicar’s Office for the attention of the Congregational Council Nominating & Leadership Development Committee. Nominations must be received by 12:00pm on Friday, December 21, 2018. Please send submissions to Summerlee Staten, Executive Assistant to the Vicar at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice

“Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets” (Matthew 7:12 KJV). This is one of my favorite verses because it is really important to me. I try to live by the golden rule and it has always lived in my heart. I think the world would be a much greater place if people were mindful of how they are to others; however, that being said, I only have control over me and I want to do my part. —Kathleen Lefevre

ANGLICAN CYCLE OF PRAYER

Today we pray for the Rt. Rev. Nicholas Dill and the Anglican Church of Bermuda.

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. The bulletin cover collect is from Revised Common Lectionary Prayers (RCLP), proposed by the Consultation on Common Texts. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS II), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Common Worship (CW) and Enriching Our Worship (EOW).
