Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —Matthew 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —Philippians 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —Galatians 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”

—Matthew 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —Micah 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.”—Genesis 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.
Welcome to St. Paul’s Chapel

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus’ Table, and everyone’s voice is needed to tell the Good News of God’s love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to pray with someone confidentially, for yourself or others, go through the doors closest to the pulpit during communion time. A prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

About this Service

The Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord is celebrated each year on the Sunday following the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6. The event of Christ’s baptism is recorded in all four gospels. Luke describes it in this way: “Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized [by John] and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.’” (Luke 3:21-22).

Today the liturgy of Holy Baptism is reordered to follow the guidelines for pastoral and episcopal services proposed by the International Anglican Liturgical Consultation. These follow the pattern for the Celebration and Blessing of a Marriage in which the elements of the Marriage Rite are incorporated into the Eucharistic Rite organically rather than being inserted into it. In this way the Baptismal liturgy begins with an Introduction and Prayer at the beginning of the service and is followed by the Presentation of the Candidates. Then follows the Liturgy of the Word. After the Sermon comes the Examination of the Candidates with the Three Renunciations and the Three Declarations of Allegiance, followed by the Baptismal Covenant and the actual Baptism and Sealing with the Cross of Christ.

The giving of the Baptismal Candle lighted from the Paschal Candle comes at the very end of the liturgy, just before the Dismissal. It serves as an indication of the commissioning of those newly baptized, and all of us with them, to take the light of Christ into the world.

Introduction

Celebrant

Our Lord Jesus Christ has told us that to enter the kingdom of heaven we must be born again of water and the Spirit and has given us Baptism as the sign and seal of this new birth. From the beginning the Church received believers by Baptism. Believers’ children have also been baptized, so that with help and encouragement they should grow up in Christ and by the grace of God serve Christ all the days of their life.

Here we are washed by the Holy Spirit and made clean. Here we are clothed with Christ, dying to sin that we may live the risen life of Christ. As children of God, we have a new dignity and God calls us to fullness of life.

Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Holy God, Source of life and Parent of the whole human family, at the baptism of Jesus you revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit: grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we will be faithful to our identity as your children and our calling as members of Christ’s body, through the same Jesus Christ who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Celebrant Let us pray.

God of grace and glory, who at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into Christ's Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my sight, and honored, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life.

Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.
The Psalm

Psalm 29:1-6, 10-11

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.
Verses are chanted on the reciting tone; change pitch on underlined syllables and with each new line of text.

the voice of God is a voice of splendor.

REFRAIN

and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

God sits enthroned above the flood, *
enthroned as Sovereign for evermore.

REFRAIN

God shall give strength to the people; *
God shall give the people the blessing of peace.

The Second Reading

Acts 8:14-17

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now when the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Reader After the reading of the Gospel, all children are invited to follow the cross to Children’s Chapel. They will return at the Baptism.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 3:15-17, 21-22

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, “I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Thanksgiving over the Water

The Celebrant blesses the water, first saying

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water.

Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Baptism

BCP p. 307

Each Candidate comes forward with their Parents and Godparents and is presented by name to the Celebrant, who then immerses or pours water upon the Candidate, saying Celebrant N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

A Priest places a hand on the person's head, using sacred Chrism to mark on the forehead the sign of the cross and saying to each one

Priest N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

All Amen.

When the Baptism has been completed for all Candidates, the Celebrant prays over them, saying

Celebrant Let us pray.

Please stand as you are able.

All Heavenly Father,
we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit
you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace.
Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit.
Give them an inquiring and discerning heart,
the courage to will and to persevere,
aspirit to know and to love you,
and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works.

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

EOW p. 63, adapted/CW p. 270

Celebrant

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.
And now we give you thanks because, in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore, as the morning stars sing your praises, we join the heavenly chorus and all creation as we shout with joy:

Sanctus

Music: William Mathias (1934-1992)

Celebrant

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering.

Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this to remember me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed, and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

All

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!
Celebrant  Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed _______, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

All  AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer  BCP p. 364

Celebrant  As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All  Our Father in heaven,
      hallowed be your Name,
      your kingdom come,
      your will be done,
      on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
      as we forgive those
      who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
      and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
      and the glory are yours,
      now and for ever. Amen.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to share the Gifts of God offered at this table, including children. Whoever you are, wherever you are in your life's journey, you are welcome here.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, eat the bread immediately, and then take a sip from the chalice. Please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips. You may choose to dip the bread in the wine and then eat it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip it in the wine and place on your tongue. You may receive both the bread and the wine, or only the bread or only the wine, as you choose.

Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like to pray confidentially with someone, for yourself or for others, please go through the doors closest to the pulpit and a prayer minister will meet you in the foyer.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation Update

Update: Workers are beginning to remove the top lancet of the west chancel window; flooring in the nave is being trench; and conduit is being installed in the attic. Demolition is beginning on the floor outside the Chapel of All Saints. Want to see the rejuvenation up close? You can follow the work at trinitywallstreet.org/rejuvenation.
