Almighty God, you remembered the oath you swore to David and so established a glorious realm of salvation through Jesus of Nazareth, his heir. Train our eyes to see your righteous rule, that, standing firmly in hope before the powers of this world, we may heed your voice and be constant in your truth. Amen.

RCLP p. 217
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail during communion time.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Today is the last Sunday of the church year, which begins with Advent and continues through Christmas, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday and Lent, Holy Week, Easter and the Sundays of Easter, the Day of Pentecost and the Sundays after Pentecost, culminating on this, the Last Sunday after Pentecost.

This last Sunday of the year has from the earliest times focused on the whole of the saving work achieved by Jesus Christ. In this way the Last Sunday after Pentecost developed into a celebration of Christ as the head of the church and ruler of history.

It was an action of the Pope that gave this Sunday the additional, optional name of the Feast of Christ the King—The Reign of Christ. When Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King in 1925, he was convinced that the growing denial of Christ as sovereign and ruler lay at the root of the rise of secularism throughout much of Europe, and across the world. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, so the Feast of Christ the King—The Reign of Christ was instituted during a time when respect for Christ and the Church was waning.

The Last Sunday after Pentecost is preceded by three Sundays (beginning after All Saints’ Day) which focus on the “Day of the Lord”—on the coming of Christ and its significance. The intention of the Lectionary is to inform our entrance into Advent, to anticipate Christ’s coming, not only as the Holy Child of Bethlehem but as the Anointed One of God who comes to claim the loyalty of our lives and the righteous worship of our hearts.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamatio

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
Opening Hymn

Words: Carl P. Daw, Jr. (b. 1944); para. of The First Song of Isaiah
Music: Thomas Merton, Ray. W. Urwin (b. 1950)

1 Surely it is God who saves me; trusting him, I shall not fear. For the Lord defends and shields me and his saving might proclaim. Zion, lift your voice in singing; for with variation's living spring; in the day of your decease thank the Lord, his mercies sing.

2 Make his deeds known to the peoples; tell out his exalted Name. Praise the Lord, who has done great things; all his works his you has come to dwell, in your very midst, the great and Holy One of Israel.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.
The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

2 Samuel 23:1-7

Reader

A Reading from the Second Book of Samuel.

These are the last words of David: The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel: The spirit of the LORD speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue. The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God, is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land.

Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire? But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand; to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Please stand as you are able. The acclamation will be sung twice.

Cantor: Zimbabwe Alleluia, Abraham Maraire (1944-1999)

The Holy Gospel

John 18:33-37

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?” Pilate replied, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?” Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.” Pilate asked him, “So you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.
Silence follows the sermon.

The Creed

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross forsaaken, like a lamb to slaughter led,

We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, Below, above:

earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead.
saints of God in one communion, one in holiness and love.

We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame,
So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Saviour, Lord and friend,

Virgin born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
to the Father's side ascended till as judge he comes again.
We shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b. 1926); Music: Holy Manna, melody from The Southern Harmony, 1835

The Prayers of the People

In peace we pray to you, Jesus Christ.
You lived among us and called us to follow you in all we do.
Help us to follow you.
You made us your Church. Bless our bishops, the clergy, and all the people who love and serve you; especially the Lusitanian Church and Bishop Cabral, and the Diocesan Episcopal AIDS/HIV Committee.
Help us to be the Church you want us to be.
You cared for the world around you, the farmlands, the animals in the fields, the birds in the air, and the fish in the sea.
Help us to protect the world you gave us.
You want us to live happy and good lives. Guide our leaders—Donald our president, Andrew our governor, and Bill our mayor—to make wise decisions for our nation, our state, and our city.

People

Help us to live together in unity.

You sat among the teachers, asking them questions and learning from them. Bless all who teach and all who learn in our schools, colleges, and universities; and bless everyone, old and young, with good work and fair wages.

People

Help us to do our work well.

You healed the sick and comforted those in trouble. Bless all in any need or difficulty, especially those affected by the wildfires in California.

People

Help us to care for those who suffer.

When two or three of us gather in your name, you promised to be there with us. Bless our parish family, that we will be eager to be what you call us to be and do what you want us to do. Guide those who are leading us to be your witnesses in neighborhoods here at home and across the world, help us to find and train leaders for our ministries, and make us good stewards of our resources, that your work may continue to the glory of God and the welfare of people everywhere.

People

Help us to be your heart and mouth, hands and feet.

---

Confession and Absolution
CW p. 89, adapted

Deacon

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

We have not cared for the gifts of creation you give us.

People

Forgive us our sins.

Deacon

We have seen others being treated badly, unfairly, or unkindly, and have not gone to their aid.

People

Forgive us our sins.

Deacon

We have been silent when we have seen evil and dishonesty around us. We have failed to work for justice and for the dignity of every person.

People

Forgive us our sins.

Deacon

We have not loved you with all our heart, nor our neighbors as ourselves.

People

Be merciful, O Lord, and forgive us our sins.

Celebrant

May God who forgives all who truly repent have mercy upon you, pardon and free you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

All children are welcome to come to the altar.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Sung by all.

Music: Grayson Warren Brown (b. 1948), A Mass for a Soulful People
Celebrant  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All
We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [__________ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  AMEN.
The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
        hallowed be thy Name,
        thy kingdom come,
        thy will be done,
        on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Fraction

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The People come forward for communion. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail.

Special Music
Communion Hymn

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant

Life is short, and we do not have much time to gladden the hearts of those who make the journey with us. So be swift to love, and make haste to be kind. And may God, who made us, who loves us, and who travels with us, be with you now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Core Values

In November we focus on the Core Value of Social Justice

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers have completed the construction of the scaffolding. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

The Giving Tree
Through November 27, various locations
Make a child’s wish come true this Christmas. Trinity is collecting Christmas gifts to support more than 400 children, youth and some mothers of our mission partners in New York City (Hour Children and Kiangå House women’s shelter), Panama, Haiti, Burundi, Navajoland, Brown Bag guests, and refugee families. For some, these will be the only gifts they receive this Christmas. Stop by a tree at St. Paul’s Chapel, Chapel of All Saints (Trinity Church), Parish Center (56 Trinity Place) or 14 Vesey Street (Sundays only). Information: Maggy Laraque at mlaraque@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.602.0709, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/GivingTree to learn more.

Christmas Pageant
Calling all angels, shepherds, magi and assorted barnyard animals! This year’s Christmas Pageant will be held during the 9:15am service on Sunday, December 23. There is one mandatory rehearsal on Saturday, December 22 at St. Paul’s Chapel from 10am to 12pm. To sign up, please email Wendy Barrie at wbarrie@trinitywallstreet.org with your child’s name, age, preferred role and whether they are interested in a speaking part.

St. Paul’s Chapel Choir Auditions
Through December, Chapel of All Saints
The St. Paul’s Chapel Choir welcomes volunteer singers to audition for this new ensemble launching in January 2019. The Chapel Choir will sing for morning services on the first Sunday of each month at St. Paul’s Chapel and lead a congregational hymn-sing each season. All voice parts are welcome, but tenors and basses are especially encouraged to audition. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/chapelchoir.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone. Please note: there will no Sister available on Monday, November 26.

Ministry Night
Ministry Night will meets in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6pm on the fourth Tuesdays in September and January. At these meetings, chairpersons of the Congregational Council Standing Committees (arts, education, witness & outreach, community & hospitality, and membership), parishioners, and staff plan upcoming events and programs and share updates. All are welcome. For information or to RSVP, contact Summerlee Staten at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmillert@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Council Nominations
To be eligible for Election: All persons who on the date of an annual election shall have attained the age of 18 years and who, for the period of one year preceding such annual election, shall have been duly enrolled on the Corporation’s records as members of the Congregation and shall have partaken of the Holy Communion within said year in the Parish and who shall have contributed to the support of the Parish by a recorded gift of any amount in the preceding year.

When considering a person for nomination please speak with the person to let them know you wish to submit their name for consideration.

All nominations should be in writing and directed to the Vicar’s Office for the attention of the Congregational Council Nominating & Leadership Development Committee. Nominations must be received by 12:00pm on Friday, December 21, 2018. Please send submissions to Summerlee Staten, Executive Assistant to the Vicar at sstaten@trinitywallstreet.org.

The image on the bulletin cover is the Trinity Seal. Inspired by The Revelation to John 10:1–10, it represents the arrival of the first Anglican Church in the colony of New York in 1697. The seal features a “mighty angel” with a “face like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire,” straddling the sea and the land and transferring the Gospel, brought from England by the ship, to a child, a symbol of the young colony of New York. In the scroll below the angel’s feet appear the words “JURO TEMPUS NON FORE AMPLIUS” which translate as “I Swear That There Shall Be No More Delay,” referring to the urgency of establishing the Church.
