THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

HOLY EUCHARIST RITE II

DECEMBER 16, 2018, 8:00AM

St. Paul's Chapel
Broadway and Fulton Street, New York City
MISSION
In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION
We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith
“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity
“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness
“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion
“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice
“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship
“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.
By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

Advent marks the beginning of the church year, introducing the so-called “Year of Christ”—half the calendar year, twenty-seven Sundays—during which we walk with Jesus Christ from the expectation of his birth to his resurrection and the Day of Pentecost. Then follows the remaining twenty-five Sundays after Pentecost, the so-called “Year of the Church.”

In accordance with the Church’s understanding that Advent is not another Lent but a season of hopeful expectation and earnest preparation for the coming of Christ rather than a penitential one, the color of the season is blue and the candles on the Advent wreath are white and not purple. Advent invites us to share pregnant anticipation with Mary, as we in our turn wait to bear the Christ Child in our time as she did in hers.

The Advent wreath comes to us from the traditions of the furthermost northern parts of Europe. On December 13 they traditionally celebrated the Feast of Saint Lucia, a third-century martyr who brought food and aid to Christians hiding in the catacombs using a candlelit wreath to light her way, leaving her hands free to carry as much food as possible. Her feast once coincided with the winter solstice, the shortest day of the year, before calendar reforms of 1582, so her feast day became a Christian festival of light, Saint Lucia’s candlelit wreath pointing to the arrival of the Light of Christ on Christmas Day.

The evergreen wreath represents the life that remains in wood and leaf and survives in spite of the rigors of winter. The bright candlelight adorning the wreath evokes the bright starlight that, even in darkest winter, never leaves the night sky. The wreath and its lights remind us of God’s enduring and unconditional faithfulness—even in the coldest and darkest times.

Lighting the Advent wreath Individuals and families representing some of the ministries of our Core Values will light the Advent candles on each of the four Sundays of Advent.

The Eucharistic Prayer in Advent, from the Scottish Liturgy 1980, follows the traditional patterns of ancient Eucharistic Prayers and has a distinct seasonal focus, giving voice to the Advent hope and our yearning for the coming of the City of Peace in whose Light we are transformed.

We use this prayer in gratitude for the Scottish Church’s generous gift of ancient Eucharistic traditions and for the episcopal ordination in 1784 by which Samuel Seabury became the first bishop of the Episcopal Church.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation

from Canticle 16—The Song of Zechariah

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant
In the tender mercy of our God, the dawn from on high shall break upon us, to shine on those who dwell in darkness.

People
And to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath based on traditional sources, adapted

Celebrant
As we continue our Advent pilgrimage, looking forward to the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, let us in prayer and praise give voice to the hopes set forth in the Scriptures, that Christ's kingdom shall come.

The first, second, and third candles on the Advent wreath are lighted by Daniel Thomas.

Let us offer ourselves anew as witnesses to the advent of Christ’s glory, seeking to bring Christ’s light and love to those who sit in darkness.

All
O come, O come, Emmanuel;
you are our light and our salvation:
Come, Lord Jesus, come.

Canticle

Canticle 10: The Second Song of Isaiah

Seek God while God wills to be found;
call upon the Holy One while still near.

Let the wicked forsake their ways and the evil ones their thoughts;
And let them turn to the Sovereign, who will have compassion,
and to our God, who will richly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways my ways, says the Creator of the Universe.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as rain and snow fall from the heavens and return not again, but water the earth, Bringing forth life and giving growth,
seed for sowing and bread for eating,
So is my word that goes forth from my mouth;
it will not return to me empty;
But it will accomplish that which I have purposed,
and prosper in that for which I sent it.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant  God be with you.
People    And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray.

Stir up your power, O Lord, and with great might come among us; and, because we are sorely hindered by our sins, let your bountiful grace and mercy speedily help and deliver us; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever.

All        Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Zephaniah 3:14-20

Reader  A Reading from the Book of Zephaniah.

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The LORD has taken away the judgments against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak.

The LORD, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time.

And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People  Thanks be to God.
Let us read from Canticle 9 responsively by half-verse.

Surely, it is God who saves me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.
Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say, *
Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;
Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, *
and this is known in all the world.

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Philippians.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Give thanks to the Lord is saying to God’s people.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our ancestor’; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

And the crowds asked him, “What then should we do?” In reply he said to them, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.” Even tax collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, “Teacher, what should we do?” He said to them, “Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.” Soldiers also asked him, “And we, what should we do?” He said to them, “Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.”

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.” So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,

All the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,

of all that is,

seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,

eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People composed by Bruce Jenneker, based on the “O Antiphons”

Reader

In joyful expectation of Christ’s coming to redeem and save us, we pray to the Lord, saying, O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People

Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.

Reader

Come to your Church as Lord and Judge. Teach us to worship you in spirit and in truth, and guide Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the Bishops, the clergy, and all the people of God. O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People

Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.

Reader

Come to your world as Sovereign of the Nations. Kindle in us a sense of wonder at the mystery of creation, and in our common life make us faithful stewards of your bounty. We pray for the leaders of all the nations, especially for Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor. O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People

Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.

Reader

Come to us as the Wisdom from on High, gently ordering our lives in accordance with your purposes for us. Grant us the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship, and to discern where you are leading us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity. O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People

Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.

Reader

Come to those who suffer as Savior and Comforter. Be near to those who are without the resources for healthy and fulfilled lives. Break into our lives when we struggle with sickness and are weighed down by anxiety and stress. Empower us to work for justice, freedom, and peace. O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People

Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.
Reader  Come to us as Shepherd and Guardian of our souls. Support us in this life that we may live now in the confidence of your everlasting love. Give us the grace to look forward to your coming again with power and glory.

We remember those who have died, especially those whom we still love but no longer see. Give us, with all the faithful departed, a share in your victory over evil and death.

O come, O come, Emmanuel:

People  Come and break upon us, O Dayspring from on high.

Celebrant  Come to us as the Key of David. You open, and none can shut: hear our confession and lead us out of the prison of our sins into the light of your forgiving love.

All  Amen.

ConfeSsion and Absolution  composed by Bruce Jenneker

Deacon  You call us to repent and live in the nearness of your coming kingdom, but we have not opened our hearts to the glory of your coming.

People  We have sinned: forgive us and heal us.

Deacon  Your servants prepare the way of the Lord, but we have turned away from the path you set before us.

People  We have sinned: forgive us and heal us.

Deacon  You invite us to share with you the work of saving the world and making all things new, but we have rejected your vision for us.

People  We have sinned: forgive us and heal us.

Celebrant  May almighty God, who sent Jesus Christ, the Onlybegotten and Anointed One, into the world to save sinners, bring you pardon and peace, now and for ever.

All  Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant  The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People  And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please stand as you able and gather around the altar, bringing your bulletin with you.

An usher collects the offering.
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant Worship and praise belong to you, God our maker. Out of nothing, you called all worlds to be, and still you draw the universe to its fulfillment. Dawn and evening celebrate your glory till time shall be no more.

In Christ your Onlybegotten and Beloved One, the life of heaven and earth were joined, sealing the promise of a new creation, given, yet still to come. Taught by your Spirit, we who bear your threefold likeness yearn for the City of Peace, in whose light we are transfigured and the earth is transformed.

As children of your redeeming purpose who await the coming of your Christ, we offer you our praise, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending glory:

Sanctus

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
        Hosanna in the highest.
        Blést is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
        Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving God. In Jesus you showed us yourself. Our hope is built on him, the first, the last, the living one. Obedient, even to accepting death, he opened the gates of glory and calls us now to share the life of heaven.

Before he was given up to suffering and death, filled with the vision of a feast that heralded a kingdom yet to come, at supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks. He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying: “Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper, he took the cup, offered you thanks, and gave it to them, saying: “Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new covenant; it is poured out for you, and for all, that sins may be forgiven. Do this to remember me.”

We now obey the command of your Christ. We recall Christ’s blessed passion and death, Christ’s glorious resurrection and ascension; and we look for the coming of Christ’s Kingdom.

All Made one with him,
        we offer you these gifts
        and with them ourselves,
        a single, holy, living sacrifice.
Celebrant  Hear us, most loving and gracious God, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom. Help us who are baptized into the fellowship of Christ’s Body to live and work to your praise and glory.

May we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage, with Blessed Mary, the mother of our Lord, with the apostles and prophets, and with all our brothers and sisters, living and departed.

Through Christ, and with Christ and in Christ, who was and is and is to come, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory to God, Ruler of time and eternity.

All  AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All  Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your Name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
    on earth as in heaven.
    Give us today our daily bread.
    Forgive us our sins,
    as we forgive those who sin against us.
    Save us from the time of trial,
    and deliver us from evil.
    For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction  BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant  Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People  Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant  The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May Christ the Sun of Righteousness shine upon you and scatter the darkness from before your path; and the blessing of the One Holy and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, please come forward to the altar rail.

Core Values

In December we focus on the Core Value of Stewardship

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott and Toni Foy
March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

BULLETIN BOARD
Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are preparing to remove the stained glass in the west chancel window. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Giving Campaign Continues
There's still time to make your 2019 stewardship pledge to Trinity, and Advent is a great time to do so. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Mother Beth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.
