Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go to the altar rail at the end of the service.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

About this Service

“Epiphany” is a word of Greek origin and refers to an appearance, a displaying, a showing forth, a making clear or public or obvious. On this day, Christians celebrate the making known of Jesus Christ to the world. Several events in the Gospels record how Jesus was made known publicly, how he was shown or presented to the people: his birth, the coming of the Magi, his Baptism, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana.

Today we celebrate the coming of the Magi from the East to acknowledge Jesus as the King and Savior he was born to be. Three Magi—sometimes called the Three Wise Men or the Three Kings—bring gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to the Holy Child. Christian writers have interpreted the gold as a sign that Jesus is King, the frankincense as a sign that he is God, and the myrrh (used in embalming) as a sign that by his death and resurrection he is the Savior of the world. This imagery is found in the Epiphany carol “We Three Kings of Orient Are,” which has become a feature of Epiphany liturgies all over the world.

Next Sunday we celebrate Jesus’ Baptism. On the following Sundays, called Sundays after the Epiphany, our attention will be on Jesus’ public preaching of the kingdom he comes to inaugurate. On the Last Sunday after Epiphany, March 3, 2019, the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, we will read the account of the Transfiguration, the climax of the first phase of our Lord’s public ministry.

The Entrance Rite

Acclamation
from the Third Song of Isaiah BCP p. 87

The altar party is seated informally.
At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Arise, shine, and give God glory.
People Our light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon us.
Festival Responsory from Psalm 72

_Celebrant_ The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute:

_People_ The kings of Arabia and Saba offer gifts.

_Celebrant_ For God's anointed will deliver the poor who cry out in distress

_People_ and the oppressed who have no helper.

_Celebrant_ The Holy One shall redeem their lives from oppression and violence:

_People_ and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

_Celebrant_ Blest are you, O Lord our God:

_People_ You alone do wondrous deeds!

Introduction

_Celebrant_ Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, when the arrival of the Magi signals the global significance of the birth of the Christchild in Bethlehem. Today Christ is made known to the world. It is as though with the three foreigners all the world comes into the stable and comes to know the Christchild as not merely the babe of Bethlehem but the Savior of the world.

Prayer

_Celebrant_ God of time and eternity, in the wonder of the incarnation your eternal Word has brought to our eyes of faith a new and radiant vision of your glory. In Jesus Christ your Onlybegotten and Beloved we see our God made visible and so are caught up in love of the God we cannot see. In the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord.

_All_ Amen.

Gloria

_All_ Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
    Jesus Christ,
     with the Holy Spirit,
      in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, by the leading of a star you manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: Lead us, who know you now by faith, to your presence, where we may see your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the L ORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the L ORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses’ arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 72:1-5, 10-12

Reader Let us read from Psalm 72 responsively by half-verse.

Give the King your justice, O God, *
People and your righteousness to the King’s Son,
Reader That he may rule your people righteously *
People and the poor with justice;
Reader That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, *
People and the little hills bring righteousness.
Reader He shall defend the needy among the people; *
People he shall rescue the poor and crush the oppressor.
Reader He shall live as long as the sun and moon endure, *
People from one generation to another.
Reader The rulers of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute, *
People and the rulers of Arabia and Saba offer gifts.
Reader All rulers shall bow down before him, *
People and all the nations do him service.
Reader For he shall deliver the poor who cries out in distress *
People and the oppressed who has no helper.

The Second Reading

Ephesians 3:1-12

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Ephesians.

I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—assume that you have already heard of the commission of God’s grace that was given me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God’s grace that was given me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Holy Gospel

Matthew 2:1-12

Please stand as you are able.

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon  In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born.

They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage."

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Silence follows the sermon.

The Rev. C. Alfred Loua
The Nicene Creed

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant We believe in one God,
All the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
The Prayers of the People

Reader  Let us worship our Savior who is the Light of the World, and make our prayer to God, ruler of heaven and earth.

The Magi came from the east to worship your Christ: grant to Christians everywhere the spirit of adoration. Bless and guide those who lead your church, especially Michael our Presiding Bishop, Andrew our Bishop, Bishop Allen, Bishop Mary, and all the bishops, clergy, and people.

O God, we live in the security of your love.

People  Make us eager witness of the Light of Christ.

Reader  The infant Christ received gifts of gold, incense, and myrrh: accept the offering of our hearts and minds. Fill our hearts with love for you and the world you have made, and inspire our minds to celebrate your glory and serve your will.

O God, we live in the security of your love.

People  Make us eager witness of the Light of Christ.

Reader  The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdom of our God and of Christ the Onlybegotten of God: grant an abundance of peace to your world and guide the leaders of the nations, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, in the ways of justice and peace.

O God, we live in the security of your love.

People  Make us eager witness of the Light of Christ.

Reader  The Holy Family lived in exile and in the shadow of death: look in mercy on all who are poor and powerless, and all who suffer. Open our eyes to the needs of those around us and use us to see Christ in them.

O God, we live in the security of your love.

People  Make us eager witness of the Light of Christ.

Reader  Jesus shared the life of his home and family at Nazareth: in your love bless and protect our neighbors, our families and friends; and this community, that we may have the grace to live our Core Values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship; and the wisdom to discern where you are leading our us in our commitment to Neighborhood, Leadership, and Capacity.

O God, we live in the security of your love.

People  Make us eager witness of the Light of Christ.

Celebrant  God of time and eternity, we rejoice in our fellowship with the shepherds, the angels, and the Magi; with Mary, Joseph, and all the faithful departed. In your unfailing love for us and for all people, let the light of Christ shine to guide our feet and draw us ever closer in the embrace of your love; for Jesus Christ’s sake.

All  Amen.
Confession and Absolution

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we hide in the darkness of our arrogance and indifference; illuminate the darkness in our hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we refuse to see the signs of your presence all around us; open our eyes to your saving love.

Christ, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Deacon Jesus Christ, Light of the world, we are slow to respond to call to follow and serve you; draw us ever more closely to you and your light.

Lord, have mercy.

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Holy Eucharist

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

Please stand as you able and gather around the altar, bringing your bulletin with you.

An usher collects the offering.
The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Celebrant All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:

Sanctus

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

All Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!
Celebrant Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed ________, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer
Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Fraction
The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.
Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ;
and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 24, adapted

Celebrant May God Almighty who led the Magi by the shining of a star to find Christ, the Light from Light, lead you also in your pilgrimage to find the Lord: And the blessing of God almighty, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-giving Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

If you are looking for engaging the Bible in a new way for the new year, this is the group for you. Information: Yunjeong Seol at yseol@trinitywallstreet.org.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12
Spa for the Soul
10am-3pm, Parish Center, 56 Trinity Place
Making a Space for Contemplative Prayer.
Learn to rest in God through the contemplative practice of centering prayer and gather the tools and resources you will need to develop a regular prayer practice. Our study will be framed by quotations from Father Thomas Keating. The quiet day will be led by Lindsay Boyer, spiritual director, adjunct professor at The General Theological Seminary, contemplative retreat leader and coordinator of the New York City Chapter of Contemplative Outreach. $25 includes lunch. To RSVP or for more information, email christianformation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Mindful Therapy for Anxious Times

10am-4pm, Offsite
Join psychiatrist Mark Epstein, MD, and staff from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute for a day-long conference that will explore how mindful psychotherapy techniques can help manage and decrease anxiety. This conference is designed for mental health professionals and the general public who are interested in exploring the ways mindfulness can help us cope with precarious political and societal circumstances and events. Location: Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 7 West 55th St. Information and to register: trinitywallstreet.org/psiconference.

Brown Bag Lunch
12:45pm, St. Paul's Chapel
Information: trinitywallstreet.org/brownbag.

NEXT SUNDAY

Whole Community Learning
10am, 14 Vesey St.
In Unit II, we’re getting to know Jesus: Rebel Peacemaker! At the adult session this day, the Rev. Phillip Jackson talks about gun violence. Youth may make signs for the January 19 Women’s March. Children meet in their peer groups. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/wholecommunity.

Young Adults Sunday Brunch
12:45pm, Offsite
Join Trinity’s Young Adults Group for social and spiritual fellowship with other community members in their 20s and 30s! We will meet for our monthly brunch after the 11:15am service at 12:45pm on the Broadway portico. We’ll walk together to a neighborhood restaurant for brunch. Please kindly RSVP to Alan Yu or Marie Heimann at young_adults@trinitywallstreet.org.

Core Values

In January we focus on the Core Value of Faith

2019 Living the Values Quiet Retreats
Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity’s core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We’ll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You’ll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

- January 11-13: FAITH, with Bob Scott and Toni Foy
- March 22-24: INTEGRITY, with Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel
- May 3-5: COMPASSION, with Kristin Miles and Donna Riley
- July 19-21: INCLUSIVENESS, with Daniel Simons, Keith Klein, and Felicia Eve
- September 13-15: SOCIAL JUSTICE, with Joel Gibson and Roz Hall
- November 15-17: STEWARDSHIP, with Joseph and Heidi Rose

Pricing
$50/night (double occupancy)
For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation
The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

Open to adult members of Trinity congregation, staff, friends, and partners of Trinity.

More information and registration at trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.
NYC Women’s March
9:45am, Saturday, January 19, Parish Center
Join Trinity parishioners and staff for the third annual Women’s March in New York City to raise our voices for justice and equality! We will meet at the Parish Center and travel together. Information or to RSVP, email action@trinitywallstreet.org.

Whole Community Learning
10am, Sunday, January 20, 14 Vesey St.
Whole Community Learning invites all ages to learn about “Songs as Protest” as part of our observance of Martin Luther King Sunday.

MLK Sunday: This is America
11:15am, Sunday, January 20, St. Paul’s Chapel
Trinity Church’s Theologian in Residence, the Very Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, will preach at the 11:15am worship service in St. Paul’s Chapel. Dr. Douglas serves as Dean of Episcopal Divinity School at Union Theological Seminary and is the author of Stand Your Ground: Black Bodies and the Justice of God.

This is America: Experiential Learning
10am-12:30pm, Monday, January 21
St. Paul’s Chapel
“This Is America: An Experiential Learning Activity” offers an opportunity to better understand and reconsider poverty. Through exercises and simulations, participants take on the role of a family living in poverty trying to survive from month to month. The program is appropriate for ages 11 and older and will be followed by an all-community lunch at 12:30pm. Volunteers should note this is a simulation and not a game. RSVP is requested, not required. Information and to register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/mlk.

Scene & Unseen: Facing Race Through Film
February 8-9, St. Paul’s Chapel
This conference, featuring screenings of Do the Right Thing and Blindspotting, explores how cinema can reveal structural racism, foster dialogue, and ignite transformation towards healing and reconciliation. These conversations in our faith communities aren’t optional; they are the gospel. Speakers include the Rev. Dr. Kelly Brown Douglas, Melissa Harris-Perry, Greg Garrett, and Catherine Meeks. The evening of February 8 features a film screening and panel discussion on Spike Lee’s Do the Right Thing that is free and open to all. Learn more and register for the full conference at trinitywallstreet.org/unseen2019.

BULLETIN BOARD

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update
Trinity Church has embarked on a rejuvenation project to enhance the overall worship experience, make spaces accessible and welcoming, upgrade technology and infrastructure, and address deferred maintenance. To allow the work to proceed as efficiently as possible, the nave, or main body, of Trinity Church is closed until the work is substantially complete, in the spring of 2020 or possibly sooner. Update: Workers are beginning to remove the top lancet of the west chancel window; flooring in the nave is being trenched; and conduit is being installed in the attic. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.

2019 Giving Campaign Continues
There’s still time to make your 2019 stewardship pledge to Trinity. You can pick up stewardship brochures, pledge cards, and return envelopes near the entrances of Trinity’s Chapel of All Saints and St. Paul’s Chapel, or pledge online at trinitywallstreet.org/give. Information: Mother Beth Blunt at eblunt@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6482.

The Sisters are In
10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Chapel of All Saints
A Sister of St. Margaret is available for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit with someone.

Greeter Ministry
Parishioners are invited to greet regular worshippers and guests to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am Sunday services. Volunteer commitment is once or twice a month, for 45 minutes (volunteers are asked to arrive 45 minutes before the service). Volunteers are required to undergo a background check. Information: Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Flower Donations
Have flowers dedicated in honor or memory of a loved one or in celebration of a life event. A suggested donation of $150 to the Trinity Flower Fund begins the process. Information: flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sign Up for Youth Film Festival

Keep It Reel: Teens Facing Race Through Film

This youth film project will explore the topic of race through film for the 30th anniversary of Spike Lee’s Do the Right Thing. We invite high school students to share their voices, offer the downtown community an original point of view of life and race in NYC, and learn about filmmaking. To learn more, contact Jennifer Chinn at jchinn@trinitywallstreet.org.

Wanted: Friendly Faces!

At Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, we put welcome out front.

Your friendly face is needed to greet regular worshippers, guests, and visitors to the 9am, 9:15am, and 11:15am services on Sundays.

Greeters say hello, help direct worshippers into the buildings, and answer questions.

A short informal training is offered on your first day.

Requirements include a commitment to one or two services a month and a background check.

For more information, contact Dane Miller at dmiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

SERVICE PARTICIPANTS

CELEBRANT, DEACON, AND PREACHER: The Rev. C. Alfred Loua

This service of Holy Eucharist conforms to Rite II, beginning on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary (Episcopal) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Other liturgical elements may include materials written and compiled at Trinity Church, from Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Common Worship (CW), the Book of Occasional Services (BOS), and the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion.

Comments or queries about the liturgy are welcomed and should be directed to the Rev. Bruce Jenneker, Director of Liturgy, at bjenneker@trinitywallstreet.org.
